Order to Disperse Was Followed by Pistol Battle With Foreigners-Police Chief Held Mob at Bay.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 21.-In a battle between strikers and township constables at McKees Rocks at least seven persons were injured, three of whom will likely die.

The dying are: Constables James M. Daniels, who is shot through the abdomen and chest; Joe Biernot, a by the constables, and an unknown

This trio is at the Ohio Valley hospital, the last named two being under arrest. In addition to this, one of the attacking strikers was hit by a train as he was escaping from the pursuing mob and knocked over the bank. He is thought to have fallen into the river, but no trace of him could be found in the darkness. A farmer named Hannan was shot through the hand, and two unknown foreigners were carried away by their friends, apparently badly injured.

The battle occurred in the now no torious Bloody Angle, where so much rioting and bloodshed occurred in the H. Joline and Mr. Lindsay were about meeting he'd by Industrial Workers of the World on a nearby Indian mound, and about 250 of the foreign speaking workmen on their way back stopped at Bloody Angle to talk matstable James M. Daniels, came up to the crowd and ordered it to disperse. The speaker shouted something as he jumped from the perch on which he shot through the body. Three bullets bank was to pay $17,500. passed through the clothing of Chief Silvers, but none hurt him. The mob fire, while four other constables, who of Hoffstot's fix. had been in the next square, came runnin gup, shooting as they came.

The foreigners, under the leadership of some strange men. gathered rocks when their ammunition became exhausted and hurled them at the constables, who were backed in against a fence and had to fight their way out. Finally assistance came and the rioters were routed.

Attorney General Ready to Begin Ouster Proceedings.

St. Louis. Mo., April 21.-In the belief that he has all the evidence needed to begin ouster proceedings against the meat packing companies. Attorney General Major brought the meat in city of Rochester by 3746, when in vestigation to a close.

Attorneys for the packers, after adjournment, said the facts which they gave willingly would not furnish a legal basis for an ouster order. They said the National Packing company, the holding corporation for the Armour, Swift and Morris interests, which has been shown to own the St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision company, had been pronounced a legal corporation

Steel Trust Provides Relief For Men. The United States Steel corpora tion has adopted a plan for giving financial aid to the men injured in its plants and also for pensioning the families of the employes killed in accidents at work. The plan was ratified at the meeting of presidents of subsidiary companies and will go into effect May 1. It is a purely voluntary provision and is made by the steel corporation and its subsidiaries without any contribution from the men. Following the provisions of all foreign laws and all legislation suggested in this country, there is a period of ten days before payment of relief begins. For permanent injuries lump sum payments are provided. These are based upon the extent to which each injury interferes with employment and upon the annual earnings of the men injured. In case men are killed in work accidents their widows and children will receive one and a half year's wages, with an additional 10 per cent for each child under sixteen, and 3 per cent for each year of service of the deceased above five years.
