

—Mr. Mackert, who is now employed by the American Union telephone company in this place, has rented the Curtin house on Curtin street recently vacated by Mrs. Foster Williams and will move his family there in the near future.

—Dr. Wilcox having been for the past ten days at Mountain Lake Park, Maryland, the services in the Methodist church in the morning of last Sunday were in charge of Rev. J. F. Hower, of the Evangelical church of Bellefonte, and in the evening by Rev. Richard L. Oyer, of the Methodist church of Milesburg.

FOR BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.—The annual meeting of the Centre-Clinton County Business Men's Picnic association will be held at the Brockerhoff house, Bellefonte, next Tuesday, July 19th, at 5:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. At this meeting the date will be set and preliminary arrangements made for holding the annual business men's picnic.

—The county commissioners this week decided that the only way the exterior of the court house can be made to look at all in keeping with the interior is to remove all the old plastering from the old building, front columns and all, and have it newly plastered and painted to correspond with the new addition in the rear; and on Wednesday a number of men were put to work removing the old plastering. This will be quite a job, for while it is somewhat shattered toward the rear end of the building from the heavy blasting while excavating for the new part, on the front part of the building and on the columns it is hard and solid to the walls and it is a question if any plastering that can be put on nowadays will equal it.

—On Sunday, July 3rd, a Hungarian wedding took place at Cherry Run, near Clarence, and as is usually the case beer flowed like water and the guests grew gay in consequence. Jack Rockaway became a little obstreperous and he was promptly ejected from the house by George Paulhalla, of Karthaus. Rockaway went to his home, secured a revolver and returning shot Paulhalla. Supposing he had killed the latter Rockaway got out of that neighborhood in short order. Paulhalla, however, did not die. The bullet plowed through his shoulder and lodged in his side and he is now in the Lock Haven hospital with every likelihood of his recovery. As long as Rockaway remains out of the county no special effort will be made to apprehend him.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. Anna Fry spent Tuesday with friends at Fairbrook.

Will Rockey is confined to bed with an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. Koch and daughter, of Shamokin, are at the Lutheran parsonage, guests of Rev. and Mrs. Shultz.

Harry Koch, one of Fairbrook's successful farmers, transacted business at State College Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Heberling drove over to see William Tibbens last week and report him much improved.

The Odd Fellows hall on Main street now presents a very handsome appearance in its fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. Sadie Heberling and daughter, Estella May, are making a two weeks' visit at Bellwood and Altoona.

Mrs. Frank Smith went to the sanatorium at Roaring Springs last week for treatment for heart trouble.

Miss Alice and Anna Morris, twin sisters, and Miss Sue Irvin, of Wilkingsburg, are visiting at the E. C. Ross home.

Well, the glorious Fourth is a thing of the past and our town was quiet. Not the kind that made headaches.

S. E. Weber was circulating among the farmers here last week looking after his share of the implement trade.

Little Paul Tate, while picking cherries, fell from the tree, sustaining injuries that have laid him up ever since.

Merchant Frank M. Graham, of Charter Oak, tarried awhile in town to greet old chums on his way to State College.

Stewart Rockey, a fireman on the Pennsy, is home assisting his father, J. B. Rockey, with his big hay and grain crop.

D. G. Meek and wife drove over from State College Tuesday and entertained some lady friends at the old family home.

Fred Roush is now to the front with a snake story. Monday he killed a four-foot rattler that had been rattle and a button.

W. H. Goss went to Altoona Tuesday to lend a helping hand at S. E. Goss' flitting to Reading, where he will be located in the future.

During Sunday evening's storm lightning struck a tree on the R. C. Palmer farm and killed a cow that had taken shelter underneath.

Hamill Bathurst, of New York, spent last week with his mother, who has been quite ill at her home near Lemont, but is some better now.

Miss Mabel Goss has been having a good time at the grandpa Goss home. The little Miss left for her home at Tyrone Tuesday, delighted with her visit.

Last week Mrs. Harry Hoy fell from a cherry tree sustaining serious injuries that for a time gave her friends much concern, but she is now improving.

State College is shy a good horse that died Saturday at Linden Hall. Percival Rudy had a back lead to Penn Cave and on the way home the animal fell dead.

Our mutual friend, Nathaniel Krape, who has been laid up with sciatica the past month, is now able to make locomotion go on crutches and look after his harvesting.

Mrs. Bessie Walker Miller, of Johnstown, is visiting friends in this section. She was one of our most popular school teachers and was well-known in educational circles.

Rev. Mr. Stover is a candidate for Rev. Black's place at Boalsburg and very ably filled the pulpit in the Bethel church last Sunday. He is a fluent pulpit orator and created a very favorable impression.

That famous bird, the stork, braved the hot weather last week, leaving twin girls at the Frank Krumrine home and another pair, a boy and a girl, at Frank Osman's home. All are doing nicely.

Mack Goheen, with his friend, Mr. Budd, came down from Tyrone to join the Goheen family at dinner, an outdoor spread, at the famous Rock Springs on the old and well-known J. J. Goheen homestead.

Rev. J. C. McCracken, of Johnstown, preached in the Presbyterian church at Boalsburg Sunday afternoon and at Lemont in the evening. Rev. W. K. Harnish filling the former's appointments in Johnstown.

Postmaster Will Close, at Oak Hall, is so far as heard from the champion alfalfa grower. He has mowed twice and the third growing was 32 inches high on the 28th of June. He expects to cut the fourth crop this season.

Last Thursday afternoon an electric storm and a heavy fall of rain passed over this section. A flash of lightning killed six cows that had taken shelter under a tree. They belonged to M. P. Corl, tenant on the Hon. J. T. McCormick farm. They were insured in the Grange insurance company.

Forest McGirk and bride, after ten days sight-seeing at the National capital, spent last week among their friends at Slab Cabin and State College, the home of his childhood. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGirk, of Altoona, and has a good job in the railroad shops. The bride was Miss Mary Young and is a splendid young lady. They will go to housekeeping in Altoona soon.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.

Miss Mary Eby, of Zion, spent Sunday at the Adam Swartz home.

Mrs. J. H. Sharp and grandson, Samuel Stover Jr., are in Lock Haven this week.

Jacob H. Weaver Jr., and wife visited Ward Shamp, at Beech Creek, on July 4th.

Miss Eva Kessinger, of Nittany, visited her friend, Miss Ollie Wilson, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Fisher and son, of Loveville, visited grandma Miller several days over the Fourth.

Willard Wilson and friend, of Lock Haven, paid his aunt, Mrs. F. W. Carner, a short visit this week.

The festival held by the Evangelical church, of this place, was a success financially, as reports indicate.

Mrs. Ada Yocum, of Waddle, spent several days recently among her friends and relatives of this community.

Miss Rose McCormick has entered Williamsport hospital, where she expects to complete the course in nursing.

James Wolfe, who is a member of company H, of Lock Haven, is at Gettysburg this week attending the annual encampment.

Wilbur Rumberger has returned to his home in Elk City, Okla., after attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. B. W. Rumberger.

Bellefonte visitors recently were: Edward Evers, Adam Swartz, Alton Dietrick, Lewis Markle, W. H. Markle and William Decker Sr.

Miss Ruth Wetzel, of Bellefonte, stopped off a day at the home of Charles Lee on her road to Lew Dorman, of Jacksonville, where she will spend the summer.

John Hoy Jr., who has been afflicted for several months with paralysis, is improving slowly and we are glad to note that he is able to move about with greater freedom than formerly.

Farmers are in the midst of the wheat harvest and most of the hay crop is stored. Potatoes promise to yield plentifully and corn is making marked improvement considering the difficulties attending its growth earlier in the season.

Mrs. A. P. Weaver, of Yeagertown, is paying her annual summer visit to her relatives in and about town while her husband, Prof. A. P. Weaver, is attending the summer session of Columbia college, in New York. Mr. Weaver taught here in our High school formerly, but is located in Yeagertown now.

Members of the Reformed church and Sunday school of this place, are urged to be in readiness for the Reformed reunion at Hecla park, July 21st, and to bring all their friends. This annual outing is becoming one of the most popular and pleasant picnic days for the people of Centre and Clinton counties.

The following sons of Hublersburg who are located in various places, returned to spend the Fourth of July vacation at their old homes: Charles Carner, Calvin Hoy and Nevin Hoy from Williamsport; Jake Bergstresser and F. W. Carner, from Altoona; L. H. McAulay, from Lewistown; Thomas Bartley, from Waddle, and Lloyd Markle, who is employed in the Westinghouse shops at Pittsburg.

SPRING MILLS.

All our farmers are busy with the hay crop which is a very large one.

The Temple (Lady's) K. G. E. had a very lively festival on Saturday evening last. It was largely attended and well patronized.

James Letzsell has had the portico of his residence, occupied by D. W. Sweetwood, very handsomely painted. It is a great improvement.

C. P. Long is erecting another residence on the avenue with a concrete foundation. This will be the eighth dwelling Mr. Long has erected on that thoroughfare.

The third party movement seems to be getting into shape for a lively action, but which of the two great parties it will damage the most is a question possibly neither can answer.

Miss Anna Cummings left on Friday last week to visit relatives and friends in Mill Hill. She will also visit in Williamsport, Danville and Sunbury previous to her return home.

All our merchants report a fair trade during last month. Commercial agents stopping off here say that traffic on the road is exceedingly quiet, and orders for fall stock very limited.

Dr. Peter Letzsell, of Portland Mills, formerly of this place, made us a flying visit last week. On the day of his return home his youngest child died after an illness of less than a dozen hours.

A few weeks ago we were all complaining of the cool weather, now the complaint is the heat.

For the last ten days the heat has been excessive in this valley. A farmer stated to me that one day last week while he was hoeing potatoes the sun was so hot that it "burnt a hole in my shirt."

Cap's some inventive genius get up a contrivance to prevent autos from making such an intolerable dust? These "terrors of the road" moving at only a moderate rate of speed, make as much dust as a drove of cattle.

The school board has elected the following teachers for the term of 1910: Spring Mills, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, W. A. Moyer, S. G. Walker and A. L. Duck; Penn Hall, Miss Ella Condo; Cross Roads, Wm. Harvey; Beaver Dam, C. E. Royer; Farmers Mills, Harry Brungart; Logan, Harry Hubler; Murray, Miss Theresa Kachau; Hoy, Reverend Harvey; Pike Hill, Ray Gorman; Decker, Miss Cora Brown; Mountain, Bruce Hagan; Pike, vacant.

Fourth of July was celebrated here in a perfectly safe and sane manner. The day was about as quiet as Sunday, no commotion anywhere. All the stores and places of business were open as usual. Flags and the national colors waved from windows of nearly every home in town. In the evening quite a display of fireworks was made by several parties, but the incessant noise and racket from firecrackers was absent. No accidents or damage from explosives have been reported.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, ETC.

O. HENRY'S LAST STORY—"The Friendly Call" is the title of the last story written by O. Henry, the famous novelist who died a few weeks ago, and it is said to be one of his best. The magazine contains a number of good stories by writers who have made such periodicals as Collier's Scribner's the Saturday Evening Post, etc. The magazine itself resembles the Saturday Evening Post and surpasses by far any other Sunday newspaper magazine. It is issued on the second Sunday of each month and is free to all readers of the Sunday Dispatch. If you got the first issue on June 12th you will be sure to get it next Sunday. If you did not get the first issue don't fail to get this one and you'll be sure to get them all hereafter. The Sunday Dispatch, with the handsome monthly free, will be the great bargain next Sunday.
