Bellefonte, Pa., January 7, 1910.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Miss Overton entertained with cards New Year's night, at the fraternity house.

lor have a fine new boy at their home on Dannley says.: Howard street.

-A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sloop, in the Bellefonte hospital, on Monday of last week.

----Miss Elizabeth Cooney entertained a number of her young lady friends at a card party last Tuesday evening, at her parents home on east High street.

-Senator George M. Dimeling, of Clearfield, has been appointed by Governor Stuart a member of the commission to revise the election laws of Pennsyl-

---On Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown entertain- Bellefonte and Centre county people have ed all the employees at the Scenic with a every reason to have an Old Home week turkey supper at their home on Spring this year. It will mark the comple-

College on Wednesday.

Tyrone, have announced the engagement ernor the nation ever had, it is fitting of their daughter, Miss Mary Stevens, to that a celebration of some kind be held leg broken in a runaway about two months of coffee, two hundred pounds of sugar, a Frank Benville Brantley, the wedding to take place in the early spring.

-Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhoades, who live in the Brick row, are sick with typhoid fever and it is believed the disease was caused by drinking water pumped from Buffalo run.

-On Monday the county auditors, H. B. Pontius, M. F. Musser and C. U. Hoffer began their work of auditing the receipts and expenditures of Centre county, a work that will keep them busy the next month or six weeks.

-The winter season for the early closing of the Bellefonte stores began on ger and Miss Margaret Armagast, both Monday, January 3rd, and will continue until March 15th. During that period the majority of the stores will close every evening at six o'clock except Wednesdays and Saturdays.

---On Christmas Joe Wolf was arrested in Altoona for fighting in a restauthat city until Wednesday of last week when policeman Harry Dukeman brought him to Bellefonte and lodged him in jail on the charge of the larceny of a can of --- Up to this writing Robert F. Hunment' has been the only officer in that organization so far assigned for active duty under the reorganization of the National Guard. He was selected by Col. C. M.

are exceedingly liberal.

missioner, though not consecutive.

--- A charming little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. David W. Stinson the Fauble space. of Donora, on Christmas day, and was at once christened Jane Elizabeth. Before her marriage Mrs. Stinson was Miss Lillian Crittenden, of this place, and her county was held at State College last week many friends have been sending her congratulations on such a delightful was under the auspices of the Centre Christmas present.

Edward C. Harper, of Curtin, gave a dinner and card party which was attended birds from the pens of fanciers at Lewisby Mrs. Joseph Ceader, Mrs. Sara Gephart, Mrs. William A. Lyon, Mrs. Frank Galbraith, Mrs. Maurice W. Yeager and Altoona, Bellefonte and a few other towns. Misses Lois V. Calderwood, Sadie Boalich, Daise Keichline, Hattie and Bess Hart, of this place, and Mrs. W. J. Brooks, of Cur-for concrete work at the Bellefonte fur- four first, one second, one third and one nace and lime quarry Knisely and Rhoads last week went out to Haves Run where they are now engaged in putting down a ond, three third and two fourth prizes; concrete floor in the new building of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company. Inas- took four first, two second and one third much as the building is a large one, be- prize. ing 80x300 feet in size, it will take some time to complete the job.

---Joseph Lose, a former Bellefonter. who for several years has occupied the position of a gang boss in the Pennsylvania railroad telegraph shop at Altoona, was on the first of the year promoted to the position of electrical inspector for that company. The greater portion of his work in the future will be in and around Pitsburg, and it is possible he may move his family to the Smoky city. the Fauble space, fonte at some opportune time during the shops. present year, 1910, and the matter has attracted the attention of Centre countians living in other States to that extent that we have received letters commending the suggestion and expressing the hope that such a celebration be held. As C. S. Dannley, of Medina, Ohio, an old Fer- around again. guson township boy and a former student -Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard Tay- of the Pine Grove Mills Academy. Mr.

> Once a week the WATCHMAN comes home, a welcome guest I assure you. Among the many things that interested us was an article some time ago advocating a memorial to Gov. Curtin, in the form of a 'home coming week." Is the matter still nder consideration?

> Besides doing honor to the memory of one of our most noted men, it would be one of the greatest social events ever held in old Centre. The organizations abroad of Centre County people would all be represented, the students of Pine Grove Mills Academy, the Centre county normalites. could all hold their reunions and exchange greetings. We hope your suggestions can

As stated in these colums not long ago tion of the New High school building, one ---Claster's Underselling store recent- of the best in the State, and the complely purchased from Henry Kline all the tion of the remodeled court house, with was not shipped back to the manufac- is agitation all over the county of holding memorial excercises commemorating the -The Bellefonte public schools fiftieth anniversary of the election of opened on Monday after the holiday va- Lincoln as President and as Centre councation of two weeks. The Bellefonte ty is especially interested because it also Academy opened on Tuesday and State will be the fiftieth anniversary of the the Fauble space. election of Andrew G. Curtin as Govern----Hon. and Mrs. A. A. Stevens, of or of Pennsylvania, the greatest War Govand Curtin. The WATCHMAN again prestre county and expresses the hope that ever.

> some such a gathering be held. CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING. -On the Fauble space. December 29th, 1859, George W. Rumberschool teachers in Buffalo Run valley, evidently concluded they could be of more use in this world by combining forces so they came to Bellefonte and were joined of the Methodist church, and the half when the western storm reached here and ance at the State Grange meeting held at century of life they have spent together it snowed and sleeted to a depth of five the College only the week previous there since, while not one of all joys and sunfruition of so many of their honeymoon dreams that they were a very happy couple when they celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday of last week at their very cosy home in Unionville.

And they had every reason to be happy ter, adjutant of the disbanded Fifth regi- because they are both enjoying good health and they had with them on that the Scenic, three thousand feet of film or occasion their ten children and sixteen an extra thousand feet in place of the grandchildren, all of whom are also in the Clement to be quartermaster of the Mrs. Joseph E. Brugger, of near Union- been relished by his patrons as the house part of them. But they included lectures, - Organizers are now at work in this John C., of Bellefonte; George F., of Du- condition not to be wondered at, as the important problem that at all times conplace endeavoring to organize a local Bois; William H., of Bellefonte; Albert Scenic affords the biggest five cents fronts the farmer. And these were all by Order of the Moose. This organization E., of Patton; Harry D., of Philipsburg; worth of amusement and entertainment men who talked not alone on theory but is rapidly springing into prominence all Allen G., of Trenton, N. J., and Misses to be had in Bellefonte. Each evening's from a practical knowledge of the inforover the country and the inducements Laura and Marian. The above with their program is distinct in itself and every mation they sought to impart. offered to all those in Bellefonte who children and a dozen friends composed one is composed of the very latest and will go into the order as charter members the crowd who were present not only to best pictures on the market. You miss a felicitate with Mr. and Mrs. Rumberger good thing if you miss one evening at the -The list of Centre county officials on such a momentous celebration but also Scenic. sworn in on Monday was exceedingly to partake of the elaborate feast of good small, consisting only of the two jury things which made up the golden wedvery useful presents.

-About that short sweet story, see

-The first annual poultry show in Centre during the Farmer's Week exercises and County Poultry association and the poulhibit included four hundred and fifty burg, Sunbury, Milton, Northumberland, Bloomsburg, Hughesville, Williamsport,

In the Bellefonte exhibit J. G. Heylmun had three birds and took one third prize; Al. Heverly had four birds and took one first and three second prizes; Joseph -Having completed their contract Runkle had thirteen birds which took fourth prize. S. B. Rumberger had seventeen birds, and took seven first, four sec-Dr. J. Allison Platts had eight birds and

> Considering the fact that there was little time to prepare for the above show it was considered very successful by the exhibitors as well as all who saw it. And it was further agreed by members of the county poultry association as well as the poultry department of the college to grow brids next season with a view of making next year's show a much larger and more interesting one in every way.

FOR AN OLD HOME WEEK.-The -Harold Kirk will leave Bellefonte in ELKS GET DEED FOR NEW HOME.-On WATCHMAN has frequently suggested the the near future for Burnham where he New Year's day the final payment was holding of an Old Home week in Belle- has secured a good position in the car made by the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks for

> -Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hoy, of Hublersburg, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Pearl Oneida, to G. Harry Wian, of Philadelphia.

> After being housed up a week

-Mrs. John P. Harris entertained Saturday afternoon from three to six o'clock in honor of Mrs. Luther Roberts and her daughter Miss Bess, who will leave Bellefonte on the tenth of January for their home in California.

-About that short sweet story, see appearance. the Fauble space.

public is cordially invited to attend.

-Dr. Alfred Gordon, alienist of Philadelphia, was notified last week of his election to membership in the Medical Psychological society of Paris, the oldest of the learned societies of France. The society balance of his boot and shoe stock which a formal dedication of both. Then there is composed of the most eminent alienists and psychologists and the fact that only nine other Americans are included in its membership makes the honor that has come to Dr. Gordon all the more notable.

-About that short sweet story, see wagon for Brouse's grocery, who had his twelve tons of coal, one hundred pounds here to celebrate all the above, and noth- ago, was finally discharged from the Belle- lot of other groceries, provisions and ing could be more opportune than an fonte hospital on Tuesday. On Christmas clothing and gave fifty dollars to the Old Home week. During such a gather- he was taken home for his Christmas din- Bellefonte hospital. This good work on ing both the school house and the court ner but his condition was not considered the part of the Elks is not only very comhouse could be dedicated and a day set good enough to permit of his remaining mendable but will no doubt be a great aside for proper memorial exercises com- home at that time. But now he is so far memorating the election of both Lincoln recovered that he can get around fairly well on crutches and when he fully recov. that their labors were so well repaid by ents the matter to the cornect consideral ers his strength there is every indication those in need profiting so liberally. tion of the people of Bellefonte and Cen- that he will have as free use of his leg as

----About that short sweet story, see

The weather the past week has been varied enough to suit the vagaries of and it has been raining most of the time under foot.

extra long program of moving pictures at

-William T. Kelly, who, since the commissioners, J. Adam Hazel, who suc- ding feast. But they did not come empty death of John I. Potter has been acting ceeds himself, and John D. Decker, suc- handed at that, as Mr. and Mrs. Rum- freight agent at the Pennsylvania railroad cessor to Clement H. Gramley. This will berger were the recipients of a well filled station in this place, has been permanentbe Mr. Decker's fourth term as jury com- purse of gold and quite a number of other ly appointed to that position. Mr. Kelly had quite a number of competitors in the race for the appointment and the fact that he won out is ample evidence of the confidence the company has in his ability POULTRY SHOW AT STATE COLLEGE. to fill the position. And in this they are undoubtedly right as everybody who knows anything about the situation is aware. For over a year prior to his death Mr. Potter was most of the time incapacitated for work and Mr. Kelly performed his -On Wednesday of last week Mrs. try department of the College. The ex- duties. And he did it with such aptness as to win commendation from both the company and its patrons. He is well versed with everything connected with the freight business of the company and able to handle the work with accuracy and dispatch.

-The night of January 27th promisathletics at the Bellefonte Academy. Dr. Barchfeld is one of the most promison, Gilbert Meyers, has been a student F. Faust, of St. Thomas, Pa. here for five years and will graduate in quet when he will talk on "Our Island vited. Possessions." It is not often that we have an opportunity to entertain and -About that short sweet story, see therefore we look forward to the 27th the swing factory, was put in place last with pleasure.

the Curtin homestead on High St., and they were given a fee simple deed for the property which was the same day entered for record in the recorder's office. The house Christmas at hon from cellar to third floor has been cleaned of the years of accumulation of books, old furniture, etc., which the Curtin heirs a sample of the letters received we quote threatened with pneumonia Robert F. failed to make any disposition of and the following from a letter received from Hunter has recovered and is able to be workmen are now engaged fixing up the house for the occupancy of the Elks. The changes to be made will be merely minor ones. One partition will be torn out on the third floor in order to make the lodge room and on the second floor some of the closets will be torn out. All the rooms will be repainted and repapered so that the interior will present an entirely new

The northwest corner room on the first floor will be furnished as a ladies parlor -Revival services are now in progress | with the general reception room just back in the Baptist church at Milesburg and of it. The dining room will be used as a the same will continue as long as a good grill room and the kitchen will be kept spiritual interest is manifested. Services for culinary purposes. On the second floor every evening during the week except there will be a gentleman's parlor, loung-Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock ing and reading rooms, billiard room and and on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The card rooms, with the lodge room on the third floor. All the above can be finished and furnished at a comparatively nominal expense. When the lodge's financial condition will warrant it the members contemplate a number of changes and improvements to the building which will make it one of the most substantial as well as beautiful Elk homes in the State. their Christmas in Bellefonte as the guests of Mrs

WHAT THE ELKS DID FROM CHARITY BENEFIT.-With the money derived as the result of their charity benefit entertainment, "The Country Fair," given in the opera house early in December the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks supplied to the de--Harry Gehret, driver of the delivery serving poor of the town one ton of flour, satisfaction to all those who so willingly took part in the entertainment to know

> -About that short [sweet story, see the Fauble space.

FARMER'S WEEK AT STATE COLLEGE. -That a desire to learn more and more of the advanced methods of agriculture is becoming widespread among the farmers most anybody. Following a prolonged is shown by the attendance at the Farmcold spell it was very spring-like Sunday er's Week exercises at State College last and Monday, blew up cold Monday even- week. Notwithstanding the fact that over ing and continued so until Wednesday fourteen hundred tarmers were in attendinches. Wednesday evening it had so were just 572 farmers in attendance at moderated that the snow turned to rain the exercises last week. Of the total Christmas and part of the Holidays at the home number 158 were from Centre county. As since with the result that the streams are a comparison: At the first Farmer's Week all quite high and it is very disagreeable exercises two years ago the total attendance was 336 with 111 from Centre county, while last year the attendance was 465 of Harrisburg, has been since Monday of last -During the past two weeks mana- with 120 from this county, so that the week with Mrs. Henry P. Harris, of Howard ger T. Clayton Brown has been giving an percentage of increase in attendance this street. year over that of last was almost as great as the increase in 1908 over that of 1907.

So far as the exercises were concerned usual illustrated song. The change, they were so varied and extended that it very best of health. The children are: though only temporary, has undoubtedly is impossible to give even a fraction of a ville; Mrs. Edward M. Greist, Philipsburg; is crowded every evening. But that is a demonstrations and practicums on every

> ----About that short sweet story, see the Fauble space.

INSTALLATION OF GREGG POST OFFI-CERS.-The officers elect of Gregg Post No-95, G. A. R., for 1910 will be installed at the regular Post meeting on January 8th. It has been decided to admit veterans only to the installation, and all veterans are cordially invited to be present. The entertainment committee will provide refreshments for all the comrades. Comrade S. H. Williams, knowing the capacity of old vets to put rations out of sight, promises ample supplies for all and will serve promptly at 6 o'clock p. m.

Come right along, comrades. THOS. DONACHY. Commander. EMANUEL NOLL. Adjutant

-About that short sweet story, see the Fauble space.

CHANGE OF PASTORATE.-When the new Hublersburg and Zion charge of the Reformed church was established recently Rev. Harvey I. Crow resigned as pastor of the churches in the Nittany valley es an unusual event in the history of charge to accept the pastorate of the Hublersburg and Zion churches and he Then the annual banquet to the football was officially installed on Thursday eventeam will be given and as Dr. Barchfeld, ing of last week. The services were held of Pittsburg, has promised to be here for in the church at Zion. Dr. Ambrose M. it unusual preparation is being made. Schmidt, of this place, preached the sermon and the installation services were nent figures on the floor of Congress just | conducted by Rev. Samuel H. Stein, of now and his interest in the Academy has Lock Haven. Rev. Crow's successor on been aroused through the fact that his the Nittany valley charge will be Rev. E.

FREE LECTURE.-Dr. H. C. Mullington, June. While here Dr. Barchfeld will ad- a Chautauqua lecturer, will deliver a free dress Bellefonte audiences; first at a lecture to ladies and gentlemen in Petripublic meeting when he will speak on ken hall, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. "The Nations' Progress," and at the ban-Subject, "Worthwhile." Everybody is in--The new steel bridge on the Lewishear such a distinguished gentleman burg railroad, over Logan's branch above Wednesday,

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Rebie Noll spent New Year's day in Al-

-Mrs. Wilson Norris is the guest of Mrs. E. M

-Leo Sherry was in from Pittsburg to spend

-Miss Lou Rowland, of Philipsburg, is visiting

-Mrs. Alice D. Cane is spending some time with her three daughters, in Altoona.

-Katherine Edwards, of State College, spent ast week with Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Musser. -Miss Ida Clinger has returned from a five month's stay in Philadelphia and Princeton, N. J.

Christmas with his father and sister in this place -Herman Holz, has gone to New York city for visit with his daughter and granddaughter -Mrs. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, was a guest at the home of Frank McCoy over Christ

-Father Benner Armor, of Loretta, spent

-Rev. A. A. Davidson is spending a short time her home in Syracuse. N. Y. with his old parishioners of the United Brethren church.

-Prothonotary Arthur B. Kimport and five children were with friends in Boalsburg for Christmas.

-Miss Elizabeth Longwell with her niece, Sarah Longwell, were over Sunday visitors with friends in Altoona.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Hall spent Christmas and part of the Holidays with the Hoffmans at Williamsport. -Mrs. Howard Holtzworth, of Unionville, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sara Brown, on Lamb street. Spring street. -Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore, spent the fore part of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Larimer -- Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, of Altoona, spent

Katharine Gault -Miss Mary Love Campbell, of Linden Hall, home on Wednesday spent Christmas and part of the Holidays with friends in Tyrone -Claire Seibert went to Tyrone December twenty-sixth, to accept a position in the round use of the P. R. R. Crissman were in Lock Haven on Sunday as guests of W. G. Laye.

-Mrs. Sara Brown and daughter, Miss Bess, will leave Bellefonte tomorrow for a visit with relatives in Lancaster. -Miss Lillian Muffly, superintendent of the Du ois hospital, spent New Years with her sister Mrs. J. L. Montgomery. -Miss Mard McDermott and her sister, Mrs.

James Burns, of Snow Shoe, spent Christmas with friends in Pittsburg. -Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside left Bellefonte

Monday expecting to spend the remainder of the winter in Philadelphia. -Mrs. J. A. Aiken and her daughter, Miss Emma, were Christmas visitors at the home of Rev.

C. T. Aiken, at Selinsgrove. -Mrs. A. C. Glenn, of Cleveland, Ohio, is making a protracted visit with friends at Curtin and other points in Centre county. -W. G. Laye and Mr. Probin, of Lock Haven, were business visitors in Bellefonte on Tuesday and pleasant callers at this office. -Miss Helen White, of Harcourt Hall, Gambie Ohio, spent her holiday vacation with her au

Miss Powell, at the Brockerhoff house. -Clarence and Thomas Hamilton were from New York to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hamilton.

-Miss Martha Parker, of Jersey Shore, spent -Edward Schofield, who has been located in Philadelphia for several years, has returned home and will assist his father in the saddlery business. -Wilbur F. Harris with his daughter Elizabeth,

-Miss Louise Gessner has been spending the past two weeks in Johnstown and upon her return to Bellefonte her sister Kate will leave for a visit with her sister in Latrobe.

-Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston left Bellefonte on New Year's day for Beaver Falls, where she will spend the remainder of the winter with her son, George B. Johnston and his wife.

-Christmas day was celebrated with a family eunion at the home of Mrs. Rachel Harris, on and George, and her daughter, Mrs. John Van Pelt, of Patton, being at home.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. Lukenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Jenkins and son, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Garman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lukenbach they enjoyed a very pleasant family reunion and New Year's dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs Frank K. Lukenbach.

-Col. and Mrs. James A. McClain, of Spangler: Mrs. Albert Engles Blackburn and little daughter Eliza, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smithgall, of Austin, were New Year's guests at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and attended the book lover's party held at the Spangler home on New Year's eve.

-W. Cooke Kramer, formerly of Milesburg, but who has been a resident of Berwick for the past few years, came home on Saturday to spend a few days visiting old friends. He was in town or Tuesday looking fine and reports business as be ginning to look up in the town where the American Car and Foundry's plant furnishes the mos of the occupation.

-Misses Florence and Sarah Kepler, of Pins Grove Mills, spent Christmas and part of last week with their uncle. Dr. A. R. Markel and family, in Tyrone. Miss Florence is one of Centre county's best school teachers and both are quite accomplished and talented young ladies. On Christmas evening they took part in the Christmas entertainment in the First English Lutheran church with select readings and recitations, their parts adding much to the interest of the program.

-Among the Bellefonters who were home for Christmas and part of the Holidays were Joe Katz, from Lewistown; Joe Fauble, from Monongahela City; John Munson, from Washington Paul Wetzel, from Corning, N. Y.; Charles Barnes, from Baltimore; George Tanyer, from Hazleton: Paul Rosenhoover, from Altoona; Sam uel Hart, from Philadelphia; Arthur Dale, from Cleveland, Ohio; John Smith, from Philadelphia; na Keichline, from Cornell; Miss Madeline Rowe, from St. Xavier's college; Mr. and Mrs. Ward ing, from Harrisburg; Lieutenant Richard Taylor, from Huntingdon, where he is military instructor in the reformatory; William H. Brouse from Northumberland; Charles Haines, from Beaver Falls: Mrs. George Kerstetter, and two children, from Harrisburg; Miss Betty Heinle, from Karthaus; Lee H. Walker, from Schenectady. N. Y; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hilland, of Mans field, Pa; were here with their daughter, Mrs. G. Edward Haupt; Ralph Boozer, with the Westinghouse people at Wilkinsburg, was with his parents at Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowdrick. of Niagara Falls, with Mrs. Cowdrick's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ross, at Pleasant Gap; Miss Sarah Waite, of Wilkinsburg, with her brother Darius and family; Blair Fisher, of Tyrone, with Norman Kirk, and Mr. and Mrs. George Boal, of Washington, D. C., with Miss Longwell.

-Miss Sadie Boalich is anticipating spend ome time in New York.

-Charles Newcomer, of Sunbury, was with his father in this place over Christma -Ex-county commissioner C. A. Weaver, of Coburn, was a business visitor in Bellefonte yes

-Iohn D. Meyer, of Altoona, spent several days last week with friends in this place and at Con

-Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heckman spent Christe mas with their daughter. Mrs. Calvin Spicher, a

-Mrs. Harry L. Garber will come to Bellefonte Saturday for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. -Ferguson Parker, of Johnstown, and his sister

Miss Annie, of Somerset, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Parker -Miss Nellie Conley left on Monday for a visit with friends in Pittsburg and other towns in the western part of the State

-Miss E. Naatz, whohas been with her sister-inlaw, Mrs. Brewer, for some time, leaves today for

-Miss Mildred Grimm will leave Monday for Pittsburg, where she will be for an indefinite time with her aunt. Mrs. Thompson

-Maurice Yeager spent several days last week on a business trip to Pittsburg in the interest of the new Yeager Swing company

-Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hendricks, of Sunbury. were Christmas guests of Mrs. Hendrick's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crissman. -Mr. and Mrs. David Auchmuty, of Albany, N. Y., spent last week in Bellefonte as guests of Mrs Auchmuty's sister, Mrs. George Ingram on east

-Miss Adaline Holmes, of Wilkinsburg, will be in Bellefonte for a visit with Mrs. James Harris expecting later to go with her for a months visit

-Miss Kathryn Edwards, of State College, who pent the holiday week in Bellefonte as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Musser, returned

-Mrs. George N. VanDyke with her daughter Mary, who spent the Holidays with her parents. Hon, and Mrs. John Noll, returned to her home in Altoona on Sunday.

-Walter Rankin was home for the holiday va -Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown and Miss Eva cation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rankin. Miss Frances Elmore, of Pittsburg, was also a holiday visitor at the Rankin home.

> will leave Bellefonte Thursday of next week for San Francisco expecting to sail from there on February 5th, on the Clarke cruise around the world. -D. Al. Irvin, of Ebensburg, was here and in

-Geo. T. Bush and Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway

Williamsport the past week on a business mis sion. Since locating in the county seat of Cambria county he has built up quite a big real estate

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirby Rath, of Elizabeth, N. J., came to Bellefonte to spend Christmas with Mrs. Rath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider. Mr. Rath left for home on Monday following Christmas while Mrs. Rath remained over for part of the Holidays.

-Lee H. Walker, who for the past six years has held the position of an assistant engineer of construction with the New York Central railroad ompany, and is now located at Schnectady, N. Y., ate his Christmas dinner with his parents, exsheriff and Mrs. W. Miles Walker, in this place.

-Lieutenant and Mrs. Clarence L. Arnold, of Boston, Miss Margery Lyon at school at State College, and Miss Anne Lyon, at school at Lititz were in Bellefonte over Christmas for the celebration of Judge and Mrs. Orvis twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and for the Harvey-Orvis wed ding.

-Robert H. Vorhis, who a number of years ago who is now a traveling representative for the American Horseshoe company with headquarters at Bloomsburg, was in Bellefonte the forepart of the week on a business trip and to see his son who is a student at State.

-Frances E. Pray, who now holds a professorhip in a Catholic college at Niagara Falls, was a Bellefonte visitor the early part of the week. A few years ago he was a teacher in the Bellefonte schools and the one thing he now commends is the new High school building being erected by the school board, as he says it was needed years ago. ---Jeremiah Zettle, the veteran Poe valley trapper, has so far this season trapped and killed the following fur-bearing animals: 17 foxes, 13 minks, 238 Curtin street, all her sons, Joseph, Guy. Charles skunks, 222 muskrats, 42 oposums, 52 raccoons and one white weasel, securing pelts to the value of $800. The whole consignment was recently shipped from Spring Mills to New York and was the were all in Tyrone on New Year's day where largest bundle of pelts ever sent from that section.

> ---The regular monthly meeting of the Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R. was held at Mrs. Frank McCoy's, on Thursday evening.

1	Bellefonte Produce Markets.
	Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
1	Potatoes per bushel
3	Country Shoulders
	Fallow, per pound

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press Rye, per bushel.
Corn, shelled, per bushel.
Corn, ears, per bushel.
Oats, old and new, per bushel

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday ever Oats
Flour —Winter, per barrel
—Favorite Brands... The Democratic Watchman

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1,00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid. except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county uness paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertished.

less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows: 3m 6m 1y SPACE OCCUPIED one inch (12 lines this type).