

IS GAME PLENTIFUL?—It will not be long now until the sharp crack of the rifle and deeper boom of the shotgun will be in evidence, as the opening of the seasons for various kinds of game is drawing close. And naturally the question arises, is game plentiful? Woodsmen report pheasants quite plentiful but wild turkeys are somewhat scarce. There are some squirrels but they are not so numerous as to become a nuisance. Of course there are always rabbits, but the season for them is over a month distant. In the large game there will probably be as many deer as usual, the only question will be to get them. Bear are reported plentiful and as the season for them opens one week from tomorrow you'd better get your bear gun in shape. The open season for all kinds of game in Pennsylvania is as follows:

Deer (without horns protected all the year) Nov. 15 to Dec. 1.
Bear, Oct. 1 to Jan. 1.
Hare, rabbit, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15.
Squirrel (gray, black, fox) Oct. 15 to Dec. 1.
Quail grouse, imported pheasants, (Chinese, English, Mongolian) Oct. 15 to Dec. 1.
Hungarian partridge, May 1 to 1911.
Dove, blackbird, redbird, coot or mud hen, rail, sandpiper, tatter, curlew, or any shore bird, Sept. 1 to Jan. 1.
Woodcock, Oct. 1 to Dec. 1.
Upland or grass plover, July 15 to Dec. 1.
Wilson snipe (jacksnipe), Sept. 1 to May 1.
Wild waterfowl—duck, goose, swan, loon, grebe, Sept. 1 to April 10.

LOCK HAVEN INVITES YOU TO THE BIG FAIR.—Arrangements are underway by which it is hoped to run excursions to Lock Haven for the big hospital fair October 5th to 15th.

The armory of Company H will be elaborately decorated on the interior for the fair, with a fountain, electrical effects and a general setting of an Italian garden, having two stately pergolas where the articles of the fair will be offered for sale.

About two hundred women have been sewing for months, making fancy work, aprons, lingerie, underwear and waists, lamp shades, bags, cretonne boxes and dolls. The work is beautifully done by hand, of the latest design and best style, and moderately priced. Just the opportunity for the early Christmas shopper.

In addition to fancy work, there will be a smoking room, a Dutch chocolate room, a quaint restaurant and various up-to-date attractions, including a good supper for 25 cents each night, a theatrical entertainment every other night, girls minstrels, a vaudeville and a light play.

The proceeds of the fair will be applied to liquidating the debt incurred in rebuilding the hospital destroyed by fire and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to enjoy a rare treat and contribute to a worthy cause by going to the fair October 5th to 15th.

KEYSTONE PARTY MEN ORGANIZE.—On Monday evening some twelve or fifteen adherents of the Keystone party met in a room in Crider's Exchange and formed a county organization by selecting the following officers:

County chairman, A. A. Dale Esq.; secretary, W. Miles Walker; treasurer, Charles F. Cook; vice chairman, Hammon Seehler, C. C. Shuey and William A. Lyon. Mitchell I. Gardner was appointed chairman of the finance committee with the privilege of selecting his associates. Chairman Dale was empowered to appoint an executive committee to be composed of one representative citizen of each party and in each precinct in the county. It was also decided to rent a room in this place and open up headquarters with a view of prosecuting a vigorous campaign.

Probably the last game of baseball the fans of Bellefonte will have an opportunity of witnessing this season will be played on Hughes field tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, between the Bellefonte Academy team of the 1910 season and a team to be picked out of the forty new students at the Academy this term. The strength of the old team is well known by everybody while among the new students there is plenty of very promising material so that it is likely a team will be picked which will give the old boys a hard tussle. The price of admission will be only fifteen cents, and this will put it within the reach of all to attend. It will be a good opportunity to get a line-up on the material at hand for the Academy's 1911 team.

Pennsylvania is the largest Sunday school territory in the world; over 11,000 schools are located in the State, with a membership of 1,841,855. Like all progressive agencies, these schools are federated in a State wide movement under the name of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association with auxiliary associations in every one of the sixty-seven counties. Representatives of these schools assemble annually in state convention for the purpose of outlining its yearly policy. The next convention will be the forty-sixth annual, and is announced to meet in Altoona, Pa., October 12th, 13th and 14th. This annual gathering is the largest assembly of religious workers held within the State.

The will of the late Hamilton D. Hemler, a prominent banker of Harrisburg, was filed on Tuesday. Of an estate valued at $150,000 the sum of $6,000 was left to each of his six daughters and $300 to his wife in addition to ample provision already made for her, the balance of the estate to be held in trust ten years. Mr. Hemler's widow above referred to prior to her marriage to him was Mrs. J. D. Scravendyke, for a number of years a resident of Bellefonte.

The fall meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery will be held in the Presbyterian church at Reedsville on October 3rd and 4th. One of the important matters will be the election of commissioners to the Synod of Pennsylvania which will meet in Wilkingsburg on October 25th. Rev. J. Allison Platts will preside at a meeting on Monday evening, October 3rd, celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the committee on Presbyterian missions, and Gen. James A. Beaver will make the report in the interest of systematic beneficence on Tuesday.

PINE GROVE MENTION.
Hulling clover seed is on, and it is a fairly good crop.
Joseph Barr, who has been ill the past week, is better.
Waldo Corl and lady spent Sunday at Grant Gardens.
Mrs. J. H. Roush is down at Mackeyville visiting friends.
Oscar Martz reports another boy at his home, No. 4. All boys.
M. M. Kocker transacted business at the county seat Monday.
Mrs. Waldo Homan has been ill all week with pulmonary trouble.
Mrs. Hamill Glenn spent Tuesday with her mother at Fairbrook.
Mrs. Blanche Erb, of Harrisburg, is visiting friends in this section.
Mrs. Maggie Bowersox, of the Glades, visited her parental home over Sunday.
Mrs. Sadie Everts is in Philadelphia this week buying her stock of millinery goods.
J. C. Bumgardner shipped a carload of hogs from Pennsylvania Furnace on Thursday.
C. M. and John Dale on Sunday visited their uncle, Wm. J. Dale, who has been ill, but is now better.
D. W. Miller and J. W. Stewart are in attendance at the G. A. R. encampment at Atlantic City this week.
That jolly good fellow, M. J. Watt, came down from Tyrone last week to see the old farm and bumper crops.
Shend Moore, the noted stockman of Mooresville, was hustling through the valley last week in quest of stock.
C. B. Hess, the genial merchant at Bellefonte, spent last week among his friends at Hollidaysburg and Altoona.
Mr. Elder and sister, Mrs. John Gates, of Medina, Ohio, are here for a month's visit amid the scenes of their childhood days.
Mrs. Jerry Johnstonbaugh with her daughter-in-law, of Pittsburg, visited the W. C. Collins home, on Main street, Saturday.
Before leaving for their home in Minnesota Mrs. Wm. Randolph and family are visiting relatives in and about McAlevy's Fort.
Mrs. Esther Gregory, who had a joyous visit in the valley among the friends of her childhood, returned to her home in Petersburg on Monday.
J. Cal Struble and wife had as Sunday visitors: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Corl, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meyers and Isaac Roush.
Isaac Martz has been having his share of trouble of late. He has been laid up with erysipelas for some time and last week his little daughter Eleanor jumped on a rusty nail which penetrated almost through her foot.
Dogs have been hard on the sheep in this section this summer. During the past week they have attacked three flocks, killing a number and injuring others. The last flock to suffer was that of Bert Musser, on Wednesday night.
J. B. Witmer is overhauling his home, putting on a new galvanized iron roof, new doors and new windows and two large porches and Ed. Witmer, of Bellefonte, has the job. The old stone mansion was built early in 1800 by 'Square Carpenter, who came from Philadelphia and located at White Hall, where he kept tavern, and was one of the first justices of the peace of Ferguson township.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.
Mrs. Harry Weaver is reported quite sick.
The farmers are about ready to garner their mense corn crop.
Mrs. Grove, of Williamsport, is the guest of Miss Sophia Rocky.
Mrs. Fryberger, of Altoona, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller.
Harry McAuley, of Lamar, visited his father and brother here last Sunday.
Mrs. E. L. Markle returned home from an extended visit in the eastern part of the State.
Charles Wilson, of Irvona, is spending his vacation here with his sister, Mrs. Frank Carner.
J. C. Carner and Mrs. Rebecca Charles paid the people of Aaronsburg a short visit last Sunday.
Miss Blanche Hoy has recovered from her late illness sufficiently to resume her work as teacher.
Mrs. J. W. Lee is at present spending a few days with her son, Charles Lee, at Snyderstown.
Percy Miller, of Punxsutawney, employed as a railroad engineer, visited his parents here last Sunday.
Albert Spady, one of our best carpenters, is putting up a large store room at Jacksonsville for N. W. Yearick.
Mrs. Rossman and Mrs. Archey, of Clintondale, were callers at the home of Mrs. Frank Carner last Saturday and Sunday.

LEMONT.
James Mitchell, of West Virginia, spent last week in town.
There was a car of fine cider apples loaded at Lemont this week.
Fred Decker and daughter departed for home last Saturday on the early train.
Mrs. Mary Williams, of Phillipsburg, was over to attend the Granger's picnic last week.
Jared Mayes, of Watsonstown, came up last week to look up some of his old friends.
Mrs. George Ralston and William Ralston and family attended Mrs. Brooks' funeral last Friday.
Mrs. Milton Carver's brother and wife, of Warriorsmark, spent a few days at her home here last week.
Cornelius Houtz visited a few days at the home of his daughter, near Hannah, the latter part of last week.
Many of the good citizens of the town went to Centre Hall, Thursday of last week, to hear Gibbons speak.
W. G. Ogden, the "Pain King" agent, circulated among the citizens of this community the latter part of last week.
The Granger picnic is over now and the farmers will amuse themselves boiling apple butter 'till fair week rolls around.
—J. M. Bunnell Esq., of Johnstown, Pa., will exhibit at the Bellefonte Fair high grade Pianos and Autotones. Any one desiring a bargain in a first-class piano should not fail to visit the booth. 37-2t

SPRING MILLS.

C. H. Brown, of Millheim, is a new employee at Allison's flouring mill.
Maurice Rachau, employed at Altoona, was here last week visiting his parents.
Charles Fisher, of J. B. Fisher's Sons, left last week for an extended trip in the west.
Some of our farmers have commenced cutting corn. The crop will evidently be a large one.
The county fair is next on the program, then comes filling up the coal bin and replenishing the wood pile for winter.
All the martins left for their southern home a week or ten days ago, and will not return again until about next May.
H. H. Rachau is making tombstones of cement. They are perfectly white and resemble marble. The lettering is embossed.
H. I. Bryan & Co. have several workmen employed in arranging their coal yard, putting down scales, erecting sheds, bins, etc.
Benjamin Donachy, in lifting a heavy box at the picnic last week, sprained his back so severely that he could hardly walk for several days.
Last week C. P. Long put down at his house, occupied by J. C. Lee, railroad agent, quite an extended cement walk, from the rear of the building to the main road.
The picnickers from here returned to their respective homes on Saturday last. All report having had a delightful time and regretted that the Granger's tent field was at an end.
Charles Schrist, a young man who stood high in this community, after an illness of several weeks with typhoid fever, died on Thursday morning last. The remains were taken to Millheim on Friday for interment.
To judge from the recent Democratic storm in Maine the people there did not take very kindly to Taft's letter of advice to his political friends to bury all their differences and support the G. O. P. On the contrary they said very emphatically that that infernal curse of a tariff must go, and the Republican party with it.

Real Estate Transfers.

John I. Lucas, Curtin, and Viola D. Summers, Wingate.
Martin E. Bartley, Bellefonte, and Celesta C. Beck, Spring Mills.
George W. Rider and Ida E. Fike, Bellefonte.

Mob Attacks Negro Barber.
James Yellets, a colored barber of Wrightsville, near York, Pa., was attacked by a mob of several hundred persons, who made a strenuous effort to lynch him because he had sent a Black Hand letter to Miss Helen Detweiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Detweiler, prominent residents of the borough.
The man was slightly injured by the mob, but he was finally lodged in the borough lockup by Constables Wilson and McCauley, who had to fight their way to the prison.
In his letter to Miss Detweiler, the man, after stating that he was in love with her, demanded that she place $25 at a certain place on the Detweiler farm or forfeit her life. Miss Detweiler, as well as her parents, were greatly alarmed and decided that they would do as the letter requested.
Going to the place designated in the letter, Mr. Detweiler and his daughter were in the act of depositing the money when they saw a colored man standing in a corn field watching their actions. Detweiler started after the man, but he was too fleet of foot and escaped. Miss Detweiler recognized the colored man as Yellets, and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest.
News of the man's threats spread like wild fire, and when the constables took him into custody a crowd collected and there were cries of "Lynch him," "Kill him," "Give him justice now." Some threw stones at him, several of which struck their mark. The borough residents, it is feared, may attempt to take him from the officers when they bring him to the county jail.

Accused of Staying Workman.
Charged with the killing of a young Poland, Arthur Reed, colored, was arrested at the Penn Steel works, at Chester, Pa., where the two men were employed. It is alleged that Reed struck the Poland, whose name could not be learned, with a shovel during a quarrel.

Dental Gold Bakes a Foot.
While he was melting pure gold in his dental laboratory at Altoona, Pa., Dr. Guy S. Tippery was burned in a peculiar manner. A thimbleful of the molten metal dropped off the ladle and over the top of his shoe. Before he could ear his footgear off the gold had baked the flesh to the ankle bone, leaving the doctor unable to walk.

Found Dead In Church.
Thomas J. Chase, a lawyer of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was found dead in a pew at the Universalist church. He had been missing all night, and evidently had gone into the church of which he was a trustee, to inspect some repair work, and fell dead. Heart disease was probably the cause.

Taft's Attitude on Second Term.

Taft's attitude toward a second term is substantially this: He isn't actively seeking a second term. He is devoting himself solely to the duties of his office and to the redemption of the pledges made in the Republican national platform. He has found the duties of his office exacting, if not irksome, but he hasn't said, as has been reported, that he was willing to step aside in 1912. On the contrary, the president will respond to a call for a second term if he is satisfied that his friends and the country want him. He has not thought of deserting his friends.
This is substantially the attitude that President Taft outlined to his supporters before he left Washington, and his mind has not changed. The president himself declined to comment on the reports that have been published of his willingness to stand aside in 1912, but his attitude is well known to his friends.

Jersey Democrats Name Wilson.
President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton university, was nominated for governor by the Democrats of New Jersey in their state convention held at Trenton. Dr. Wilson won handily on the first ballot, with a vote of 749½, 41½ more than he needed.
Frank S. Katzenbach, of Trenton, who ran against Governor Fort two years ago, received 372 votes. He had some support, as did Mr. Wilson, in all the counties. Senator George S. Siler ran third, with 210 votes. Mayor Otto H. Wittmann, of Jersey City, got 76½ votes. 74½ of which slipped from Leader Bob Davis' grip in the Hudson county delegation.
Immediately after the result had been announced there were a dozen motions to make the nomination unanimous, the backers of the defeated candidates joining lustily in the hurrah.

Girl Accuses Preacher.
Rev. J. H. Arnold, forty years old, a Holiness preacher, was arrested at Pulaski, Va., charged with criminal assault upon Lizzie Collins, a fourteen year-old girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Collins.
Arnold and his wife were on the train on their way to Radford. The train stopped not far from Pulaski and the little girl got away and ran back to Pulaski, where she told the chief of police the story of a vicious assault. Upon discovering that she had escaped, Arnold left the train and went back after her. When he appeared he was arrested.

Sentenced to 30 Years; Escapes.
Timothy Sheekly, who was sentenced by a New York court to thirty years at hard labor, has landed at Naples, Italy, from the liner Duke Genoa. He got clear before the dispatch authorizing his arrest reached the Italian authorities. There is a reward of $1000 offered for his capture.

Bryan Bolts State Ticket.
Refuses to Support Democratic Candidate for Governor.
LINCOLN, NEB., Sept. 20.—In a statement in which he declares that the crusade which he feels impelled to wage against the liquor interests of the State and Nation overshadows a personal and political friendship of 20 years, William J. Bryan this evening announced he had bolted the head of the Democratic State ticket in Nebraska, and would not support James C. Dahlgren for Governor.
Mr. Bryan says he regrets he is compelled to take the stand he does—his first departure from political regularity—but says he feels it his duty to do so because of the position taken by the Democratic nominee on the liquor question. The statement does not indicate that Mr. Bryan will support the candidate of any other party, but announces that he is a pronounced advocate of county option and the early saloon closing law, both of which he insists are menaced by Dr. Dahlgren's candidacy.

The Union County Fair.
The 57th annual fair to be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, Pa., Sept. 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th will be the largest ever held by that association. The premium list has been carefully and thoroughly reviewed, revised, corrected and amended. The State appropriation warrants the society to increase their premiums from fifty to seven per cent. By this increase in the premiums the association expects a mammoth exhibition.
The track is in splendid condition and some very fast horses are already booked for that place. The association offers a special premium to the horse that lowers the present track record of 2:08 1/2.
For catalogue or other information write C. Dale Wolfe, Bucknell, Pa., Cor. Secretary.

The State Sunday school convention to be held in Altoona, October 12th, 13th and 14th, promises to be a great one. The pastors, Congress, the Supts. Congress and the organized adult Bible class Congress are unique features and will draw a large attendance. Centre county is entitled to 30 delegates. The credential cards, card orders for reduced rates on railroads and entertainment cards can be secured from L. W. Nuttall, Phillipsburg, county secretary. 55-37-3t
