

PINE GROVE MENTION.

W. C. Collins visited his boys at Pitcairn last week.
Robert Rossman is visiting friends at Patton this week.
J. P. Wagner came down from the Mountain city in his auto Saturday.
Mrs. Charles Wright is ill with heart trouble at her home on Water street.
Mrs. N. C. Neidigh, Miss Mary Woods and A. F. Fry are among the sick.
Mrs. Laura Dreiblebis spent Sunday with her father, who is some better.
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fishburn spent Sunday at the Lee Markle home at State College.
Jay Woomey, the obliging miller at Grayville, is laid up for repairs with bronchial trouble.
Mrs. J. D. Dreiblebis spent Sunday with her father, G. W. Keichline, who is some better.
Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dale and daughter Mary, are visitors at the W. J. Dale home on the corner last week.
Harry Woodward, of Unionville, spent Wednesday in the valley and took in the State College horse show.
Curt Cronmiller, the popular baker, at Patton, visited friends in Centre county in the early part of the week.
Mrs. L. M. Houser and Mrs. W. S. Ward did shopping at Tyrone Monday and oh, the new hats are stunning.
Oscar B. Krebs, of Altoona, visited the old family home last week and laid up a choice lot of hand-picked apples.
The Reed sisters are having a concrete walk put down in front of their residence. Smith and Sunday have the job.
Della Kogan, of Tyrone, is visiting friends at Rock Springs with headquarters at hison-in-law's home, James Harpster.
Mrs. Alice McLaughlin, of Boalsburg, was spending the past week with her brother, Dr. G. H. Woods on Main street.
Howard Barr, while remodeling the W. E. McWilliams barn, got a tumble that will lay him up for several days to come.
A legion of friends sent a postal shower reminding Miss Lizzie Tyson of her birthday, Monday, at her home in Greensburg, Pa.
Mrs. Allie Weaver, of Altoona, and Mrs. G. W. Weaver, of Clearfield, are spending this week among their Centre county friends.
Mrs. J. H. Zettler, of Spring Mills, was a Pine Hall visitor Sunday. It is likely that Howard will someday be one of our real estate owners.
Miss Maude Musser and two of her lady friends came up from Lock Haven Normal and spent Sunday at the Musser home on the Branch.
J. F. Welland, the popular merchant at Linden Hall, with his family came up in his new Ford and spent Sunday at grandpa Miller's in the Glades.
Miss Minnie Collins returned to her duties as trained nurse in Philadelphia on Saturday, after a delightful visit among her Centre county friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Milliken McWilliams, with their little bright son William, came down from Tyrone for a week's outing among friends at Rock Springs.
Walter Weaver had the misfortune to wreck his thrasher last week, but is replacing it with a fine new machine and no doubt will close out his run on good time.
Reynolds Shope, of Bellefonte, with a crew of men are now engaged cutting and sawing the timber on a large tract of land back of State College, which will keep them busy all winter.
Last Sunday while Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey, of Spruce Creek, with their little son Charley, were outing at the Gumbo home on Tadpole, a dog bit the lad on the upper lip so that it required several stitches to close up the wound.
Squirrel season opened up with plenty of hunters on old Tussey. Prof. White came in with four grays, J. A. Decker got one gray and three pineys, quite a number got two but many got nothing though the frisky tribe are quite plentiful. The foliage is thick so that they are difficult to see.
Mrs. Annie Gentzel and daughter Maggie, of Kansas, after an absence of almost half a century, are visiting friends in the old Keystone State. She will be remembered as Annie Goss, so well known in and about Baileyville. She notes many changes and most of her childhood chums have passed away.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.

The farmers are busy husking corn.
Speedy running of automobiles at present is very injurious to good roads.
On account of the scarcity of rain the wells, springs and streams are very low.
After a visit of two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carner and family returned home recently.
Prof. Wickert, principal of the High school, spent Sunday in Lock Haven with his friend, Rev. Harr.
Mrs. G. F. Hoy spent last Sunday in Lock Haven, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Miller.
Miss Madeline Spayd was the guest of her friend, Miss Hope Strunk, of Jacksonville, last Sunday.
Lloyd Dorman, of Snyderstown, is dangerously ill from the effects of accidentally running a nail into his foot several weeks ago.
Jacob Crow and family, who had been visiting friends and relatives in our vicinity, returned to their home in Liverpool on Tuesday.
Rev. H. I. Crow left last Thursday for Reading, to attend the eastern Synod of the Reformed church, which is in session at present in that city.
The hunting season is here and game seems to be scarce. Those who were successful, thus far, are Perry Hinds and Boyd Heckman, who came home each with a wild turkey.
Those who visited Bellefonte on business last Saturday from our town were Mrs. D. A. and Ella Deitrich, Miss Nellie Rothmell, John McAuley, James N. Carner and T. L. Kessinger.
An interesting game of baseball was played here last Saturday. The Clintondale High school nine gave the Walker township High school nine a return game, which resulted in a score of thirteen to one in favor of the home team.
Dr. Sparks, Alva Agee and others of the faculty of The Pennsylvania State College, on a business trip through our section of the county, stopped for refreshments at Hubler's hotel, where the accommodations and meals are always first class.

HIGH VALLEY ITEMS.

Rumor has it that the public road from Pine creek will be vacated as far as the school house.
The game season is here and very little game so we would advise fellows looking for boarding to depend on places where pork and sausage are plenty.
Who can beat this? Three young sows not over a year old came in, two with ten pigs each and one with seven, we have an offer of $35.00 for the seven, and for the ten $60.00 making for the lot $95.00 which would pay for a trespass notice for every tree in this end of the county.
Corn about here is not as good as was expected, potatoes are a fair crop, chestnuts are few and wormy, and there is no fruit. But one car load of timber has been sold here in eight months. Farmers are having fairly good times and they deserve it. A pair of sucking pigs bring from five to ten dollars. Cattle are high and so are horses and everything else they have for sale. But they are entitled to all they can get. They pay the bulk of the taxes and tariffs and from a dollar to a dollar and a half a day for half a hand.

Election news is dull here, but on election day we all purpose doing our full duty and that is to straight Democratic ticket. Many of us regret that Mr. Berry is allowing himself to be used to divide the party, as he is; but we feel that Mr. Grim was fairly and honestly nominated at Allentown and we are going to stand by him. He is a good man with a good record and why any Democrat should think of throwing away his vote on Berry, when that vote might bring about the defeat of Toner, we do not understand. To me it seems as if Berry didn't care what side he is on just so he gets an office. We have nothing against him only that he should have stood by his party, just as he would have expected Mr. Grim to do had he been nominated. To us it looks now as if he only wanted to divide the Democrats, in order to help Toner. At least that is what he is doing and there is none of that in ours. Penn town-ship Democrats are for Grim and victory.

SPRING MILLS.

Corn husking has commenced in earnest.
Edward Winter says that notwithstanding the cold snap of late, the ice cream business continues good.
R. G. Kenney, employed at Snow Shoe since early in the spring, arrived here on Friday last, on a visit to his family.
Misses Anna M. Cummings and Rosa Smith have returned home from their visit to Sunbury, Milton and Lewisburg.
William Zions is improving his residence by raising the building six feet from the ground, and also erecting a large porch in front.
The coal firm of H. I. Brian & Co. was dissolved last week. Mr. Brian buying out the interest of J. W. Wood. He will continue the business.
We had considerable ice here on Thursday morning last, which looked like winter, but since then the weather has been warm and spring like.
Emanuel Shook, who injured himself internally two weeks ago while picking apples by the ladder turning and throwing him off, is not improving very rapidly.
After being confined to the house for several days, the result of injuries caused by accidentally falling down stairs, James Kenney, one of our old veterans, is able to be up and about again.
Senator Grim in his auto trip to Bellefonte on Monday last, stopped off here for about an hour, and notwithstanding the unexpected visit had quite a reception. The Senator's address, though brief, was to the point and received close attention.
Allison Bros. have their mill dam nearing completion. It is very massive and built in the most substantial manner, with quite a number of improvements added. While rebuilding the water power was so well arranged, that they were shut down only part of a day at a time.
Friday of last week was the opening day at the millinery store of Mrs. Geo. N. Wolfe, and availing myself of her kind invitation, I called in to take a glance at the latest novelties in feminine head wear. The rooms were beautifully and artistically decorated and arranged for the occasion. Four large tables were used in this autumn millinery display. The fall and winter creations are superb, bits of rare furs and costly embroideries and laces have been used to enhance many of the hats copied from the imported models. The almost endless variety of charming shapes is bewildering, there is no describing them, they are all beautiful and exquisitely becoming. Mrs. Wolfe has again displayed her exquisite taste in selections.

Stanley Ketchel Slain.
W. A. Hurts, the slayer of Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion pugilist, has been captured near Niangua, Mo., seventeen miles from the scene of the shooting.
Ketchel was shot while eating breakfast and died after being removed to a hospital in Springfield.
With the arrest of Mrs. Goldie Smith, who posed as the wife of the pugilist's slayer, the police have discovered another motive for the crime.
Mrs. Smith has signed a statement on the morning of the day the shooting took place, and that news of the conversation that offended her so inflamed Hurts that he was greatly wrought up.
The police are inclined to believe Mrs. Smith's story.
Following is the statement signed by Mrs. Smith:
"While I was working in the house Ketchel insulted me. I became angry. He was greatly wrought up over the incident and pleaded with me not to say anything to Hurts. He said he would give me the best team of horses on the farm if I would keep quiet. I made him no promise.
"When Hurts came home I told him what Ketchel had said to me. He was very angry. I think that is what caused him to kill Ketchel."

Farmer Has Hydrophobia.
Hugh Carter, a farmer residing near Allentown, Pa., was admitted to the hospital in that city suffering from hydrophobia. More than a month ago a rabid dog bit a pet on the Carter farm. The dog as well as all animals about the place were killed. A few days ago two milk cows were taken ill, and in administering medicine Carter's hand was lacerated upon a tooth of one of the cows. Both animals developed unmistakable symptoms of rabies and went bawling and snarling about the pasture until killed to put them out of their misery.

Man Slain on Ball Field.
With a bullet in his brain and his skull fractured by a blow from a paving brick or club, John Bolura, of Pricburg, was found dead on the baseball field at Olyphant, Pa.
Wactau Notesyk, a boarder at the Bolura home and brother of Bolura's wife, was arrested and charged with the murder. Notesyk says that he was not in or near Olyphant when the crime was committed.

Harrisburg Has 64,167 Population.
According to statistics given out by the census bureau, Harrisburg, Pa., has a population of 64,186, an increase of 14,019, or 27.9 per cent over 30,167 in 1900.
Mine Explosion Kills Two.
Samuel Carouse, miner, and Joseph Maderna, laborer, were killed by an explosion in the Twin shaft of the Pennsylvania Coal company at Pittston, Pa.

Huston Gets Jail Sentence.

Joseph M. Huston, of Philadelphia, the architect of the imposing Pennsylvania state capitol building, was sentenced to imprisonment in the eastern penitentiary "for not less than six months nor more than two years," and to pay a fine of $500 and costs for having "conspired to cheat and defraud the commonwealth of Pennsylvania."
The court room at Harrisburg was filled when Judge Kunkel pronounced sentence. By order of the court Huston was taken in charge by Sheriff Fletcher, but his detention was of short duration, an order having been obtained from the superior court at Philadelphia for his release on bail, pending an appeal taken to that higher tribunal.
Huston was convicted on April 23 last. Recently he was refused a new trial by Judge Kunkel, the judge before whom he was tried.
Huston, when he stood before Judge Kunkel, was the fifth upon whom sentence has been passed in connection with capitol graft charges. Two, William P. Snyder, former auditor general, and James M. Shumaker, one time superintendent of public grounds and buildings, are serving sentences in the eastern penitentiary.
John H. Sanderson, capitol contractor, and generally regarded as one of the culpable ones, is dead. Death also put William L. Mathews, former state treasurer, beyond the power of a court to imprison. Both died shortly after their conviction on Dec. 18, 1908.
Snyder and Shumaker were sentenced to two years each. Also they were ordered to pay a $500 fine and the cost to the state of prosecuting them.

Superior Court Grants a Supersedeas on Appeal.
Promptly upon receiving word by long distance telephone that Judge Kunkel, in the Dauphin county court, had imposed sentence on Joseph M. Huston, architect of the new state capitol, George S. Graham went before the superior court in Philadelphia and presented a petition for an appeal, the same to act as a supersedeas.
The principal grounds upon which the appeal was based are that the defendant was convicted on incompetent testimony; that the court erred in its refusal to charge the jury that under all the evidence the defendant was legally entitled to be acquitted; that the jury gave a verdict of acquittal on the charge of conspiracy and found him guilty on a charge which was not in the indictment; that legal coercion was used in compelling the jury to change its verdict.
Huston was under $60,000 bail at the time of his trial, $2000 bail on each of thirty indictments, which were divided into two sets of fifteen bills each. At his first trial Huston was acquitted with Cassel.
In asking for a supersedeas appeal Mr. Graham suggested that the bail be reduced to $25,000. The judges consulted over the petition for about twenty minutes and then granted the motion as presented. Mr. Graham at once wired his associate counsel in Harrisburg that Huston's sentence had been stayed.

Picking Ripe Strawberries.
Ripe strawberries are being picked at Ossining, N. Y., and they all grew in the open air. The late comers were found by workmen on the Pierson property. There were fully twenty strawberries on the vines, all large, perfectly formed and luscious.

Pennsylvania Railroad

BULLETIN.

On Sunday, November 27, full train service will be inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Railroad to and from its new station at Seventh Avenue and Thirty-second Street, New York City.

The location of the Pennsylvania Station, one block from Broadway, two blocks from Fifth Avenue, is in the heart of the hotel, club, and theatre district of Manhattan. Within a short radius are located the majority of the big retail stores and restaurants. The Seventh Avenue surface cars and the Eighth Avenue surface cars pass its doors; the Thirty-fourth Street surface cars (cross town) pass its Thirty-fourth Street entrance, and stations of the Sixth Avenue Elevated and Hudson and Manhattan Tubes are a short block from the main entrance.

Time tables showing the service to and from the Pennsylvania Station are now being arranged, and may be obtained at Ticket Offices before the opening of the Station.

Connections will be made at Manhattan Transfer (near Newark) with local trains to and from the downtown New York stations who desire may continue to use the Cortlandt and Desbrosses Street Stations and the Hudson Terminal Station of the Hudson and Manhattan Tubes. 55-40-2t.

COFFEE

When goods advance on the market the retail price usually follows. But in regard to the recent advance in Coffees we have not followed the ordinary course, either by marking up the price or reducing the quality. We have found a new and more favorable market in which to buy the goods and maintain the high standard of our leaders at 18c, 20c and 25 cents per pound.
If you are using a Coffee at 20 cents per pound try our 18 cent grade.
If you are paying 25 cents for your Coffee try our 20 cent goods.
Or if you are buying at 30 cents try the high grade goods we sell at 25 cents per pound.
This is a severe test but we are very confident we can make good. Give us a trial, and please mention in which paper you saw this advertisement.
