Bellefonte, Pa., September 30, 1910.

To Correspondents.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

---George A. Beezer recently sold his

-Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Confer, of Yarnell, celebrated their golden wedding on September 20th.

-A little daughter was born Friday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane, of McKeesport.

correct models in hats and coats; also the Phipps hats, Friday, October 7th. ----Mrs. James Shorter, who has been street, is slowly growing better. ----All children under sixteen years of age will be admitted free to the big Centre county fair on Wednesday, October

-Mr. and Mrs. Brinton Wallace are making arrangements to move to Renovo, where Mr. Wallace has steady work as a bricklayer.

----Col. W. Fred Reynolds has been confined to his home on Linn street for the past few days. He is suffering with rheumatism.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray will Crider's Exchange to the Judge home on entries will not close until tomorrow Thomas street.

-Last Thursday evening quite a crowd of young foiks enjoyed a pie party lious events have been arranged so that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles every day will be a good one, and if you McClellan, on Spring street.

-The regular meeting of the Civic club of Bellefonte will be held in Petriken hall, at half after three o'clock, Saturday afternoon, October 8th.

-A Mother's meeting will be held in Petriken hall this (Friday) afternoon, September 30th, at 3.30 o'clock p. m. All women are cordially invited to be present.

----Mrs. Mary Burchfield, of Buffalo N. Y., is ill with pneumonia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shugert, where she has been visiting for the past three attend.

--- Charles Moran has resigned his position in Yeager's shoe store and on Sunday left for St. Paul, Minn., to become traveling salesman for the Western Shoe company.

---John Janyac, an Austrian, fell down the elevator shaft at the Nittany furnace ly bruised, but is recovering nicely in the Bellefonte hospital.

___Lawrence A. Freeman last week coming over the mountain in his own automobile.

---On Saturday of last week John Klinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klinger, was eleven years old and he celebrated the day by going to Milesburg to spend the day with his grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Proudfoot.

at the Fair. All of your children under 16 years of age will be admitted free and urday tetanus had developed and it was street the furniture for the judge's room the Wednesday attractions will be just as good as any other day's.

for the children of Centre county, because to the big Centre county fair. It will be Sunday evening. the first day of the races and they will be worth coming miles to see.

-Miss Sarah McClenahan, of Centre Hall, went to Harrisburg on Tuesday and on Wednesday while going from one part | cemetery. of the city to another in a trolley she was pushed off the car and sustained a broken leg and dislocated hip.

-George R. Parker Jr., arrived in Bellefonte at five o'clock on Tuesday E-M-F automobile. At the College they five starters already assured for the event morning and having taken quite a fancy to the town has decided to make his home with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Parker, on Thomas street.

four o'clock Monday afternoon. October third; terms as last year. Announce----The congregation of the A. M. E. this place.

-Sunday was a red letter day for the members of the Lutheran church in this place as it marked the clearing away of the church debt and the burning of the mortgage. Rev. C. T. Aiken, of Selinsgrove, was here and preached for the congregation and also officiated in the burning of the mortgage.

--- The statement going the rounds of the press about two weeks ago that ninety-three Methodist ministers in one Iowa Conference had quit the pulpit on account Fair next week, on Wednesday and above affliction is that John Rearick, a of insufficient pay, is branded by bishop Thursday. The train will leave here at son of Mrs. Mary Rearick, came in from and son having returned two weeks previous. Hamilton as a story made out of the 6 p. m. each evening and the round trip Sparks, Nevada, on a visit to his mother. whole cloth. It originated in Boston, but fare from Pine Grove will be 66 cts., State whom he had not seen for eleven years, put the grounds and buildings in excel- mark. lent condition and the track could not be in finer shape.

A large number of applications have already been received for space in the Middleby car to Frank Clemson, of Buffalo main exhibition building, and if you have anything worth showing your friends and neighbors bring it in. Remember a Fair is not made up of one exhibit but a multitude of small exhibits. And the greater the number the bigger the Fair. Experienced people will be in charge of brought in is properly entered, labeled --- Miss M. Snyder will display the and placed most advantageously for display, so that everybody is assured of fair treatment.

Christ Decker will have charge of the ill for two weeks at her home on St. Paul stock exhibit and as he has been around past few weeks he feels confident that this department will be well filled; and farmers who want to see something nice in blooded stock will be able to do so at

Of course the crowd will want some to take up all your spare time. No gambling devices of any kind will be permitted on the ground and the management will take every precaution to protect all who attend.

The races, of course, will be one of the shortly move from their apartments in big features of the week, and while the night every indication is for a good string of horses and some fast ones. The varmiss one day of the Fair it will mean a link out of your life.

By the way, the management have very generously decided to make Wednesday 'Children's day," when all children under sixteen years old will be admitted free. Isn't this inducement enough for every father and mother in the county to bring their children on that day.

It is impossible in this article to tell you every good thing about next week's but who has many friends in Bellefonte, big Fair, but you will sure miss a great was a big winner in the voting contest of exhibit and a good time if you fail to TETANUS KILLS BOY .- Theodore Haupt, the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haupt, who live out near the thousand more than the next highest Jewish cemetery, died on Sunday even- vote. The Clinton county young ladies ing of tetanus (lockjaw) as the result of and the Centre county young ladies, who a slight wound inflicted by the jab of a won out in the Gazette contest, will leave potato fork. It was three weeks or more on their trip on October 19th. The trip the latter part of last week and was bada boy named Tate, were in the potato patch digging potatoes. An altercation arose between the boys and Tate jabbed Haupt on the right leg with the fork he opened a broker's office in Philipsburg and was using in digging potatoes. One of if he just finds enough of traders over the tines of the fork cut through the there we can expect some day to see him | boy's clothes and made a small abrasion on the knee.

He thought little of the injury at the time but about a week later his knee became quite sore and painful and a physician was summoned. Symptoms of blood poison had developed and the wound was opened and cauterized. The lad apparently improved and last Thurs----If you have a large family of chil- day was able to be around and even dren Wednesday will be the day for you walked over to the slaughter house. He and now has on exhibition in the show was taken worse on Friday and by Sat--Next Wednesday will be a big day though everything possible was done to one big cosy chair and nine small chairs. on that day they will all be admitted free he died shortly before ten o'clock on upholstering of the chairs and davenport

> The funeral was held on Wednesday nished the district attorney's office with morning, burial being made in the Union solid oak furniture in natural finish.

afternoon Samael Goss, accompanied by citement it aroused the time Henry his mother and a Miss Campbell went to Lowry, Mr. Woodring and that crowd State College in George A. Beezer's new had such a thrilling contest. There are picked up W. E. Tyson, who was anxious and more will probably come in so that it to get down to Bellefonte in time to take looks as if it would be the best filled race Mrs. Mabel Otto Hazel, of the latter the 4.44 train for his home in Tyrone. at the Fair. Christ Beezer, George Sun-Goss drove down the back road to Pleas- day and Mart Cooney are the Bellefonters ---Miss Jennie Harper and Miss Hel- ant Gap and owing to the frequent rains who are going to start and Tommy Wilen Ceader will open their dancing class the roads were muddy and slippery. After liams, of Pleasant Gap, and Mr. Shuey, of for children, in the public building, at he had gotten out onto the pike in Pleas- Houserville, each think they own a stepant Gap he was driving along at a per that will make others go some to get twenty-five mile clip when he noticed the under the wire first. This race will be ment of the evening class to be made big breaker opposite the Lutheran church Friday afternoon. It will be a fair field in that town. He applied the brakes in of purely county horses and may the best order to slow up when the car, which was one win. church recently received a check for thir- being driven without chains, skidded and ty dollars from Mrs. Henry Graham, of ran into the fence on the right, tearing Emporium, to help pay the debt on their down two panels of fence, smashing one new church. Before her marriage Mrs. wheel to pieces, the car finally turn-Graham was Miss Adaline Lawson, of ing over on its side and throwing all the daughter of Mrs. Mary Rearick. The occupants out. Fortunately no one was hurt, beyond a few bruises and scratches. T. S. Strawn happened along there shortly after the accident and picked up the two ladies and Mr. Tyson and brought them to Bellefonte in his car. Later in the evening young Goss borrowed a wheel. Robert F. Hunter took it out to Pleasant Gap and put it on the machine and drove it home. cents, Filmore 35 cents.

THE BIG CENTRE COUNTY FAIR.—Every- On his farm below Bellefonte Dr. ITALIAN SHOEMAKER SWINDLES BELLEthing is now practically in readiness for J. M. Brockerhoff has a flock of thirteen FONTE MERCHANTS.-Petro Neroni, the the big Centre County Fair next week, March pigs that will probable beat any. Italian cobbler who the past six months and if the people of Centre county do thing in Centre county. From the time had a shop in the small room in the basetheir part we will have such an exhibi- they were six weeks old they have been ment of the Bush Arcade, on Water tion as has not been seen in Centre coun- fed all they could stand and now are well street, is missing and so is upwards of ty in years. The Fair management have along toward the two hundred pound two thousand dollars belonging to Belle-

--- The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Asso- the rounds of the Bellefonte merchants ciation rooms, Monday evening, October 3rd, at half-past seven. Officers will be elected and plans for the year discussed. As many as possible of the two hundred and twelve members are urged to be every department to see that everything Centre county are numbered among the the money for same from the balance of WATCHMAN readers and to all such we say come to Bellefonte next week, with good exhibits of stock and farm produce, and help make this year's Centre County Fair the biggest ever held. You can do it if you will, and we have faith to beamong the farmers a good deal in the lieve you will. And don't forget to bring your children in on Wednesday when they will all be admitted free.

through Pennsvalley on Thursday of the Bellefonte were victimized by Neroni in Bellefonte on Monday making his returns to with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Seel, for the latter's Fair. It will leave here after the events sums ranging from twenty-five to almost court; but his business at home was such that he amusement and this will be found on the of the afternoon are over and run through one hundred dollars, while he got in on returned the same afternoon. Pike where there will be enough variety as far as Coburn stopping at all points. the Italian Produce company, of Lock under 16 years of age. Friday the great Castena brewery for almost two hundred tain. He left for the Windy city on Monday. far as amusements and exhibits are con- and dollars, eight hundred of which was ering ever held in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. cerned.

---September has been a month of many rains and Sunday most every porstorm passed over Snow Shoe and Bald ard. While the rain descended in torrents and quite a quantity of hail fell it Italy. didn't do any particular damage. Sunday evening about six o'clock a hard rain passed over Bellefonte, Nittany and night with frequent showers on Monday.

--- Miss Elsie Haagan, of Beech Creek the Clinton county Times and had the privilege of naming the chaperone who will accompany the three winners on their trip to Bermuda. Miss Haagan had a total vote of 357,826, or over eighty

-The only thing to do next week is to attend the fair during the day and the the Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown will make a special effort to have an unusually good program every night next week, so that you will have to be a regular attendant if you don't want to miss something good. The popular price of five produce, fruit, vegetables, jellies and precents prevails at all times.

----W. R. Brachbill recently received window of his furniture store on Spring evident to the attending physician that in the new court house. It includes a nothing could be done to save his life, desk, two office chairs, a large davenport, of Milesburg and Pleasant Gap schools lessen the suffering of his last hours and The wood is all solid mahogany and the is in dark blue standard leather. The In addition to his parents he is surviv. casters and other metal trimmings are all ed by a number of brothers and sisters. in solid brass. Mr. Brachbill also fur-

--- The county race at the Fair next AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT. -On Tuesday week promises much of the fun and ex-

-There are two cases of diphtheria at Centre Hall. The first to contract the disease was Miss Savilla Rearick, latter's grand-daughter, Miss Helen Moyer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Y. Moyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was a visitor at the Rearick home, also contracted the disease. Both cases are quite malignant, though at this writing no fatal termination is anticipated. When Miss Moyer became ill her father and mother were notified and both came to Centre Hall. The mother is helping nurse her daughter and sister though Mr. Moyer --- The Bellefonte Central will run did not enter the Rearick home. An unspecial return trains on account of the fortunate incident in connection with the not able to get inside.

fonte and Lock Haven business men. Neroni was fairly well educated and could talk and understand English. Some as interpreter for other Italians who worked hereabouts, some of whom kept boarding houses. He made arrangements with various merchants to sell goods to his fellow countrymen and as he could talk English arranged for the goods to -The most progressive farmers in be charged to him and he would collect the Italians. This part of the contract he faithfully carried out, only he neglected to hand over the money to the merchants and several weeks ago when some of them began to press him a little for payment Neroni suddenly disappeared. About a with his parents. week later Mrs. Neroni and two children -Miss Anna Keichline returned to Ithaca, N. left on the night train for New York city. -There will be a special train back Probably ten or a dozen merchants in Wednesday will be free day for children Haven, for over two hundred dollars, the at the House of Lords on the top of Nitt any mouncounty race will be run, but on Thursday and a number of other Lock Haven peofleeced out of Bellefonte merchants. As soon as it was learned that Mrs in the afternoon a terrific rain and hail police there to be on the watch for Ne. Gerry home at Gerry, N. Y. roni and family but so far he has not is that he has gotten safely away for Ithaca and a week in New York before sailing on visiting relatives in Centre county. During the

Do It Right Now.

Look at the label on this paper. If Pennsvalley. The rain continued Sunday it reads any date prior to 1910 mail that he did not get half around among his Mrs. John S. Walker, having stopped off in Belleus at once at least enough money to friends. bring it up to 1910. If it is one year send $1.50. If it is two years send will pay it one year in advance.

There are 372 persons on our list won't take you any longer to do it after you have read this notice than it will a week hence.

If it doesn't suit to send all of it W. M. Holmes and daughters. After seeing Mrs. Thursday. With her were Mrs. Shafner and her now send enough to advance your Harris safely to her destination Mrs, Brown went daughter, Miss Anne. Mrs. Shafner will spend

THE HOSPITAL RUMMAGE SALE.—The Scenic at night. This will make up a rummage sale for the Bellefonte hospital program that will keep your time well which is being held in the Bush Arcade what you will see at the fair but you are patronized. The people of the town were and the only incident of delay in a trip of almost sure to see a bunch of good pictures at very liberal in their contributions and the result was the room in the Arcade was fancy work, etc., while the W. C. T. U. room in Petriken hall was filled with > serves and dozens of good things to eat. $575 were taken in and deposited in bank. Yesterday was penny day in the Bellefonte public schools and every pupil was ford Hewitt. asked to contribute one cent. The pupils also took up a penny collection and the Ladies Auxiliary would like if all the schools in the county would hold a penny day some day next week when each boy and girl could contribute their mite toward the good work.

The rummage sale was held yesterday afternoon and will be continued today and tomorrow until everything is sold tomorrow night. There are lots of good | The Misses Seymour will attend St. Angela's Col things still on hand and it might pay you to go in and look them over.

acuse, N. Y., but who has been employed | College. at Niagara Falls for some time past, and place, took a trip across the lake to Canada last Saturday and when they returned informed their friends that they had see, and from this on the government will have no been quietly married while in the Do- need to ask how the tab on his WATCHMAN stands minion. Mrs. Hill is very well known in this place, her old home, and her many friends were much surprised to hear of Bunco ticket down in Walker are few and far be

-Fred S. Dunham has equipped his printing office at Howard with a junior Mergenthaler linotype machine and on Wednesday of last week resumed the publication of the Bellefonte Daily. With his improved equipment the Daily should be a newsy sheet in the future.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, was a Belle

-Miss Loic Calderwood will be in Bellefonte Saturday after spending her vacation of two weeks with friends in Altoona.

-Wells L. Daggett with his son Randolph, went to Mercersburg Thursday, where Randolph entered as a student for the winter, the Mercersburg

-Mrs. H. C. Quigley and two little daughters at the ex-county office holders who have deserted returned last Friday evening from spending the summer on the Isle of Nantucket; Mr. Quigley the purpose for which it was started is College 60 cts., Waddles and Briarly 40 only to find the house quarantined and he ton, and Miss Margery to visit with friends at Third party will have little, if any, showing down Pittsburgh.

-D. G. Gingerich, of Martha, attended court | -Frank Rowe has gone to Akron, Ohio, where

-William P. Humes was a Bellefonte visitor to hilipsburg on Monday. -Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery has been for the past two weeks in Atlantic City. -A. Stine Walker, of Ferguson township, transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday. -Miss Edith Eckley left on Tuesday as a delegate to the Free Methodist conference at Brad. ing after her recent illness and operation for ap-

-Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, with Augusta and Mary, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Peter Collins at -Linn Graham came home from Philadelphia on Saturday to spend a week or so among Bellefonte friends -Mrs. Alice M. Parker returned home on Saturday after spending three weeks with relatives in Bay City, Michigan. -Mrs. Agnes Moore, who has been visiting friends in this place the past fortnight, left this week for her home in Philadelphia -Frank E. Naginey went to Detroit, Mich., on Tuesday to attend the annual convention of the National Funeral Director's association in session there this week. -Leo Sherry, at one time an employee of the vicinity of Pittsburg, has been here for the week drove to Milesburg in a closed cab and Y., on Tuesday to resume her studies in Cornell University, after spending a week with her parents in this place.

-Fred Blanchard, of Chicago, came to Belle-the big crowd will be there as usual. The ple for big sums. All told he is alleged day evening where on Wednesday he took part in the past two months with her sister, Mrs. Thom--Rev. C. C. Shuey went to Harrisburg on Tues-

-Rev. J. F. Collins, of the Free Methodist church, left on Monday for conference which sail on October 11th as a missionary to China. He Neroni had gone to New York city the convenes at Bradford, Pa. He was accompanied tion of Centre county was deluged. Early Lock Haven authorities telegraphed the by his three children whom he will place in the

-After spending the greater part of the sum mer with her aunts, the Misses Benner, Mrs. H | nursing at the Methodist hospital. Eagle valley in the neighborhood of How-the 15th for her home at Galveston, Texas. who is president of the Roosevelt hunting club of many foreign ports. Ferguson township, was a Bellefonte visitor on Saturday; though he was so busy all the time

-After spending ten days in Bellefonte W. L. Antrim, of the firm of Antrim & Landsy, Philadel- ing. phia, left on Monday for Altoona, where he spent $3.00. The rate is $1.50 per year several days prior to returning to the Quaker city for all arrearage. An extra $1.00 His partner, Mr. Landsy, is spending the week on a business trip to Franklin.

-Rev. S. E. Quimby left on Tuesday for a brief who come under the Post office Devisit with his son, C. E. Quimby, at Geneva, N. V. Charles Eckenroth. partment ruling. If you are one of New York Methodist annual conference at Lyons, Belleforte attending the Synod of the Lutheran them please attend to it now. It and also at the session of the Geneva annual church and while here are guests of Mr. Smith's Methodist conference at Rochester, N. Y.

-Mrs. James Harris, accompanied by Mrs. Sarah C. Brown, went to Wilkinsburg on Tuesday where Mrs. Harris will spend several weeks with

-Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Crider, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider and Mrs. Charles Kirby Rath re turned on Tuesday from their ten days' automo bile trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. The occupied. You may not know in advance and Petriken hall this week has been well trip was made in Hugh's Silent Six Matheson car seven hundred miles was one small puncture. -Mr. and Mrs. W. D. O'Brien, of Snow Shoe and Mr. and Mrs. David J. Kelly, of this place packed with every imaginable article, in- went to Williamsport on Saturday in the former's cluding clothing, furniture, books, pictures, car and owing to Sunday's rain and the almost mpassable condition of the roads Mr. and Mrs Kelley returned by train Sunday evening while Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien waited for fairer weather.

-Rev. John Hewitt and Mrs. Hewitt will go Monday to Cincinnati, Ohio, where Mr. Hewitt The sale has likewise been well patron- will attend the general conference of the Episco ized and up until noon yesterday just pal church in session there, while Mrs. Hewitt will visit for the time in St. Louis both expecting later to go on to Atlanta, Georgia, where they will be with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Straf

> -Mr. Filo M. Pyatt, of Youngwood, Pa., ha been in Bellefonte this week visiting his nephew T. S. Strawn and family. Mr. Pyatt is train dispatcher on the southwestern branch of the Penn sylvania railroad. Thirty years or more ago he worked on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad with headquarters in Lock Haven, and knew Bellefonte when Col. Teller conducted the Brockerhoff

-Misses Ruth and Louise Seymour, of New York city, who have been visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Noonan, at the Brant house, left Saturday morning for school. lege, "The Castle," at New Rochelle, N. Y. They graduated from the Ursuline Academy last June, where Miss Ruth won the gold medal for general excellence, was valedictorian of her class and HILL-HAZEL-Edson Parks Hill, of Syr- won the four year's scholarship for St. Angela's

-It is not often that Mr. E. Ertley, of Walker, gets up to spend a day in Bellefonte, but when he loes he always adds much to the pleasure of those with whom he has business. This time it wa the publisher of the WATCHMAN he came up to Mr. Ertley reports from Marion, as Democrats from other townships do. that the Democratic votes that will be thrown away on Mr. Penrose's

-Mr. J. F. Stover, one of the oldest and most reputable citizens of Spring township, found time on Tuesday last to pay the WATCHMAN a short but most pleasant visit. Mr. Stover, who is an old soldier, takes pride in the fact that of over fifty votes that he has cast since becoming of age every one, but the first, has been a straight Demo cratic on... He tells us that in his neighborhood he knows of no Third party voters-every man who is against the Republican Machine feeling that the right way to defeat it is to vote directly for Mr. Grim. And in this as in other matters Mr. Stover's head is level.

-Among the many and welcome callers on the WATCHMAN last Saturday was Mr. W. H. Gardner Esq., of Blanchard, one of the older citizens and Democrats who have given Centre county the high reputation for the honesty and worth of its people, that it enjoys. Mr. Gardner does not get to town often, but when he does come always finds hearty welcome from those who admire real anhood and real worth. He is greatly surprised the Democracy and have turned in to help the Republican machine by throwing their votes away on the Keystone ticket. Mr. Gardner assures u -The Misses Julia and Margery McDermott. that the voters of Liberty township who are left Bellefonte Thursday, Miss Julia to spend the against Penrose and his Machine are working fo fall and early winter with her brother at Charles- and will vote direct for Senator Grim and that the

he has secured a good posit

-Miss Grace Mitchell left Bellefonte Monday to resume her work at St. Davids for the win-

-Dr. Edward Harris, of Snow Shoe, has been in Bellefonte for a part of the week, as a witness at court. -Miss Marie White is in Bellefonte recuperat-

-Miss Ida Klinger spent Sunday with her auntt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Lyon, a Lyontown.

-Norman Johnson returned to his home in Jersey Shore, after a month's visit with relative in Bellefonte. -James Keller, of Centre Hall, was a business visitor in Bellefonte yesterday and a caller at the WATCHMAN office.

-Miss Emeline Cooper will return Monday to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where she will enter her second year at school. -Mrs. Thomas Brennen and her son Paul, of Oakland, Pittsburgh, are guests of Mrs. Bren nen's sister, Mrs. Joseph Fox. -William T. Speer, who has been under treat ment for the past month at a sanatorium at Cor-WATCHMAN office but who is now working in the ry, Pa., will return to Bellefonte Monday. -E. B. O'Reiley, of Lock Haven, accompanied by a Williamsport broker, was in Bellefonte yesterday and called at the WATCHMAN office. -Charles McClure came home from Philadelphia yesterday morning to see his brother Samu el before he departed for his mission work in China home in Harrisburg, where she will visit for sev

-Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia' fonte last Friday evening just to spend two days S. C., are expected in Centre Hall today or tomorrow to visit Mrs. McCormick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer.

eral weeks.

program will be the same each day so to have gotten away with over two thous-Park hotel at Williamsport.

-Rev. Samuel McClure left Bellefonte yesterday for San Francisco from which place he will expects to be away seven years.

-After spending several weeks at her home at State College Miss Sue Garner returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday to resume her course in -George Dale, a naval student at Annapolis, is summer he was one of a large number who were -Capt. John R. Lemon, of Gatesburg, the man off on a long cruise over the Atlantic, visiting -Mrs. William Corbett, of Clarion, and Mrs. Benson, of Buffalo, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and > fonte on their way home from the Colt-Corbett wedding at Northumberland Wednesday even--Among the Bellefonters who attended the unveiling of the Pennsylvania monument at Gettysburg this week were: S. H. Williams, Amos Gar-> brick, Emanuel Noll, W. H. Taylor, Joseph Alters, James Krebs, A. V. Miller, Herman Miller and -Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, of Reedsville, are in sister, Mrs. Garret. Mr. and Mrs. Smith came to

Bellefonte from Williamsport, where they have been for a visit with their son. -Miss Mary Thomas returned to Bellefonte ome time in Bellefonte visiting with Mrs. and Miss Thomas while Mrs. Shafner will be the guest of Mrs. John Porter Lyon. -After visiting in Bellefonte for two months with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox, and sister. Mrs. Howard Gearhart returned to her home at Newark Wednesday. Mrs. Gearhart was accompanied by her sister, Miss Alice Fox, who will visit in Newark and New York city until after Christmas

-C. B. Hess and Harry Koch were two Ferguson township residents who were in town this week serving their country as jurors. Both of the gentlemen are very much interested in the proposition to rehabilitate the old cemetery at Meek's church, at Fairbrook, and it is very probable that something will be done ere long to insure its permanent care.

-Mrs. Robert Powell, who has been for two months visiting with friends in Pennsylvania, came to Bellefonte Friday of last week for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garman. Leav ing here Wednesday she will spend ten days in Grayeton before returning to her home at Fort Smith, Arkansas. Miss Powell will be remembered as Miss Lingle, of Philipsburg.

-Sam Harpster, of Gate sburg, was in town during the week doing duty as a juryman and Sam had a good time, for he hadn't been down here for nigh onto three years. In fact he has been stay. ing so close to home that we thought he had actu ally gone off to Oklahoma, as he said he intended some time ago. We were glad that he hadn't, for he is a bustling good fellow and Centre county doesn't want to lose that kind.

Beliefonte Produce Markets.

otatoes	per bushel
Onions	***************************************
Eggs, pe	r dozen
Lard, per	pound
Country	Shoulders
	Linus
P-11	nams
allow, I	per pound
Butter, p	er pound

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.

Corn, shelled, per bushel Corn, ears, per bushel Oats, old and new, per bushel Barley, per bushel Buckwheat per bushel	65 65 60
Philadelphia Markets.
The following are the closing prices of Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.	the Wheat—Red$1.00@ —No. 2

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance; $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if no paid before the expiration of the year; and no pa per will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid except at the option of the publisher. per will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising

by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:
SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m
One inch (12 lines this type)	$ 5 7 10 12 20	$ 8 10 15 20 35	40	