

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. For Governor, WEBSTER GRIM, of Bucks County.

For Lieutenant Governor, THOMAS H. GREEVY, of Altoona. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES L. BLAKESLEE, of Carbon County.

For State Treasurer, SAMUEL B. PHILSON, of Somerset County. Democratic Congressional Ticket.

For Congress, WILLIAM C. HEINLE, of Bellefonte. Democratic Senatorial Ticket.

For State Senator, SAMUEL C. STEWART, of Clearfield. Democratic County Ticket.

For the Legislature, J. CALVIN MEYER, of Bellefonte.

—There should be no temporizing with justice when the parties are caught who broke into the new school building Sunday night.

—Former Vice President FAIRBANKS handed out another of his frapped gems at Indianapolis, on Tuesday, when he said: "There is much hysteria abroad in the land and the watchword should be down with the demagogue and up with the patriot."

—The price of mules in the anthracite regions has gone up steadily so that a good one now costs three hundred dollars, whereas in 1901 the best could be bought for one hundred and forty-five.

—How do you like the selection of THOMAS GREEVY, of Altoona, to fill the vacancy on our ticket for Lieutenant Governor? He has always been against the GUFFEY-HALL crowd, as you call it, yet he is given the second place on the ticket.

—Secretary FRANK MORRISON, of the American Federation of Labor, called JOHN K. TENER an arrogant and scornful traitor to the laboring classes while in Congress, and TENER reddened under the charge, but said not a word in his own defense.

—Mr. JOHN K. TENER, who is known to our people, or to those who know that such a person exists, only because Mr. PENROSE has made him his candidate for Governor, says, "the PAYNE tariff law is the best tariff measure that has ever been given the country"; while Mr. THEODORE ROOSEVELT, who imagines he speaks for the Republican party—minus its crooks—declares that "it is a failure and should be changed if it is to benefit the people."

—Ex-congressman PACKER, of Tioga county, who has been recognized as an Independent for years, declines the appointment of Keystone committeeman for this district. He sees the folly of those who are honest in their desires and efforts to defeat the Machine, fighting among themselves and throwing away their votes on a third party and will have none of it.

—MADISON F. LARKIN, the Prohibition candidate for Governor, has repudiated an offer of five thousand dollars, to have him withdraw and endorse Mr. BERRY. He says: "If you think I could desert my party to make place for a double deserter you have surely selected the wrong man."

—MEESE.—Mildred Ann Meese, infant daughter of Edward E. and Mary Meese, of Pitcairn, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rote, of Axe Mann, on Wednesday of last week.

Stewart Nominated for State Senator.

At a conference held in Clearfield on Wednesday evening Dr. Samuel C. Stewart, of that town, was nominated for State Senator on the Democratic ticket to succeed Senator George M. Dimeling, who recently withdrew from the race.

Dr. S. C. Stewart, the new nominee, is a native of Bradford township, Clearfield county. He was born fifty-four years ago and comes from good Scotch-Irish Presbyterian stock.

She is survived by six children, as follows: Mrs. Virgie Deving, of Lock Haven; Forest DeHaas, on the old homestead; J. Willis, of St. Mary's; Grant, of Marquette, Mich.; Mrs. Florence Richards, of Tioga, and C. Wood DeHaas, of Johnsonburg. In addition to Mrs. Lingle she also leaves two other sisters, Mrs. Annie Fearon, of Beech Creek, and Mrs. William Johnson, of Conneaut, Ohio.

McGUIRE.—Mrs. Rosanna McGuire, the oldest woman in Halfmoon township, died on Monday evening at her home near Stormstown at the age of ninety-one years.

Mr. EUGENE BONNIBELL, who has been the chief Democratic blower of the Keystone horn has announced that he has "left the Democratic party for good."

From the tone of his speeches our old friend, candidate BERRY, has been making the past week he must have worked pretty big blisters on his disposition already.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

LINGLE.—Mrs. Thomas Lingle died quite suddenly at her home in Blanchard last Thursday morning. She had suffered for some time past with a tumor in the abdomen but her condition had not even been considered critical until a few hours before her death.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, was born in Liberty township and had shined until the 27th of the month would have been seventy-three years old, and all her life was spent in the vicinity of her birth.

Funeral services were held in the Disciple church at Blanchard on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, interment being made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

ARMSTRONG.—Following an illness of about one year, six months of which time he was unable to be around, Abraham L. Armstrong died at his home on south Water street at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

As a fitting windup for the wedding a big dance was given in Boalsburg Wednesday evening in honor of the out-of-town guests.

RIDER.—Strayer.—Isaac Rider and Miss Retta Strayer, both of Gatesburg, drove to Pine Grove Mills on Tuesday and were quietly married by Rev. J. S. Shultz.

SPANGLER.—DeHaas.—William Spangler and Miss Christie DeHaas, both of Blanchard, went to Wilmington, Del., on Monday of this week where they were united in marriage by Rev. George Wolf.

DEHAAS.—Mrs. Sarah A. DeHaas, widow of the late Alexander M. DeHaas and a sister of Mrs. George W. Lingle, of this place, died at her home near Beech Creek on Wednesday night of last week.

She is survived by six children, as follows: Mrs. Virgie Deving, of Lock Haven; Forest DeHaas, on the old homestead; J. Willis, of St. Mary's; Grant, of Marquette, Mich.; Mrs. Florence Richards, of Tioga, and C. Wood DeHaas, of Johnsonburg.

THE GRANGE ENCAMPMENT NEXT WEEK.—The arrangements for the 37th annual encampment and exhibition of the Patrons of Husbandry are nearly completed and the prospects are that it will be as big as any encampment ever held on Grange Park.

Special trains will be run on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad between Bellefonte and Coburn for Grange Park, Centre Hall, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and excursion tickets will be sold from Friday, the 9th of September, good going until the 16th, and good returning until the 19th.

THE PROGRAM. Saturday, September 10th.—Opening of camp, when tents will be in readiness for all who have engaged them.

7:30 p.m.—Grand opening of evening entertainments in the auditorium, by the Scorer Amusement company, of Philadelphia.

Harvest Home services Sunday, September 11th, at 2:30 p. m. The anniversary sermon will be preached by Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, subject "The Old Testament Farmer."

Monday, September 12th.—Opening of exhibition. This will be the day for the general placing of exhibits, and the exhibitors are urged to bring as large a percentage of their exhibits on that day as possible, so that there may be a creditable display on Tuesday, the day of the wedding, which will be a quiet one. Mr. Brewer will accompany Mr. Keichline to the home of his bride-elect tomorrow.

SPRING MILLS.

Quite a number of our folks will camp at the Grange picnic.

Schools commenced here on Monday last with a fair attendance.

Charles Sechrist is not improving very rapidly. He has been ill with typhoid fever for over three weeks.

Owing to the rain on Saturday last the M. E. Sunday school had no picnic, much to the disappointment of the little people.

All our merchants report a fair business during last month. Commercial agents stopping off here report traffic on the road as being somewhat light.

Politics are very quiet. Even where people most do congregate, at the postoffice, very little is said; possibly it's the calm which precedes the storm.

Allison Bros. had quite a small army of men cleaning out the mill race, which extends over a quarter of a mile down before it reaches the creek.

W. B. Baum, of Reading, was here last week visiting relatives and friends in the valley. Charles Smith, of Altoona, was also here visiting his parents.

The goose bone and potato skins have already been consulted by the wisecracks and weather prophets for the coming winter. The goosebone foretells an early fall and the tough and thick condition of the potato skin prognosticates a severe winter.

W. H. Meyers & Bro. are doing quite a lively

PINE GROVE MENTION.

John Reed is laid up with a bad dose of ivy poison. The continued rains have put farming at a stand still.

John Mattern transacted business in Huntingdon on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimport were Fairbrook visitors yesterday.

A nice chubby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Homan last Thursday.

Mrs. Sadie Gardner, of Altoona, is visiting old friends in this section of the county.

Ed. Elder has recovered from his recent illness sufficiently to be able to drive about.

Miss Mary Miller, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned home Friday.

Miss Gerie Keichline is over in Mifflin county attending a big reunion of the Shoemaker family.

J. P. Wagner and wife, of Altoona, are down for their share of apple dumplings and pumpkin pie.

Bigler Dunlap attended the annual reunion of the Reeds and Dunlaps, in Clearfield, last Thursday.

Milligan and Taylor, the popular drovers of Reedsville, are here buying stock but find it scarce.

D. R. Gregory, of Neffs Mills, was here last week buying stock of all kinds for the eastern market.

Jacob Harpster, a prosperous farmer of Tadpole, spent Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. George Homan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wigton last week made their annual visit among friends in and around McConnellston.

Henry Snyder Illingsworth, of Marietta, came up on Friday for a brief outing among his young chums here.

On Wednesday Cal Willard passed through town with a string of new buggies and carriages, en route for Huntingdon.

Charles Piffington was another sawmill victim. Friday he had his hand badly mutilated and was taken to the Altoona hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bailey enjoyed a drive over the Alleghenies last week, to Phillipsburg, to spend a day with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Laporte.

After a pleasant visit of two weeks among friends in Centre county, Mrs. Alice Buchwalter returned to her home at Lancaster, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bognerth came up from Union county to spend several weeks with friends at Pine Hall, with headquarters at the Peter Corl home.

Hon. J. W. Kepler and wife were passengers to the county capital Saturday; Mr. Kepler attending to some business and Mrs. Kepler doing some shopping.

On Tuesday Ed. Moore and wife and Miss Nannie Martz enjoyed a drive over old Tussey, and spent the day with the Isaac Martz family at McAlveys Fort.

Mrs. W. J. Meyers was called to Steelton, Tuesday, to the burial of her son's wife, who died of tuberculosis Monday morning and was buried Wednesday afternoon.

The venerable Daniel Keller, of Illinois, with his wife is visiting friends at Boalsburg, the home of his youth. He is past his eighty-fifth milestone in life but don't look it.

George Irvin and wife, George McWilliams and wife and W. S. Ward and wife are packing their wardrobes for a week's outing in Philadelphia, at the sea shore and in New York.

Rev. James J. Pettinger will bid adieu to his congregation on Monday to take his leave for his last year's course in the seminary at Lancaster. The young divine is a gifted pulpit orator and his religion is thoroughly interwoven in his true christian character.

Farmer Charles M. Dale spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Alice McGirk, who is ill at her home in Altoona. Her two sons are also on the sick list, Forest with a broken arm and Millard got mixed up in a railroad wreck on the P. and E. railroad recently. All are improving.

Our young friend, Dr. H. C. Meyer, of Steelton, was greeting his old chums along the line last week. He was in attendance at the one hundredth anniversary of the landing of Henry and Mary Huyett Kanode, in Hartsville, at Alexandria. They were sturdy pioneers and came from Washington county, Maryland.

STATE COLLEGE.

Miles and Harry Beck are visiting in Altoona. Wm. Garman spent Monday in Altoona, on business.

Mrs. E. C. Deitz moved from Howard to State College on Tuesday.

Paul Heverly arrived home from Howard on Monday, where he had been visiting friends and relatives.

Philip D. Foster sold one of his valuable gray horses to John Garner for $225 cash. He says he has purchased another to take its place.

Wm. Cramer, who made sale of his personal effects Saturday, has secured a lucrative position at Bethlehem and will move this week to his new home.

The Ladies Home Missionary society of the eastern section of Pennsylvania, of the Lutheran Synod, is in session here this week. A large delegation is in attendance and some very able speakers are present.

The laundry owned by John Baumgardner changed hands on September 1st, to Gentler and Miller and has been running all day and half the night. This speaks well of the new firm and the largest portion of the laundry work will not be until next week when the winter term of school begins and the students come back.

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged.

The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health.

Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

—The weeping feather is said to have originated in a disastrously wet race-meeting in Paris. Uncurled feathers were brought out afterwards as a humorous allusion to the catastrophe. These melancholy decorations caught the public fancy and became intensely smart, but their lack of decorative quality soon made itself felt, and they gave place to the "plume pleureuse," which, while also uncurled, has thick and numerous fronds, which obviate the impoverished appearance of the first uncurled feathers.

The Postoffice Department is after us again and we are forced to ask all those who are in arrears for the paper to pay up before October 1st. The Department has given us until October 1st to get our list squared up and as no one of our readers is back very far the matter of settling up is a very small one at this time. Won't you please attend to this promptly so that we may not get into trouble with the Postal Authorities.

STEWART —MOTHERSBAUGH.—Quite a pretentious wedding took place at the L. Mothersbaugh home at Boalsburg on Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Margaret B. Mothersbaugh, became the bride of Reuben R. Stewart, of Bellevue.

It was a yellow and white wedding, golden rod, asparagus and white asters being used in the decorations of the house, which was done quite artistically. About one hundred and twenty guests were present to witness the ceremony which took place at eleven o'clock in the morning and was performed by Rev. A. A. Black, the ring service being used. The bride was attired in a white lace gown and her maid of honor, Miss Mary Mothersbaugh, of Beech Creek, wore white over yellow. The bride's bouquet was white roses while the maid of honor carried a huge bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. The flower girls were Mary and Rachel Mothersbaugh, of Williamsport, and the best man, a brother of the bridegroom, George Stewart, of Bellevue. Miss Rosa Woods played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony and informal reception a delicious wedding breakfast was served all present and later the young couple were driven to Oak Hall where they boarded the train on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad for a trip to eastern cities. The bride is one of the best known and popular young women of Harris township, and for several years past was one of the successful school teachers in that vicinity. The bridegroom is a son of the late Col. J. T. Stewart and has a good position in Pittsburg where they will make their future home.

As a fitting windup for the wedding a big dance was given in Boalsburg Wednesday evening in honor of the out-of-town guests.

RIDER.—Strayer.—Isaac Rider and Miss Retta Strayer, both of Gatesburg, drove to Pine Grove Mills on Tuesday and were quietly married by Rev. J. S. Shultz. When they returned home they were given a wedding supper by Mr. and Mrs. Dearmont and the following day were given a big reception at the Matthias Rider home.

SPANGLER.—DeHaas.—William Spangler and Miss Christie DeHaas, both of Blanchard, went to Wilmington, Del., on Monday of this week where they were united in marriage by Rev. George Wolf. Both young people are quite well known in that locality and have the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness.

DAVIS.—Watson.—At the parsonage of the United Brethren church, at 8:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening, E. Fred Davis and Miss Theresa L. Watson were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey.

Soldiers Reunion. Exhibits will be received every day during the fair and should remain until Friday.

Tuesday, September 13.—Reunion of the Centre County Veteran Club and soldiers of the Civil war. Every patriotic citizen should turn out and cordially welcome these veterans of the Civil war. Addresses will be delivered in the auditorium by well known speakers both in the morning and afternoon.

Wednesday, September 14th.—Addresses will be delivered by representatives of the Agricultural Department at Harrisburg, both morning and afternoon. Speakers will be Hon. N. B. Critchfield, Secretary of Agriculture; Hon. A. L. Martin, Director of Institutes, and Hon. James Foust, Dairy and Food Commissioner.

Thursday, September 15th.—Grange Day. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. W. T. Creasy, master State Grange; Hon. J. T. Ailman, secretary State Grange; Mr. E. B. Dorsett, lecturer of State Grange, and by members of the State Grange executive committee. The executive committee in connection with the committee on co-operation will hold a meeting on the ground during the entire week.

The Scorer Company will give an entertainment every evening during the encampment.

Friday, September 16th.—Will be sales day and a general rounding up of entertainments and business.

CHRIST DECKER'S THE MAN.—Already things are shaping up nicely and it looks as though the coming Great Centre County Fair will be a surpassing exposition. In order to have the work better handled than ever this fall all of the agricultural exhibits, cattle and machinery, will be in the hands of Mr. Christ Decker and those contemplating such exhibits should consult him concerning accommodations desired.

Mr. Decker will devote practically all of his time from now until the fair to this work and as he is a practical farmer the work will be intelligently done.

SLAGEL.—Hubler.—William G. Slagel, of State College, and Miss Ruth N. Hubler, of Rebersburg, came to Bellefonte on Tuesday and after procuring the necessary license went to the office of justice of the peace W. H. Musser, who performed the ceremony which made them man and wife.

Charles Keichline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Keichline, and Miss Emma Naatz will be married at the home of the bride's parents, in Kirkville, N. Y., at noon next Wednesday. Miss Naatz is a sister of Mrs. F. O. Brewer, of this place, and the latter with Miss Laura Brewer, who has been visiting here, left on Wednesday for Kirkville to be present at the business in produce in addition to their meat market. The produce department is in an adjoining room, which was recently fitted up and more conveniently arranged, and like the meat market, is kept perfectly clean and always inviting, no scraps of any kind can be found in either place to attract flies and occasion odor. The firm have their meat and produce wagons on the road three days a week, and pay cash for all produce. This is certainly a great advantage to the farmers.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.

The wishes of the people are greatly satisfied with the abundance of rain.

W. H. Minnick has begun his winter's job as teacher in Marion township.

G. F. Hoy, our local shipper, shipped a car load of apples to the State of Michigan.

George Harpster and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. P. J. Evers.

E. M. Deitrick, who was engaged at State College and vicinity the past week, has returned home.

Miss Sancta Dorman, who is a nurse in Williamsport, spent a short time with relatives in our vicinity.

Harry Wion, of Wilkensburg, was seen in the town last Sunday. He is always a welcome visitor here.

Miss Lavina Sharp, of Lock Haven, spent a few days with her aged mother, who has been sick for some months.

The school directors of our township are very busy setting their school houses in a good sanitary condition.

Misses Hope Strunk and her friend, Alta Yearick, of Jacksonsville, were the guests of Miss Lila Deitrick last Monday.

Lewis Markle, one of our young teachers, withstood his first day's teaching and does not look the worse of the wear.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bartholomew, who is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Decker, and who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Loren Yocum, James Rathmell and Harry Whitman, who have been away from home during the summer, returned to their homes to attend school.

Herbert Decker and wife and their friend, Miss Sarah Wallace, who spent their vacation with "Pop" John McAulay, left last Saturday for their home in Pitcairn.

LEMONT.

The College township schools will open on Monday.

Mrs. Viola Baney and daughters are visiting at the home of C. D. Houtz this week.

John Houtz and family drove up from Aaronsburg, Saturday, for a day's sojourn in town.

The farmers are busy getting ready to sow wheat, and after the recent rains the ground will be in good order.

John R. Williams, wife and daughter returned from New York Monday, where they spent ten days with their sons.

Elliott Thompson and family are enjoying a few weeks' visit at the home of William Thompson, at Centre Furnace.

Rev. Thomas C. Houtz spent several weeks in these parts, visiting his old friends and with his sister, Mrs. Mary Moke.

The two light frosts last week did no damage but have been followed by a week of warm rains, which were certainly needed.

George Hunsinger and wife, who have been living in a shanty on the old Holdeman place, left for Lock Haven, Monday evening.
