-Ex-sheriff Cyrus Brungart, of Centre Hall, was a juror in attendance at court this week and found time on Monday to make us a brief call. He is very much interested in the Fruit Growers association of Centre county and hopes to see the time when that organization will be so large and influential that it will be able to purchase a piece of land and start a fruit culture farm for experiental purposes.

-Isaac M. Harvey, of State College, was in Bellefonte between trains on Monday morning while on his way home from attending the funeral of Mrs. Leathers, at Howard. He made this office a brief call and incidentally informed us that the State College Transportation company would resume their automobile service between and the roads would permit doing so.

-A short note from Mrs. E. K. Smith, of Hart, Michigan, formerly of Oak Hall, this county says; "We like our new home very much. This is a great fruit country, and a fine place to live. The WATCHMAN reaches us regularly and is en ble. Mr. Lingle also has an order for a joyed greatly. In fact it gives us such an amount of Centre county news that we are kept booked up in all that is worth knowing about our old home. We wouldn't think of trying to get along without it.

-George R. Meek, Miss Mary Gray Meek, of this place, and Dr. Eloise Meek, of Johnstown, returned last Saturday from their month's trip to New Orleans and Panama with the National Editorial association and any reader of the WATCHMAN who is interested in knowing how they enjoyed the trip can judge for himself by reading the story of it which will be publish next week:

-Mrs. Della Goodfellow, of Curtin, was in Bellefonte vesterday and called at the WATCH MAN office to make sure of getting her paper regularly. She had quite a serious time with sickness during the winter and was in the hospital a good part of the time but is now in pretty good health. Years ago she used to live in Belle fonte and remembers the town as it was before it had many business houses of any size.
