

Navy Paymaster Robbed.
Three thousand five hundred dollars were stolen from the safe of Paymaster Lawrence Gilman Haughey aboard the United States gunboat Castine, now at the navy yard at Boston. The safe, when the robbery was discovered, was locked, and Paymaster Haughey's room, where the safe was, was locked. An attendant has since found $680 hidden behind a bathtub on board the vessel.
A board of inquiry consisting of the yard paymaster and two senior officers in service at Charlestown is at work trying to unravel the mystery. There is no doubt on the part of the investigating board that the thief is connected with the Castine.

Trenton Carmen Win Strike.
The strike on the Trenton, N. J., Street railway has been settled, an agreement signed and the strikers are back at work on the cars.
The company acceded to substantially all the demands of the men, except the formal recognition of the union, which was virtually included in a provision that the company should treat with a committee of the men as to future differences which might arise.

Thugs Rob Paymaster.
Edward McGann, of Pittsburg, paymaster for the Dexter Coal company, and Robert Pommering were attacked by thugs between Brilliant and the Dexter Coal company's works, near Brilliant, O., beaten until unconscious and robbed of $4000 contained in a satchel they carried. They were found bleeding and senseless beside their rig by farmers.
Moundsville, W. Va., has been asked to send bloodhounds to help run down the robbers.

Hanged Herself With Silk Stockings.
With her silk stockings lightly knotted together, one end bound around her fair neck and the other fastened to a shower bath in the private bathroom of her luxurious suite, the lifeless body of beautiful Selma Ruth Kaufman, twenty-eight years of age, of New York, was found in the fashionable New Hotel White, Fifth avenue, McKeesport, Pa.
STRICTLY ON HIS MERITS.
My record in business and politics during the past thirty years is an open book which may read and I desire to before the voters in this campaign on my merits.
In conclusion, I wish to state plainly that I shall make no pre-election promises, either directly or indirectly, to any man that he shall be appointed to office if I meet with success in the primaries and at the general election, reserve to myself the privilege of going into office with an open field for future action.
Upon the foregoing statement I respectfully ask for your hearty support.

Killed Romping With Children.
Michael Garahan, residing at Doranetown, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was killed while he was playing with his four children. He was romping with them before going out and promised to carry one downstairs on his back. The child got to him, and he tripped, fell downstairs, fractured his skull and was dead in a short time.

Entire Family Cremated.
John Wagstaff, his wife and their eight children, colored, were burned to death in their home, seven miles northwest of Roxboro, N. C., in a fire which destroyed their home.

—The cattle of the United States on the first day of January, 1910, had a total value of $1,697,761,000. This is an increase of $131,062,000 over the figures for the same date in 1909.

EMERY A CANDIDATE.
Well Known Bradford Oil Man Enters the Contest for Congress and Asks the Support of the Republican Party—Believer in the Roosevelt Policies and the Square Deal.
The following statement was given to the press yesterday by Hon. Lewis Emery, of Bradford, and is self-explanatory:
To the voters of the Twenty-First Congressional District of Pennsylvania:
I take this occasion of announcing myself as a candidate for Congress, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the 21st district at the primaries to be held in June, 1910.
It would hardly seem necessary for me to explain my position on matters pertaining to the interests of the people, as I have been connected with the politics of Pennsylvania for more than thirty years, and during several years of that time I have represented my constituents in the State Legislature. And for all of these thirty years during which I have been before the public, my name has been synonymous with clean politics, reform and the square deal. In all that I have done, I have endeavored to uphold the principles of my party, although I have many times been obliged to fight those in the party who have been seeking private gain, rather than party and public good.
The role of reformer, thirty years ago, was far from being a pleasant or even a safe one. More than ordinary courage was required in those days to persevere in the narrow road of reform and to surmount the obstacles placed in the way by enemies within and without the party.
NEVER A DOUBTFUL POSITION.
The fight has been a long and bitter one, but my position in the field has never been a doubtful one. I have ever stood for principle and have met my opponents squarely in the open. Many times I have gone down to defeat. A few times I have won against fearful odds; but never have I lost courage or hope of the final triumph of a just cause—the cause of the people as against corporate control of politics and business. Never have I ceased to fight for just laws for the regulation of corporate power and illegal combination and I have always been in accord with the policy pursued by Theodore Roosevelt.
So long have I fought the good fight and so intimately have I been connected with the great questions agitating the people of Pennsylvania today, that I feel I am justified in asking you, the voters of the Twenty-First district, for your hearty support at the primaries in June.
My business interests are large and my time is valuable, but I am willing to give my time and means to your interests. However, I wish it to be plainly understood by all, that if I am accorded the nomination I seek, I shall be glad to pay all lawful expenses of the campaign which will follow. But, I shall not be willing to conduct a vote buying, boodle campaign.
STRICTLY ON HIS MERITS.
My record in business and politics during the past thirty years is an open book which may read and I desire to before the voters in this campaign on my merits.
In conclusion, I wish to state plainly that I shall make no pre-election promises, either directly or indirectly, to any man that he shall be appointed to office if I meet with success in the primaries and at the general election, reserve to myself the privilege of going into office with an open field for future action.
Upon the foregoing statement I respectfully ask for your hearty support.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
FOR CONGRESS.
To the Editor: I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 10, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest requests of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policy. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans in this district.

DREADNAUGHT CARS.
The nub of railroading is first-class equipment and reliable service. The Pennsylvania Railroad provides this for the public. For many months big all-steel coaches, built like Dreadnaughts, have been operated on all through trains. Their easy-riding qualities and steadiness of motion have been widely praised. The all-steel dining cars too have distinct advantages over the wooden ones. They are stronger and sturdier, and the act of eating is made more enjoyable by the smoother movement.
There are also some steel Pullman Cars—Combined Parlor-Smokers and Baggage—in the service now. Travelers like them. They have plenty of elbow room and they glide over the rails. The Sleeping Cars are coming. Some four hundred parlor and sleeping cars will be in use by Summer.
These steel coaches and cars are the strongest vehicles ever built for passenger transportation. They are fire proof, break proof and bend proof. They represent the climax of safety and the perfection of comfort in railroad travel.
The Pennsylvania Railroad has always been the leader in all manner of improved equipment as well as in all methods of making their patrons more comfortable. This is why it is known and honored as The Standard Railroad of America. 55-10-2t
