THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—The Ladies of the Macabees will entertain at five hundred in their hall in the McClain block this Friday, evening.

—L. D. Boyce, of Snow Shoe, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital on Tuesday for the purpose of undergoing an operation.

—The forty hour devotion will begin in St. John's Catholic church next Sunday, April 17th. It will be conducted by a Passionist Father.

—The Presbyterians of State College have decided to build a new twenty-five thousand dollar church and it is the hope that the edifice can be completed this summer.

—Spring chickens have been offered for sale in Bellefonte. They were hatched in January, weigh probably one and a half pounds each and the price asked is sixty cents each.

—There are two more cases of scarlet fever in town, Russell Smith, son of Wither Smith, and Mary Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Armstrong, on Water street.

—Edward J. Williams, who was confined to the house for a week or more with illness, has recovered sufficiently to be back at his desk as clerk to the county commissioners.

—Poor Mr. Trout! Today your troubles begin. Not only will you have to keep shy of the alluring bait on penalty of your life, but what a lot of lies you will cause to be told.

—The wedding of D. Paul Fortney and Miss Alice Mae Ishler, daughter of ex-sheriff and Mrs. William A. Ishler, will take place at the Ishler home on Wednesday, May 4th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

—The foundation for the new club house at Hecla has been completed and work on the building will be begun in a day or two. Inasmuch as it is to be finished by the fourth of July it will be necessary to push the work of construction quite rapidly.

—Three Pittsburg capitalists were in Centre county on Wednesday looking over the coal and fire clay lands of Christ Sharer in Taylor and Rush townships with a view of purchasing the same. Should a deal be consummated new coal mines will be opened up and brick works built.

—Quite a number of Bellefonters went to State College last Saturday to see the Ben Greet players in their production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" and "A Midsummer Night's dream." and it was the opinion of some of them, at least, that they were hardly up to their standard of last year.

—At the euchre in St. John's Catholic hall on Wednesday evening the prize winners were as follows: Mrs. Emil Joseph first; Mrs. Oscar Yergler second, and Helen Bezer the booby prize for the ladies, while the men winners were Orin Kline first, J. H. Decker second and John Martin the booby.

—There is nothing new this week in the baseball situation, so far as the organization of a Central Pennsylvania league is concerned. Bellefonte would like to play ball but there seems to be a lack of enthusiasm in other towns which so far has been detrimental to the organization of a league.

—The Bellefonte Moose have leased the house belonging to the Brockerhoff estate on Spring street, now occupied by Mrs. Charles Cruse and family and will have it remodeled and fixed up into a comfortable home. They will get possession about May first and expect to have it ready for occupancy inside of six weeks.

—T. Clayton Brown, manager of the Scenic, yesterday received notice that he had been booked for the famous Pathe pictures of Roosevelt in Africa for Monday, May 9th. There are two thousand feet of these pictures and they are the first ever taken in that part of the world and the only ones of Teddy on his famous hunting trip.

—Charles Long, the popular landlord of the Clinton house at Mill Hall, has decided that he is entitled to more money for entertaining guests than he has been getting so has raised his rates from $1.50 to $2.00 per day. Mr. Long is a frequent visitor in Bellefonte and if he were to charge for his affability he would be entitled to most any price.

—The Bellefonte Lime company expect to put their plant at Salona in operation today (Friday). It is their desire to start up full-handed, if possible, which will mean employment for from one hundred to one hundred and thirty men. This plant has been closed down for two years and its resumption means a whole lot to Salona and vicinity.

—The Bellefonte Academy base ball team lost their game with State College last Friday afternoon by the score of 12 to 4. By persistent rooting of the college students the Academy boys went up in the air in the fifth inning and made a big bunch of errors which resulted in State scoring eight runs. On Saturday morning the Academy defeated the Bucknell Academy, of Lewisburg, by the score of 8 to 3.

PRESBYTERY OF HUNTINGDON.—The regular spring meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery was held in the Presbyterian church in this place Monday evening and Tuesday. The first session convened at 7.30 o'clock Monday evening when the retiring moderator, Rev. W. L. Whallon, of the Broad Avenue church, Altoona, preached the opening sermon and afterwards constituted the meeting with prayer. The roll call showed an unusually large attendance of members.

Rev. J. H. Mathers, D. D., was unanimously elected moderator for the ensuing year. Rev. N. A. Leith, of Winburne, was chosen permanent clerk, and Rev. D. N. Dobson, of Bellwood, reading clerk. Rev. D. E. Hepler asked that the pastoral relations existing between him and the Williamsburg church be dissolved as he had accepted a call from the Elders Ridge church. The evening session was dismissed after the report of Dr. J. Allison Platts, chairman of the committee of arrangements, was read.

Tuesday morning's session opened with a half hour's devotional service led by Rev. W. K. Harnish. The treasurer of the committee on Presbyterial missions and supplies reported a balance on hand of $560.84.

Rev. George T. Gunter asked to be released from the pastorate of the Tyrone church so he could accept a call from the church at Kokomo, Ind.

Rev. William Carlos Perez was received into the Presbytery from the Presbytery of West Jersey, he having accepted a call from the church at Millroy, and arrangements were made for his installation. Rev. Robert C. Hallett was received from the Presbytery of New Castle to accept a call from the church of South Altoona, and Rev. C. E. Patton was received in the Presbytery as a missionary in China. A call from the church of Glen Richey for Rev. R. M. Jones was read, found in order and retained in the hands of Presbytery until he is received.

The call of Rev. W. C. Thompson from the church of East Kishacoquillas was also read, found in order and retained in the hands of Presbytery.

It was decided to hold an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery at Academia on May 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m., and the regular fall meeting at Reedsville in October.

Rev. J. F. Diener, Dr. W. H. Schuyler, Rev. A. R. Day and elders J. F. Ellsworth, William P. Humes and Frank Brewer were elected commissioners to the General Assembly which will be held at Atlantic City in May.

The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $1,118.69. Reports were read by the chairman of the committees on Sunday schools, young peoples societies, evangelistic work, Presbyterial missions and supplies, and temperance.

J. Max Kirkpatrick, of Mount Union, was taken under the care of Presbytery as a student for the ministry.

Revs. H. H. Stiles, R. P. Miller and S. T. Lewis were appointed a committee on the Western Theological Seminary. J. L. Somerville, of Winburne, was re-elected a trustee of Presbytery.

Arrangements were made to celebrate, during the fall meeting at Reedsville, the twenty-fifth anniversary of Presbyterial missions. It was also voted to hold an adjourned meeting at Tyrone on June 14th, at eleven o'clock.

Mr. G. B. St. John, an expert of the Home Board, who has been making a survey of sociological conditions in Huntingdon Presbytery, made an interesting report on conditions found as a result of close personal inspection.

At the Tuesday afternoon session memorial services were held in honor of Dr. William Laurie, D. D., LL. D., Rev. W. P. Benedict and elder James Harris. Dr. J. Allison Platts read a carefully prepared sketch of the life and work of Dr. Laurie and he was followed by Rev. R. M. Campbell who spoke of him as a Presbyterian and Rev. John Hewitt, of the Episcopal church, paid a glowing tribute to him as a citizen. Notwithstanding the difference in their ages Dr. Laurie and Rev. Hewitt entered college to study for the ministry the same year, graduated the same year, had had the same number of charges up until Dr. Laurie's death and had been warm personal friends for years.

Rev. J. H. Mathers read a sketch of the life of elder James Harris and spoke of his character, and James R. Hughes read a touching tribute to his memory prepared by Gen. James A. Beaver. Rev. H. H. Stiles read a memorial minute on the death of Rev. W. P. Benedict, late pastor of the South Altoona church. At the closing session Tuesday evening Rev. C. O. Anderson read the narrative of the state of religion, and it was decided to hold an evangelistic conference at Birmingham September 12th and 13th.

The popular meeting on Tuesday evening was addressed by Rev. W. L. Mudge, whose theme was "Missions Within the Bounds of Presbytery." Rev. Thomas C. Moffett, of the Board of Home Missions, introduced his address on work among the Indians with the statement that the Board had closed the year under most favorable circumstances.

After the popular meeting another business session was held at which a number of routine affairs were disposed of. After a vote of hearty thanks to the people of Bellefonte for their generous hospitality Presbytery adjourned.

—David Beightol, a prosperous farmer of Nittany valley, left on Wednesday for a six month's trip through the west.

—M. M. Morris Jr., who for the past year or two has been chemist for the American Lime and Stone company in this place, resigned his position and on April first went to Saltsburg, Va., as chemist at the largest soda ash manufacturing plant in the United States. His place here has been taken by Harry A. Davis, who came here from the Pennsylvania laboratories, Altoona.

—"The Call of the Wild" company did not give their matinee and evening performance in the opera house on Saturday. They did not arrive in Bellefonte until the 1.05 train and had not time to get ready for a matinee. In the evening because the advance sale of seats was small the owner of the show refused to put it on and consequently there was no "Call of the Wild" Saturday night.

—Bellefonte has a reputation all over the country for its many pretty girls and the number is increasing right along for on Saturday night a little stranger came to the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Coburn Rogers and on Sunday morning another made her appearance in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Smith. Of course it will be some time before they will be in society but then they are growing right along.

—One day last week while Robert Young was ploughing on his farm in Penn township one of his horses broke through the ground and sank so that only his head and forelegs were visible. It was with some difficulty that the animal was rescued from its perilous position and then an examination disclosed the fact that the ground there was less than a foot in thickness and that underneath was a cavern twenty feet deep.

—Lewis Schad sustained a broken shoulder in a bicycle accident on Tuesday afternoon. He was riding down from the Bellefonte Academy and just as he went to turn the corner onto Spring street he was confronted by a rapidly approaching automobile. He was going at a fair rate of speed and in getting out of the way of the machine he collided with a tree and sustained a broken shoulder. He was taken to his parent's home on north Spring street where a physician reduced the fracture.

—If you got out of bed at 4.30 o'clock this morning and took a look you possibly saw Halley's widely celebrated comet. But in the event you did not, you can see it to-morrow morning or any morning thereafter until May 17th. Until that time it will be visible in the eastern sky in the morning. After May 17th it will be visible in the evening in the western sky. Inasmuch as this comet appears only every seventy-six years you had better take a look at it this time as you might be where you can't see it when it comes again.

—Col. H. S. Taylor recently bought a neat looking and comfortable rubber tired carriage and now there is not a prouder man in town than high constable James Matthews when he is handling the ribbons behind the colonel's handsome bay team. But just because the colonel bought a carriage it must not be supposed that he has given up automobiling, for he hasn't. He has never yet admitted defeat in anything and he is just as determined to conquer that old Winton machine which, he says, will be ready for another set-to in about two weeks.

—Alarmed over the arrest and legal proceedings begun against alleged bucket shop operators by the United States authorities two weeks ago the brokerage firm of Harkness Bros., of Pittsburg, went out of business at the close of the market last Thursday afternoon, which naturally closed the office of T. S. Strawn in this place, who was their correspondent. The firm was in a perfectly solvent condition and all customers either have or will be paid in full. Mr. Strawn expects to secure another house in the near future and in the meantime he with his wife and little daughter are away on an automobile trip through the western part of the State, having left on Sunday.

—On Tuesday, April 26th, at eleven o'clock a. m., Miss Elizabeth Eckert Brown, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Brown, of this place, will be united in marriage to Robert Wallace Wray, of Harrisburg. The ceremony will take place at the home of Mrs. James Harris, on Spring street, and will be performed by Dr. J. Allison Platts, while only a few very intimate friends have been invited to witness it. The bridegroom-elect holds a responsible position in the motive power department on the Philadelphia division of the Pennsylvania railroad with headquarters at Harrisburg and they will go to housekeeping in that city immediately upon their return from their wedding trip.

—On Monday sheriff W. E. Hurley went to Huston township, near Julian to serve a writ of ejectment on a woman by the name of Green. When he got there he found all the doors locked and barricaded and the windows fastened. On demanding admittance he was told by the woman that if he forced an entrance into the house she would kill him. The threat, however, did not deter the sheriff in the discharge of his duty and he forced the door from its hinges. Hardly had he stepped inside when he got a terrific blow on the head from an axe handle wielded by Mrs. Green. The blow did not stun him and he immediately grappled with the woman, disarmed her of the axe handle and was compelled to throw her down and hold her while he read the writ of ejectment.

BELLEFONTE MOTOR CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING AND BANQUET.—A large attendance of members was present at the first annual meeting of the Bellefonte Motor club, which were held on Monday evening in room No. 41 at the Brockerhoff house. The secretary's report for the year showed that the club had thirty-three active members. The treasurer's report showed the total receipts to be $168.00, expenditures $120.39, leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $47.61. Inasmuch as the club was organized and has among its objects the improving of the public roads in Centre county and the welfare and protection of every man who drives a vehicle of any kind, whether it be an automobile or a buggy, it was the sentiment of the members that a concerted effort be made to increase the membership of the club during the ensuing year. In Bellefonte, State College, Howard and throughout Pennsylvania there are close to one hundred owners of automobiles and every man ought to be a member of the club. The interest of one is the interest of all and more good can be accomplished through concerted action than by individual effort.

The question of the condition of the roads in the county was pretty thoroughly discussed. It was brought out that in some districts the supervisors are already at work and painstakingly removing the loose stone from the roads while in other districts no attention is being paid to this work, which is required by law and for which there is a penalty for non-compliance. In view of the fact that many supervisors perhaps do not have the law on this matter the act has been printed and a copy will be mailed by the secretary of the club to each supervisor in the county. Another matter discussed was the breakers on the road and the lack of disposition on the part of some supervisors to get rid of them as much as possible by installing a system of underground drainage so far as they are financially able to do. The breaker is not only a nuisance but it has been declared by at least two common pleas judges in the State to be a menace to safety in public travel and the courts have upheld actions for damages where automobiles or other vehicles have been broken by reason of a big breaker. In addition, the supervisors are liable to prosecution for maintaining a nuisance, is the opinion of the judge of Potter county. On this matter a committee composed of N. B. Spangler, Col. H. S. Taylor and Col. W. Fred Reynolds was appointed to call the attention of the supervisors to the dangers of the breaker and their culpability in maintaining them, and what recourse can be taken under the law.

The bad condition of some of the streets and crossings in Bellefonte was also commented upon and Dr. J. L. Seibert, Charles R. Kurtz, Hugh N. Crider and Robert F. Hunter were appointed a committee to interview the chairman of the Street committee and take the matter up with council to have such few minor repairs made as would make them better for travel.

The secretary read an invitation from the Lewistown board of trade to be present at a public meeting to be held on Friday, April 22nd, at two o'clock p. m., for the purpose of planning some way for the repair and upkeep of the road through the Lewistown Narrows. A number of members signified their willingness to attend and it is likely a good sized delegation will go.

On motion of Dr. J. L. Seibert all the old officers were elected for the ensuing year after which the club adjourned and the members with the burgess and newspaper men as their guests repaired to the spacious dining room of the Brockerhoff house where they partook of a most appetizing banquet. When the menu had been thoroughly discussed president Robt. F. Hunter assumed the roll of toastmaster but the supply of gasoline was evidently too low, for aside from brief speeches by Col. Taylor, burgess John J. Bower and one or two others he could not get an explosion from any of them. But at that all felt that "it was good to be there."

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Miss Pearl Royer spent Sunday with friends in Eagleville.

—John Curry is home from Buffalo, N. Y., for a brief visit with his father.

—Mrs. Samuel Foster and little son Eddie, of Juniata, are visiting at the Foster home in this place.

—Jerome G. Harper, of Clymer, spent several days at home this week with his mother who is very seriously ill.

—Robert Fry, who is holding down a good position in Allegheny, spent several days the past week with his parents in this place.

—H. Elton Crider, of Tyrone, whose family were originally from Buffalo Run, this county, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

—Peter Smith, one of the enterprising citizens of Spring Mills, attended to a little business in Bellefonte yesterday and was a welcome caller at this office.

—Mrs. Geo. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, with her little granddaughter, Martha Geiss, of this place, were callers at the WATCHMAN office on Wednesday.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings has returned from Harrisburg, where she spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Hickok, and opened up her home here for the summer.

—O. C. Campbell came up from Scranton yesterday and went over to Fat Cherrity's on the Seven mountains where he will spend four or five days fishing for trout.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Knatz and their two children, of Syracuse, N. Y., are spending ten days with Mr. Knatz's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brewer.

—Miss Edith Dale returned to Wilson college on Tuesday and Miss Grace Cook to Walnut Lane on Thursday after spending their Easter vacation with their parents in Bellefonte.

—Miss Jennie Morgan is in Altoona with her sister, Mrs. Sidney Bartlett, who is seriously ill for the first operation, which she underwent during the beginning of the week.

—Mr. George Bridge, of Jersey Shore, was a business visitor in Bellefonte yesterday and took time to come in and make himself solid with the WATCHMAN for quite a time in advance.

—Miss Etta Long, of New York city, is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Young, on Allegheny street, and at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Long at Wingate.

—Isaac Chambers, who is with the Westinghouse people in Pittsburg, returned to his work on a part of the week, after spending several days with his father, Col. E. R. Chambers.

—Mrs. Charles Smith and daughter, Miss Lulu, returned from Philadelphia last Thursday evening, where they spent the winter, and have opened up their home here for the summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Crider drove to Tyrone on Saturday in Mr. Crider's Mathewson car and remained until Monday morning with Mrs. Crider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman.

—Miss E. M. Thomas, who has been spending the greater part of the winter in Whitford, Pa., came to Bellefonte two weeks ago expecting to spend an indefinite time with friends in the town.

—Capt. W. A. Simpson, of Lock Haven, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday, the first time in almost a year, but he is still looking as young and spry as when he was at the head of Company H.

—Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris and Mrs. John M. Shugert and two children went to Atlantic City on Wednesday where they will stay an indefinite time for the benefit of the doctor's health.

—Samuel H. Donachy recently underwent an operation in the Williamsport hospital and Mrs. Donachy is spending the week in that city in order to be near him and cheer him up while confined to the institution.

—Miss Overton, Mrs. Furst, Mrs. McCoy, Miss Anna McCoy and Miss Kate Shugert are the members of the Bellefonte chapter who will attend the annual meeting of the D. A. R. which will be in session in Washington next week.

—Joseph T. Loe, of Pittsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor over Sunday. He now has a good position in the Smoky city and is nicely located, but still the same old Joe he used to be when climbing electric light poles around Bellefonte.

—Miss Louise Gessner, of Coleville, was a very pleasant caller at the WATCHMAN office on Wednesday morning. She just recently returned from an extended visit with friends in Johnstown and naturally was quite enthusiastic over the nice time she had while there.

—Mrs. William Dawson who has been for some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Moore, in Philadelphia, returned to Bellefonte last week with her Mrs. Harvey Griffith, who will be joined by Mr. Griffith, when they together will visit for an indefinite time in Centre county.

—J. Malcolm Laurie, cashier of the First National bank of Winburne, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday visiting his aunt and cousin, Mrs. William Laurie and daughter Bertha. This was his first trip to Bellefonte in a year and he is looking so good in every way that it is a safe conclusion that banking agrees with him and he will it.

—Hugh V. Rooney, who, four years ago was in Bellefonte representing the Philadelphia Life Insurance company, was a visitor here this week. He is now located in Pittsburg and is at the head of a bank-promoting scheme which looks wondrously large. Last summer he spent several months in Europe and contemplates making another trip this year.

—C. M. Harnies, of Pittsburg, general representative of the United Assurites company, of Baltimore, with two friends are down on Fishing creek for two days of trout fishing. Mr. Harnies came to Bellefonte on Wednesday evening and while here yesterday took a walk out to the big spring to see the trout therein and he openly confessed that it made his mouth water to look at them.

—W. Harrison Walker Esq., returned on Sunday from Columbus, Ohio, where he attended the annual meeting of the National Chapter Delta Chi fraternity, where he was accorded the honor of being made the presiding officer over a body of over two hundred and fifty men—prominent lawyers from all over the United States—and at the final session he was presented the gavel of the presiding officer, a handsome rosewood one tied with a pink ribbon.

—Postmaster Phil D. Foster and Hon. Robert M. Foster, of State College, were in Bellefonte on business on Monday. They are cousins and while the former is a rampant Republican the latter is a staunch Democrat, but in one respect they are alike and that is in the way they both stand up for State College and their faith in its future. Of course the stability of the town depends entirely upon the growth of the college and if well wishes will do any good then it certainly has a great future in front of it.

—An automobile party who came to Bellefonte Saturday evening were Lyle G. Hall, son of Hon. J. K. F. Hall, of Ridgway, J. D. Heard, E. L. Foxst and C. T. Cooney, four undergraduates of Yale college who had been ascending a few days at the Hall home and were on their way back to Stearns car. They spent the night at the Brock-barth house and left early Sunday morning intending to go to Williamsport for breakfast. Cooney is centre on the Yale football team and last year was picked for the All-American eleven.

—Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, was a business visitor in Bellefonte yesterday.

—Latimer Campbell, of Muncy, spent Sunday in Bellefonte visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooke.

—Norman Sheer and Thomas Beaver were in Snow Shoe the week end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder.

—Miss Bogle returned to Pittsburg Tuesday after a short visit with her mother at her home at the forge house.

—Joseph D. Harris, of Baltimore, came to Bellefonte Saturday night for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris.

ARRESTED FOR SELLING OLEO.—R. S. Brouse, the grocer, was arrested last week by pure food agent Banshoff, of Altoona, for selling oleomargarine. Mr. Brouse has been selling oleomargarine the past five or six months and is the only grocer in Bellefonte who handles it. He took out a license for the sale of the same for which he paid a large price. He advertises the product as oleo, labels it as oleo, when he sells any wraps it in a paper marked oleo and stamps it with the day and date of sale and his name thereon. All these provisions were strictly adhered to at all times. Last week Mr. Banshoff came to Bellefonte and going into Brouse's grocery asked the clerk for some butter. The boy told him they had no butter, when Mr. Banshoff pointed to a box in the window in which the oleo was and asked for some of that. The clerk told him that was oleomargarine, and Banshoff asked for two pounds of it. The clerk took the oleo, wrapped it in the regular printed wrapper, stamped it, etc., and gave it to him. He took the oleo and left the store but later returned and made information against Mr. Brouse. The latter will be given a hearing today before justice of the peace W. H. Musser when the whys and wherefores of Mr. Brouse's arrest will be divulged.

The only reason that can be assigned for Mr. Brouse's arrest is the supposition that the oleo is artificially colored, as that is against the law. Whether it is or not, remains to be divulged at today's hearing at which representatives of Swift & Co., of Chicago, are expected to be present as they guarantee their product to be within the provisions of the oleo law. Mr. Brouse has never attempted, however, to sell it for anything but oleo, and even during the winter, when butter was so high, had several farmers as regular customers.

While the prosecution of Mr. Brouse may be within the letter of the law it certainly can't be the spirit of the act to subject a perfectly honest, reputable dealer to needless concern about such a matter. The intent of the law is primarily to prevent the sale of oleomargarine or other substitutes as butter. Mr. Brouse has made no attempt to do so. In fact so careful has he been to avoid even the appearance of deception that he has gone rather to the extreme in carrying out the many details of red tape that the government hedges the sale of oleo about with. In addition to this he has carried advertising in the county newspapers ever since he took out a license to sell oleo and the subject matter has invariably been to announce that he sells oleo and that it is not butter.

It seems to us that if there is nothing deleterious to health in the product, and there should not be since it has been passed by the pure food inspectors, common sense, and not the letter of the law, should prevail in the case so far as Mr. Brouse's personal liability is concerned. He is one of our most reputable merchants, his respect for the law and right doing is exceeded by that of no man we know; hence we deplore a legal construction that can subject him or anyone else under similar circumstances to the mental concern following such a prosecution.

—The Pennsylvania State College Cornet band will give an open air concert on the front campus on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. A good program of sacred music has been arranged for the occasion.
