THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Notice.

Beginning Tuesday, May 10th, Tuberculosis Dispensary No. 7, office of Dr. Geo. F. Harris, will be open from 10.30 to 12.30 a. m. and not in the afternoon.

—Al. S. Garman, of Tyrone, last Saturday placed an order for a new Ford automobile, a five passenger touring car.

—James H. Mauer, of Reading, will speak in the Diamond on Friday evening, May 6th. His subject will be "High Prices."

—The St. Elmo company, which will be at the opera house to-morrow night, will give a matinee in the afternoon, at regular matinee prices.

—Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Robert V. Lyon, of Rochester, N. Y., a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of this place.

—Lawrence McMullen, of Hecla, has the automobile bee buzzing in his ear, but as yet he is undecided as to the kind he wants, though his preference runs toward the Middleby.

—Rev. J. J. Zahnizer will preach in the chapel at Fairview this (Friday) evening and in Petriken Hall on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

—Boyd Nolan was taken to the hospital yesterday afternoon for treatment of his left arm which he had badly cut and bruised by getting pinched while coupling cars last Friday afternoon.

—At Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside's twelve o'clock breakfast Wednesday, followed by an afternoon of bridge, Mrs. Theodore Thomas, of Canton, Ohio, a niece of Mrs. Burnside, was the honor guest.

—Rev. I. S. Sassaman, of Burnham, has accepted the call tendered him by the congregation of Grace Lutheran church at State College to become their pastor and will enter upon his new duties Sunday, June 6th.

—Col. H. S. Taylor was elected a vice president of the Fifth regiment Spanish-American War association at its meeting in Indiana on Wednesday last week and Clearfield was selected as the place of meeting next year.

—On Tuesday morning the Lewisburg passenger train was delayed two hours and a half in reaching Bellefonte on account of the shifting engine running off the track at the Whiteoak quarries siding and blocking the track.

—Halley's comet is now visible to the naked eye to any person who feels inclined to either stay up or get up at 4 o'clock in the morning. It can be seen in the eastern sky, about twenty degrees north of the point where the sun rises.

—The Pennsylvania railroad company have in contemplation the installation of the telephone for operating trains on the Bald Eagle valley railroad, to supercede the telegraph. It has been found just as accurate where in use and is considerably cheaper.

—Next Sunday, May 8th, the various churches throughout the world will observe "Mother's Day." Rev. C. W. Wines, of the United Brethren church, who at this time is assisting the presiding elder, will hold special services in the church in this place appropriate to the day. All are invited.

—Thomas A. Shoemaker is now shipping fifty carloads of slag a day from the Bellefonte furnace dumping ground to Northumberland to be used as filling material in the new classification yards for the Pennsylvania railroad company. All the material is loaded on the cars by one big steam shovel.

—Sunday night quite a hard electric and rain storm passed over the lower Bald Eagle valley during which the barn on the farm of Mrs. Edward Scantlin, near Beech Creek, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Two calves and a small quantity of feed were also burned. The loss is about $800 with $300 insurance.

—Representatives of Buffalo Bills' wild west show were in Bellefonte on Saturday to bill the town for their appearance in Tyrone in the near future, but they found about all of the available space covered with the flaming posters of Jones Bros. Buffalo Ranch wild west which will be here next week, hence got very few permits.

—William Wright, of Conemaugh, recently purchased two tracts of timber land in Union township, this county, one containing three hundred acres and the other one hundred and seventy. It is his intention to erect a saw mill and manufacture the timber thereon into marketable lumber and already has a few men at work cutting timber.

—Linn McGinley, of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McGinley, of Thomas street, is achieving quite a reputation as a fisherman, considering the fact that he is only about nine years old. It is a very ordinary thing for him to take home a mess of suckers as the fruit of his piscatorial skill and on Friday he landed a 15 1/2 inch trout and on Saturday caught one 8 1/2 in ches long.

THE TYRONE COUNTRY CLUB'S HOME.

The members of the Tyrone Country club have practically completed the improvements on their home at Pennsylvania Furnace, the old Lyon property, and it is without exception one of the finest club houses in this part of the State. This house and place is well known to many readers of the WATCHMAN. The house was built in 1843, of native limestone, and it is so imposing and stands in the midst of such beautiful grounds as to be a landmark once seen will never be forgotten. It was built for the local managers of Pennsylvania furnace at the time it was one of the thriving industries of that section and was occupied successively by John Lyon, his son George W. Lyon, and the latter's son, John Porter Lyon, now of Bellefonte.

The property purchased by the Tyrone club includes the house and spacious grounds and forty-five acres of land, on which is the Pennsylvania Furnace flouring mill. The grounds lie on both sides of Spruce creek and the club has acquired the fishing rights to three-fourths of a mile of the stream which is well stocked with trout. In connection with the house are a large ice house, stables, garage, carriage house, etc.

Since coming into possession of the property the club has had the house entirely overhauled. A new veranda, fourteen feet in width and seventy feet in length, two stories high, has been erected; the exterior woodwork has all been repainted; unnecessary outbuildings have been removed and the grounds placed in order. A new spill-way has been placed in the dam; a new tail race, 600 feet in length constructed and a turbine water wheel and electric generator installed for the purpose of lighting the house and grounds. The turbine has a capacity of twelve-horse power and the generator is good for 200 lights. The dam covers from four to five acres of ground and with its beautiful surroundings will prove a most attractive place for boating and fishing.

Inside, the house has been wired throughout for electric light and new fixtures have been placed in position. An additional bath room has been installed; painting and papering have been done where needed and the entire house has been newly furnished throughout. The large parlors have been fitted out with furniture in mahogany with leather upholstery. The men's room is furnished in mission of a most substantial type; this too, with leather upholstery. The dining room will be furnished in Flemish oak, with pedestal tables and leather upholstered chairs. The bed rooms on the second floor have been furnished with quartered oak dressers and wash stands and with white enameled beds, those on the second floor being unique in that the tubing is all square, producing a peculiarly striking Colonial effect. At this time five bed rooms are being furnished on the second floor front, and four on the third floor, for the use of the club, while in the wing one large room on the second floor and three on the third floor have been fitted up for the keeper and help.

The culinary department has not been neglected. A majestic range of hotel size, with a hot water tank of seventy-five gallons' capacity has been installed and is in working order. The water supply for the club house and grounds is provided for by a two-inch line of pipe from a nearby never-falling spring, which delivers water to the house, where a Kewanee water pressure system with pump, operated by an electric motor, puts the water under pressure for delivery where needed. This system is controlled by an automatic starting and stopping device which maintains at all times a constant supply of water in the 800-gallon tank, kept under a fixed pressure.

The club has a membership of about one hundred and a notable feature of its makeup is that the charter absolutely prohibits a "sideboard," or other substitute, and all games of chance for money or any other valuable consideration. The gentlemen back of the organization are of high standing and its success is, therefore, assured. The organization of the club is as follows: President, A. G. Morris; vice president, George C. Wilson; secretary, A. M. Laporte; treasurer, Howard Himmelwright; directors, Richard Beaton, Claude Jones, R. J. Matern, of Huntingdon; Dr. John B. Nason, and R. A. Zentmyer; standing committees: House, Richard Beaton, R. T. Garman, F. K. Lukenbach; grounds, R. A. Zentmyer, W. E. Hoffman, A. M. Brown; finance, John D. Meyer, of Altoona; F. K. Matern, of Warriorsburg; Howard Himmelwright, ex-officio; membership, Dr. R. L. Piper, H. W. Koch, of Huntingdon, and J. L. Porter.

SACRED CONCERT AT STATE COLLEGE.—The first of the outdoor sacred concerts for this season will be given by the Military band, on the front campus at State College, at four o'clock next Sunday afternoon, May 8th. These concerts have been greatly enjoyed by all who heard them in previous seasons and they will likely prove just as popular this year. Bellefonte automobilists can go up, hear the concert and return in time for supper.

TO ORGANIZE A WOMAN'S CLUB.—A meeting will be held in the W. C. T. U. room in Petriken hall next Monday afternoon, May 9th, at 3.30 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Woman's Club for civic and charitable work. All women interested are urged to attend.

—There has been some weather during the past few days and the farmers are getting oats and corn into the ground about as fast as they can. The recent rains have had a marvelous effect upon the wheat. Fields that didn't promise half a crop a few weeks ago are looking twenty-five per cent. better now.

—J. Howard Lingle has secured the contract for all the foundry and machine repair work for the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction company on their big job at Northumberland. This will give an increase in business and work at the Lingle foundry and necessitate the increasing of the force of workmen. Mr. Lingle is now devoting considerable attention to the brass casting department of the foundry and feels confident that it will grow into a big thing.

—At the Methodist church, on Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Bohner will speak in the interests of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Bohner is one of the five young men who went to study the conditions from which our emigrants come. He will speak on the emigrant question, a question of vital interest to every wide awake American. In the evening the pastor will present the fourth sermon of the series on the Lord's Prayer. The Sunday school sessions are well attended, but still there is room.

—Neil Twomey's dramatization of Augusta J. Evans' famous novel of Southern life, "St. Elmo," will be seen in Bellefonte at Garman's opera house, tomorrow evening, May 7th. Mr. Twomey is an able writer and a master of stagecraft, and with such material as the author of the book has provided, there is sufficient assurance of an unusual production. It will be interpreted by a metropolitan cast and a carload of specially built scenery is provided for the setting. The dresses of Miss Roberta Brenman are alone worth the price of admission.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore and Mrs. Mollie Valentine got into Bellefonte Saturday evening at six o'clock with the latter's new Ford touring car which they drove from Philadelphia. The three of them with Mrs. Thamazine Lane left Philadelphia on Thursday and encountered such deep mud and heavy roads the entire trip that they were until Saturday evening getting here. Mrs. Valentine drove the car as far as Duncannon when the strain proved too great and she allowed Mr. Moore to drive it home. Notwithstanding the muddy roads the car stood up manfully and the trip is considered a good test of its enduring qualities. Mrs. Lane did not make one of the party the entire trip but came home from Harrisburg by train.

—The Roosevelt in Africa picture at the Scenic yesterday evening drew a large crowd. While Roosevelt was not very much in evidence and there were no scenes showing him bringing down any of the big game of that country, the pictures were interesting in showing just what kind of a country it is and specimens of different kinds of game killed as well as life among the natives. If the moving picture manufacturers would care more to realistic pictures, showing life and nature as they exist, instead of the cheap comic and drama that is depicted, it would be far more interesting and instructive. And there is no question but that Bellefonters would have an opportunity to see all of the best, as manager Brown sees to it that nothing of any value escapes being shown at the Scenic. That is the reason it is always so popular.

—Dr. H. W. Tate is not only a good dentist but he is a fadist whose genius runs in channels which meet with the approbation of his friends. One of his fads is making wine and that this is a fad is proven in the fact that neither he nor Mrs. Tate care for it nor drink it and about all he makes is given away to his patrons and friends. And it is no mean quantity he makes, either, as he now has stored in his laboratory over one hundred gallons of wine of his own make, from one to six years old, and perhaps older, and it is of very excellent distillation, too. The collection includes grape, blackberry, raspberry, elderberry, dandelion, cranberry, and a half dozen other kinds that we fail to remember, and he is so generous that he invariably insists on his visitor sampling them all. If the time ever comes when there will be no more teeth needing repairs, nor dentist to do, the doctor might turn his wine-making abilities into a profitable business.

—R. B. Taylor this week shipped his stone crusher, several wagons, tools, etc., to Franklin, where he has a contract for building two and three-quarters miles of state road. Philip H. Garbrick also left this week to take charge of the work which will be commenced at once and must be pushed to completion within sixty days. The road there will be all telford bottom with macadamized top and all the stone to be used in its construction will have to be crushed on the ground. Mr. Taylor has purchased a new ten ton steam roller which he already has on the ground at that place and in a week or so the work will be in full swing. In the meantime he will have personal control of the work of grading the court house yard and building the new state highway through Bellefonte. The stone crushed in the rear of the court house will all be used on Bishop street and what is needed for Linn and Allegheny streets will be secured from the American Lime and Stone company.

BOROUGH COUNCIL HAS SHORT SESSION.

—Only seven members were present at the regular meeting of council on Monday evening and it took them only a half hour to transact what little business there was to attend to, it being mostly of a routine and unimportant character.

The Water committee reported that the repairs had been made on the pump at No. 2 plant and that water meter bills to the amount of $671.48 had been collected for the first quarter. None of the other standing committees had anything to report.

The report of the burgess showed a balance of seventy-five cents due him. The treasurer's report showed an overdraft of $290.20.

Street commissioner S. E. Showers asked for an increase of salary commensurate with the high prices of living. The matter was referred to the Street committee for investigation and report.

Thursday, May 19th, was fixed as the day for holding the water appeals, and the time seven o'clock in the evening.

On motion the president of council was authorized to execute a deed to Susan Miles for the lot or lots lying west of the railroad in Boggs township, acquired by the borough when the Green property at Milesburg was purchased eighteen months ago.

On motion of Mr. Keller a note was ordered drawn in favor of the borough treasurer for one thousand dollars for one month, to meet current bills.

In the matter of the ordinance read at the last two meetings of council relative to laying a sewer on Allegheny street the committee having the same in charge have not completed their investigations so merely reported progress.

The residents of east Linn street have decided to try oiling that thoroughfare from the Lutheran church to Ridge street and wanted to know if the street commissioner would apply the oil if they would purchase the same. Mr. Keller moved that he be instructed to do the work and Mr. Kirk in seconding the motion asked to have it amended in that the street commissioner be instructed to put oil on any street in the borough when the adjacent property owners purchase the oil. It was so ordered.

When the survey was made for the new state road through the borough it provided for a fill of from three to four feet in front of the Beaver and Hoy row and J. Harris Hoy, who has charge of the properties entered a protest and gave notice that he would hold the borough liable for any damage to the properties because of the fill. An amicable arrangement has about been reached in the matter. Instead of a fill as above mentioned it will not be over two or two and a half feet and the borough will build a concrete culvert across the road of ample dimensions to insure good drainage from the properties. The matter of building the culvert was left to the Street committee to have it done as cheap as possible commensurate with a good job.

Bills to the amount of $967.87 were approved and council adjourned.

FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF COLLEGE ORCHARD.

—Every resident of Centre and adjoining counties, the faculty and the entire student body at the college are cordially invited to attend the fiftieth anniversary of the planting of the "Old College Orchard" which will be held in the orchard at State College, on Friday, May 6th.

Mr. Gabriel Heister, president of the State Horticultural Association, will be the principal speaker. The exercises will begin at 9.30 a. m. and will be held in the orchard, weather permitting.

The afternoon will be given to practical demonstrations in pruning and spraying.

Everybody is invited to bring basket lunches and enjoy a picnic dinner in the orchard where accommodations will be provided. Special invitations are being issued to the officers of the various county horticultural associations.

The following is the program: Welcome—Dean Thomas F. Hunt. Response—Gabriel Heister, President of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Association. Historical—Dr. Wm. A. Backhout. Relation to Student Body—J. A. Rank, '10. Remarks by visitors.

DEMONSTRATION SESSION, 1.30 P. M. Pruning—Prof. W. J. Wright. Spraying—Prof. J. P. Stewart.

ORCHARD SPRAYING.—Following the public demonstrations on pruning and spraying fruit trees for scale insects held in the State's model orchards during March and April the work will now be taken up of applying an effective combined insecticide and fungicide, viz., the Bordeaux—lead arsenate spray, which prevents injury to fruits and foliage from codling moth, curculio and other chewing insects, as well as the development of rot, scab, rust, blotch, leaf blights and fungus, etc.

An expert from the Division of Zoology of the Department of Agriculture will be in charge and will show the proper methods of mixing and applying the spray materials and answer questions as well as identify specimens.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The dates of the meetings in this county are as follows:

Tuesday, May 10th, orchard of Benjamin Limbert, in Brush Valley.

Wednesday, May 11th, orchard of J. Arney, near Center Hall.

Thursday, May 12th, orchard of Newton Neidigh, near State College.

Friday, May 13th, orchard of Col. W. Fred Reynolds, near Bellefonte.

FORTNEY—ISHLER.—D. Paul Fortney and Miss Alice May Ishler were married at the home of the bride's parents, ex-sheriff and Mrs. William A. Ishler, on east High street, at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Robert Kline, of Allentown. There were no attendants, the wedding being a very simple and quiet one owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's mother. Mr. Fortney is a son of David F. Fortney, Esq., and is himself a member of the Centre county bar. The bride is one of Bellefonte's well known and popular young women and will make a worthy helpmate for her husband. They are now away on a wedding trip to eastern cities and upon their return will take up their residence in the Fortney home on east Bishop street.

BECHTOL—KUNES.—Burns Bechtol, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bechtol, and Miss Jessie Kunes, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kunes, both of Blanchard, were married in Canada on April 20th. They then returned to Niagara Falls and at once occupied their already furnished home, Mr. Bechtol having a good position with a large shredded wheat biscuit company in that city.

MEYERS—GILL.—Charles Meyers, son of John S. Meyers, of Loch Lomond, and Miss Emma May Gill, of Julian, were united in marriage last Thursday evening by justice of the peace J. E. Hawkins, at his home in Phillipsburg.

WATCH FOR THE WILD WEST SHOW.—There are a number of wild west shows on the road but you will get all the wild west desired in Jones Bros. Buffalo Ranch big wild west consolidated shows which will exhibit in Bellefonte next Thursday, May 12th. It takes one train of eleven long cars to haul this show to town and they have all the good features seen in the average wild west show, the bad features only being eliminated. Take a day off and come to Bellefonte and see the show. Come in early and see the big street parade which will take place promptly at eleven o'clock in the morning. Bring your children along; they'll enjoy it as well as you.

—Last week the WATCHMAN stated that John Krumrine had bought out the Pearce Bros., at State College. The item was given us by a citizen of that town but it now develops that it was incorrect and that the Pearce Bros. are still in business at their old stand.
