The Result in Centre County.

In Centre county the result was not a surprise. Centre has always been friendly to Mr. Berry and prior to the Allentown convention sentiment here was pretty evenly divided between Munson and Berry for the gubernatorial honor.

Then the division came. Some of the Democrats of the county bolted the regular nominee of the party, not because he was personally objectionable, but because they were personally for Berry, first, last and all the time, and because they had temporarily lost sight of that fundamental principle of Democracy that majorities should rule.

We have nothing to say as to their actions. As individuals they had a perfect right to do as they pleased. Insofar as they represented leadership or consideration in the party's councils in the past we feel that they had no justification in organizing a movement against the party that has honored and had confidence in them.

In every statement the WATCHMAN made during the campaign it prophesied that if only seventy-five per cent. of the Democrats would vote for Mr. Grim victory would be ours. The result shows that we were right. If the Democrats, alone, had rallied to Mr. Grim he would be the Governor elect of Pennsylvania today.

This chicken feels like the Democratic Keystone who deserted his party last Tuesday, now that he finds that in helping to lick the Democratic candidates he got licked himself.

Indiana Legislature Heavily Democratic.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Senator A. J. Beveridge's hopes for another term at Washington went glimmering to-night, when late returns showed conclusively that the Democrats yesterday elected a majority of the members of the Indiana Assembly, which will meet next January to choose Mr. Beveridge's successor.

According to the latest figures, the Democrats will have a majority on joint ballot of 32. John W. Kerns was endorsed last spring by the Democrats for United States Senator and in all probability he will become the colleague of Senator Shively, also a Democrat.

It is conceded to-night that the Democratic State ticket was elected by a plurality of about 15,000.

Of the 13 Indiana Congressmen, 12 will be Democrats, Edgar Dean Crumacker, of the Ninth district, was the only Republican elected.

MY POLICIES BEATEN TO A FRAZZLE.

been elected Governor of New Jersey because of his wonderful mentality, but why was FOSS elected Governor of Massachusetts? Why was BALDWIN elected Governor of Connecticut? Why will the next Congress be Democratic? The answer can be found in only one quarter: Broken Republican promises, reckless national expenditures and legislation favoring the few at the expense of the many.

The issue was a clean cut one everywhere with the possible exceptions of New York and Pennsylvania and Democracy has won. It is a glorious victory for the old time principles of JEFFERSON; the principles upon which the government is founded and a terrible rebuke to that most consummate of political bombasters who would deprive the States of their rights and build up a government of commissions.

The deluge of protesting ballots as it was recorded by the voters all over the country is as follows:

Foss Wins Election In Bay State.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Massachusetts tonight elects Congressman Eugene N. Foss, Democrat for Governor, by an estimated plurality of 33,000, though losing the second place on the ticket. Boston gave Mr. Foss a plurality of 27,175, which shows the rest of the State gave 6,000.

Colonel Roosevelt's attack on Mr. Foss at the big meeting here of the Massachusetts Republican Club, October 6, is confidently believed to have cost Governor Eben S. Draper, Republican candidate for re-election, a great number of votes. Many criticized the ex-President for unwarranted interference, as they termed it. The Colonel's defense of Senator Lodge at the same meeting had a like effect, it appears.

The Democrats gained nine out of the first 47 Representatives reported elected tonight. This is a gain of about 20 per cent, and if maintained throughout the State would give the Democrats between 80 and 85 seats out of a total of 240 in the House, which would not be enough to affect the election of the United States Senator.

California Results Show Socialist Gains.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Late returns do not alter materially the indicated plurality for the entire Republican State ticket, in yesterday's election of from 20,000 to 25,000. A long ballot, complicated by a number of constitutional amendments, greatly delayed the count. Only half of the total precinct returns are in. These cover the cities and populous regions, and returns from the sparsely settled counties probably will not affect the result.

The defeat of Theodore Bell, Democratic candidate for Governor in the city of San Francisco, where it was generally thought he would have a heavy vote, is ascribed to the large Socialist vote. In San Francisco, Hiram Johnson, Republican for Governor, received 24,953 votes; Bell, 23,603 and J. O. Wilson, Socialist, 9,502. Political observers say that the Socialist vote was drawn largely from Bell. The Socialist vote in this city four years ago was 2,013.

Unofficial estimates place the Socialist vote of Los Angeles at 10,000, as against 3,047 four years ago.

Republican Majority Cut in West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Returns indicate the Democrats have elected two out of the five Congressmen in West Virginia.

The Republican majorities were cut in the Third, Fourth and Fifth districts, but it is not possible that late returns from out-of-the-way precincts will make any material change in the vote in these three districts. Indications are that the Legislature will be Republican, but by a very reduced majority.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 9.—The most interesting result of the election in this State yesterday was the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the State Constitution. Every county thus far reported gave a majority for the amendment.

Mrs. Emma Smith Devoe, president of the State Equal Suffrage Association, today issued a proclamation, setting apart Thursday, November 24, as a day of Thanksgiving for the newly enfranchised women of Washington. At least 130,000 women will be added to the electorate.

Democrats to Control Congress

Nothing to Hamper the Work the Democrats Will do in Congress—Tariff Revision Downward Will Surely Follow

Socialist elected 1
Doubtful district 1
Total 391

Majority of House, or quorum 196
Democratic majority over quorum 29
Democratic majority over Republicans 61

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Complete returns on the election of representatives in Congress indicate that the Democrats will have a working majority of 30 in the next House. The number of Democrats elected to Congress, according to the latest returns, which are of an unofficial character, is 225. The Republican representation will be 163, or nine seats less than the Democrats now have in the Sixty-third Congress.

Absolute confidence is not felt in the returns for some of the Wisconsin districts, and it is not impossible that the official figures will change the totals of the two parties.

The Fifth Wisconsin district is claimed by Victor L. Berber, Socialist. Henry F. Cochems, the Republican candidate, does not concede Berber's election, and a recount may be necessary to decide the election.

A summary of the contest for Governorship shows the following Democratic Governors elected, with approximate pluralities:

The Governorships in two States are not yet reported as being beyond doubt, namely, Colorado and Idaho.

The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed yesterday by a general survey of the field, which disclosed with greater detail and precision just what results had been accomplished.

Latest calculations on the National House of Representatives, based on complete but unofficial returns, show that the Democrats will have a safe working majority of 30.

a Republican majority in the Senate, as follows: Total membership, 92; necessary to majority, 47; Republicans, 50; Democrats, 40; doubtful, 2.

The 16 Republican Senators considered assured are from California, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota (2), Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Washington Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The 15 Democratic Senators considered assured are from Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Maryland Democrats Gain Two Congressmen. BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—Maryland elects five Democrats and one Republican Congressman, a gain of two for the Democrats. The latest delegation was composed of three Republicans and three Democrats. The chief surprises are in the Third and Sixth districts, particularly the latter.

Rhode Island—Won for the Republicans. A. J. Pothier re-elected governor over Lewis A. Waterman, Democrat, by a plurality of 903, a decrease of 11,000.

Tennessee—Won from regular Democrats by Republicans and Independent Democrats. Ben W. Hooper, Republican, elected governor over Robert Taylor, Democrat; plurality about 30,000.

Michigan—Won for the Republicans. Charles S. Osborne elected governor over Lawton T. Hemans, Democrat; plurality 45,000.

Wyoming—Won for the Democrats from Republicans. Judge J. J. Carey elected governor over W. E. Mullen, Republican; plurality 3000.

California—Won by the Republicans. Hiram W. Johnson elected governor over Theodore Bell, Democrat.

Oklahoma—Won by Democrats. Lee Cruce elected governor over J. W. McNeal, Republican.

Kansas—Won by Republicans. Governor Stubbs re-elected over George H. Hodges, Democrat; plurality 5000 to 8000.

New Hampshire—Won by Republicans. Robert P. Bass elected governor over Clarence E. Carr, Democrat; plurality 6900.

Texas—Won by Democrats. O. E. Colquitt elected governor over J. O. Terrill, Republican.

South Dakota—Won by the Republicans. Governor Robert S. Vessey re-elected over Chauncey L. Wood, Democrat; plurality 12,000.

Minnesota—Won for Republicans from Democrats. Adolph O. Eberhart elected governor over James Gray, Democrat, by a plurality of 50,000.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. C. T. Aikens of Selingsgrove who has been in ill health for the past year, and who has been spending the greater part of the past summer in Philadelphia, is very rapidly regaining her health.

Lovers of the national game want to attend the Scenic this (Friday) evening, as one of the pictures will be a world's series baseball game between Chicago and the Athletics. It will be worth seeing, but it is not the only picture shown at the Scenic good to look at. They are all worth the price all the time.

Miss Edna Beatrice Bickle, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Bickle, of Lock Haven, who for a number of years were residents of Bellefonte, was married on Wednesday evening of last week to Albert Lee Poorman, of Castanea. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Poorman will make their home with the bride's mother.

Mrs. W. C. Bell and her family, consisting of her daughter, Miss Ida, her son, P. G. Bell, and two grand-children, moved Wednesday from their home at Pleasant Gap to the home at State College owned by McAlmont & Co. Mr. Bell having secured a good position there will begin his work immediately, while Miss Ida does not expect to continue her sewing until after Christmas.

The big football game of the season for Bellefonte will take place tomorrow between the Lock Haven Normal and the Bellefonte Academy elevens. Over one hundred rooters will accompany the Normal team to this place and they will come here determined to win, if possible. On the other hand the Academy boys are just as determined to come out victors in tomorrow's struggle, so that an exciting game can be expected.

The weather the past week has been quite winter like. Last Thursday a severe storm passed over the eastern part of the State, snow and sleet falling to a depth of twenty inches at Pottsville, ten inches at Lancaster and at various depths in other towns. Down Pennsylvania there was from two to three inches of snow but fortunately Bellefonte escaped. But on Monday night Bellefonters had a real taste of winter when about two inches of snow fell here. But it all melted on Tuesday and since then the weather has been a little milder.

The State—Bucknell game at State College tomorrow will be the last game to be played on Beaver field this season, and State's last game before her final contest with the University of Pittsburg on Thanksgiving day. The fact that Gettysburg defeated Bucknell last Saturday is no particular evidence of weakness in their team, as Gettysburg is unusually strong this year. Therefore it will be worth your while to go to the College tomorrow and see the Bucknell game. The old-time rivalry still exists between the two teams and there will be no let up from the start to the finish of the game.

Pennsylvania Stands by the Boss. The complete returns show that the Socialists polled an unusually heavy vote in many parts of the State, receiving for instance, in Northumberland, 3,587 for instance, their candidate for Governor; 2,534 in Schuylkill county, 1,718 in Westmoreland and 1,386 in Beaver.

The returns show that the Democrats carried 10 Congressional districts out of the 32 in the State. Officials, however, may make a change in one or two districts. In many of the counties no effort was made to count the vote for lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs in the hurry to get at results in the fight for the Governor, but sufficient returns have been received to show that Reynolds and Houck's plurality will be in the neighborhood of that of Tener.
