Democratic County Ticket.

- For the Legislature, J. CALVIN MEYER, of Bellefonte.

A Skillfully Baited Trap.

It is altogether probable that of the votes that Mr. BERRY and the Keystone ticket will receive, at the coming election, nine-tenths of them would be cast for Mr. GRIM if that ticket was not in the field.

It is also probable that that ticket may poll almost as many votes as Mr. BERRY had majority in 1905. If it does, however, it will be a larger vote than present conditions indicate, but it will simply be that much more help for the Machine and that much more certainty of the success of the Machine's nominee—TENER.

To take nine votes from Mr. GRIM for everyone taken from Mr. TENER is a great scheme for Mr. PENROSE and we don't wonder that he has quietly promised to aid in raising the $100,000 the Keystone party boasts it will have to carry on its campaign.

The sooner the Democratic and Independent voters, who contemplate voting for Mr. BERRY and his Keystone partners, come to recognize the bunco game that is being played on them the quicker and surer they will escape the trap that has been so well and skillfully baited to catch them.

The Why of It.

Our neighbor of the Democrat seems disturbed as to why the Gazette should show such opposition to the Keystone party. The editor of the Democrat has full knowledge of the chief characteristics of the editor of the Gazette.

Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are the following sons and daughters: Lawrence, of Allport; C. C., of Kylertown; Ira, of Fruithurst, Ala.; Mrs. Emigh and Mrs. George Harris, of Parkersburg. The funeral was held on Friday, interment being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

YOUNG.—Charles Young, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Young, of Nittany, died in the Clearfield hospital on Monday evening after only about a week's illness with typhoid fever. He was born at Nittany and was about thirty-two years old.

—Mrs. Sarah Bathurst, eighty-one years old, who lives back of Parrish's drugstore, was crossing Allegheny street over to Sheffer's grocery store, yesterday morning just as the circus parade came along, and in her hurry to get out of the way she slipped and fell, injuring her right leg.

—Another week or two of good weather will see the remodeling of the court house very near completion. The masons have finished their work, the marble men will be almost through next week, while the carpenters will finish their work in a few days.

WYNN.—Miss Ethel Wynn, of Philipsburg, died on Monday evening after a year's illness with tuberculosis. She was a daughter of William (deceased) and Margaret Wynn, and was 24 years, 11 months and 22 days old.

BOTTORF.—After being in feeble health for some weeks Mrs. Amanda Bottorf, wife of John Bottorf, died at her home at Scotia last Friday, aged 69 years.

BROWN.—Marie, the fifteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Quaker Hill, died at nine o'clock last Friday morning, of cholera infantum, after a brief illness.

NORRIS.—John Burnside Norris died at the Forge house about three o'clock last Saturday afternoon. For several months he had been afflicted with hardening of the arteries and blood pressure and about three weeks ago he was stricken with paralysis which was the direct cause of his death.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Norris, deceased, and was born at Milton on January 8th, 1845, hence was 65 years and 7 months old. He was a member of quite an illustrious family, his father for years holding the position of collector of the port at Philadelphia.

When a young man he studied civil engineering, an occupation he followed for some years. He was a member of the corps that surveyed the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad. When the Bell telephone company began operations over a quarter of a century ago he accepted a position with them as right-of-way agent, a position he held until his death.

It was on Wednesday night of last week a lamp exploded in the bedroom of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Taylor, of Water street, and a conflagration was averted by one of the members of the family awakening before the flames had gained any headway.

Charles Van Gordon, of Hublersburg, who was brought to the Bellefonte hospital last Thursday suffering with concussion of the brain as the result of a fall from a hay mow, has improved so he is able to converse rationally and has a splendid appetite.

The oats crop in Centre county has practically all been housed and farmers admit that it will be the biggest oats crop in years. In some portions of the county the oats were beaten down and somewhat mixed by the heavy storms but the most of it was gotten in without becoming mouldy and will therefore be of a good quality as well as quantity.

The annual encampment of the Grangers of Central Pennsylvania will be held at Grange park, Centre Hall, September 10th to 16th. The time is just one month away and the various committees are planning to make the exhibition and gathering in general bigger this year than ever.

All the merchants in Bellefonte will close their places of business this afternoon from three until five o'clock to permit of themselves and employees attending the ball game between Bellefonte and Clearfield on Hughes field.

—Mrs. H. S. Taylor underwent an operation, in the Bellefonte hospital, last week.

—Frank Bartley is the latest Bellefonter to indulge in the luxury of owning an automobile.

—J. S. Baumgardner has sold his laundry at State College to C. A. Miller and A. J. Gentzel.

—A little daughter was born to Mrs. Frank Kern, in the Bellefonte hospital, the forepart of the week.

—Miss Helen Crissman, who has been seriously ill since her return from Sunbury in the forepart of last week, is rapidly improving.

—James C. Weirick, of Howard, has been elected principal of the central grammar school, Lock Haven, at a salary of eighty dollars per month.

—The Centre county Christian Endeavor Union will meet in annual convention at Pine Grove Mills on August 31st and September 1st. More complete information will be given next week.

—A Britton Steele is confined to his home with quite a serious illness and until he is able to be around again Edmund Hayes is performing the pleasant duty as collector for the Bellefonte Gas company.

BOOSTER DAY.—This is "Booster day" for the Bellefonte baseball team and it is up to the fans of Bellefonte to give it a real good boost. There are still three weeks of baseball for the Mountain league and the pennant is within our reach. But whether Bellefonte wins out in first place or not, the team has played good ball and afforded the people of Bellefonte good, clean sport, and for this they should be encouraged and supported.

So far the team has not been very successful this week. On Monday they went to Clearfield and played the home team, going down to defeat by the score of 7 to 1 and on Tuesday they were beaten at Osceola by a 5 to 1 score.

The standing of the clubs to Wednesday evening is as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Club Name, Won, Lost, P.C. Osceola: 17, 9, .657; Clearfield: 11, 10, .524; Bellefonte: 12, 11, .522; Philipsburg: 10, 16, .385

CENTRE COUNTY MURDERED.—Orin McGuire, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGuire, of Philipsburg, was shot to death by foreigners at New Castle on Sunday night.

McGuire was employed as a street car conductor and on one of his trips he had as passengers two Italians, Dominic Hanano and Tony Toskins. The latter demanded the return of ten cents fare which he claimed the former had paid for him and his wife and McGuire told him he could not return it as he had registered the amount, but that he could have the matter adjusted at the offices of the company.

The Italians became angry and wanted to fight when McGuire attempted to put them off the car. Hanano at once drew a gun and shot McGuire four times, the most fatal being in the head. Toskins was also accidentally shot in the arm.

McGuire was taken to the Shenango Valley hospital where he died an hour later. The unfortunate young man was 24 years, 7 months and 5 days old. He was unmarried but is survived by his parents and five brothers, namely: Oliver, of Retort; Chester, of Ouray, Col., and Roy, Walter and Paul, at home in Philipsburg, where the remains were taken for burial.

BUTCHER HAD ENCOUNTER WITH BLACKSNAKE.—Arthur Riegel, a butcher of Salona, had quite a thrilling encounter with a monster blacksnake near Jacksonville, this county, on Thursday of last week.

Mr. Riegel was driving along the road when he saw the reptile and naturally undertook to kill it. He hit it with a stone and apparently crippled it so it could not get away then hammered its head with a stone. This done he supposed it was dead and was straightening it out to measure when the tail accidentally switched against his leg and before he could help himself the reptile had coiled around both legs and was giving him the hardest squeezing he ever had in his life.

Fortunately he had a large clasp knife in his pocket and he lost no time in bringing it into play, while several men who witnessed his predicament went to his rescue. Mr. Riegel avers that it was the gamest dead snake he ever encountered as it had to be literally cut away from his legs. It measured six and a half feet in length.

DALE FAMILY REUNION.—The annual reunion of the Dale family was held on the old homestead farm at Oak Hall last Saturday, and was quite largely attended. After the gathering and exchange of greetings in the morning the first thing of importance was the dinner which was served promptly at twelve o'clock.

Following this the assemblage was called to order by A. W. Dale, president of the family reunion association, and the minutes of the last meeting read by the secretary, J. S. Dale. A very interesting historical sketch of the family was read by Clement Dale Esq., of this place, while other papers were read by Mrs. Clement Dale and Arthur C. Dale.

During the afternoon there was music and various recitations with games and social intercourse, so that the time passed very quickly. At four o'clock the gathering broke up to meet again at the same place the first Saturday in August of 1911.

A WEASEL CHASE.—The county commissioners, a number of the workmen on the court house and a squad of men from the Garman house had a chase last Friday afternoon which livened things up in that locality for a few minutes, at least. A number of men were taking their afternoon siesta on the Garman house porch while the usual crowd of spectators were watching the progress of the work on the court house when a weasel made its appearance in the middle of the street, from whence no one seemed to know. But everybody in that neighborhood went after the little animal. Stones were flying through the air as thick as hail in a big storm, clubs were brandished on all sides and the weasel had a hard time of it for a few minutes but he finally managed to break through the cordon of men and boys and disappeared under the Garman house. In size it ranged anywhere from a rat to a tomcat, according to the vision of those who saw it; but be it big or little anybody in that neighborhood who has chickens better keep them surrounded by a close meshed wire screen or they may wake up some morning to find them all dead.

MULBERGER-GARMAN.—On Thursday evening of last week John A. Mulberger and Miss Mary Garman were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garman, on Half-moon hill, and the young couple were given a big send-off by their young friends. For some time past the bride has been employed in the Bellefonte shirt factory and twenty-five or more of her fellow employees were present to witness the nuptials.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn in front of the house by Dr. Thomas S. Wilcox, of the Methodist church. At the conclusion of the ceremony and after they had all congratulated the newly married couple the bevvy of girls present secured a lot of old tin pans and proceeded to give them a real old-fashioned callithumpian serenade. Later in the evening refreshments were served and the wedding jollification was kept up until late in the night.

NELSON-SHEARER.—Archie L. Nelson, of Mill Hall, and Miss Arie E. C. Shearer, of Bellefonte, were married at the parsonage of the First United Evangelical church in Lock Haven on Monday by the pastor, Rev. Edward Crumling.

BIG CHANGE AROUND OF STATION AGENTS.—By an order issued recently quite a number of changes will take place within a few days on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad. George W. Radel the present station agent at Coburn, will be transferred to Lykens; William M. Campbell will be transferred from Spring Mills to Coburn; Jacob C. Lee will go from Linden Hall to Spring Mills and Frank P. Ishler from Oak Hall to Linden Hall.

William F. Rossman, a clerk at the Mifflinburg station, will be promoted to station agent at Oak Hall. The above change around will be of financial benefit to all the men interested. Philip C. Bradford, the agent at Lemont, was also offered a change which would mean an increase in salary but for various reasons he preferred remaining where he is.

CIRCUS DAY.—Frank A. Robbins' circus yesterday drew a fair crowd of out-of-town people to Bellefonte and the attendance was very good. The show got into town shortly after five o'clock in the morning, coming here from Lock Haven in their own train of eleven cars. In unloading and transferring their stuff from the train to the ground they were very quiet and gentlemanly. The parade was good for the size of the show though their wagons showed the wear of a season two-thirds over. The show was good and clean throughout and was as much enjoyed by the crowd in attendance as a big three ring aggregation. Joseph H. Hughes is the press agent with the show, and he was most courteous and obliging in his treatment of the newspaper people.

—On Wednesday morning word was telephoned to James I. McClure, in this place, that his son Lawrence was in Lock Haven and acting in such a peculiar manner that he had been taken into custody for his own protection. The young man had disappeared from home on Tuesday evening and all efforts to locate him had been futile until the word was received from Lock Haven. His brother Samuel went down and accompanied him back to Bellefonte on the noon train the same day. Lawrence stated that he had no idea how he got to Lock Haven as he could not remember anything that happened from the time of his leaving home until Wednesday forenoon.

Fortunately his lapse of memory, or whatever ailed him, was only temporary and he is now his normal self again.

—Notwithstanding the numerous declarations of the men behind the project of the Centre County Traction company for the building of a trolley road between Bellefonte and State College that they meant business it looks now as if the thing had fallen through. Nothing material has been done and there is no indication of anything being done in the near future; and the fact that the time limit of their right-away in State College will expire very shortly and no move has been made to hold it looks kind of dubious for the trolley.

—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Bruger, formerly of Unionville but now proprietress of the St. James hotel, Atlantic City, to Llewellyn James, of Carlisle.

—A week or so ago Miss Bess Hart felt a twinge of pain in her right hand which grew worse with each succeeding day. This week she went to the hospital and submitted to an X-ray examination which disclosed a broken needle imbedded deep under the flesh and against the bone, so that it took quite an incision to remove it.

—C. Y. Wagner is going to raise at least a small part of the grain he grinds in his mill as he recently bought the Humes farm up Buffalo Run for $11,000. Prior to making the sale Mr. Humes had just completed drilling an artesian well and making other improvements to the extent of one thousand dollars.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds received another carload of peach baskets on Wednesday.

No Taint to the Grim Nomination.

From the Philadelphia Record, August 4th. Regarding the candidacy of Senator Grim, it is idle for his opponents in the independent movement or elsewhere to keep a charge that the unfortunate condition promoted by the Munson fiasco at Allentown reflects in any way upon Senator Grim or in any degree taints the nomination he received at the hands of delegates to that convention. The men who voted for Grim were the same men whose votes Berry had solicited, and whose votes he would willingly accept to-day if Grim should retire and the Democratic convention should reassemble to fill the vacancy on the ticket. There is no taint to the Grim nomination, and no man will be able to prove a charge to that effect. Grim and Berry were both candidates before the Democratic convention, and Grim won. Because he did, because his public record, as well as that of his private life, will bear the light of day, he will have the support of a great majority of the Democrats of the State.
