Colonel Thomas H. Swope, multimillionaire, and Charman Swope, his nephew, died at Kansas City, Mo., from strychnine poisoning. This informaacademy, was here over Sunday and like a duti- tion was contained in a telegram reattorney for the Swope heirs. Arrests are expected.

The telegram from Chicago, which announced that Dr. Walter Haines and Dr. Ludwig Kekteon had found poison in the stomachs of the two dead members of the Swope family, lends confirmation to the theory advanced some weeks ago that a deliberate plot existed to exterminate the entire Swope family.

Colonel Swope whose fortune is variously estimated at from four to six million dollars, died in convulsions. His nephew died under similar circumstances. Shortly afterwards eight members of the Swope family were stricken with typhoid fever. Then came the startling statement that a person who would benefit by the death of the members of the Swope family had purchased typhoid bacilli from a Kansas City toxicologist. This bacilli. it is alleged, was planted in the Swope
