Bellefonte, Pa., August 5, 1910.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications ed unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The A. M. E. church congregation and Sunday school picnicked at Hecla park vesterday.

-The big Schaeffer-Hazel reunion will be held at Hecla park on Saturday, August 13th.

Christy Smith, in the Bellefonte hospital,

-Three tables of six hand euchre ing card party last Friday.

-The condition of Col. Austin Curtin, who has been quite ill at his home at Curtin, is somewhat improved.

-A young son arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Willowbank street, last Saturday. ---On Tuesday Mrs. Harry Dukeman fell from the porch of their home on Lamb street and broke her right arm.

Pine street. -Miss Louise Brachbill's five-hundred party Wednesday was given in hon-of Lock Haven.

August 13th. --- Dr. Coubrn Rogers has now established himself in offices in the front rooms in the Garman residence on High Edwin F. Garman. -Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Goss and family have moved from Altoona to Reading where the latter will continue in the insurance business. He will be located at 617 Church street. -A reunion of the Wotring (Woodring) family will be held at Sand Spring grove, Lehigh county, on Saturday, Aug. 13th. All members and friends of the family are invited to attend. -Preaching services will be held in the United Brethren church at Houser- cil. Inasmuch as the committee did not ville on Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock state what action they intended taking it and at Valley View in the evening at is impossible to enlighten either the ladies 7.30 by Rev. E. Harvey Swank.

the Civic Club of Bellefonte will be held tract of R. B. Taylor for building the pounds of honey to Pitcairn and expects street. in the W. C. T. U. rooms, in Petriken hall, Friday afternoon, at half after three. All members are urged to be present.

---Every fan in Bellefonte wants to do all he can for "Booster day" for the Bellefonte baseball team on Friday of next week. The team is playing the right kind of ball and it is deserving of support.

--- Miss Rebecca Rhoads has in mind a project of establishing a library in connection with the Y. M. C. A., as a memorial to her brother, the late Frank Rhoads, who died several years ago in the west.

-R S Brouse on Wednesday sold his large refrigerator to the Nittany Country club for use in their kitchen when the new club house is completed and ready to occupy, which will be about the first of September.

----Anyone taking by mistake a leather dress suit case from the P. R. R. staturn it as soon as possible to the WATCH-MAN office in Bellefonte.

night which was originated by Miss Mary party back to Bellefonte.

-It isn't the largest show on the earth, but you can put it right down that the Frank Robbin's circus, which will ex. hibit here next Thursday, is one of the cleanest in its class. It has a lot of startling new features that are worth seeing.

--- Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward and daughter Isabel, Augusta Shoemaker, Edna Kilpatrick and Margaret Rowe composed a party who went to Pine Grove Mills on Wednesday and had a little private picnic at the Maple spring at the foot of Tussey

---Since last week the illness of Miss Mary Thomas has developed into typhoid fever though both she and her sister have it in a mild form and under the careful treatment they are receiving in the Bellefonte hospital no serious consequences are anticipated.

--- Mrs. Myrtle Irvin is seriously ill at her home on Reynolds avenue. Last week she became afflicted with an eruption on the face which was at first thought to be poison but this week it developed into a bad attack of erysipelas-She is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Derstine.

-Dr. D. G. Stuart is now the owner of one of the nattiest automobiles, of the medium priced cars in Bellefonte. Last week he drove his Middleby to Williamsport and on Saturday returned with a new 1910 model Cadillac 30. It is a touring car with a torpedo hood, equipped with a cloth top, etc., and is a car any man might be proud to own.

brought up.

William Kauffman was present and 24th and 25th, Eagleville. made complaint about his water tax being increased from $5.50 to $6.75 without any increase in facilities. The matter was referred to the Water committee for investigation.

A communication was received from the Village Improvement committee of the Woman's Civic club stating that John -A little baby girl was born to Mrs. D. Sourbeck and others refused to remove the barrels of rubbish accumulated in front of their places of business during the day's business and requesting were in play at Miss Lida Morris' morn- that the street commissioner be instruct-When the matter was taken up in reguhibiting the depositing of boxes, barrels, pavement or curb in front of any and all places of business be enforced under the penalty prescribed by said ordinance; which provides that the only obstruction or use merchants may make of the pave- years he let him go. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kreamer went ments is for unpacking goods and such to housekeeping the latter part of last purposes. It might here be stated that week in one of the Steele houses on this matter does not refer to any one or two merchants or business men in Bellefonte but to all of them. A communication was received from or of her house guest, Miss Shoemaker, the county commissioners stating that on the commissioner's minutes during the -Congressman Ben Focht, of Lewis- year 1855 it was found that the old town burg, will be principal speaker at the big clock had been installed in the tower of Granger's picnic to be held at Warriors- the court house through or by the town mark, Huntingdon county, on Saturday, council, and as the commissioners had installed a new clock they wanted to know what to do with the old one. On motion council relinquished all claims upon the old clock in favor of the commissioners to make whatever disposition street recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. of it they saw fit. In the reports of the various commit tees the Water committee stated that the meter bills for the current quarter amounting to $671.05 had been turned over to the collector.

Mr. Beezer, chairman of the Fire and Police committee, presented a resolution, which was passed, empowering said committee to take whatever action they might see fit to correct or abate the social evils in Bellefonte complained of by the delegation of ladies at the last meeting of coun-or our readers. -The regular monthly meeting of At the last meeting of council the concurb and gutter and the eight feet in width extra of state road on Linn street was presented but held over and it was this connection it might be stated that ordered executed when again brought be- this has been a very poor year for honey. fore council on Monday evening. On Mr. Noll is quite an enthusiastic apiarist motion of Mr. Judge the Street committee was empowered to make a contract with gathers about a ton of honey during the Mr. Meyer to act as inspector on the summer season, but this year he says, in weeks. work embodied in above contract. The he will not get over one-third that quan-Street committee also recommended that tity. Just what to ascribe the shortage a curb and gutter be put in on Allegheny to is hard to tell. Other bee owners street from Linn street to Pike alley, throughout the county also complain of a similar to that being put down on Linn street, and that a curb be put in to hold the brick paying from Pike alley to Bishop street. It was so ordered by council.

cation of the watchman's box at the rail. August 13th. The old town clock which road crossing near the Yeager swing fac- was installed in the belfry of the court tory. He stated that it was too close to house in 1855 has been replaced with a the street and the overhanging roof had new one and the old one is to be sold torn the top off a buggy driven by a along with a big lot of office furniture woman a few days ago. The box was lo- and fixings, lumber, steam radiators and tion in Bellefonte about twelve o'clock cated where it now is under direction of a heterogenous mass of stuff, the accum-Wednesday, August 3rd, will please re- the Street committee but the railroad ulation of the remodeling of the court company will willingly change it to any other location and the matter was refer. commissioners nor any other county of----Eighty-three people were at the red to the Street committee and burgess ficial can find any use in and around the dutch treat dance at Hecla park Tuesday to select a more suitable one. Mr. Kirk also called attention to the fact that bargain day for a good many articles. Blanchard and Henry C. Quigley. A on south Water street the drain pipe had special train at eleven thirty brought the been allowed to clog and that property Woodring, Dr. Coburn Rogers and R. A. owners on the east side of the street had filled up the surface gutter so that when it rained all the water was drained across the road and into the yards and cellars of residents on the west side and there so ago. The man has no family and no City. was a possibility of it being drained into the spring. He also called attention to the bad condition of the pavement and gutter along the McCafferty properties west of the railroad, which are considered as extremely dangerous, and both matters were referred to the Street committee with power to act. The request of the board of health that council pass an ordinance adopting the rules as laid down by the state board of health was brought up for further discussion. Dr. Kirk maintained that there were various health laws which covered the west gable end of the court house they States which will be held there next week. a majority of the rules suggested, a fact discovered that the wood work was so admitted by Mr. Keller and also by the badly rotted that it was literally falling to burgess, John J. Bower. Council would very willingly pass the ordinance as re- away and carpenters are putting in a new quested only it is unusually long and the cost for the publication of same would be too large, they think, to justify it. The matter was referred to the Sanitary committee for a conference with the board of health to see if a set of rules could not be drawn up which would cover all points not covered by general laws and which would not be so enormously

Mrs. Moses Levi requested that the borough water be extended to the curb at their home on Beaver street. Referred to the Water committee. Burgess Bower presented his report for the month of July and a check for six dollars, balance on fines collected during the month Bills to the amount of $1,484.23 were

WORK OF THE BOROUGH COUNCIL. - The dates for the various farmer's Only five members of borough council institutes to be held throughout the State ACCIDENT.-Anna Miller, the four year were present when that august body was the coming season were announced from old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Milcalled to order on Monday evening but Harrisburg on Saturday and those for ler, of this place, is now in the Bellefonte during the reading of the minutes and Centre county are as follows: Monday hospital with a badly broken leg as the shortly thereafter two more members and Tuesday, February 20th and 21st, result of being run over by an automostrolled in so that there was ample rep. 1911, Pleasant Gap; Wednesday and bile last Saturday evening. The acciresentation to transact all the business Thursday, February 22nd and 23rd, Undent, however, was entirely unavoidable ionville; Friday and Saturday, February and cannot be accredited to reckless or

-Jacob Huff, of Charlton, Clinton county, died at one o'clock on Monday morning from an attack of indigestion after being ill only two days. As Mr. Huff he probably was not known outside his own community but as "Faraway Moses" he was known all over the country and various other papers throughout the State. He was fifty-seven years of age. ed to compel business men to do this. trespassing upon their property and it the machine to the bridge and this gave have returned from two weeks spent on the farm lar order the street commissioner was in- the grass" if they don't want to get into ever, the little girl turned around and structed to see that the ordinance pro- troube. One young man living in Spring started to run back to her sisters and etc., as well as a display of goods on the few days ago when an officer in work- dered that she didn't see the machine is his brother, Joseph Bitner, of Penn Hall, spent lowing a path that had been used for passing over her left leg above the ankle.

> -From present indications the opening of The Pennsylvania State College on September 14th will be characterized by the biggest inrush of students ever known many applications have already been entered that it would not be surprising if the Freshman class numbered from six to seven hundred students. In fact some of the college faculty have expressed the belief that the attendance the ensuing year will total in the neighborhood of two thousand young men and women, and the question of furnishing proper accommodations for them all is now a perplexing

-After you hear the result of to-day's ball game between Bellefonte and Clearfield go to the scenic and see the moving pictures. They are sure to entertain and please you. Warm weather has no effect upon the pictures nor upon the audiences at the Scenic, because they are with friends in Erie. kept comfortable through the excellent system of ventilation arranged by manager Brown. Some shows offer your money back if you are not satisfied. The Scenic don't need do this to draw a crowd because everybody knows that it's hour's entertainment is always worth double the price of admission. If you don't believe it, try it and see. ---On Wednesday morning Col. Emanuel Noll shipped one hundred and ten of Miss Helen Valentine at her home on Curtin dred pounds some time next week. In and from his colony of bees he usually shortage in the honey crop.

-If anybody in Centre county wants a town clock they can buy one at public Mr. Kirk made complaint about the lo- sale at the court house on Saturday, house and for which neither the county court house. And it will very likely be -On Tuesday afternoon S. Kline Beck composed a commission in lunacy and inquired into the condition of Alexander Corson, a Swede, who was committed to the Centre county jail a week or permanent home in this country and for some time past had been staying in the Dorothy, left Bellefonte Wednesday for a visit of vicinity of Julian. While he was not considered dangerous his condition was such that he was a care and a responsibility on the community and upon information of Mr. Tallhelm he was committed to W. I. Fleming. jail. The commission on Tuesday found him insane and Judge Orvis committed him to the asylum at Danville where he will be taken in a day or two.

--- When the painters went up to paint pieces, consequently it has all been torn gable end. The new doorway at the main entrance will also be put in this week and most of the exterior plastering put on. Al- Miss Bessie left in the former's Stanley steamer railing on the concrete walls on each side and in the rear of the court house. Last Saturday evening the new town clock was illuminated for the first time and it presents a very good appearance and the time is easily distinguishable if one is not will leave next week for their home in Wilming too far away. But from Lamb street, or ton, Delaware. an equal distance in any direction, it is CHILD BADLY HURT IN AUTOMOBILE fast driving or any degree of carelessness on the part of the driver.

The child was with her two sisters, the eldest of which was probably not over eight or nine years old. They had just come in Water street and gone over the crossing from the bridge to the Bush Arcade as Gamble's automobile came down High street on its way out Water street as a writer for the Grit, of Williamsport, for a run to Pleasant Gap. Mac Gamble was at the wheel and had the machine under perfect control. When the ma--The Pennsylvania railroad compa- chine was only a short distance from the week or two. ny is becoming very strict regarding any crossing the child ran back in front of would be well for everybody to "keep off a clear roadway. Quick as a flash, howtownship came near getting nabbed a whether she was frightened or so bewilmen's clothes caught him in the act of not known but she ran against the side last Friday in Bellefonte. crossing the railroad, but when the lat- of the machine and was struck by the ter learned that the man was only fol- fender and knocked down, the rear wheel been spending several days with her friend, Miss

Mr. Gamble, who was sitting on the front seat, saw the child but did not Amanda Houser, on Pine street. know she had run into the machine and was run over until her screams attracted his attention. The machine was immediately stopped, the child was picked up in the history of that institution. So and Mr. Gamble took her to the hospital as quickly as possible where it was found that the fracture was not only a compound one but that the bone was so badly splintered as to protrude through the flesh. The flesh was also badly bruised. The fracture was reduced and the child is getting along as well as can be expected with chances very favorable for her

-See advertisement in another column of today's paper of a lost watch, which the owner is very desirous of having returned as it was a gift.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Rose Gamble is spending several weeks

-Mrs. A. Katz is entertaining her sister-in-law Mrs. Fred Lewisson, of Milton

-Miss Elizabeth Ardell is in Bellefonte for ome time, the guest of her many friends. -Roxey Crosthwaite of Altoona is spending two weeks in Bellefonte the guest of relatives. -Mrs. John Gross is entertaining her sister.

Mrs. W. A. Witherite, of Connellsville, Pa. -Miss Edna Mallory left Bellefonte yesterday to spend her vacation in Philadelphia and Atlantic

-Miss Jane Harding, of Pittsburg, is a guest

-Miss Martha McEntire, of Pittsburg, guest at the H. C. Yeager home on north Spring

-James McKee, of Wilkinsburg, has joined his mother in Bellefonte for a visit with Mrs. H. Y. Mrs. T. Clayton Brown. During Claire Miller's -The venerable John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe was a Bellefonte visitor vesterday, the first time

-Miss Elenore Cook is over at Linden Hall visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M.

-Mrs. S. A. Bell had with her as an all-day guest Thursday, her cousin, Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Unionville. -Mrs. Walter Miller and little daughter and friends in Bellefonte. -Mrs. Edward Harkness and son Gehring, o Philadelphia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin, on Spring street.

Mrs. Benjamin Strunk, of Pittsburg, are visiting

-While in Bellefonte Miss Dorothy Dawson, of Washington, D. C., is living at the Fraternity house, on Curtin street. -Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway expects to be in Bellefonte Monday, after spending six months on -Robert F. Hunter and family left yesterday on an automobile trip to Philadelphia with perhaps a run to Atlantic City on the side.

-Ben Crawford, who has been visiting his ancle William Crawford at Coleville, will leave for his home in Newell Friday afternoon.

-Mrs. George Whittaker and daughter Maud and Kathryn Lyon, of Pittsburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fulton, of east Lamb street. -Mrs. Washington Irvin, of Revnolds avenue has with her for the summer her daughter, Mrs Boone and her two children Ruth and James. -Mrs. Frank Montgomery and her sister, Miss Hassel, left Bellefonte this week expecting to spend some time in Philadelphia and Atlantic -Mrs. William Jenkins with her daughter, several weeks with the family of John Jenkins, in -Charles H. Miller and his wife, of Butler, are with Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Ward Fleming whe is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs

-After spending a month with her mother and sister in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, Miss Nan aunt, Miss Collins, of Curtin street. -W. I Fleming will leave Saturday for Chicago

-Mrs. Rachel Harris has had as house guest within the past ten days, the Misses Holmes, of Pittsburgh: Mr. and Mrs. John VanPelt, of Barnesboro; Charley Harris, of Washington, D. C., and George Harris, of Pittsburgh.

-On Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. J.

Robt. Cole, and Mrs. E.S. Dorworth and daughter

bert Schad is putting up the iron guard for a trip through the central and eastern part of the State; that is, providing the Stanley don't small child, are visiting with Mrs. Winner's aunts. the Misses Pearl. Mrs. Winner anticipates spending a month in Bellefonte while her hus

-Miss Helen Crissman returned on Tuesday the home of her parents on Thomas street. So

-Mrs. Frank Steele is visiting friends in

-Miss Sophia Rockey, of Hublersburg, was Rellefonte visitor on Wednesday

-Miss Jane McCalmont is entertaining Mis Mary Sterret, of Washington, D. C. -Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, was a business visitor in Bellefonte last Saturday. -Hon. Robert M. Foster, of State College, a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday -Miss Elsie Hagan, of Beech Creek, was an

-George W. Young, of Nittany, was a well come caller at the WATCHMAN office on Saturday. -Mrs. I. P. Gephart is in Loganton, where she will be for two weeks visiting with relatives. -Mrs. Clarence Casselberry, of Salem, Ohio, is visiting her sister. Mrs. Ed. Klinger, on Penn

-Maurice Baum is a business visitor in New York this week, having gone down on Sunday

-Mrs William Miller and son Claire have gone to Columbus. Ohio, to visit friends for a -Prothonotary Arthur B. Kimport and children in Potter township. -Miss Kate Shreffler went to Clearfield this week expecting to spend her vacation of two weeks with her sister. -H. F. Bitner, druggist of Centre Hall, with

-Miss Edna Stephens, of State College, has Mariorie Miller, in this place. -Mrs. Luther Dale and three children of Peru spent Monday night with her mother, Mrs

-Mrs. Harris Mann, of Lewistown, came to Bellefonte this week for a visit with her parent s, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Speer.

-The Misses Nan and Lulu McIntyre, of Pittsburg, came to Bellefonte Sunday and have been the guests of Miss Eva Crissman

-After a visit of a month with friends in Canton, Pa., Miss Pearl Mewshaw returned home Monday, greatly improved by her visit. -Miss Willa Waite has returned to her home in Philipsburg after a two week's visit with her cousin, Miss Mary Straub, of Pine street. -Miss Pearl Royer and friend, Miss Anna guests of Dr. Crawford Boyles and family. -Mrs. Will Bail returned to her home in Cleveland, Ohio, after spending several days with her father, Mr. John Crossmyer, at Curtin.

-Mrs. Edward Gehret and Mrs. James Bailey spent screral days the latter part of last week with friends in Altoona and Hollidaysburg. -Misses Miriam and Helen Dreese, of Lemont, and Miss Maude Ard, of Philadelphia, were in Bellefonte on a shopping expedition on Saturday -Miss Margaret Cook, of Wellesley, and Mrs. Jack Gibson with her small daughter Margaret, are with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook, of Linn street -- Mrs. LeRoy Fox and two children, of Lock Haven, were over Sunday visitors with her par ents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupt, on Allegheny

-Mrs. Louise Comerford left Bellefonte Tues day, expecting to spend the month of August in Canton, Ohio, with her daughter, Mrs. Theodore

-Cyrus Labe, of Harrisburg, is spending the eek with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Labe and Elizabeth being in Bellefonte for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. George Lose.

-Francel Wallack of New York, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday to visit his aunt, Mrs. all camping down near Hecla park.

-John Bartruff is here from Boston, Mass on his annual vacation and is a guest of Mr. and on Wednesday afternoon for a two week's visit absence he is helping Mr. Brown out by operating the moving picture machine at the Scenic.

-Miss Marie White, Miss C. Albert and Miss V. Runkle, of Williamsport, came to Bellefonte with Dr. D. G. Stewart when he brought his new automobile home last Saturday, the ladies re- are guests of their sister, Mrs. George Ingram, urning to the Lumber city on Sunday evening.

-Charles Potter Miller, son of John C. Miller, a former resident of Bellefonte, was a Bellefonte visitor the early part of the week. He is now located at Wilkinsburg and is getting along in good shape, but then that's the way all Bellefonte boys do when they go away from home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller have had with them during the past week their son Isaac, of Philadelphia, and their daughter, Mrs. E. P. Moore and daughter Kathryn, of Tyrone, and seemed more home-like than it has in weeks. -Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, of Scottdale, have been here this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Strawn. This is their first trip to this place and they both have been delighted with the town and the scenery throughout the county af. forded on the various automobile runs they have made.

-Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry left Bellefonte Friday of last week for Mound City, Missouri expecting after spending several weeks with friends there to go to Big Spring, Texas, for a short visit with Mr. Cherry's mother, who will come north with them in anticipation of making her ome in Bellefonte.

-Jack Weinstein, of Johnstown, one of the most popular traveling men on the road, came to Belle fonte on Thursday of last week to spend a few days of his vacation among his friends here, with headquarters at the Brockerhoff house. He remained until Tuesday and before leaving had no hesitation in saying that he had a most enjoyable time, while his friends here regretted his departure very much.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Barr, of Spring street are at present enjoying a visit from Mrs. Barr's mother, Mrs. J. B. Duff; her sister, Mrs. A. Roy Gribben, Mr. Gribben and three baby Gribbens, Dorothy, Richard and Allen Jr., all of Pittsburg. They are very enthusiastic over this good old town among the mountains, composed of shady streets and babbling streams, compared to the Collins has returned to Bellefonte to be with her dirty streets and murky atmosphere of the Smoky

-On Monday Miss Eloise Schuyler, of Centro to attend the triennial conclave of the Grand Encampment Knights Templar of the United be with her mother's relatives for a week then go to Clinton, N. Y., where she will be weeks then take a trip to the Catskills before proceeding to Cape May in time for the opening of the public schools. Rev. Schuyler was have accompanied his daughter but he was sich on Monday and could not go. However, I recovered and left for Binghampton on Wedne day. He will also go to Canton and will be aw

-Franklin Bowersox, of Pine Grove Mills, an his son, O. M. Bowersox, of Pittsburg, were Bellefonte visitors on Monday and very pleasant callers at the WATCHMAN office. The latter with his wife, who was a Miss Ewing prior to her marriage, arrived in Centre county the forepart of last week. Their visit at this time was about as nuch one of business as pleasure as they wanted to be present at the public sale of the Ewing real estate last Saturday. And to show how much he was interested in this it can be stated that he was impossible to tell the time as the light is from Sunbury and since has been quite sick at the purchaser of the Ewing home in State College for which he paid $4,000. This does not so brilliant that the dials look like big the home of her parents on Thomas street. So mean that he is going to return to the College to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return to the college to mean that he is going to return the college to mean that he is going to mean that he is going to return the college to mean that he is going to mean that he is illuminated disk without any figures case, but as she felt a little better yesterday after- live but simply that he purchased it as an invest ment. The Ewing farm was not sold.

-Miss Kathryn Parker has been visiting friend in State College the past week

-Miss Harriet Ray will leave today or tor for a two weeks visit with friends in Erie. -Mrs. C. D. Casebeer went to Somerset on Monday for a month's visit with her mother

-H. Harry Watson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is pending the week among old acquaintances in Rellefonte -Mr. and Mrs. William B. Kuhn and daughter, of Williamsport, are visiting among Bell fonte friends. -J. Harris Hoy, treasurer and book-keeper of the Clarence Supply company, is in Belle on a few days vacation -Thomas Hamilton, of New York city, is home for his summer vacation with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Thad Hamilton. -Mrs. George Schrock, of Akron, Ohio, is visiting in Bellefonte, the guest of her sister-in law, Mrs. Thomas Donachy. -Miss Grace Blackford left yesterday for Lumher City where she will be a member of a camping party during the next fornight. -Mrs. Will Rees and little child, of Patton, are in Bellefonte visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs G. W. Rees, on Reynolds avenue.

-Stanley B. Valentine, of Pittsburg, has been spending his vacation with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Valentine, of Curtin street. -Miss Katurah Rider returned the latter part of last week from a months sojourn with friends at Beaver Falls and in Pittsburg and Wilkinsburg. -Miss Lois Gorman, of Williamsport, and Miss Agnes Smith, of Hughesville, spent a week in Bellefonte as the guests of Miss Helen Hartranft.

-Misses Adaline and Leona Lyon, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Lvon, of Howard street, are spending some time with their grandparent at Lyontown -Ferguson Parker, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Parker, went to Somerset Wednesday to be for the remainder of the summer with Mr Parker's sisters. -Mr. and Mrs. Wells Daggett, of the Bush house and their two sons, Boynton and Frederic returned to Bellefonte Tuesday night after a stay at Atlantic City. -- James Caldwell, who is learning the plumbing business with Archibald Allison, is spending his vacation camping with a party of young men down at Howard.

-Miss Zola Peters, of Lancaster, who has been visiting with her uncle on his farm near Pleasant Dukeman, were in Altoona over Sunday as Gap, has been in Bellefonte this week the gues of Miss Grace Rine.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClellan and two lit tle daughters, of Altoona, spent a week at the former's home here and among Mrs. McClellan's friends in Unionville the past twelve years in Yakataga, Alaska, where he digs gold out of his own claim, is back visiting Centre county friends. -After a ten days visit at the home of Mr.

-John Stere, an old Centre countian, who spen and Mrs. L. C. Wian, Mrs. Samuel Mulberger and daughter Minnie have returned to their home in Williamsport -James Dugan, assistant in Milton Kern's barber shop, was in Tyrone and Osceola over Sunday and says the baseball fever has reached the stage of an epidemic in the latter place. -Mrs. Matilda Dale went to Snow Shoe Wed nesday, where she met Mrs. Bell Hirlinger, of Philipsburg, expecting to visit with her for several days on her farm beyond Snow Shoe. -Mrs. Samuel Harris, of Mill Hall, and her daughter, Mrs. Willis Hartsock, of Liverpool. uphin county, are guests at the home of M and Mrs. John P. Harris, on west Linn street.

-Miss Catharine Cooney left on the 1.07 train Wednesday afternoon to visit friends in Alto and Miss Agnes Gherrity went on the same trai to spend several days with friends in Tyrone. -Mrs. John Larimer and two children and Miss Margaret Furey left on the 1.07 p. m. train with Mr. and Mrs. Web Kerstetter and family, of Curwensville -Mrs. William Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls and Mrs. David Auchmuty, of Albany, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening and on east Lamb street. -The Misses Julia and Margery McDermot with their neice Miss Catharine Harris, of Lock Haven, will go to Pittsburg next week for a visit with relatives, after which Miss Julia will leave to spend the early fall in the South. -W. R. Brachbill returned the latter part of last week from spending ten days with Capt. George C. Runkle, in Philadelphia. Capt. Runkle, by the way, recently started out on a cruise in the schoolship Adams but he the toll gate house beyond the furnace has thus had not gotten a great ways from port when some of the ships machinery was damaged and he was compelled to return to Philadelphia for repairs.

> -Mrs. Sophia Linn, of Blanchard, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday. She is making preparations to go to Camden to make her he daughter, Mrs. Weber Thomas. The latter, by the way, was Miss Mabel Linn and it was only in June that she was married to Weber Thomas, of Howard, and the young couple will go to house keeping in Camdem where Mr. Thomas has a good position.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.
Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer
The prices quoted are those paid for produ	ce.
Potatoes per bushel Onions Eggs, per dozen Laro, per pound Country Shoulders Sides Hams	75 1.00 22 14 10 10 14
Tallow, per pound	22
Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press White or New Wheat Rye, per bushel.
Corn, shelled, per bushel.
Corn, ears, per bushel.
Oats, old and new, per bushel
Barley, per bushel.
Buckwheat per bushel

	Duckwheat per dusirer
	Philadelphia Markets.
1 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Wheat—Red $1.02@1 "-No. 2 95@ Corn —Yellow 69@ -Mixed new 67@ Oats 46@ Flour —Winter, per barrel 4.00@4 Flour —Favorite Brands 6.00@6 Rye Flour per barrel 4.00@4 Baled Hay—Choice Timothy No. 1 16.00@27 Mixed No. 1 19.00@21
1	The Democratic Watchman. 6.50@12