Leave Beech Creek 1:40 ..
Arrive Mill Hall 1:50 ..
Leave Mill Hall 2:00 ..

Two coaches will be used as audience rooms. In each coach two lectures will be delivered during the stop at each station.

The subjects selected for the lectures are: Soil Fertility, Meadows and Pastures, Use of Lime, Corn, Alfalfa, Dairying.

The lecturers will be the following members of the faculty of the School of Agriculture: Dr. Thomas F. Hunt, R. L. Watts, C. F. Shaw, M. S. McDowell, H. E. VanNorman, C. F. Noll, Alva Agee.

Only four lectures can be given during any one stop. Persons desiring to hear a lecture that is not given at one point can go on train to next stopping place on payment of the regular railway fare.

Abstracts of all train lectures and circulars giving information concerning the right use of lime on land and the growing of alfalfa will be distributed to those desiring them.

All persons interested in profitable agriculture are invited to attend these free lectures. Ladies will be welcomed. The train will be run on scheduled time and the people are requested to be promptly on time and to take seats in the coaches as soon as the train stops.

CENTRE HALL HOTEL LICENSE REFUSED.—In a decree handed down last week Judge Ellis L. Orvis refused the application of James M. Runkle for a license to sell liquor at the hotel in Centre Hall, and for the year 1910, at least, Centre Hall will be dry. The court made it very plain, however, that the license was not refused because of anything against Mr. Runkle as a landlord, his unfitness to be granted a license or the necessity of a licensed hotel at Centre Hall for the convenience of the traveling public, but that the refusal to grant was made upon a legal technicality which it was not within the scope or power of the court to overcome.

The petitioners in the remonstrance against the granting of a license at Centre Hall gave as their reasons that Mr. Runkle had sold liquor to men of known intemperate habits; that a license was not needed at that place, and that the application of the petitioner was not filed as required by the Brooks or High License act. According to the court's decree there was nothing in the evidence to substantiate the first two reasons and they were dismissed by the court with a declaration to that effect.

As to the third reason: The Brooks law requires that all applications for liquor license must be filed thirty days prior to the first Monday of the regular term of court at which the petitions shall be heard, and as the petition of Mr. Runkle was not filed until several days later, this is the legal technicality upon which the license was refused. In their argument before the court the attorneys for the petitioner alleged that a number of the other petitions for license were not filed according to the requirements of the law and maintained that inasmuch as they had been granted Mr. Runkle's license also should be granted. But the court refused because there were no remonstrances or objections filed against them.

—Last Wednesday and Thursday evenings some person or persons blew French snuff around in the scenic with the result that many of the patrons were seized with violent fits of sneezing and a number were compelled to leave the room and go out in the open air. The act was not only a low down one on the part of the person or persons who did it, but one for which they can be severely punished and manager T. Clayton Brown offers a reward of twenty-five dollars for information which will lead to the detection and conviction of the guilty parties. Mr. Brown is most assiduous in his endeavors to run a highly respectable and orderly place of amusement and any person guilty of outraging all sense of decency by the perpetration of such an act as that of last Wednesday and Thursday nights should be severely dealt with, and that is just what will happen when Mr. Brown gets hold of them, which he is likely to do within a few days.

—Everybody in this community knows who the Malena man is, Chauncey F. York, formerly of Warriorsmark, Huntingdon county, but now of Detroit, Mich., and all will be interested in knowing that he has finally gotten his mammoth new Malena plant in that city completed and the same was put in operation last Friday morning, his three-year-old son, Carlton Noll York, applying the torch which lighted the fires under the boilers. The new plant will give employment to three hundred people and it will be operated to its full capacity just as soon as a complete force of employees can be secured. Mr. York is a son-in-law of Col. Emanuel Noll, of this place.

A LONG LIVED FAMILY.—A correspondent writing us from High valley, a pretty little valley down in the mountains near Coburn, says: "I still see going the round of the papers notices of long-lived families. In that line the Eisebuths, of this end of the county, need not take a back seat. My grandfather, who was one of them, lived to the age of 109 years, 11 months and 9 days. He voted for George Washington. My father died at the age of 88 years; uncle William, 92; uncle George, 89; uncle Jacob, 96, and uncle John, who was killed by a tree falling on him at 81, their combined ages making 446. Can the WATCHMAN find any family in the county that can beat this. My grandfather came from the old country when a boy, and joined the army. He never took medicine but was a great tobacco user. He never used whiskey or strong drink, and never had a doctor bill."

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY SUPPER.—The entertainment committee of GREGG Post will, on Tuesday evening, February 22nd, furnish one of their usual good suppers. Under the supervision of the chairman, S. H. Williams and his able assistants the public may expect a feast of good things. Tickets will be offered for sale and the patronage of friends of the Post is earnestly solicited. Supper will be on the tables promptly at 4.30 p. m. and continue until 8 p. m. "May good digestion wait an appetite."

THE ADJUTANT.—General and Mrs. James A. Beaver will leave Bellefonte some time in May for Edinburgh, Scotland, where the general will go as a delegate to the international missionary conference. Before they return home they will visit some of the noted places of interest throughout Europe.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—David Tressler and wife celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, the 8th of February, 1910, at their home at Houserville. Both are still quite active and enjoyed the occasion very much. Their family consisted of nine children, six of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. John Dale, of Lemont; Mrs. Mary Hickey, of Altoona; Mrs. John Amheiser, of Altoona; Harvey H., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Abram Houser, of Peru; and Maggie at home. All were present together with their husbands and families except three of the grand-children who could not be present on account of sickness. Several great grand-children were also present. The names of grand-children present were, D. C. Tressler and wife, of Lemont; Grace, Maud, Charlotte, Sarah and Harrison Tressler, of Bellefonte; David and Charles Hickey, of Altoona; and Eleanor Houser, of Peru. Those who were detained at home were Mrs. Olive Carbon, and Margaret and John Amheiser of Altoona. Of the great grand-children who were absent there were David, Huey and Margaret Carbon, there being one present, Mary Tressler, of Lemont. One brother, William Tressler and wife from Bellefonte, and a nephew, Thomas Tressler and family, from Filmore, were present. A sumptuous dinner was prepared by the hands of the loving children to which all did full justice.

After having a social time, the company was led in music by the youngest daughter presiding at the organ, and the family singing several selections of favorite hymns. Prayer was offered, after which a brief address was made by William Tressler. All congratulated the aged couple and presented them with valuable gifts, which consisted of thirty-two dollars in gold, and seven dollars in paper money, also linen and cut glass.

The party separated at a reasonable hour to return to their homes, all feeling glad they had met on this joyous occasion. M. J. TRESSLER.

BIBLE DAY.—At their last meeting the members of the Bellefonte Ministerium decided to observe Sunday, February 27th, as Bible Day. Sermons appropriate for churches, most of them in the morning, and with some special reference to the Centre County Bible Society. Since its 152 anniversary, the society has distributed 152 copies of the Scriptures, bibles, testaments and gospel portions. Of this number 140 were at cost and 12 given to furnish every reader of Centre county with a copy of the Scriptures at cost, or by gift to any who cannot buy.

The depository, containing a selected stock in various styles, and clear, perfect type, is kept in the Y. M. C. A. building, Bellefonte. Application made at any time, in person or by correspondence will receive prompt attention.

Marriage Licenses.
Wm. M. McClintic, and Bertha I. Tressler, both of Linden Hall.
Harry R. Hartman, and Grace E. Meyer, both of Millheim.
Joseph Carter, and Agnes Mason, both of Philipsburg.

pay taxes and Republican tariffs, so that the good times promised have not reached us yet.
We are having an old-fashioned winter down here. Snow two feet deep—and wood three dollars a cord, and not plenty at that. Those who have it for sale ship it to the Oak Extract company, that takes any kind it can get.
The Millheim horse sale was a record breaker, some of the animals bringing as high as $100. Mr. Nicholson's horse, a horseman who knows the kind of stock our farmers want. The reason he is such a good judge of horse flesh is that he comes from a Democratic stock and is a regular reader of the WATCHMAN.

PINE GROVE MENTION.
Henry Elder is laid up with pneumonia.
Mrs. Sallie Bloom has closed her house until April first.
Jesse Brest, of Neff's Mills, visited friends in the valley last week.
Young Verna McGill, who has been ill with pneumonia, is some better.
The ladies of the M. E. church are holding a festival and masquerade.
G. Woods Miller loaded a car of wheat Friday at Fairbrook at the $122 mark.
Last Tuesday A. S. Bailey took the High school students to visit the White Hall school.
Oscar Heckman, of Millheim, while visiting friends here was snowbound on Sunday.
Monday evening a pleasant social party was held at the Wm. J. Dale home on the corner.
J. H. Decker, assistant clerk in the county commissioners office, was home for the election Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Musser, teacher of the Branch school, is laid up with neuralgic pain, so there is no school this week.
Mr. and Mrs. William Collins were among the mourners at the John Johnstonbaugh burial at Hubsburg on Saturday.
Rev. J. E. Bierley is conducting a protracted meeting in the M. E. church here this week. The meetings are well attended.
Adam Felty, who has been fast in bed the past ten weeks with a broken hip, is going to celebrate Washington's birthday by getting out.

H. N. Walker, of the Grammar school, gave his scholars a rare treat by sledding them to Bellefonte, Tuesday, to visit the Grammar school there.
Miss Grace Dale gave a Valentine party Monday evening. When time came for serving refreshments some miscreant had stolen them all.
Last week we reported a pair of twin calves at the George Behrens farm. This week State College comes to the front with two pairs of twins.
P. R. Rupert, of Altoona, is visiting his old chum, J. N. Mong, this week. Mr. Rupert expects to move to our town in the spring to engage in carpentering.

Miss Blanche Tressler, of Rock Springs, is being entertained at the A. O. Tyson home and is busy with her scissors and needle, and the boys are keeping a close watch on the marriage license list.

Tuesday evening a party of jolly sledders invaded the Henry Elder home on the Branch and had matters about their own way all evening, with lots of fun and music. Mrs. Elder furnished an elaborate feast.
Our town is shut out from the world. We have had no train this week and only one last week. The biggest blizzard since '88 struck this section Saturday and Sunday drifted the roads fence high with snow, practically stopping all travel over Sunday and Monday.

By the slip of our pen we failed in our last letter to mention the jolly sledders that came up from Lemont and halted at the C. B. McCormick home. However they were laden with the fat of the land and a splendid feast was served. That price of good fellows, Will Daugherty, took the party and everyone had a royal good time.
Last Saturday a reception was tendered John W. Fry and bride at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James G. Fortney, on Main street, to which none but their nearest relatives were invited. A splendid repast was prepared by Mrs. Fortney and her two daughters, Mrs. Musser and Krebs, and a fine lot of presents were given the newly wedded couple.

Last week while Rose Gregory deceived David Hallman to this side of Tussey's heights his good wife planned a birthday party for him on Saturday. Over one hundred guests braved the blizzard to be there, taking with them valuable and useful presents, so that on the return of the good husband he was surprised to find his house filled with jolly neighbors and friends to greet him on his thirty-fourth milestone in this journey of life. A sumptuous dinner was served.

SPRING MILLS.
Mr. Brown, of Bethlehem, who has been a guest of Dr. A. G. Leib for several days, left for home on Friday last.
The beaux evidently did not forget St. Valentine's day, to judge from the prodigious number floating around town on Monday last.
Mrs. Jane Nofsaker, ninety-four years of age, possibly the oldest woman in the township, has been quite ill for a week or more but is now improving.

J. H. Meyer, chief miller in Allison's flouring mill, has resigned his position and will move to Ohio. Harry Allison, a former employe, is again on duty at the mill.
I had quite a heavy fall of snow here on Friday last with considerable drifting and very cold. Few teams were on the road on Saturday. Everybody was waiting for someone else to break the snow blockade.
In cutting wood on the mountains last week, M. N. Miller met with quite a serious accident. His axe becoming entangled in some brush slipped off and made a deep cut in his foot, requiring several stitches to close the wound.

Quite a number of pumps here were frozen shut last week but by using plenty of hot water and a little patience the embargo was soon raised. One or two, however, were determined to force the pump to work notwithstanding the ice. Of course the result was a broken chain and the owners had a cold job to fish for it at the bottom of the well.

STATE COLLEGE.
Oscar Gray was a College visitor on Tuesday.
The election passed off very quiet on Tuesday.
There are a great many sick people around the College now.
Charles Kerstetter has been on the sick list for some time and at this writing is very little improved.
Roy Gilliland is now taking inventory of the stock and will have full control of same after March first.

The Freshmen class held a banquet at Williamsport, Tuesday night. They slipped away Sunday evening without any trouble at all.
The I. O. O. F. lodge held a banquet in the Nittany Inn on Tuesday night. About one hundred members were present with their wives.
The R. F. D. men were able to cover their route in full yesterday the first since the big fall of snow on Friday and the drifting of same on Saturday and Sunday.

The illustrated lecture on Saturday night by Tyrann was well attended. His lecture was on Peking. He gave a very interesting description of the people and country but was a little hard to understand.

LEMONT.
By last report, Mrs. Angeline Tate, who is quite ill, is some better.

Many of the people of this community are housed up with the grip.
Clayton Eter's horses have been off duty for sometime with pneumonia.
John Mitchell and wife returned from Philadelphia, Saturday where they spent a week.

A few of the good spellers from town attended the spelling bee held at Balsburg, last week.
Rev. C. C. Shuey preached a sermon for the Methodist congregation of this place on Sunday forenoon.

Lumbering seems on the boom in these parts this winter, for there is no less than two or three different jobs being worked.
Friday afternoon it began to snow and one of the deepest snow falls we have had this winter and during Saturday and Sunday the wind piled the roads full.

Doctor Thinks Woman Patient Must Have Swallowed It Months Ago.
New York, Feb. 15.—Katherine Purcell, of 750 Main street, Paterson, N. J., has had a live mole in her body for several months, according to the statement of Dr. Frank McBee, who is attending her.
For weeks Miss Purcell has suffered pains in her chest, which grew more and more acute and Dr. McBee was unable to diagnose the case. Two days ago she had to take to her bed. The pain gradually worked up into her thorax and she seemed likely to die, the doctor having no idea what was the matter.

It was disclosed that the cause of the trouble was a mole, which Miss Purcell had swallowed some way when it was very small, and which grew to full size.
The mole was taken out alive, but died soon afterward.
Miss Purcell, Dr. McBee said, will suffer no serious effects.

Took Thirteen Stitches to Close Wound Made by Collie's Teeth.
Brunswick, Me., Feb. 15.—Thirteen stitches were required to close the wound made by the teeth of the collie dog owned by Miss Ethel Thompson, when she attempted to kiss the dog's nose. Her pet dog was lying on a couch in the diningroom, and as she went past she leaned over to kiss him. As she did so the dog snapper and his teeth sank into her lower lip and left cheek. The lip was terribly lacerated.

Train Passes Over Her, But She is Uninjured.
Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 15.—At a point where several railroad ties were lower than usual, Mamie Jones, a school girl, was struck by a Pennsylvania passenger train. She was shoved between the ties and the engine and baggage car passed over her before the train was stopped. A trainman crawled under the car and lifted the girl out. She was unharmed. She said she did not know what had occurred, everything suddenly becoming black as night. The trainmen expected to find her cut to pieces.

Train in Ditch; Crew Scalded.
Elkton, Ky., Feb. 15.—Incoming passenger train No. 84 on the Elkton & Guthrie branch of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was ditched near Hermon, Engineer Hite, of Nashville, and Fireman McAfee, of this place, were caught under the locomotive, which was completely overturned, and both were terribly scalded before they could be rescued. Their injuries are serious and they will probably die. None of the passengers was injured.

Gave Infants Dope and One is in a Dying Condition.
Indianapolis, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Mary Woodfork, old and infirm, was arrested for running a baby farm, and it was shown that she had given five infants dope of some kind and one is now in a dying condition. One of the women who helped care for the babies when taken from the farm said that it was necessary to give them the bath in order to rouse them from their stupor they were in as a result of drugs administered by Mrs. Woodfork.

Woman Kills Herself in Trough.
Huntingdon, Pa., Feb. 15.—Mrs. William Shafer, of Mount Union, committed suicide by tying two flat irons to her neck and lying down lengthwise in a watering trough which contained but six inches of water. Worry over the continued illness of her father and mother and domestic troubles over her own are supposed to have induced her to take her life. She was thirty-seven years old.

$640 in Cash Burned
In a fire which on Saturday night last, destroyed the home of Frederick Pepper, at Troy, near Philipsburg, $640 in cash, which was in the house at the time, was also burned. Mr. Pepper and his family escaped from the burning building in their night clothes. A high wind was blowing at the time and the house was completely destroyed with nearly all its contents.—From Bellefonte Republican, February 19th, 1910.
If the owner of the money lost in the fire described above had heeded our advice his money would now be safe. After each reported loss we receive deposits from persons who have made a practice of keeping money at home. A few days ago a depositor left $1000 with us that had been kept in the house for many months; another gave us $500 that he had carried about him until the notes were nearly destroyed. Why should any one take such risks? Let us take care of your money. With our large capital and surplus and careful management you are absolutely secured.
