

The Democratic Ticket Complete.

Thomas H. Greevy, Eminent Lawyer and Citizen, Nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

Thomas H. Greevy, of Altoona, a champion of clean politics and honest state government, has been selected by the Democratic executive committee as the candidate for lieutenant governor on the Democratic state ticket, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the withdrawal of Samuel B. Price, of Scranton.

Mayor S. M. Hoyer, from Greevy's home town, a member of the committee, assured the meeting that the new candidate would accept and assist with all his power in making it a strenuous campaign.

Sketch of the Nominee.

Thomas H. Greevy, the nominee for lieutenant governor, is one of the most prominent residents of Blair county. His parents were both from the County Roscommon, Ireland, though he himself was born at Birmingham, England, on April 4, 1850. His parents came to this country and settled in Williamsport, this state, when he was but six years of age. He received his education in the public schools of Williamsport and at Professor J. S. Davis' Commercial college in that city. He is a member of St. John's Roman Catholic church, of Altoona, of which Rev. M. M. Sheedy is rector.

Mr. Greevy was one of the organizers of the Altoona Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He is also a member of Altoona lodge, No. 102, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks; Altoona lodge, No. 74, Loyal Order of Moose, of which he is past director; Knights of Columbus and Ancient Order of Hibernians. At the great Irish convention that was held in Chicago in 1895, over which John Finerty presided, Mr. Greevy was one of the secretaries and took an active interest in its deliberations. He is also a member of the Froshinn society, the Concordia society and Turn Verein, all of which are German organizations in Altoona, and takes an active part in their affairs.

His Early Career.

In 1871 Mr. Greevy entered the office of Samuel J. Morrison, in Williamsport, as a law student, but in 1873 moved to Altoona, where he finished his law studies with the firm of Tierney & Brumbaugh, leading attorneys of Blair county, and was admitted to the Blair county bar on Jan. 29, 1874. He immediately entered upon the practice of law, and when the firm of Tierney & Brumbaugh was dissolved, Mr. Greevy became a partner of Mr. Tierney. In 1876 this firm was dissolved and Mr. Greevy continued the practice alone.

In 1877 an act of assembly was passed authorizing the creation of the office of city recorder in certain cities of the commonwealth. The cities affected included Williamsport, Erie, Bradford, Altoona, Chester and one or two others. Altoona adopted the provisions of this act, and in 1877 Mr. Greevy was elected city recorder after a most bitter contest, which attracted attention over the whole state. His election was subsequently contested. John Cessna, of Bedford, took charge of the case for Mr. Greevy and brought it to a successful issue.

Active in Politics.

Mr. Greevy has always taken a very active part in politics and was frequently a delegate to state conventions. He held the office of city recorder for five years, was tendered a unanimous renomination, but refused and immediately resumed the practice of the law.

In 1888 Mr. Greevy was national delegate to the convention at St. Louis, which nominated Grover Cleveland for president. In 1888 he was the nominee of his party for congress from the Twentieth congressional district; his Republican opponent was Edward Scull, of Somerset. The district gave an average majority of about 4,000. Mr. Greevy was defeated by 4200. In 1890 he was again the Democratic nominee from the Twentieth congressional district, composed of Cambria, Blair, Somerset and Bedford counties. He was defeated by only 526 votes. Mr. Greevy instituted a contest and the case was argued before the committee at Washington by Hon. Augustus S. Landis, United States Senator William A. Wallace and A. H. Coffroth. It was never brought up in the house and died with the end of the term.

In 1902 Mr. Greevy was elected city solicitor of the city of Altoona, holding the position until May 1, 1905.

In 1904 he was Democratic candidate for state senator in the counties of Blair and Cambria, his opponent being J. C. Stineman, and went down with the "Roosevelt avalanche," but ran 9000 ahead of his ticket.

Mr. Greevy has an extensive law practice in Blair county, principally civil, although he has been engaged on one side or the other of every important criminal case in the county for many years past.

State Chairman DeWalt says that the itinerary of the campaign has not yet been fully completed, but the fight will be carried into every county of the state. There will be no special trains, but when necessary automobiles will be used in going through counties where frequent stops are to be made, and it will partake of the nature of a careful campaign by which all of the voters can be reached. Among the speakers engaged for the campaign are Lawrence Rupp, of Allentown; Harry E. Grim, of Perkasie, brother of the candidate for governor; Charles J. Reilly and Nicholas Edwards, who managed Cyrus L. Munson's campaign; Joseph P. O'Brien, of Scranton, who seconded Berry's nomination at the Allentown convention; Senator E. A. Herbst, Reading; William J. Brennan, Pittsburg; George Irwin, Washington; Bruce Sterling, Fayette; Representative R. Scott Ammerman, Montour; John G. Harmon, Columbia; J. Davis Brodhead, Northampton, and Congressmen Wilson and Palmer.

Senator Grim has gone west, and Pittsburg will be the starting point, afternoon and night meetings being scheduled for Kennywood park, Sept. 14, under the direction of O. G. Underwood.

Candidate Grim has been carefully loading his ammunition wagon and is ready to fire hot shot into the machine ranks and tell the voters how things are conducted on Capitol Hill. He has been very busy making his preparations for a long and vigorous campaign.

The Tariff an Enemy of Conservation.

James J. Hill in his address before the National Conservation Congress instanced the tariff as one of the enemies of conservation. "Whatever you may think of it as a general policy," said Mr. Hill, "every one can see that by excluding the raw products of other countries it throws the entire burden of their consumption upon our own resources and thus exhausts them unnecessarily. The tariff on forest products cuts down our own forests, a tariff on coal depletes our mines, a tariff on any raw material forbids the conservation of similar natural resources here." The truth of this statement is self-evident except to the Republican advocates of conservation.—New York World.

The real estate owner who pays his taxes regularly does not need to pay a polltax. The man who owns no real estate must pay a polltax. The law is plain. An elector who is twenty-two years of age and upwards cannot vote next November unless he shall have paid a state or county tax within the past two years. Such tax must be paid within a month before the November election; in other words, not later than Oct. 8. If you have not complied with this provision of the law do so at once. Don't wait until the last day. The tax collector may want to go fishing.

The Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon league has never successfully disproved the charge that it dickered with Boles Penrose during the last legislature. William H. Berry has never successfully disproved the charge that he was willing to sacrifice his alleged local option principles in order to obtain the Allentown nomination as the Democratic candidate for governor. And the Anti-Saloon league is supporting the Keystone Party. 'Tis well said that "politics make strange bedfellows."

Remember what happened to the state treasury department during the forty years that the Cameron-Quay-Penrose dynasty held it with an iron grip!

When Charles Fred Wright was a congressman he never did anything except obey the bosses. Will he act differently now?

The money at Harrisburg belongs to you—not to Boles Penrose. Samuel B. Philson is the man to vote into the treasurer's chair.

It is necessary for every voter who lives in a city to be registered if he wish to vote in November. All previous registrations have expired. One registration day in third class cities, which includes every city except Philadelphia, Greater Pittsburg and Scranton, has already passed. Two others are to come—Tuesday, Sept. 20, and Saturday, Oct. 22. Every Democrat is imposed with the duty of being registered himself and seeing that his neighbor is, too.

The Coldfeet club is growing rapidly. Pennsylvania's latest addition to it is Congressman Arthur L. Bates, of Meadville, candidate for re-election from the Crawford-Erie district. Bates says he will not support Speaker Cannon for re-election as presiding officer of the national house. A commendable pledge in itself, but it admirably depicts Bates' vacillating character and stamps him and his ilk as being unfit to sit at Washington.

No man can be a really good citizen if he doesn't exercise the right of franchise. But no one can exercise that right if not registered—if he live in a city. Tuesday, Sept. 20, is the next registration day.

The Tariff and Rubber Boots.
The same rubber boots we pay $4.50 for in this country can be bought abroad for 45 cents. Keep on buying the tariff downward!—Baltimore Sun.

The Trouble With the Court.
The trouble with the abominable United States supreme court is that it has not always followed "my policies."—From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Pay your polltax before Oct. 8 if you wish to vote on Nov. 8.

A former mayor of the city of Chester is very patiently suffering from what Mr. Kipling would term "too much ego in his cosmos."

Mr. Elector: When you go to be registered on Sept. 20 take your neighbor with you. This applies to voters in third class cities.

To look well you must be well. When the figure loses its roundness and the face its fairness, there is some disease at work which is robbing the body of its vitality. That disease will generally be found preying upon the delicate womanly organs. The surest way to look well, therefore, is to get well, and the sure way to get well is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of women have been cured by its use, and many have expressed wonder and delight at the restoration of their good looks, with the cure of local disease. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of "Favorite Prescription," when there is a constipated habit of body to be overcome.

COFFEE

When goods advance on the market the retail price usually follows. But in regard to the recent advance in Coffees we have not followed the ordinary course, either by marking up the price or reducing the quality. We have found a new and more favorable market in which to buy the goods and maintain the high standard of our leaders at 18c, 20c and 25 cents per pound.

If you are using a Coffee at 20 cents per pound try our 18 cent grade.

If you are paying 25 cents for your Coffee try our 20 cent goods.

Or if you are buying at 30 cents try the high grade goods we sell at 25 cents per pound.

This is a severe test but we are very confident we can make good. Give us a trial, and please mention in which paper you saw this advertisement.
