Taft to Name W. H. Lewis Assistant Attorney General

President Taft, it was stated in Washington, has decided to appoint a colored man to the highest office in an executive branch of the government ever held by a member of that race.

William H. Lewis, at present an assistant district attorney at Boston, is to be made an assistant attorney general of the United States.

The president has also determined to make Charles A. Cotterell, of Toledo, also a negro, collector of customs at Honolulu. This recognition of the colored race is expected to have political results in Ohio and Massachusetts.

Lewis is a graduate of the Harvard law school, and played center rush on the Harvard eleven in the early nineties.

The appointment has been agreed upon by the president and Attorney General Wickersham. Just what duties will be assigned to the new assistant when he takes office have not been decided.

The appointment of Lewis is in line with President Taft's policy of recognizing colored men in the government service, but taking these appointments as far as possible out of the southern states, where friction has been caused in the past by colored federal office holders.

Was Opposed Two Years Ago. More than two years ago it was rumored that Lewis might be made assistant attorney general at Washington, but opposition developed on account of his color. Lewis has been very successful in practice. He has made an excellent record as assistant attorney for the eastern district of Massachusetts. It was not denied that he was at that time qualified for the office mentally, but it was feared that his presence in the department of justice would cause a great deal of friction, since in the department there are many old-time southerners, among them Colonel John S. Mosby.

William H. Lewis is at present in charge of the naturalization cases for the United States attorney for the Massachusetts district. He was born in Portsmouth, Va., in 1868, and after being graduated from Amherst college in 1892, entered the Harvard law school and was graduated from that institution in 1895. During his stay at Harvard he played center rush on the 1892 and 1893 football teams and has been one of the Harvard football coaches up to within a year or two.

He served one year in the lower branch of the Massachusetts legislature. Lewis was appointed an assistant United States attorney in 1903, and has been connected with that office ever since. He is married and lives in Cambridge. His father was a colored minister. Lewis was ambitious and worked as a waiter to earn his college expenses. His sister is the wife of Dr. France, a colored physician of Portsmouth.

Prominent in Politics. He was captain of the football team, class orator and won the Harvey prize debate and the Hyde prize contest in oratory. In Harvard he was regarded as the best footballer the university had ever played on the gridiron. In 1895 he was admitted to the bar and he soon built up a paying practice. He served two terms in the Cambridge common council, and twice refused the nomination for the legislature. He was at last induced to run and won by a big majority.

Lewis was a noted center rush on the Harvard football eleven in the early nineties, and was the first colored man to attain prominence in the game. He was selected by Walter Camp as the All-American center for 1892. He was a student of the game, as well as player, and published a book on "How to Play Football." Subsequent to graduating from Harvard he was a coach and football official.

Eagle Swoops on Child. An eagle with a spread of wings of eight feet was killed by Conrad Brummell when it swooped down on his daughter Anna, six years old, as she was playing in a pasture at Eola, Ill. The eagle darted twice at the child, who ran for refuge beside a pet cow.

Senator LaFollette Well Again. Senator and Mrs. Robert LaFollette left Rochester for Madison, Wis., their home. Senator LaFollette has completely recovered from his recent operation for an internal trouble at a hospital in Rochester.

Thieves Rife Prince's Trunks. While Prince Henry of Bavaria was traveling from Milan to Munich his trunks were broken open by thieves and riddled of a quantity of jewelry and souvenirs.

Middy Has Chronic Seasickness. Midshipman Ruskin Pierce Hall, of Dayton, O., has resigned from the navy because of chronic seasickness. He is now on duty on board the battleship Delaware. He was appointed midshipman on Aug. 6, 1906.

Kellogg Declines Solicitorship. Frank B. Kellogg, after a call on President Taft, in Washington, has made it very clear to the newspaper men that he wouldn't accept the office of solicitor general, to succeed the late Lloyd W. Bowers, if it were offered to him.

Wine Nobel Prize For Medicine. The Nobel prize for medicine has been awarded to Dr. Albrecht Kossel, professor of physiology at Heidelberg university.

Howard Gould to Marry Actress. Friends of Howard Gould in Paris are not surprised to hear of his reported engagement to Kathryn Hutchinson, the actress. For several months past it has been known that he was infatuated with the actress. They have been constantly together.

Gould has been cruising in his yacht in northern waters during the summer. Kathryn Hutchinson was a member of the small party aboard. He was seen in Paris with her during the summer, when they dined often together at well known Bohemian resorts.

Howard Gould's attachment to Kathryn Hutchinson has been common talk here for some time. His friends believe he will follow Frank Gould's example in refusing to reveal whether he intends to marry the woman with whom his name is associated, allowing his associates, as well as the public generally, to make whatever guesses they wish.

Catches Strange Fish. A strange fish, such as never before has been seen on the water front at Boston, having a head nearly twice as large as its body, was caught off City Point by William McIntyre, of South Boston.

The fish is four and a half feet long. The head is two feet eight inches in diameter. The mouth extends nearly across the whole front of the head and contains fifty teeth and a tongue one foot across and two inches thick. There are no lips, the teeth being on the edge of the mouth and visible when the mouth is closed. The body tapers almost to a point. The fins have a spread of a foot each and are attached to the back of the head.

Student Accused of Bigamy. Harry A. Roarback, aged twenty-three years, of New Haven, Conn., who made the claim that he was a Yale student and the son of an Albany, N. Y., millionaire, was bound over to the higher court from the police court in bonds of $2000 on the charge of bigamy. Mary A. Sebas of this city, testified that she was married to him in Millerton, N. Y., three years ago. He deserted her and their baby about a month ago. He and Anna Snerius, of Brooklyn, N. Y., were married in this city.

Crippen Sentenced to Death. Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen must die for the murder of his actress wife, Belle Elmore, was decreed by swift British justice in London. After only thirty minutes' deliberation, succeeding a trial lasting five days, a jury found the American dentist guilty of the murder of his wife Cora, an American woman, known on the stage as Belle Elmore, and Lord Chief Justice Alverstone, who presided at the trial, sentenced Crippen to be hanged on Nov. 8.

Convicts Build Road. The announcement has been given out at Statesville, N. C., that the Statesville Air Line Railroad company will begin building at once a new line of road from Statesville to Yadkinville. The road will be erected by convict labor, arrangements having been made to transfer fifty convicts from the state prison to Statesville to begin the work of grading for the new line at once.

Governor Fort Appoints Mrs. Cleveland. Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, the widow of the former president, was named by Governor Fort, of New Jersey, as one of the managers of the woman's reformatory, the erection of which was authorized by the last legislature. Mrs. Cleveland has taken a deep interest in charitable and correctional work among women in this state.

Bullet Went Through Boy's Brain, Killing Him Instantly. Joseph Deponit, the five-year-old son of Frank Deponit, of Haverstraw, N. Y., while getting ready for school, picked up a pistol cartridge and put it into his mouth and bit on it. The cartridge exploded and the bullet went upward through the boy's brain, killing him instantly.

His automobile ran down the team of Walter Smith, of Phoenixville. Smith and his wife were badly injured and the horse was killed. The accident happened at Jeffersonville.

Mother and Daughter Killed by Train. Mrs. Mary Lowery and her daughter Nellie, aged nine years, were struck at a grade crossing on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Ellerslie, six miles north of Cumberland, Md. Both were instantly killed.

Says Roosevelt Labeled Him.

Judge Baldwin, of Conn., Threatens to Bring Suit.

How. Simeon E. Baldwin, ex-chief justice of the supreme court of Connecticut and Democratic nominee for governor of Connecticut at the coming election, sent an open letter to Theodore Roosevelt, informing him that he had misrepresented him in his political speech at Concord, N. H., last Saturday, if the newspaper reports were correct, and demanding a retraction of the false statements, because they were likely to hurt the judge's standing as a lawyer and prejudice his candidacy for governor. Judge Baldwin, it is understood, means to bring an action for libel.

Judge Baldwin's letter in part is as follows: "The Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, LL. D. "Dear Sir—In the newspaper reports of a speech delivered by you at Concord, N. H., on Oct. 22, it is stated that you remarked that the Democratic party of Connecticut had nominated for governor a former judge who was a man who took the view that it was competent for the workman, when driven to any employment, to grind him to bind himself not to be compensated if he lost life or limb in that occupation."

"I never took such a view. "I never stated that I took such a view. "Such a view would be opposed to the settled principles of law, and no competent lawyer could or would take it. "I trust that your remarks at Concord were misrepresented. If not, you certainly were misinformed. "If you did, in fact, make the charge against me or one substantially of that character, I write to request that you would retract it, as it is one calculated to affect my standing as a lawyer (at least among those who do not know me), as well as to prejudice my position as a candidate for public office."

Judge Anderson's Friends Indignant. The friends of Judge Albert B. Anderson, who was denounced at the Columbia club, in Indianapolis, Ind., by Mr. Roosevelt as a "damned crook and jackass," have been writing him from all parts of the state, and many have called upon him to express their indignation and at the same time assure him that nothing which the former president could say would have any effect upon those who know him and are familiar with his honorable record as a citizen and a judge.

Some of them have indicated that they would be glad to unite in a testimonial and have it sent broadcast over the country, but there is little prospect that the judge would consent to this. Those who have talked with him, while not professing to speak for him, do not believe he will notice the insult.

Notwithstanding his silence there is great indignation that he should have been characterized as a "crook and jackass" by Mr. Roosevelt, and some of the former president's warmest friends are among the number who believe he wantonly charged Judge Anderson with that which he in no sense deserves.

Six Killed in Boiler Explosion. A boiler explosion killed six firemen, fatally wounded two others and threw 2000 women and girls and half as many more men into a panic at the bagging and rope plant of the American Manufacturing company, at Greenpoint, across the East river from New York.

When the big boiler in the two-story brick warehouse attached to the plant blew up, there was a rush for the doors. Many of the weaker ones were trampled under foot.

All the time the building was shaking, as another boiler blew up with great violence. The police reserves succeeded in quieting the disorder and in stemming the onrush from the factory buildings into the rain.

When picked up the bodies of the six firemen were terribly mutilated. It was with difficulty that they were recognized. The other two firemen were rushed to a hospital in a dying condition.

Kills Police Chief. A special received in New Orleans from Ceiba, Spanish Honduras, says that Antonio Davila, nephew of President Davila, is under arrest there, charged with the murder of Jose Ballesteros, director of police. The latter was killed following a warning given by Ballesteros to a woman with whom young Davila associated, that disorderly conduct at her house must cease. Davila left the house with the police chief, but when a short distance from the place he drew a revolver and shot the officer dead.

Robbed of $10,000 in Gems. James C. Foster, a salesman from Columbus, O., has made complaint to the police in Chicago that he had been robbed of two sample cases containing $10,000 worth of jewelry while he was in a hotel lobby here. According to his statements, he left the sample cases on the floor in front of the cashier's desk to step to the cigar counter. When he returned a minute later the sample cases had vanished.

Doomed to Die in Six Minutes. Charles Little confessed to the assassination of Matthew Crawford at Jackson, Ky., and he requested an immediate trial because of his fear of mob violence. Accordingly he was taken into court, sentenced to death by a jury which was out six minutes, and then hurried to Lexington for safe-keeping. Crawford's friends were attending his funeral when this was taking place.

Odd Cure For Blindness.

His remedy was to drive a tack into the back of a blind negro's skull and charge $2.50 for the operation.

Robert Ward, the victim, told the court that the tack was not very painful, but that Williams' manner of talking the $2.50 "hurt" his side.
