Bellefonte, Pa., February 25, 1910.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications hed unless accompanied by the real name

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

With rain and hail and sleet and snow The days they come and the weeks they go. And we sit and shiver and wonder when Spring onions and garlic will come again.

--- John Confer recently moved from Logan street to the Griffith home near Axe Mann.

---- Mrs. Louisa Btsh has recovered from a slight attack of the grip and is able to be around again.

----Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh, of fell and broke her leg near the ankle.

--- Dr. George F. Harris is moving this week from his old offices in the Curtin home to his new offices in the Gardner block on High street.

expects to attend the annual conference at Newberry next week.

-The strong Dickinson Seminary basket ball team went down before the Bellefonte Academy five last Friday evening by the score of 45 to 23.

--- James Pratt, of Unionville, a student in the Princeton Theological Seminary, preached on Sunday morning at Jacksonville and in the evening at Howard.

---On Monday Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard moved from the Crider house by Mrs. Florence F. Dale, on the eastern end of the same thoroughfare.

--- Mrs. Anna C. Woodcock has decidintending to spend the time with her sons, Dr. Lee and Rev. Jay Woodcock.

the present conference year in the local United Evangelical church. At the evening service the pastor will give a short review of the work done since the last conference.

lege to Dr. P. Hoffer Dale of Centre Hall. take a post graduate course in the Heidel. berg University.

---Philip Rose, of Hartford, Conn., twenty years or more ago as a tutor for Harvard University.

--- The Price-Butler Comedy company will be in Beliefonte in the near future for a return engagement at the ford Mallory will appear for two nights in high class tragedy.

-The ladies of St. John's Catholic day, for the benefit of the church. A much damage to the building, though Mr. the young men might be in this county will entertain her young friends at a hearty welcome will be extended to all who wish to participate.

--- Capt. Fry, commandant at The Pennsylvania State College, will spend his ance. Mr. Crider's loss on the room is in Penn township, this county, but moved leisure time the coming summer training fully covered by insurance. The paper to Atlantic City a number of years ago. was in Scottdale on Friday and bought a second hand Pierce Arrow car.

noon but yesterday he was considerably improved. Mrs. Elizabeth Glenn, of Snow Shoe, is critically ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. Clayton Rider, at Coleville.

Hall over a week ago to visit his parents. was seized with the grip and has been confined to the house most of the time since. Miss Mame Ceader has also been housed up with the grip the past week.

lain of the Post. It is very much appre-this (Friday) afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in to feed at farm buildings shows to what Petriken hall. Subject, "The Child in straits they are being driven for sustenis continued owing to the unusual inter- been received from men who work in the est manifested therein. All women invited to this meeting.

-Rev. Father O'Hanlon, who will lecture in the auditorium at State College tomorrow evening, gave a dramatic lecture last year on "Hamlet." The subject tomerrow night will be "Art Study of Shakespeare." This is his most recent lecture and one of his best.

-Upwards of five hundred people including the members, their wives and sweethearts and the members of the Lodge of Rebekahs attended the annual banquet of the Bellefonte Lodge I. O. O. F. on Wednesday evening. A Lukenbach presided as toastmaster and quite a number of speeches were made. Deitrich's orchestra furnished the music.

moving of their household effects.

ARRESTED AND JAILED ON FALSE AC-CUSATION .- At nine o'clock last Thursday | sick spell the latter part of last week but orchard train run jointly by the Division evening the police authorities in this place this week he has been somewhat improv- of Zoology of the Pennsylvania Departreceived a telephone dispatch from Hunt- ed. Mrs. Kurtz, who had a very bad at- ment of Agriculture, and the Pennsylingdon to arrest and hold Harry J. Cohen until officials from that place could come after him. The offense with which he was alleged to be guilty was hiring a horse and buggy from liveryman W. E. Milliken, of Huntingdon, about a year ago, driving the animal thirty or thirty-five miles into the country and leaving him there for the owner to hunt up and take home. As Harry J. Cohen, who works in Claster's Underselling store, was the only man by that name in Bellefonte policeman Harry Dukeman placed him under arrest. The young man stoutly maintained that it was all a mistake so far as he was concerned and offered to give bail for his appearance when wanted, but the anthorities would not accept bail and hustled him off Milesburg, slipped on the ice on Tuesday, to jail, where he was compelled to spend

Friday morning liveryman Milliken and constable Port came over from Hunt- will not take personal possession of the bring twigs of trees and other specimens and family. ingdon to get their prisoner but when they went to the jail they were very much -E. J. Teaman is the lay delegate of chagrined to discover that he was not the the local United Evangelical church and man at all. In apology Mr. Milliken stated that the name was the same but the Cohen who hired his horse was from New York. In the meantime Harry Cohen, of this place, not only suffered the humiliation of being compelled to spend a night in jail but he paid a lawyer five dollars as a retaining fee to defend him and then had no need of his services. He is now considering bringing an action against liveryman Milliken for damages for false

And just as if throwing a man into jail for nothing was not the limit of enduron west Linn street to the house vacated ance for any one Harry, on Sunday, had the hose carriage of the Logan fire comed to give up her house on Spring street and coming down High street he slipped and for the present store her furniture, and fell, the heavily loaded carriage running squarely over his legs. Fortunately he was not hurt in the least and not only ---Next Sunday will close the work of did good work at the fire but is on his job as usual this week.

Two Fires.-Bellefonte has had two fires this week and superstitious people are now predicting a third. The first one -Dr. John Robinson, who recently E. church on St. Paul street was comsold his extensive practice at State Col- pletely gutted and the roof burned off. The fire was discovered about 9.40 o'clock expects to go to Germany in the spring to and it is the general opinion that it original inated from the furnace in the basement When discovered the entire interior was in flames and it was impossible to save entered the Bellefonte Academy as a stul- the edifice. The church was a frame dent this week. He is a nephew of Tarl. structure and was built in 1859. The loss ton Goldthwaite, who was in Bellefonte is about $2,500 on which there is $1,000 insurance. The congregation in this place is not a large one and the loss of their church is quite a severe blow.

The second fire of the week was in Harry Macker's grocery store about 9.30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Macker was filling a cigar lighter with gasolene death of a young woman by the name of the floor and the room in general. The the authorities were hunting William and fire companies quickly responded and the Orvis Seyler, who were known to have time. Yesterday evening Mrs. Paul Shefchurch purpose giving a euchre party on flames were extinguished before they had been with the girl the last night she was the evening of March 17th, St. Patricks eaten their way out of the room or done and dollars, on which he had no insur- to Atlantic City. The Seylers were born himseif how to run an automobile as he stock of S. H. Williams, which was in the The family is well remembered by quite -Dr. James H. Dobbins had another is hard to determine just the amount of lieved was implicated in the girl's death attack of vertigo on Wednesday after- his loss. Whatever it is, however, is cov- and so far the authorities are in doubt as ered by insurance.

ON WILD GAME.—The deep snow in the being held as a witness. woods and prolonged spell of cold weath----Witmer Smith went over to Centre | er is proving hard on the wild game in the mountains, especially wild turkeys, pheasants and rabbits. Out in the neighborhood of Pleasant Gap there are two flocks of wild turkeys which are being regularly fed by the farmers. One flock -Mrs. James Harris recently pre- of nineteen turkeys is being fed by a sented to Gregg Post a very good portrait young son of Michael Kerstetter while a of her husband, who for years was chap- flock of twelve turkeys makes its appearance at regular intervals at the home of ciated by the members of the Post and county commissioner Harry E. Zimmerhas been hung over the chaplain's desk. man. The fact that wild turkeys will -A mother's meeting will be held thus come out of the cover of the woods School." The discussion of this subject ance. So far, however, no reports have woods of the finding of any unusual number of dead game of any kind and there is just a possibility that both birds and animals are still able to obtain food of

TO CHANGE CHURCH CHARGES-A meeting of pastors and prominent churchmen of Bald Eagle valley was held in the term of court will be held and, inasmuch Methodist church at Beech Creek last Friday evening to discuss the advisability of re-arranging the several charges in that | be tried, it is quite likely there will be section. At present one charge in the two full weeks of court. The new court try out of the difficulty. Of course Rev. valley is composed of Howard, Beech Creek, house is, of course, not completed; neith- Ward points to socialism as the solution, Hunter Run and Mt. Eagle churches. The er is the remodeling of the old building but in that he is simply laboring for the changes suggested is that a charge be finished but the court room and two jury made of the Howard, Jacksonville and rooms are so nearly done that they can he is employed and which is the official Mt. Eagle churches, with Howard the be utilized for holding court. The court head of the Socialist political party. But place of residence of the minister, and room is so changed from the old one that at that, he is a fluent talker and was at that another charge be made of the it is hard to recognize as the same room. at least entertaining if not convincing to -Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stinson ex- churches at Beech Creek, Hunter Run and The woodwork throughout is finished in pect in the near future to move from Laurel Run, the pastor to reside at Beech white and mahogany. There is a high Donora to Allentown where Mr. Stinson Creek. This would take Laurel Run from backed enclosed jury box, a new judges' has accepted a good clerical position with Mill Hall and leave that place a station desk, and a railing inside the bar separates at the Theological Seminary at Princeton, one of the steel companies there. Mrs. by itself. Conference superintendent B. the court officers from the attorneys and preached in the Presbyterian church on Stinson was formerly Miss Lillian Crit- C. Conner, of Altoona, was present at others interested in cases being tried. Sunday morning and evening, owing to tenden and she and her little baby will the meeting and approved the proposition Three sets of plate glass swinging doors the illness of Dr. J. Allison Platts. He is thing that Mr. Schmidt will miss in the future and come to Bellefonte for a few days stay for the changes and the same will likely separate the court room from the rear quite an interesting talker and made a that is the good old-time Democratic conventions while her husband is superintending the be brought before the various churches lobby and as far as completed it is all in favorable impression upon all who heard in the near future for their action.

----Hon. Frederick Kurtz had quite a tack of the grip, is also improving slowly. vania railroad company, for the purpose Mrs. W. I. Fleming was so ill with the of explaining methods of pruning and grip this week that her husband was summoned to her bedside from Harrisburg.

-Six new members were initiated into the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks on Monday evening and a number of others voted into membership. The handsome new home of the lodge on High street is an attraction for a great many and it would not be surprising if the membership reaches the two hundred mark in the near future.

---Nelson Marshall, of Union township, recently purchased the two Gregg be present at each stopping point, and farms in Pennsvalley, about midway be- have general charge of the arrangements tween Centre Hall and Linden Hall for The train will consist of one exhibition twelve thousand dollars. The farms are car and two lecture cars, and will be readat present tenanted by John A. Heckman ily found at or near the railroad station. and Daniel Callahan and Mr. Marshall same until April first, 1911.

-Col. James A. McClain is likely giving away souvenirs at the First National bank at Spangler this week because on Sunday night Mrs. McClain became the mother of a nice little daughter at the Col. J. L. Spangler home in this place. The colonel was here over Sunday but Mrs. McClain and the baby were doing so nicely on Monday that he returned

-Gregg Post cleared about twenty dollars at their supper on Tuesday evening and everybody there bore ample evidence of the sumptuousness of the meal. In fact it was said that commissioner's clerk Williams could hardly get away another mishap. He was helping pull from the table while A. A. Dale Esq., used up five cents worth of digestive pany to the fire at the A. M. E. church tablets in order to get away with all that was set in front of him.

-The Central Pennsylvania conference of the United Evangelical church so far as keeping things lively in a social will meet in annual session at Newberry, way is concerned, and among those who (West Williamsport) March 3rd. Among the important business which will be of others were the following: Beginning transacted will be the election of a new presiding elder and electing ten each of her daughter, Miss Lizzie, entertained ministerial and lay delegates to the gen- the merry little friends of the latter's was on Sunday forenoon when the A. M. eral conference which will meet at Canton, Ohio, next October.

-There is no place in Bellefonte like the Scenic in which to spend a half hour or so each evening. You are always certain of seeing a program of pictures varied enough to suit the taste of all. The very best film makers in the world are represented in the pictures shown at the Scenic and they are all new and up-to-date. Three thousand feet for five cents! No one can afford to miss such a treat. If you are not a regular patron it is time you get in the swim.

--- Last week the WATCHMAN publish- Washington ball, in the hall of the public ed an item relative to the mysterious building on Howard street, which was atwhen the fluid exploded setting fire to Jane Adams, of Atlantic City, and that The same fraternity expects to have seen alive. It at the time was thought dinner and this evening Catharine Allison Macker's stock was almost wholly ruined. but last Thursday they were both cap-Mr. Macker's loss is about one thous- tured at Petersburg, Va., and taken back room under Macker's store, was badly a number of people in the county. Wildamaged by water but at this writing it liam Seyler is the only one who it is beto whether they can hold him for more DEEP SNOW AND HARD WINTER HARD than manslaughter. His brother Orvis is -The month of March promises to be an unusually busy month for the Everhart family of Ferguson township. On the 11th of the month J. H. Everhart will have public sale on the old Oliver farm and will sell over one hundred head of live stock. On the 17th Ben Everhart and Miss Jessie Reed will he united in marriage and on the 22nd Miss Martha Everhart and Edward Johnson will also take the nuptial vows. On the 29th J. H. will move to Blair county and Mrs. Everhart senior will take rooms in Pine Grove. On the 30th Martha and her newly made husband will go to housekeeping in Bellwood and on the 31st Ben and his bride will take possession of the old homestead farm which has been in the Everhart family for over a quarter of a century. This will be a big change around for one family and the WATCHMAN wishes for one and all abundant success.

-Next week will be court week and for the first time since last May a regular as there is a large list of petty criminal cases as well as a big list of civil cases to conditions but it is another question to harmonious good taste.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-H. S. Linn was a business visitor in Philadel--Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson, of Alto.

ORCHARD TRAIN COMING.—The special spraying and otherwise caring for fruit trees and other plants, will visit this sec-

There will be exhibitions of apparatus, chemicals, insects, fruits and illustrated charts; and valuable literature pertaining to fruit culture will be distributed. Lectures will be given by different speakers during the entire time of each stop. The lectures of the evening stops will commence at 7 o'clock and will be illustrated

All persons interested are invited to of infested or diseased limbs for exami-

questions and obtain the latest informaweek. It will leave Tyrone Friday noon and be at Fowler from 1:05 to 2:20 p.

will be in Bellefonte over night, illustrated lectures being given here Friday evening

er of the past week has had no dampening effect upon the people of Bellefonte contributed to the gayeties and pleasure last Saturday evening Mrs. Longwell and niece Sarah, at a chicken and waffle supper at their home on Spring street. On Parker, and she was duly remembered with a shower of fifty-three postcards.

A. Beaver entertained at a small dinner in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Erle

Sparks, of State College. The same evening the Phi Psi Chi fraternity of the Bellefonte High school held their first social event in the shape of a Martha another dance about commencement fer entertained a number of friends at

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE FIGHTING

FORTY-FIFTH.—The members of that companies promises to be unusually large.

There will be a delegation from Washing ton, D. C., a squad from Kansas and a great many from Centre and adjoining counties. General Collins, of Williamsport, will deliver the address of welcome and on the evening of the 2nd there will be a rousing campfire. The Forty-fifth gained its reputation as a fighting regiment from having participated in thirty-four battles during the Civil war, most of them in the fierce fighting of the Virginia campaign. During the past few months eighteen of the regiment's old comrades have answered the last roll call,

Dr. Theodore S. Christ, last week, being

-A fair crowd attended the lecture given by Rev. W. A. Ward in Petriken hall on Tuesday evening. His subject of "The real issue, or why we find so few rich and many in poverty," was an interesting theme and was well discussed from Rev. Ward's socialistic standpoint, but the one important point, how to surely overcome present conditions, was not told. It is an easy matter to point out give a solution which will help the coun-national socialistic organization by which the last to be laid away.

those who heard him.

masquerade party.

Coburn from 10:10 to 11:40 a. m.

m.; at Julian from 2:40 to 4 p. m., and found both useful and valuable.

by means of lantern slides.

tion next week.

-Mrs. W. A. White spent Wednesday

veek at her old home at Lamar.

-Mrs. Edward Irwin is spending this week mong her many friends in Tyrone. -Mrs. Elmer E. Davis and children so day at the Orris home in Milesburg. -Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry were out in Pittsurg over Sunday visiting their son Leo

-Jacob Marks returned on Monday from a two eks visit with friends in New York city.

-Dr. Edith Schad was at Howard on Sunday -Mrs. Clara Denius attended the funeral of the

-Miss Emma Aiken has been away the past Prof. H. A. Surface, state zoologist, will week or ten days on a trip to New York and Bos

-Mrs. George Elliott and Miss Alice Wilson attended the finneral of Mrs. Hiltner in Tyrone on

-Charles P. Barnes came home from Baltimore last Saturday for a week's visit with his mother

-Edmund Blanchard returned on Wednesday from a week's business trip to New York and nation. They are also requested to ask

-Mr. and Mrs. James Lambert and daughter. tion on all orcharding subjects. Each of Braddock, have been visiting friends in Belle visitor will receive a copy of the "Orchard fonte this week.

Primer," just published by the Pennsyl--Mrs. Marcia Breese, of Downingtown, is in Bellefonte for an indefinite stay with Mrs. Curtin, vania railroad company, which will be of Curtin street.

-Miss Mame Hamilton returned the latter par The train will pass through Centre of last week from a week's visit with the Mccounty on Friday and Saturday of next Clains at Spangler. -Miss Holmes, of Wilkinsburg, who has been visiting Mrs. James Harris, expects to leave for Philadelphia today. -Messrs, Wallace H. Gephart and Frank Warfield were business visitors in Philadelphia the latter part of last week. from 7 to 9 o'clock. Saturday the train -Mrs. A. G. Morris left in the beginning of the will go over the Lewisburg and Tyrone week on a trip to Columbia, S. C., to visit her railroad and the stops will be at Centre son. Robert and wife.

Hall from 8:19 to 9:45 a. m., and at -Miss Bessie Dorworth was in Milton in the early part of the week attending the funeral of her uncle, Mr. John Jenkins. -John Curtin with his little son and James C. IN A SOCIAL WAY .- The variable weath-

> Mrs. Harry R. Curtin, at Curtin. -W. Harrison Walker Esq., attended the formal opening and dedication of the new Elk's home in Lock Haven on Tuesday night. -Mrs. A. M. Hibler, of this place, is enjoying a rest at Galen Hall, Atlantic City, where she expects to remain for several weeks. -Mr. W. C. Lingle, formerly one of Bellefonte's busiest business men, but now of Philipsburg. | Platts was a visitor in town on Saturday last. -Ruth and Walton Kerstetter and Fannie Rose of Hamburg, Dauphin county, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Yeager.

Monday evening Dr. Edith Schad gave a dinner at which seven covers were laid. -I. Harris Hov went to Clarence on Wednes day where he has accepted the position of head Tuesday was the birthday of little Mary ookkeeper and cashier for the Clarence Supply Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross

-Rev. John Hewitt was in Lock Haven last Thursday evening and preached to the congrega-On Tuesday evening Gen. and Mrs. James tion of St. Paul's Episcopal church, pleasing his hearers very much.

-Charles T. Noll, of the Bellefonte steam laundry, went to Rochester on Monday to accept a Laundry Machine company. -One of our very pleasant callers on Monday was Miss Benner, of Oak Hall, who came in as messenger from her brother, H. R. Benner, to fix his paper up for another year.

Mrs. James A. Beaver, in this place, Miss Anne Beaver, a cousin of the general, left on Monday norning for her home in Southern California.

-John Van Pelt came over from Barnesboro on tre Hall, to see his grandmother, Mrs John Spang-

-Miss Lillian Walker left last Friday for Philadelphia to spend several weeks studying the latest styles in ladies headwear before resuming her work as head milliner for Mrs. I. L. Heckwithe, at famous old fighting regiment, the Forty--Paul Wetzel, who holds a good position in the fifth, will hold their annual reunion at engineering department of the New York Central Williamsport on Wednesday and Thursailroad with headquarters at Corning, N. Y., was day of next week. March 2nd and 3rd. ome over Sunday visiting his parents. Hon, and The gathering promises to be one of the Mrs. J. H. Wetzel.

best in years. Gen. James a Beaver, Gen. -Mrs. Harvey C. Lingle and Mrs. Hinterleitner. of Patton, were in Bellefonte last week visiting John I. Curtin, Col. Austin Curtin and their grandmother, Mrs. Nora McClain, inasmuch Mai. R. T. Cheesman, of Washington, will as Mrs. Lingle will shortly leave for her new all be there, while the representation of minor officers and members of the various

-James Harris, of the firm of Newman & Harris, architects of New York, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday visiting his mother, Mrs. Louise Harris, and also seeing how the remodeling of the court ouse was progressing

-Mr. W. B. Thomas, of Milesburg, one of the oldest and most trusted employees of the Pennsylvania railroad company in this section, found ime on Monday to make a friendly call on the WATCHMAN, to help boost its circulation, and have the tab on his own copy advanced.

-Misses Genevieve Watkins and Helen Council, schoolmates of Miss Rachael Shuey at Dickinson Seminary, were her guests over Saturday and Sunday; a reception being given at the Shuey home on Friday evening in honor of the Seminary basketball team which played the Academy five that evening.

-Amos Cole, Robert Kreps and Misses Elizaeth and Catharine McCauley made up a party from Lewistown who drove over the Seven mountains on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tuten. They left at four o'clock on heir return trip and were caught in the rain before they reached home.

-Mr. Michael Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, one of the best Democrats in the county, as well as one of the fairest and most successful hunters in this section of the State, made a pleasant call on friends in town on Saturday. It was Mr. Kerstetter who started the feeding of the starved wild turkeys out at the Gap and which promises to preserve a flock of nineteen for the hunting sea.

-The many friends of 'Squire H. Laird Curtin were very glad to see him in town on Wednesday afternoon and evening. It is a little over ter weeks since he was stricken with pneumonia and being as near death's door as he was his recovery was almost as one returned from the grave. Not ing the fact that he is still a little weak in the knees he is looking very good and it will not be long until he will be as chipper and spry as

-Sol. Schmidt, of Philipsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor Tuesday night and part of Wednesday The most of Tuesday evening he spent with his ---Ernest Hunsel, a graduate student old friend Abe Baum, as it is a fact not generally known that they were boys and grew up togeth pleasure for them to get together now and discuss those far off days in the Faderland. There is one of the past, as he could always be depended upon to be present and not infrequently took an activ

-Mrs. Daniel Hall, of Unionville, visited friends

-Mrs. George Benner, of Centre Hall, was a shopper in town on Wednesday

-Mrs. J. C. Lykens, of Scotia, spent yesterday in Bellefonte as the guest of Robert Road -Mr. and Mrs. William F. Shope, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefo -Mr. and Mrs. Bert Le Van. of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin on Tuesday

-Rev. Max Lantz, of Spring Mills, was a guest on Tuesday night of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas 5

-Mrs. George Grimm, of Thomas street, leaves today for a three week's visit with friends in Pittsburg. -Miss Ethel Irvin, of Westfield, N. J., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Potts Green, on Linn street. -Judge and Mrs. John G. Love, after a three week's visit at Atlantic City, returned to their home yesterday. -Joseph Huffert, of Jersey Shore, has come to Bellefonte as a new employee of the Pennsylvania

-Andrew Fink, a prominent contractor of Mahaffey, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Runkle -Mrs. R. Russell Blair left on Monday for a visit with her parents. Dr. and Mrs. George I

Bible, of Philadelphia -Mrs A. L. English and daughter, Elizabeth of Jersey Shore, are visiting at the Altenderfe home on Howard street

-John and James Franks, of the Coast artiller three month's furlough.

-Mrs. Kinney, whose home is in Kansas, is in Bellefonte on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. Isaac Longacre.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fay, of Altoona, spen Washington's birthday with Mrs. Fay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, on Linn street.

-Miss Clara Mapes, of Clearfield, will arrive in Bellefonte Saturday for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Schreffler, of Thomas street.

-Howard Holzworth and R. T. Comley were two of Unionville's representative citizens who transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

-Mrs. Russell Jury spent Tuesday night with her parents in Tyrone, owing to the fact that there

-John Curtin with his little son and James C.
Furst spent Sunday with the former's mother, ter of business while Mrs. Snyder did some shop

-Mrs. Jennie Wasson, who is taking life easy at Stormstown, was a Bellefonte shopper and a welcome visitor at the WATCHMAN office on Sat.

-Rev. E. S. Wallace, of Philadelphia, a former United States consul to Jerusalem, has been the guest the past week of Dr. and Mrs. J. Allison

-On Sunday J. E. Ward and family and Mrs. John I. Olewine drove to State College and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. David O. Etters and

-The Misses Katharine and Elizabeth Harvey. of Jersey Shore, are in Bellefonte visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mont

-Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Decker took their little daughter Helen, to Kane on Wednesday, where they will remain for a month or so for the benefit

-George Williams, of Lemont, was in town yes terday and proved a regular fairy god-father in position as traveling salesman for the American this office by fixing up the subscriptions to the WATCHMAN of two of his friend who was at Milton attending the funeral of his uncle, the late John Jenkins, spent Tuesday night and Wednesday forenoon at his home in this place. -Robert D. Foreman, the hustling coal and Saturday and on Sunday he accompanied Col. J. grain dealer of Centre Hall, was a business visitor L. Spangler and Miss Katharine Brisbin to Cen. in Bellefonte on Wednesday and took time to drop dollar into the subscription basket of the WATCHMAN.

-John Toner Harris, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday in town in the interest of the Pennsylva nia telephone company, and also visited his moth-er, Mrs. Henry Harris, on Howard street.

> -Three of Centre Hall's most progressive citizens who had business in town on Tuesday were Mr. J. H. Weber, Mr. R. D. Foremen and Mr. E. M. Huyett, all of these are readers of the WATCH-MAN, and men who know a good thing when the

> -E. M. Huvett, the well known lu Centre Hall, came into the WATCHMAN office on Wednesday and enrolled his name as a subscriber to the paper. He is one of the leading partners in the Huyett-McNitt Lumber company who have everything about ready at their big plant at Waddle to begin extensive lumbering operations in the Barrens just as soon as weather conditions be have been at work ere this had it not been for the deep snow and cold weather.

----Mrs. Norman Thompson was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment on Wednesday.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce otatoes per bushel Eggs, per d

Bellefonte Grain Markets

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press White Wheat

Rye, per bushel

Corn, shelled, per bushel

Corn, ears, per bushel

Oats, old and new, per bu

Barley, per hushel

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Published every Friday more, at $1.00 per annum (if paid 50, when not paid in advance except at the option of the pu Papers will not be sent out less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to

SPACE OCCUPIES $5 | $8 | $ 10