Bellefonte, Pa., May 27, 1910.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name all the women of our town to join The 3.30 o'clock, in Petriken hall.

and Mrs. Allen Shelden, of Philadelphia, Tuesday of this week.

-The eclipse of the moon Monday night was plainly visible to all who remained up to take a look at it.

-George A. Beezer this week buried on Water street, in front of his garage, a big iron tank for gasoline storage.

-Very interesting Children's Day services will be held in St. John's Catholic church next Sunday evening, May 29th. A good program has been arrang-

---Have you joined the Woman's club?

-Next Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Schmidt will make a report of the sixth 11 o'clock morning service in St. John's Reformed church.

---Miss Bertha Mewshaw, who has been suffering with tuberculosis for some time past, was taken to the Mont Alto sanitorium on Tuesday by her brother-inlaw, Samuel Osman.

-'Squire H. Laird Curtin brought his new automobile home from Philadelphia on Monday evening, but instead of it being a Stoddart-Dayton it was a Premier five passenger touring car.

day and took time to go down and look ing of trains on and after next Monday. over the electric light plant where for years he was the head engineer.

to resign his position as superintendent has been appointed to succeed him.

-The meeting of Centre county Po-Friday. June 3rd, on account of the funeral of the late George Dale, past master of the Grange, which was held yester-

-Miss Abbie Cook, daughter of Mr. from the nurses' training school connect-City, Mo.

riken hall.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. B. O'Reilly, of Lock Haven, went to Kokoma, Ind., about two weeks ago and while there Mr. O'Reilly purchased a new Apperson touring car. The trip home was made in the

-The Pennsylvania Telephone company has reduced its toll rates between Bellefonte and Lock Haven from twentyfive to fifteen cents. This is a reduction that will be appreciated by the patrons of the company.

running into the Bellefonte Fuel & Supply company's yards.

ble home for the club.

-The Pennsylvania Telephone company has just received a new twin cylinder motor cycle for use in this place. This will make two machines for use here but Peters, of Brooklyn. Rev. Peters is not the company finds them so much more an entire stranger in Bellefonte as he has economical than livery hire or railroad fare that they willingly supply them.

-The funeral of the late G. Hunter Knisely was held from his late residence on east Howard street at two o'clock last Saturday afternoon. Rev. C. W. Winev. of the United Brethren church officiated after which the remains, escorted by a delegation from Gregg Post, were taken Pennsylvania baseball league this season to Curtin for burial in the Curtin ceme-

-The first tennis tournament held in Bellefonte will take place tomorrow the baseball management in Renovo (Saturday) between the Juniata College team and the Bellefonte Academy. It will be held on the courts on Hughes field between the hours of eleven and 'four o'clock. All lovers of the sport should attend as the contests will prove very in-

-County commissioner John L. Dunlap is the proud possessor of a valuable gold signet ring which was presented him by the Bellefonte Lodge of Moose for his very efficient work in soliciting new members of the order. On each side of the signet on the ring is an embossed Moose head with sapphire eyes. It is quite justified in prizing it as he does.

KILLED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-Last THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. through the outskirts of the city in an teresting to their many friends here. automobile. They came to a grade rail -A second opportunity will be given road crossing and observing the lgates open naturally supposed there was no but there are only two very minor Woman's Club, on Friday, June 3rd, at danger and attempted to cross the tracks. The machine had not cleared the tracks -A little daughter was born to Mr. when it was struck by one of the fast suburban trains. The automobile was badly smashed and Weber hurt so badly that he died in a short time. His companions were all injured but so far as panions were all injured but so far as known none of them fatally. The blame only changes so far as the Bald Eagle vania State College; Alva Agee, profes for the accident lies with the watchman who is said to have left his post of duty and left the gates open. graduated from The Pennsylvania State ford to miss an evening. Lately there College in the course of engineering in have been a number of films of scenes in the class of 1902. Since that time he has foreign countries that were of unusual the past two years or longer has been right along. That is what gives the If you have not, a second opportunity to located in New York. He was married moving picture show its educational do so will be given you on the first Fri- in 1906 to a young lady from Altoona character and stamps it as being here to day of June, 1910, at 3.30 p. m. in Petriken who survives with one small child. stay. And it is because manager Brown He also leaves his parents and one sister, Miss Bessie.

World's Sunday school convention at the on Sunday and brought the remains everybody. home on Wednesday taking them direct to Boalsburg where the funeral was held, Rev. Daniel Gress, of the Reformed church, with which the family is affiliated, officiating at the services.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—On Sunday morn-

When the train pulled out of Bellefonte it narrowly missed killing or badly in--Owing to his continued ill health juring David Hendershot. Ordinarily no Samuel H. Donachy has been compelled trains are run over the Lewisburg on Sunday and evidently supposing himself at the match factory and Calvin Troup in perfect safety Hendershot lay down on the track near the Nittany furnace. Fortunately the train had not gotten under full mona Grange has been postponed until speed and Hendershot was seen by the fireman in time that the engineer was able to bring the train to a stop just as the pilot of the engine struck the man on the head. Not knowing how badly he was injured Hendershot was helped up and —Miss Abbie Cook, daughter of Mr. Charles F. Cook, of this place, is one of to the depot and the ambulance was sent the class who will graduate this week for to take him to the hospital. But when ed with the general hospital at Kansas Hendershot declared that he wouldn't ride in such a "dinkey wagon," and that ----We need all you good women, who he wasn't hurt at all, and started for are not already members, to join The home. He had a small scalp wound but about one hundred and ten dollars, the music by Smith's orchestra and the privi-Woman's Club of Bellefonte. A second it didn't amount to anything for he went total receipts being over one hundred and lege of meeting friends for a chat on on business connected with the Bellefonte Lime opportunity to do so will be given you on to work Monday morning as usual, doubt- thirty dollars. Those who had the affair Academy hill make a delightful program. Friday, June 3rd, at 3.30 o'clock, in Pet- less unaware of the narrow escape he had.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT NOTES. -The Senior examinations at the Bellefonte High school were completed last week and on Monday it was announced that Raymond Jenkins took first honors and Miss Helen Everhart second honors. The annual commencement exercises will be held next week, beginning on Sunday evening when the baccalaureate sermon by John Scholl. Both the Care and Willard J. Boyd and George Lee. will be preached in the Methodist church by Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox. On Monday be held in the large hall in the new High -William Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, school building, which will be the first has been at work this week putting in the exercises of any kind held in the new iron bridge over the race to take the building. On Tuesday evening the memplace of the old wooden railroad trestle bers of the graduating class will be the Charles Yearick, of Howard, and Mrs. guests of honor at the alumni reception Elmer C. Ross and daughter Edith, of their visit has not been made public it is and dance to be given in the armory, Lemont, were among those who attended The new Country club house at which always is the big social feature of the funeral of the late John Holmes, of Hecla is now under roof and being push- the commencement exercises. The grad- Howard. While on their way home from ed to completion as rapidly as possible. uating exercises proper will be held on the cemetery at Jacksonville, where burial When finished it will be a more conven- Thursday afternoon and evening when a was made, the horse they were driving ient and better equipped building than class of 22 young ladies and gentlemen will became frightened, ran away and plunged the old one, and will make a very desira- graduate and receive their diplomas, the second largest class ever graduated from vehicle and occupants along. The buggy the Bellefonte High school.

> The annual commencement address will be delivered by Rev. Madison C. badly bruised and cut while Mrs. Ross lectured here on one or two occasions and all who attend the commencement exercises next Friday evening can feel the injured ones were given proper at- Allister Scholarship.-A competitive assured of a rare treat.

efforts of the baseball enthusiasts of Bellefonte to awaken enough interest in surrounding towns to organize a Central have so far resulted in practically nothing, so far as anything definite is concerned. But this week a letter was received from stating that they were now fully organized and anxious to play league ball. Indirectly word comes from Jersey Shore that they have organized a team and have raised a fund of one thousand dollars to back them. Nothing has been heard from Lock Haven recently, but the last information from there was that they were anxious for a league. The sentiment in the above towns now being favorable it is likely Bellefonte will try once more to have a league organized, but whatever is to be done must be done

-The annual commencement exera valuable ring and Mr. Dunlap is amply cises will be held at the Huntingdon Re- road builders will be on the ground before badly bent. The machine was not damformatory on Tuesday, June 28th.

-Cards have been received in Belle-Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weber, of fonte announcing the birth on May June 6th is termed Farmer's Week by the Centre Hall, received the distressing news eighteenth of a second son to Mr. and Centre county Pomona Grange, which that their son, Samuel E. Weber, had Mrs. Frank T. Cole, of No. 228 west organization has arranged to hold a series been almost instantly killed that morning Seventy-second street, New York. Up of meetings in Centre county that week in a railroad accident in New York City. until a year ago Mr. and Mrs. Cole were These meetings will be held as follows: Mr. Weber was a supervising engineer residents of Bellefonte, the former being in New York and that morning in com- a teacher in the Bellefonte Academy, and pany with two other men, was driving the above piece of news will be quite in--A new schedule will go into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad on Sunday changes in the time of trains passing through Bellefonte. The train west on the Bald Eagle which now leaves here at east on Sunday morning will reach here at 9.52 instead of 9.50. These are the and Lewisburg and Tyrone railroads are concerned.

Deceased was born at Boalsburg and program of motion pictures and that is one of the Farmer's Institute lecturers. was about thirty-two years of age. He the greatest reason why you cannot afheld a number of important positions and interest and more of these will be shown gives his patrons all that is good and obtainable that the Scenic is also here to Mr. and Mrs. Weber went to New York stay. And it is always five cents to -Mrs. Harry Valentine, who represents the Bellefonte chapter of the D. A. R. in supplying flags for the graves of the soldiers of the American Revolution in Centre county on Memorial day, has made arrangements for placing them on the ing a special train was run over the graves of Maj. John Boggs, Col. James Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad from Dunlop, James Harris and Capt. Joshua Bellefonte to Sunbury conveying the vari- Williams in the Union cemetery of Belleous agents along the line to the latter fonte; Lieut. Robt. Fleming, Capt. Richard place where a school of instruction was Miles, Evan Russell and Samuel Howe, at held for the purpose of instructing them Milesburg; David Lamb and Matthew -Thomas Faxon, of Rebersburg' in a new book of rules which will be issued Allison, at Jacksonville; Eleazer Evans, transacted business in Bellefonte yester- for the conducting of the road and operat- in Patton township, and Philip Barnhart and Lawrence Bathurst, at Curtin.

-Halley's greatly heralded and wonderfully historic comet has at last been ful. The only thing about a comet any- dining room of the spacious home. way that is worth seeing is its tail and when it comes around here hurtling through space looking like a stub-tailed along with it.

dow of Montgomery & Co's store this week and while the dish is pretty enough water.

-Last Thursday morning Mrs over a ten foot embankment carrying the was smashed to pieces, both of Mrs. Yearick's arms were broken and she was sustained a number of bad bruises. Miss Edith Ross escaped injury. The three were taken in by other members of the funeral party and taken to Howard where WILL WE HAVE BASEBALL ?-All the are quite serious it is not believed they scholarship in The Pennsylvania State will prove fatal.

> good headway with the grading for the new state road through Bellefonte. The fill on north Water street has been completed, the hump on west Linn street taken at State College at the office of the Regoff and the men are now cutting down istrar. The examination will cover the the high places on north Allegheny street following subjects: English grammar, and filling up the depressions. At the English composition based on the standrate they are now going they will be ready and clasics for the year; academic algeto put on and roll the limestone foundation in another week or ten days and in- States history. The award is open to side of a month you will be able to travel both men and women. on state road from the northern borough line to Pike alley at Parrish's drug store where the brick paving will begin. In the Milesburg, last week purchased a new meantime nothing has so far been done Franklin automobile from John Sebring toward the building of a conduit on the Jr., and of course it is somewhat different portion of Allegheny street which is to be driving a car from a pair of horses. The paved with brick, in which to place all second day he had it he was driving the pipes and telephone wires. If such a machine into his barn when he got a litconduit is to be built it is time work on the too close to his hearse with the result the same is begun, otherwise the state that the right hand fender was pretty it is ready for them.

FARMER'S WEEK .- The week beginning

Hublersburg, Grange Hall, June 6. Monday Zion, June 7, Tuesday evening. Benner, Grange Hall, June 8, Wednesday ever

Halfmoon, Grange Hall, June 9. Thursday ever

Pine Grove Mills, I. O. O. F. Hall, June 11, Sat urday evening. The speakers for these meetings are Hon. W. T. Creasy, master of the Penn-1.07 p. m. will leave at 1.08 and mail train sylvania State Grange; Hon. Oliver Wilson, of Illinois; Prof. Thomas I. Mairs, professor of Animal Industry, at Pennsylsor of Agriculture Extension and principal of the short courses, at The Pennsyl--The Scenic always presents a good vania State College; Hon. J. A. Herr,

> These meetings will be of an educa tional character, the speakers employed covering a large field of topics of interest to the general welfare of farmers. The meetings will be under the management of local committees, and local talent will also form a part of the program.

No admission will be charged, but everything will be free as the air. Under these conditions the farmers and all others interested in agriculture, should make it a point to be present, and take with them their families. There will be instructions for both the young and ELKS FORMALLY DEDICATE NEW HOME. -The Bellefonte Lodge of Elks formally dedicated their new home last night with appropriate and dignified ceremonies, all the officers of the lodge and a number of the members being in full evening dress. Exalted ruler J. Linn Harris presided and the prominent speakers from a distance were Congressman John K. Tener, of friends, as this was his first trip to town in several Charleroi, past grand exalted ruler of the national lodge; Perry A. Shanor, of Sistersville, W. Va., and George J. Post, of Capt. S. H. Bennison and John Holmes and on of Mahanoy City. Judge Orvis and sev- their way home on Friday were pleasant callers eral members of the local lodge also at the WATCHMAN office. made brief addresses.

The ceremonies were for Elks only and seen by Bellefonters but what a puny, in addition to a full turnout of members fireless, soulless, tailless little thing it of the Bellefonte lodge quite a number of looks to be. If it wasn't for the fact that visiting Elks were present from Altoona, it differs so materially it might be taken Lock Haven, Williamsport and other surfor a star; and so far as looks are con- rounding towns. Following the speechcerned there are plenty of stars in the making all present partook of quite an heavens brighter by far and more beauti- elaborate banquet served in the large layed and he is now in almost as good shape as

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY RECEPTION—The annual reception and dance of the Belledog it loses most of its attraction. How- fonte Academy will be held on Friday ever, we will have to take it as it is, tail evening of next week, June 3rd. All past or no tail, and hope when it returns the and present patrons, all past and present next time that it will bring its nether end students, and all friends of the Academy are cordially invited to the reception, which will be held at the Academy main -At their festival on Saturday even- building from eight to ten o'clock. The ity and in Clinton county. ing the Milesburg Athletic club cleared electric and lantern illuminations, the in charge give credit for the good results These receptions are always attended to the popularity of the baseball team, for with great success and those who stay whose benefit the festival was held, and away miss a social treat. The school to the fact that the Milesburg band was rooms are transformed into most attracpresent, their first public appearance since tive reception rooms. The dance under Decoration day of last year. The big the auspices of the alumni and undercake baked by Mrs. William Kline and graduates will take place at the armory chanced off was won by Jerome Dale, of from ten until three o'clock. The comthis place, and the silver dish was won mittee in charge consists of Thomas by John Scholl. Both the cake and dish Beaver, Gilbert Meyers, Percy Eisenbeis

RAILROAD MEN VISIT STATE COLLEGE. -On Monday division superintendent W. delicious enough to make your mouth H. Creighton of the Pennsylvania railroad company, from Philadelphia, and a party of officials from Williamsport came to State College. While the direct object of David Haines. He is still in the employ of the generally understood that it was in the interest of the extension of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad from Lemont brook to connect with the western end of the company has had this project under consideration for some time and the fact that this is the second trip Mr. Atterbury weeks gives credence to the story that something will be done in the near fu-

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR MCtention. While Mrs. Yearick's injuries examination for the McAllister Freshman College for the year 1910 will be held at Bellefonte and Philipsburg on Saturday, -Contractor R. B. Taylor is making June 11th, and at State College on Thursday, June 16th. At Bellefonte candidates will report to Prof. Jonas A. Wagner; at Philipsburg to Prof. B. I. Meyer, and bra complete, plain geometry and United aged in any other way.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Frank B. Stover Jr., is down from Altoon:

-George B. Thompson and son John, of Alto -Mrs. Jane Foster returned on Monday from a week's stay with friends in Altoona. -Linn Graham, of Philadelphia, spent several days within the past week with his friends in

-Mrs. William Rapsher, of Philadelphia, has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs.

-Mrs. Boyle, of Philadelphia, came up fro Lock Haven Wednesday for a short visit with Dr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes. -Mrs. Chaney Hicklen will have as her gues during the High scool comme Mrs. Foster, of Philadelphia. -Miss Katharine Allison went over to Penns-valley on Friday and remained over Sunday with friends at Centre Hall and Spring Mills. -Mrs. John P. Harris and Dr. Schad spent Saturday in Mill Hall and Lock Haven, at the former place being the guests of Mrs. Samuel Harris. -Miss Howe, of Boston, Mrs. David Dale's ousin and guest and for whom she entertaine last Thursday afternoon, left Bellefonte Monday -Maurice Yeager left on Tuesday evening on a ten days trip through western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio as salesagent for the Yeager Swing

-Mrs. Anna C. Woodcock is in Altoona as delegate to the Woman's Home Missionary conrention in session there Thursday and Friday of

-Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish returned or Monday from a trip to New York city and a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Gerrhart, in Newark N. J.

-Mrs I F Ward will leave next Monday for Bunker Hill, Illinois, on a visit to her brother, Rev. Samuel Stiver, who is confined to the house

-Miss Anna Derr. of Lewisburg, has been guest this week of Miss Sechler, of Spring street, and will be joined today by Miss Carrie Housel, of the same place, both friends of Miss Sechler.

-- Mrs. J. Kyle McFarlane came up from Lock Haven on Tuesday to visit her son William and greet her many acquaintances in town. She was accompanied by her brother, George O. Brewn -John Houser, of State College, transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday and also found time to shake hands with a number of his

-Mr. and Mrs. John Conley, of Centre Hall

-Mrs. W. A. Lyon went to Rochester, N .Y last Saturday to spend a fortnight with her son Robert and his new wife, and her daughter, Mrs. . E. McGinness. When she returns she will like ly bring her grandson Jack to Bellefonte for the

-Dr. David Dale returned home from Philadel phia last Friday where he attended to a little business and consulted a specialist regarding an infection on his hands. The latter has been al--R. W. McCalmont, of Saranac Lake, N. Y .: Dr. William McCalmont and Mrs. McCalmont, of

Rochester, Pa., were all at State College last week, called there by the dcath of their father, James McCalmont

Grove Mills, this county, and his mission here last week was a visit among old friends in that local--Hon. W. C. Lingle, of Philipsburg. was Bellefonte visitor over Tuesday night, being here and Stone company, of which he is president. Their plants at Salona, by the way, are now in full operation with quite a nice lot of orders booked ahead. -Mrs. M. A. McGuinness, of Indiana, is ill with appendicitis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield. Mr. and Mrs. McGuinness had been to Pottsville attending the funeral o Mr. McGuinness' father and while stopping for a short visit in Bellefonte Mrs. McGuinness became so ill that she was obliged to remain. -Mrs. Driscoll, of Pittsburgh, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, of Snow Shoe, for the past three weeks, was in Bellefonte Tuesday between trains, on her way ome. She was accompanied by her aunt, Miss sephine McDermot, who had been in Snow Shoe since Friday, also the guest of Mrs. Burns. -Charles Haines, of Beaver Falls, was one of the delegates at the State encampment of Odd Fellows in Williamsport last week and both going and returning managed to spend a day or two Lemont in a special train and went to in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Standard Scale and Supply company and is getng along very nicely. -William Showers, who early in the spring moved from Curtin street onto his farm near ecla, was a business visitor in Bellefonte or to State College and possibly on to Fair. Tuesday. His farm work at this season of the year keeps him so busy that his friends here don't get a chance to see him very often, but what i the same line. It is definitely known that their loss will probably be his gain in the bumpe crops he will grow on his farm. -The sixth World's Sunday school convention held in Washington the past week was attended by Dr. and Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt and Mr. and has made to the College within a few Mrs. William Hall, of Philipsburg, as Centre county representatives. It was a large gathering of over six thousand delegates and Geneva, Switzerland wrs selected as the place for hold eventh World's convention in the year 1913. -Thomas Hazel, of Hazel Brothers, grocers, was a WATCHMAN office caller bright and early Monday morning and was somewhat exercised because his subscription had expired a week previous and not been attended to at once. If every WATCHMAN subscriber was as prompt in paying up as Mr. Hazel there would be a great deal more satisfaction in running a country news

-George H. Smull, of Smullton, was a Belle onte visitor on Tuesday and while he stopped at the WATCHMAN office door long enough to renew his paper for another year his stop was so brie that it cannot be designated even as a call. Of course he is always hustling from one place to another, without stopping anywhere only long enough to attend to the business in hand, so that we were favored about equal with everybody

-Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sheirer and Mrs Sheirer's two sisters, Mrs. Ritter and Mrs. Ser of Lehigh valley, were in Centre county from Fri day until Monday visiting friends and spent part of the time with ex-sheriff D. W. Woodring and family in this place. Mr. Sheirer is a farmer and in telling of his occupation says his income from butter and milk is about five hundred dollars a year; from eggs two hundred, and from potatoes eighteen hundred, and these figure up on an average his net profits, as the other crops he raises with stock sales, etc., cover all the expenses. Mr. Sheirer is only a little over two score years old but he contemplates retiring after next year and living on the income of what he has made during the fifteen or twenty years he has been engaged in agriculture.

-Wilson W. Gephart has gone to Chicago where he has the offer of a good position

-Mrs. Daniel Hall, of Unionville, spent Thurs day in Bellefonte with her cousin, Mrs. S. A. Bell -Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was in Rellefante a short while on Monday on his way to State College. -Mrs. A. M. Hibler has returned to Bellefonte after visiting for several months in Atlan tic City, Franklin, Pa., and Oberlin, Ohio.

-Claire Seibert, of Tyrone spent Tuesday with his father, James Seibert, who has been ill for the past week at his home on Logan street.

-Richard Shehee, late landlord of the Garman house, came over from his present home in Clearfield on Monday and spent several days in town. -James H. Shook was an arrival home from Tyrone yesterday, having completed his scho work there. He will go to Pottsville next year.

-Miss Rose Prince, who has been with her sis ter, Mrs. Donald Potter, for the past month re turned to her home in Crafton Thursday of las -Miss Ruth Irvin, of Philipsburg, was the guest over Sunday of Miss Della Cross, who is visiting in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs, H.S. Taylor.

-Samuel and Lawrence McClure left last week for Toronto, Canada, where the former will take an extra summer course in a leading theologica -Rev. George M. Glenn, of Sunbury, spent several days of the week on his farm at Brierly and with his mother. Mrs. Elizabeth Glenn, at -James Corl expects to leave Bellefonte about June first for Chicago, Ill., to take charge of the office of the Acme Supply company, dealers in

-The Misses Lulu and Jennie Harper will close their house in about three weeks, expecting to spend the greater part of the summer with their uncles in Chicago.

-Mrs. Harry Otto and two children, are contemplating a journey to Mr. Otto in Connecticu where he is spending a month in the interest of

-Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Mrs. D. H. Hastings were in Williamsport on Tuesday at-tending the funeral of the late William McCormick, who died in Atlantic City on Sunday

-Miss Mary Corl, of Boalsburg, spent Thursday in Bellefonte. Miss Corl has been in Pleas ant Gap since February, at the home of her broth er, William Corl, but will return next week, -Miss Joe White went to Williamsport Saturday for a week with her sister. Miss Marie White. They both will come to Bellefonte tomorrow to spend Memorial day with their aunt, Miss Pow -Charles T. Noll, who is now located in New York city, arrived home yesterday on a visit to his parents, Hon. and Mrs. John Noll, and to be present at the Elk's dedicatory exercises last -Mrs. Ben Shaffer, of Huntingdon, is spending two weeks with relatives in Bellefonte and while here is seeking aid in rebuilding the Methodist church of Huntingdon, which was burned in March. -Dr. R. H. Meek, of Avis, was in Bellefonte Monday on his way home after having spent Sun-day with his parents at Waddle, Mrs. Meek re-mained up Buffalo Run with her grandmother-

-Mr. and Mrs. George S. Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney T. Krumrine and Mr. and Mrs. Philadelphia; Edwin, of Altoona, and Newell, of Charles F. Mensch were among the Bellefonters who attended the Knight Templar's conclave in

Lancaster this week. -Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of Pittsburg, with her -Dr. A. J. Orndorf, now a prominent dentist in child and nurse, and Mrs. Dunot with her daugh Latrobe, was a pleasant caller at the WATCHMAN ter, Miss Katharine, of Baltimore, will, with Miss ner of Curtin and Allegheav Sts., for the summer

> -Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burlingame are expected to return home from Europe in a short timeleaving Mrs. Burnet. Mrs. Burlingame's mother. to join Mrs. Breese and Miss Betty in their travel through Europe. Miss Katharine Burnet will join the party later in the summer

-Mr. Morris Cowdrick and his grand-daughter, Miss Helen Otto, of Niagara Falls, have been visiting Bellefonte friends this week, the former coming here after a few days spent with friends n Lycoming county. Notwithstanding the fact that he is in his seventy-seventh year he is still remarkably well preserved and enjoys good -Judge Clinton R. Savage, of Sunbury, arrived

ingdon where he held court in the beginning of the week, disposing of six cases and practically Thursday he heard argument here on a motion to show cause why the sheriff should not issue a deed for the Samuel Taylor property, recently sold by him at sheriff's sale.

JONES-DAUGHENBAUGH.-Grant Jones and Miss Esther Daughenbaugh, both of State College, were married in Lock Haven on Saturday by alderman J. C.

Benefonte Produce Markets.
Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
otatoes per bushel
utter, per pound
Bellefonte Grain Markets.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'cloc'

Thursday evening, when our paper goes to pro

Dats, old and new, parley, per bushel Buckwheat per bush
Philad	elphia Markets.
The following are
Wheat-Red		$1.09@1.1 1.05@1.0
Corn -Yellow		. 67@67
Dats		451/20
Flour —Winter, per —Favorite Br	ands	. 5.75@6.8
Rye Flour per barre Baled Hay—Choice	Timothy No. 1	4.25@4. 14.00@21.
Baled Hay-Choice	Mixed No. 1	17.50@19.

The Democratic Watchman

ed every Friday morning, in Belle 30 per annum (if paid strictly in adv n not paid in advance, and $2.50 re the expiration of the year; and re discontinued until all arrearage is

SPACE OCCUPIED		6m
One inch (12 lines this type)	$ 5 7 10 12 20 35	$ 8 10 15 20 35 55	1