

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

CHRIST.-The death of Dr. Theodore S. Christ, at his home in State College at 12.30 o'clock Tuesday morning, was not a surprise to his many friends who knew of his serious illness. He had been sick for over two years, during which period there were a number of times when he was apparently at death's door but rallied for another brief spurt of life. But the final summons came and his weakened body could hold out no longer.

There are very few men in Centre from which he graduated in 1860. He at | Hublersburg for interment. once opened an office in Lewisburg and began the practice of his profession but at the first call to arms at the breaking out of the Civil war he enlisted in the three month's service. When that term of enlistment expired he re-enlisted and self-sacrifice and to be fully told latter seventies when he came to Centre the conference for that year. county and bought a farm between State College and Lemont where he engaged in farming and also practiced medicine. There he lived until a few years ago when he sold his farm to the college authorities and retired to a home in State College.

Dr. Christ was a Master Mason, a Knight Templar, member of the Veteran Legion and Grand Army of the Republic; he was a member of the Presbyterian church and a man who was conscientiousboth at home. Rev. Harnish will officiate sylvania State College. at the funeral which will be held at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. -

JONES-In the death of Benjamin Jones on Monday evening Philipsburg lost one of it's best known as well as prominent citizens. He had been in failing health for weeks and his death was the result of a general breaking down of what once was a most vigorous constitution

Deceased was born in Chester county and was 86 years, 2 months and 4 days Five years later he, in connection with to be in a very good condition. Dr. G. F. Hoop and Hon. Chester A. Munson built and operated the planing mill of Munson, Jones & Co. After that he was identified with several other industries but some years ago retired to private life. On January 5th, 1848, he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret A. Rye, of Halfmoon valley, who died some years ago. Of their five children four survive, as follows: Mrs. Ella Perks, Osceola Mills; Lot W., Dwight M. and Miss Mary A., of Philipsburg. The funeral was held from his late home at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, interment being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

1

MAYES .- While on a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace White, at Axe Mann, on Tuesday of last week, Mrs. William T. Mayes, of Hublersburg, died quite suddenly of heart failure. Just as soon as the body could be prepared it was taken to the home of her daughter. Mrs-Philip Garbrick, of Coleville, where it was kept until the funeral. Mrs. Mayes was a member of the Lutheran church and was a woman of such kind personalville, and John Wesley at home. The Fleck officiated at the services and burial was made in the Zion cemetery.

Lookout, near Philipsburg, early last Sat. ground with good sleighing ever since ing in poor health for several weeks. eight years ago. Eighteen years ago she snow. ed by nine children, one of whom is a held at the hotel Normandie on Wednesheld at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Spangler and Hon. Robert M. Foster. Rev. H. K. Bower had charge of the serv- who were the outside guests. Mr. Heinle ices and burial was made in the Philips- was the principal speaker of the evening burg cemetery.

-We are sorry to learn that Mrs.

week with a severe cold.

church in Milesburg on Sunday morning. the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Oyler. Interment was made in the Trcziyulny cemetery.

JOHSTONBAUGH.-John J.Johnstonbaugh died at his home at Salona on Wednesday of last week, following a years illness with Bright's disease. He was born in Centre county and had he lived two days longer would have been fifty seven years old. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter; also the following brothers and sisters: Alfred, of Oak county who were more widely known Grove; Jerre, of Braddock; William, than Dr. Christ. He was born and raised George and Charles, of near Bellefonte; in Lewisburg, and had he lived until the Dr. C. L., of Bethlehem; James, in the twenty-first of next April would have west; Mrs. Henry Norris, of Buffalo Run, been eighty years old. After his prelimand Mrs. William Collins, of Pine Grove inary education he took a course in med- Mills. The funeral was held last Saturicine at the University of Pennsylvania, day morning, the remains being taken to

----Charles Hassinger, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hassinger, of Beaver street, had his leg broken last week while coasting.

----Members of the Bloomsburg Methand served throughout the entire war. His odist Episcopal church on Sunday voted record was one of remarkable bravery to invite the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference to hold its annual sessions would fill pages of the WATCHMAN. At there in 1911. The Pine street church the close of the war he located in Dela- congregation, of Williamsport, has also ware county where he remained until the been considering the question of inviting

----Wednesday's rain and wild weather was enough to raise the waters two to three feet, but the falling temperature Wednesday night and vesterday's sleet. snow and cold resulted in the water receding without doing any damage, though it was near enough coming into the WATCHMAN press room to make us think of moving day.

----At an evening company given to Miss Edna E. Meyer and her most in ly a friend to all in need. His wife was timate girl friends on Wednesday even-Miss Sarah Thompson, a daughter of Mr. ing, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer announced the and Mrs. Moses Thompson, deceased. engagement of their daughter to Mr. She died twenty-three years ago and of Walter Hoge MacIntire, of Wilmington, their five children only two survive, N. C., who for several years has been Misses Hester S. and Mary Irvin Christ, an instructor in agronomy at The Penn-

> -Last Saturday's Philadelphia North American contained a group picture of the State College team of wrestlers, which recently defeated the University of Pennsylvania team by winning firsts in every bout. This was the most overwhelming defeat the Penn wrestlers have so far sustained this season, and the State wrestlers are naturally proud of their victory.

----At a meeting of the stockholders of old. When only a few months old his the Bald Eagle telephone company last parents moved to Huntingdon county and week the following board of directors engaged in farming. When he grew to were elected: Judge Ellis L. Orvis, of manhood he learned the carpenter trade Bellefonte; H. Laird Curtin, of Curtin; and the early part of his life was spent in Dr. Walter Kurtz, of Howard; Edwin Thos D Weaver 3 various localities until 1861 when he lo. Bechdel, of Blanchard, and William cated in Philipsburg and became super. Batchelet, of Marsh Creek. The annual report showed the affairs of the co

----It is only by being a regular attendant at the Scenic that you see all of the good things in the line of motion pictures shown in Bellefonte. Manager Brown always gets the best that can be secured and if there are any special feature pictures on the market he goes right after them. That is one of the reasons why the Scenic is always so popular that it is crowded almost every night. If you fail to patronize it you miss a good thing.

-There is every indication that the local Order of the Moose which has been organized in Bellefonte will start out with a very large charter membership. Al ready over one hundred people have filed their applications and signed the membership roll. So favorable is the outlook for a big lodge that already the members are looking around for a suitable home. The Garman residence on High street, was the first place considered but the price asked for it has been considered two high and several other locations are now in view.

---The deepest snow of the winter so ity and noble traits of character that she far fell last Friday afternoon and night was greatly loved by all who knew her, and was general all over the State. It Surviving her are her husband and three began snowing about the middle of the children: Mrs. William Bowes, of Phila- afternoon on Friday and continued until delphia; Mrs. Philip Garbrick, of Cole- early Saturday morning, the fall totaling just thirteen inches. That those who funeral was held from the Lutheran have longed for an old-fashioned winter church at Zion on Friday afternoon. Rev. are having their longings gratified cannot be denied. Cold weather began late in November and has hung on continually with very few mild days. The first snow VAIL.-Mrs. Matilda Vail, wife of Ed. fall was the night before Christmas and ward Vail, died at her home at Point there has been snow and ice on the urday morning of heart trouble, after be. And so far there is no let up in sight. while some weather prognosticators pre-Her maiden name was Stonebraker and dict uninterrupted cold until the latter she was born at Bald Eagle almost thirty. part of March, with considerable more was married to Edward Vail and ever --- Just fifty-three people attended the since lived in the vicinity of Philipsburg. sixth annual banquet of the Centre coun-In addition to her husband she is surviv- ty association in Philadelphia which was baby only about two months old. She day evening. Of that number all are now was a member of the Baptist church and residents of the Quaker city with the a good, kind woman. The funeral was exception of Hon. W. C. Heinle, Col. J. L. and he told the former Centre countians that the people of their native heath had PEACE. - Miss Claire Ethel Peace, daugh- not lost track of them by any means and ter of Mr. and Mrs. John Peace, died at were glad to see them retain at least the home of her parents in Central City enough of the old home personality to early last Friday morning, after a linger- band themselves together into such a fraing illness with consumption. She was ternal organization as the Centre county Louisa Bush has been confined to her only seventeen years old and was a faith association in Philadelphia. Others who apartments in the Arcade during the past ful member of the Methodist church. The made brief speeches were Dr. Roland G. funeral was held from the Methodist Curtin, Dr. Harkinson and J. C. C. Beale