

Bellefonte, Pa., January 7, 1910.

P. GRAY MEEK, EDITOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Paid strictly in advance	$1.00
Paid before expiration of year	1.50
Paid after expiration of year	2.00

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats in every election district in Centre county are requested to meet at the usual places for holding caucuses on Saturday, January 22nd, 1910, for the purpose of nominating candidates for township, ward, borough and precinct offices, to be voted for at the February election. The result of the caucuses must be returned to the County Chairman so that the same may be filed with the County Commissioners not later than January 26th, 1910.

W. D. ZERBY, County Chairman.

Will Please Democrats Generally.

The WATCHMAN is pleased to learn that Senator GEORGE M. DIMELING, of this district, has at length acceded to the demands of his friends, and the party generally throughout the district, and will announce himself as a candidate for re-election to the position he filled so acceptably to the people during the two last sessions of the Senate. Mr. DIMELING will not be a candidate because the position is either a pleasant or profitable one for him, but for the reason that it is the almost unanimous wish of the Democrats of the district, that he accept another nomination, and carry the banner of Democracy in the contest that ends with next November's election.

Since Centre and Clearfield have constituted a district it has always been customary to concede two senatorial terms to the nominee, provided his efforts have been exerted for the benefit of his constituents and his actions such that his party and the people generally approved. That Senator DIMELING filed this bill, even his political opponents will concede, and that he made one of the most attentive, influential and best Senators the district has ever had every Democrat is pleased to acknowledge.

In addition to Mr. DIMELING's services to his own district, such has been his record on general legislation and his usefulness as a Representative that Governor STUART has just named him, along with Hon. W. U. HENSLY, one of the greatest lawyers of the State and Hon. JOHN M. FLINN, one of the leading and ablest Democrats of the House, as a minority member of the committee to prepare and present a new election law to be acted upon at the next meeting of the Legislature. This, of itself, is an acknowledgment of Mr. DIMELING's worth as a Senator, and his standing among his fellow law-makers that his district may well feel proud of, and makes a double reason why his conclusion to allow himself to be made a candidate for re-election, will be acceptable news to the voters generally.

We have the very highest official authority for stating that whiskey is whiskey, whatever else it smells like on the breath.

SMITH.—On Friday evening, December 21st, Mrs. Claude W. Smith died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elise, in Milesburg, after an illness of seven months. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elise and was about thirty-five years of age. In 1897 she was united in marriage to Claude Smith and since that, up until her late serious illness, she lived in Bellefonte. She was a member of the Methodist church and a woman of the most exalted christian character. Her parents and her husband are her only survivors. The funeral was held last Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

WILLIAM H. RUNKLE.—William H. Runkle, a native Centre countyman, died at his home in York early last week, after a brief illness. He was born in Pennsylvania and for a number of years kept the hotel at Centre Hall. Eight years ago he sold out there and moved to York where he also engaged in the hotel business until several years ago when he returned to his retirement therefrom. He was about forty-seven years old and is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Pearl Condo, both of York. The funeral was held last Thursday, burial being made in that city.

BLOOM.—Word has been received by friends in this county of the death of Mrs. Sarah Bloom, at the home of her son, Rev. John Hess, in Kansas. She was sixty-eight years old and was born at Lemont, being a member of the well known Whitehill family. She was twice married, the first time to Thomas Hess, by whom she had one son, Rev. Hess. Her second husband was William Bloom, who died a number of years ago, after which Mrs. Bloom went to Kansas to live with her son.

MAYES.—Mrs. Mary Mayes, one of the best known women of Boalsburg, died last Friday night of general infirmities, aged seventy-one years. She was a member of the Methodist church and an earnest christian woman. Surviving her [is one daughter, Mrs. Peter Ishler, of Boalsburg, with whom she made her home. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

GOHEEN.—John Calvin Goheen, a member of one of Centre county's best known families and who for a number of years has been one of Tyrone's prominent merchants, died at his home in that place at an early hour last Friday morning. He had not been in good health for several years and when diabetes complicated his illness some weeks ago he grew rapidly worse and died as above stated.

He was born near Rock Springs, this county, and was 52 years, 2 months and 1 day old. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Goheen and his early life was spent on the farm where he was born. Twenty-two years ago he and his brother, J. M. Goheen, went to Tyrone and engaged in the mercantile business under the firm name of J. C. Goheen & Bro., in which business he has been engaged ever since. Though quiet and unassuming he was also public spirited and progressive and a man who was universally esteemed by all who knew him. He was a member of the Tyrone Lodge of Masons and of the First Presbyterian church. His death, by the way was the seventh in the Goheen family in the short space of two years.

On February 16th, 1887, he was united in marriage to Ida M. McWilliams, of Graysville, who survives him together with their four sons and one daughter, Paul Milliken, Ruth May, John Boyd, William McWilliams, and Harry Rittenhouse. He is also survived by two brothers and three sisters, J. McWilliams and Robert G. Goheen, Mrs. Ella Gardner, Mrs. Annie McWilliams and Miss Belle Goheen.

Funeral services were held at his late home at 1:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, after which burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

LEE.—Jeremiah Lee, a well known Nittany valley farmer, died quite suddenly at his home near Hubersburg about six o'clock last Thursday evening. After attending his supper he decided to drive to Hubersburg and went out to the barn and hitched a horse in the buggy. While fixing something about the horse the horse threw its head around and struck Mr. Lee hard enough to push him against the barn from which he fell to the ground and died almost instantly. Death was due to apoplexy and not the result of any injury sustained in being thrown against the barn by the horse, though the slight shock may have hastened the stroke.

Mr. Lee was fifty-nine years old and had lived in Nittany valley most of his life, where he was universally esteemed. He is survived by his wife and a family of children. The funeral was held on Monday, burial being made at Hubersburg.

DEINVIILLERS.—Camille S. Deinviillers, a former resident of Philipsburg, burgess of the borough of Cresson and engineer in charge of construction of the Pennsylvania railroad, died at his home in Cresson at one o'clock on Sunday afternoon, after just one week's illness with pneumonia. Mr. Deinviillers was of French parentage, was born at Germantown and was fifty-seven years old. His death removes another of the band of men who were with the Collins brothers in Brazil in 1878 on their ill-fated contract to build the Madeira-Marmore railroad. Upon his return to this country he entered the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company and had been connected with it in an engineering capacity ever since.

WITMER.—Mrs. Sarah Witmer, wife of the venerable William Witmer, of Buffalo Run, died at four o'clock on Christmas morning. She had been a sufferer for a year or more with cancer and recently underwent an operation but without avail. She was seventy-five years old, a member of the Lutheran church and a kind, neighborly woman. In addition to her husband she is survived by one brother, Samuel, of Wallace Run; and two sisters, Mrs. King and Mrs. Romig, both of Salona. Funeral services were held in the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, December 27th. Rev. Fred W. Barry, of the Lutheran church, officiated, and interment was made in the Meyers cemetery.

STUART.—Miss Priscilla Ann Stuart died last week at the home of her sister, Miss Emma E. Stuart, 184 Sprague avenue, Bellevue, a suburb of Pittsburgh, where she had made her home the past few years. She was seventy-four years old and was born at Boalsburg, this county, where most of her life was spent. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and in addition to her sister is survived by two brothers, John W. Stuart, of State College, and Harry S. Stuart, of Sandy Ridge.

BELL.—Judge Martin Bell, of Hollidaysburg, was found dead in bed at his home last Sunday morning. His health had been much impaired for three years or more and his death was due to an affection of the heart. Mr. Bell was serving his second term as judge of Blair county, his commission running to 1914. He was quite well known in Bellefonte, having at various times presided over Centre county court.

POORMAN.—Mrs. Tillie Poorman, of Snow Shoe, underwent an operation in the Lock Haven hospital last week and so serious was its nature that she died on Friday evening. She was forty-one years of age. The remains were taken to her home in Snow Shoe on Saturday and the funeral held on Sunday.

GARDNER.—In the death of Andrew Jackson Gardner, at his home in Howard, a long and useful life has come to an end and that town has lost one of its best known and prominent citizens. Mr. Gardner's death, which was simply the wearing out of a once vigorous constitution, occurred at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and was calm and peaceful. For several days his end had been anticipated and when it finally came he slept away as calmly and peacefully as a child.

He was born in Liberty township and was eighty-eight years old on the 22nd of last November. When a young man he learned the carpenter's trade, a vocation he followed until age compelled him to retire. Sixty years ago he moved to Howard from Liberty township and that place was his home ever since. He was a member of the Disciple church since youth and for sixty years was a leading elder. He was the last of the three trustees to whom the Disciple church of Howard was originally deeded, an upright citizen and had the esteem and respect of all who knew him.

His wife, who was Miss Catharine Lucas, died in October, 1906, but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. Fannie D. Leathers, of Howard; Mrs. Jennie Shutt, of Warren; W. H. Gardner, of Pittsburg; Mitchell L., of Bellefonte; and W. R., of Howard. The funeral will be held at two o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, Rev. R. F. Delmont, of Tioga county, an old personal friend, will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. H. D. Thompson.

WOODS.—Miss Ellen Woods died at seven o'clock on Tuesday morning in her apartments in the Brockerhoff building on Bishop street. She had not been in good health for several years but had only been seriously ill the past two or three months.

Deceased was a daughter of James and Margaret Woods and was born at Potzers Mills sixty-five years ago on the twentieth of last March. She had been a resident of Bellefonte, however, most of her life. Her vocation was dressmaking and she worked up until her last serious illness. Miss Ellen, as she was known to most of the older residents of the town, was a woman of strong personality, pleasing manner and most charitably inclined. Her apartments were invariably an asylum for some one in need of a friend and her life among us was one that will be cherished in pleasant memories.

Surviving her are two sisters and four brothers, as follows: Mrs. Theodore Kelly, Mrs. Henry Rothrock, John, James, William and Edward. The funeral was held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

KREBS.—After only a week's illness with pneumonia John C. Krebs died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Charles Smith, in Altoona, at nine o'clock on Christmas evening. He was twenty-five years old and was born at Pine Grove Mills, this county. When quite a young man he came to Bellefonte with his mother and learned the trade of a machinist at Lingle's foundry. Several years ago he went to Altoona and secured a good position with the Pennsylvania railroad company and was well liked by his employers. On Thanksgiving day he was married to an estimable young woman of Altoona, who with his mother are his immediate survivors. He was a member of the Lutheran church and a model and industrious young man. The funeral was held on December 28th, burial being made in Altoona.

WILLIAMS.—A. Y. Williams, the well known miller of Port Matilda, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. Several weeks ago he got one of his hands caught in some of the machinery in the mill and had the member badly crushed but he was getting along all right, apparently, and his hand healing nicely. When he retired on Wednesday evening he did not complain of any illness so that it was a great shock to his family to find him dead yesterday morning. He was about sixty years old and all his life had been spent at Port Matilda and vicinity, though of late he was also interested in the mill at Bald Eagle. He is survived by quite a large family of children. At this writing we have been unable to learn the arrangements for the funeral.

HAIG.—Mrs. Emma Hoffer Haig died at her home in Oak Lane, Philadelphia, on Monday last week, just a week after having given birth to a little daughter. She was thirty-eight years old and was born at Centre Hall, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffer, deceased. Among her survivors are Mrs. A. C. Mingle, Christ and Miss Fannie Hoffer, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Mingle attended the funeral which was held last Thursday.

GINGERICH.—Gordon Gingerich, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gingerich, of Martha, died last Saturday after only a few week's illness with pneumonia. He was only a little over twenty-one years of age and was a bright and estimable young man whose death is mourned by a large circle of friends. Burial was made in the Williams cemetery on Monday afternoon.

BOAL.—William Boal, one of the oldest residents of Potter township, died at his home at Colyer on Tuesday. He was eighty years old and his death was the result of general infirmities. The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon.

REBER.—Capt. William F. Reber died at the Masonic home in Philadelphia on Wednesday morning after a critical illness of ten days, though he had not been in good health for several years.

He was born at Nittany fifty eight years ago and after growing to manhood read law and also studied stenography. He was admitted to the Centre county bar but later was appointed official court stenographer for this judicial district. He served in this capacity until Governor Pattison was sworn into office in January, 1891, when Mr. Reber was appointed his executive clerk. At the close of Governor Pattison's administration he accepted a position in Philadelphia and has been located there ever since with the exception of a short time he was at State College in charge of the hotel there. During his residence in Bellefonte he joined the National Guard and was finally elected captain of Company B, a position he held until going to Harrisburg. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and was a past master of the Bellefonte Lodge.

While living in Bellefonte he was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Butts, who survives with two children, Malcolm and Miriam. He also leaves one brother, Louis E. Reber, dean of the department of engineering University of Wisconsin, and three sisters, Mrs. John H. Beck, of Nittany; Mrs. Harry Krape, of Lock Haven; and Mrs. Walker, of Williamsport. The remains will be brought to Bellefonte this morning and taken to the Masonic Temple where the funeral services will be held, to which the relatives and near friends are invited. Burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

DIEHL.—Following just about a year after the death of her husband Mrs. Ellen Diehl, widow of the late Samuel Diehl, died in the Bellefonte hospital at 11:30 o'clock on Tuesday night. She had been in poor health for over a year and her husband's death naturally had a depressing effect. Six weeks or more ago she was taken to the hospital and underwent an operation but her condition was so complicated that there was little hope of her recovery from that time on.

Deceased was born at Laurelton, Union county, May 5th, 1853. Her maiden name was Miss Ellen King. After her marriage to Mr. Diehl the family lived a number of years in Anaroburg and later went to California. They came to Bellefonte about twenty years ago and this had been her home since. She was a regular attendant of the Methodist church and a kind, neighborly woman. She is survived by one son, Harry Diehl, and one sister, residing in Laurelton. Funeral services were held at the house yesterday evening and this morning the remains will be taken to Laurelton for interment.

HUNTER.—Miss Jennie Hunter, formerly of Boalsburg, died on Sunday at the home of Mrs. James Stuart, in Pittsburg, just one week after Mrs. Stuart's sister-in-law, Miss Priscilla Stuart, died at the same place. Miss Hunter a number of years ago did private tutoring but of late she spent a good part of the time at the home of Mrs. Stuart. The remains were taken to Boalsburg where the funeral was held on Tuesday.

The Wingham hunting party of Greenbriar killed five bears during the past season.

We call the attention of our readers to the ad of Joseph Bros. & Co., in this issue. They have a story to tell that will interest all the ladies.

George Chambers has moved into the Thal house on Thomas street and E. Torsel is again occupying the little shop next the Potter—Hoy ware house.

On Tuesday testimony was taken in Centre Hall for and against granting a license to James W. Runkle, landlord of the Centre Hall hotel. The attorneys interested in the case were William C. Heinle, N. B. Spangler and J. Kennedy Johnston Esqs. The testimony will be presented and the case argued before Judge Orvis tomorrow at adjourned license court.

The ice men and private firms and individuals will have no just cause of complaint if they fail in getting a liberal supply of ice for next summer. The cold weather of the past month has resulted in ice from eight inches to a foot in thickness and of a very good quality. The big bulk of it has already been harvested though the dealers have not yet put up their full supply.

Wilson W. Gephart, who returned home several weeks ago from a nine month's sojourn in Oklahoma, has decided that Bellefonte is just about good enough for him and has accepted a position with the Potter—Hoy hardware company. Wilson liked the variety of life and the general bigness of the west but he was not very greatly enamored of the high wind and sand storms as well as a number of other things.

—The people of Bellefonte should bear in mind that revival meetings are now being held in the Methodist church every evening during the week at 7:30 o'clock, except Saturday evening, and on Wednesday and Friday afternoons from four to five o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox, with the assistance of Revs. Quimby and Shuey, has arranged to make these meetings as interesting and stirring as possible and urges all to attend and lend a helping hand. You are invited to come each evening.

BLAIR—BIBLE.—The home of Dr. and Mrs. George P. Bible, in Philadelphia, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, December 28th, when their daughter, Miss Helen Marie Bible, became the bride of Reno Russel Blair, of this place. Only a few invited guests were present to witness the ceremony which took place at six o'clock in the evening and which was performed by Dr. Charles C. Pierce, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church. The attendants were Miss Isabel Snowden as bridesmaid, and Dr. H. A. Blair, of Curwensville, a brother of the bridegroom, as best man.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin, made en train with silver trimmings and a veil caught up with lillies of the valley. She carried a white prayer book instead of a bouquet. Miss Mary Bradley, of this place, played the wedding march and was accompanied by Miss Dorothy M. Bible on the violin. The house decorations were of holly and red carnations.

Both young people are well and favorably known in Bellefonte, the bride, aside from being the daughter of old Centre countyans, has during the past few years spent considerable time in Bellefonte at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Benjamin Bradley and is quite an accomplished young woman. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Blair, of this place, and is engaged with his father in the jewelry business. The young couple are now enjoying their honeymoon and will be at home to their friends after February first in the house on Curtin street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gray.

HARVEY—ORVIS.—A Bellefonte wedding on Christmas evening was that of Miss Caroline Elizabeth Orvis, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, and Lewis Blaney Harvey, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed at the Orvis home on east Linn street at six o'clock in the evening by Dr. J. Allison Platts, in the presence of only the immediate friends of the bride, and with no attendants. A little bit of romance connected with the wedding is that it occurred on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Orvis.

After the ceremony was over the newly married couple and guests present partook of an elaborate dinner which served the double purpose of a marriage feast and a Christmas dinner, and later Mr. and Mrs. Harvey left on an extended wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they will take up their residence in Philadelphia.

HOMAN—KREBS.—Waldo E. Homan, of Oak Hall, and Miss May Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, were united in marriage at Bethany Lutheran parsonage, Altoona, by the bride's former pastor, the Rev. Ralph H. Bergstresser. The beautiful wedding ceremony of the Lutheran ritual was used and after the marriage a wedding supper was served. The bride looked charming in a princess gown of pale blue. Mrs. Homan is a daughter of D. H. Krebs, of the Glades, and the groom is a son of B. F. Homan, a well known farmer, of Oak Hall. After spending several days in Altoona the happy couple returned to Oak Hall, and in the spring will assume the management of the Homan farm. They have the best wishes of their many friends as they start out in life together.

MARKLE—SHOPE.—At six o'clock on Christmas evening W. F. Markle, of State College, and Miss Ada V. Shope, of Howard, were united in marriage by Rev. Fred W. Barry, pastor of the Lutheran church, at his residence on Spring street, this place. The young couple were attended by Miss Louise Shope, as bridesmaid, and Clarence L. Rine as best man. The bride is a daughter of Edward A. Shope and one of the most popular young women in Howard. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Markle, of State College, and is in the employ of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company. They will make their home at State College though they will not go to house-keeping until spring.

FOSTER—BEALE.—The marriage of Miss Mary Riddle Beale, daughter of Mrs. David J. Beale and the late Rev. D. J. Beale, quite well known in Bellefonte, and William Wetherill Foster, of Philadelphia, took place at the home of the bride's mother in that city on the evening of December 28th. The ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Wilson T. M. Beale, of Salisbury, Md., assisted by Rev. Lawrence M. Coffelt. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. John C. C. Beale, of Philadelphia.

DEHASS—SPANGLER.—On Thursday last week P. Edward DeHass and Miss Tacie Spangler, both of Blanchard, went to Philipsburg where at six o'clock that evening they were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Nestlerode. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. J. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. DeHass will make their home at Blanchard.

SCHOLL—ARMSTRONG.—A quiet wedding was celebrated at the M. E. parsonage on east Linn street, on Monday evening last week when William Scholl, of Jersey City, N. J., but formerly of this place, and Mrs. Mary Armstrong were united in marriage by Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox.

RISHEL—HOGARTH.—A Christmastic wedding that was quite a surprise to residents of Bellefonte and the surrounding community was that of the venerable John Rishel, of Benner township, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hogarth, of this place, who, on Tuesday afternoon of last week were quietly married at the Presbyterian parsonage by Dr. J. Allison Platts.

LEATHERS—HARVEY.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin A. Harvey, at State College, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday of last week when their daughter, Miss Alma Rebecca Harvey, was united in marriage to Alfred Cookman Leathers, of Howard. Over one hundred guests were present to witness the ceremony which took place at high noon and was performed by Rev. J. K. McReilly, of the Methodist church. The attendants were Miss Kathryn Harvey as bridesmaid, J. T. Leathers best man, and Pauline Neff and Rosetta Yearick flower girls.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Leathers were taken in an automobile to Milesburg where they boarded the train for the south where their honeymoon is being spent. Upon their return they will take up their residence at Howard where the bridegroom is a member of the firm of Leathers Brothers.

—Miss Mira Humes entertained at dinner, Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. A. G. Morris.

JURORS FOR FEBRUARY COURT.—Jury commissioners J. Adam Hazel and Clement M. Gramley completed the filling of the jury wheel for the ensuing year the day before Christmas and last Thursday, December 30th, drew the jury for the February term of court which will convene on the fourth Monday, February 28th. The names of one hundred and twelve men were drawn and you can look over the following list and see if your name is there:

LIST OF GRAND JURORS DRAWN FOR WEEK BEGINNING FEBRUARY 28TH, 1910.
John Behrer, farmer	Patton
S. C. Bathgate, farmer	College
Geo. S. Berryhill, laborer	Liberty
John Deim, plasterer	S. Philipsburg
Adam Fisher, farmer	Boggs
Samuel S. Grebe, brickmaker	State College
H. E. Holtzworth, salesman	Unionville
Clarence C. Herr, bookkeeper	Bellefonte
James Houser, painter	Benner
Frank Hess, hotel	Rush
Frank Huntsinger, farmer	Benner
W. B. Hall, foreman	Snow Shoe Twp
W. Hassel Montgomery, clothier	Bellefonte
Emanuel Noll, agent	Spring
David Robb, farmer	Liberty
Alfred Rishel, farmer	Potter
Jacob Sharer, farmer	Potter
R. B. Treaster, farmer	Potter
Francis Ulrich, clerk	Millheim
Jacob Weber, painter	State College
John Woods, farmer	Spring
W. K. Winkbech, farmer	Haines
William Walker, farmer	Philipsburg
S. G. Walker, laborer	Greeg
LIST OF TRAVERSE JURORS DRAWN FOR THE FOURTH MONDAY OF FEBRUARY, 1910.
C. W. Atherton, clerk	Philipsburg
Harry H. Branstetter, farmer	Halfmoon
W. H. Buchheit, merchant	Philipsburg
Chas. H. Bartholomew, clerk	Centre Hall
William Bottorf, fireman	Patton
Robert Brennan Jr., farmer	College
Harper Baker, baker	Philipsburg
John Butler, gentleman	Marion
James H. Corl, clerk	Bellefonte
Thomas Caldwell, plumber	Bellefonte
Emanuel Corman, carpenter	Potter
W. J. Carlin, justice	Miles
Claude Cook, manager	Bellefonte
Paul Carner, farmer	Walker
Frank Dorman, farmer	Spring
Albert Ernest, laborer	Rush
K. E. Emerick, farmer	Union
J. P. Frank, gentleman	Philipsburg
J. S. Fleck, teamster	Bellefonte
William Groff, druggist	Millheim
Ed. Grove, liveryman	Milesburg
J. D. Hunter, stationer	Bellefonte
Uriah Housel, laborer	Milesburg
W. W. Hackman, farmer	Miles
Alfred Jones, merchant	Philipsburg
C. H. Kline, foreman	State College
George Lamb, salesman	Philipsburg
J. F. Loe, farmer	Haines
M. D. Lane, laborer	Rush
Lewis Mensch, farmer	Haines
J. Thomas Mann, laborer	Howard Boro
Sammer Miller, farmer	Perkasie
P. Gray Murray, foreman	Boggs
G. W. Miller, carpenter	Spring
James Nolan, farmer	Walker
A. A. Pletcher, salesman	Howard
J. A. Piper, farmer	Marion
Joseph Reese, farmer	Boggs
John Reckey, farmer	Walker
James Roush, blacksmith	Haines
Foster Sharrer, farmer	Spring
L. E. Stover, hotel	Penn
J. B. Stere, merchant	Unionville
C. H. Shaffer, farmer	Miles
John Trafford, clerk	Bellefonte
Oliver Wimmer Jr., plumber	Bellefonte
D. G. Wagner, farmer	Potter
John Zimmerman, laborer	Walker
LIST OF TRAVERSE JURORS DRAWN FOR THE FIRST MONDAY OF MARCH, 1910.
Samuel Ard, gentleman	Penn
D. M. Burlew, shoemaker	Liberty
Elijah Burt, merchant	Penn
Cyrus Brungart, gentleman	Centre Hall
E. C. Beezer, agent	Philipsburg
F. K. Beals, clerk	Rush
Miles Cronover, clerk	Snow Shoe Twp
Ira P. Confer, merchant	Boggs
Jesse P. Confer, farmer	Boggs
Charles Campbell, laborer	Philipsburg
John I. Curtin, agent	Bellefonte
R. H. Dumbleton, teamster	Rush
W. H. Farber, engineer	Patton
Joseph Gabs, laborer	S. Philipsburg
Dittmar Grebe, carpenter	Philipsburg
Herman Hoffman, laborer	S. Philipsburg
James Harter, merchant	Penn
H. K. Hoy, gentleman	Bellefonte
John Kelley, farmer	Benner
William Kennedy, carpenter	State College
Robert Lucas, farmer	Boggs
Claude Moore, jeweler	Howard
C. T. Musser, farmer	Greeg
H. E. Murphy, farmer	Taylor
B. F. Peters, laborer	Union
Jacob Robb, farmer	Howard Twp
John C. Rumberger, agent	Bellefonte
John C. Rote, laborer	Spring
Thomas E. Royer, gentleman	Miles
R. K. Randolph, hotel	Ferguson
Joel Royer, farmer	Walker
C. H. Sellers, farmer	Patton
E. C. Spicer, blacksmith	Boggs
S. T. Swartz, merchant	Penn
I. A. Shawver, hotel	Millheim
W. E. Shively, farmer	Taylor
Joseph Tremser, laborer	Walker
Fred Yocum, laborer	Snow Shoe
John T. Yarnell, laborer	Snow Shoe