

ORRIS.—Another old soldier has responded to the last roll call in the person of Samuel H. Orris, of Milesburg, who died on Wednesday as the result of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered on Monday.

Deceased was born in Ickesburg, Perry county, July 19th, 1835. He came to Centre county when a young man and on August 16th, 1862, he enlisted as a private in company H, 148th regiment Pennsylvania volunteers. He served with exceptional gallantry during his brief term of service until May 3rd, 1863, at the battle of Chancellorsville where he was wounded three times. The last shot from the enemy struck him on the lower jaw, knocking out all his teeth and cutting off part of his tongue. He was left on the field for dead by his comrades and lay there forty-eight hours, without even a drink of water, when he was discovered and taken to the hospital. Miraculous as it may seem he recovered, but was incapacitated for further service and was discharged on July 16th, 1863. He returned to Centre county and shortly afterwards took up his residence in Milesburg where he has lived ever since. He was a member of the Methodist church and an upright, honorable citizen in every way.

On Jan. 1st, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Isabelle Barnhart who died on June 1st, 1892. Surviving him, however, are the following children: George P., of Bellwood; Mrs. E. E. Davis, Bellefonte; Mrs. E. L. Walker, East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. James Campbell, Tyrone; Misses Elizabeth and Madge at home. The funeral will be held from his late home at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. R. S. Oyer will officiate at the services and burial will be made at Curtin.

DUNLAP.—Mrs. Margaret F. Dunlap, wife of county commissioner John L. Dunlap, died at her home near Sunnyside, in Spring township, at 10.15 o'clock on Monday morning. Two weeks ago today she was taken ill and her ailment was at first diagnosed as an attack of pleurisy. Instead of the disease responding to treatment she grew worse and about the middle of last week developed an acute attack of pneumonia. Everything possible was done to combat the disease but without avail and death ended her sufferings at the time above stated.

Mrs. Dunlap's maiden name was Margaret Shutt and she was born near Jacksville on August 3rd, 1859, thus being past fifty-one years of age. She was united in marriage to Mr. Dunlap on October 9th, 1879. The first four years of their married life were spent at Pine Grove Mills and Rock and in 1883 they moved to Bellefonte and this place and vicinity has been their home ever since. Mrs. Dunlap was a kind, neighborly woman, a good wife and mother and will be greatly missed in her home as well as by her many friends. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Sarah, Jesse, Newton, Mary, Harry, Catharine, Margaret and Winifred. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. J. C. Brown, of Potters Mills; and two brothers, F. W. and S. W. Shutt, of Wellington, Ohio. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, assisted by Rev. John Hewitt, officiated at the funeral services which were held at her late home at ten o'clock yesterday morning, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

BLACK.—Mrs. Nancy Black died at the home of her son-in-law, Frank Swabb, at Pine Grove Mills, last Saturday morning, after a few days illness with heart trouble. Just before Christmas last year she fell and broke her hip, from which injury she was confined to her bed all winter. During the summer she recovered and was able to be around as usual until a few days prior to her death.

She was born in Huntingdon county over seventy-two years ago but most of her life was spent in Ferguson township. Ever since girlhood she was a member of the Presbyterian church and was a good, christian woman. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Effie Aman, of Altoona, and Mrs. Frank Swabb, of Pine Grove Mills. She also leaves one brother and two sisters, namely: James Leech, of Pittsburg; Anna, of Minnesota; and Mary, of Sandusky, Ohio. Rev. J. S. Shultz officiated at the funeral which was held on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Graysville cemetery.

HOUTZ.—Mrs. Mary Houtz, relict of the late Henry Houtz, died at her home near Linden Hall last Friday evening of heart trouble. Her illness dated back to a railroad accident which she was in several years ago and in which she had a narrow escape. Her maiden name was Mary Kline and she was born and raised in Harris township, and most of her life was spent in the vicinity of Linden Hall, where she was highly esteemed for her generous hospitality and many good and kind deeds among her neighbors. In early life she joined the Lutheran church and has since lived a consistent christian life. Her husband died about five years ago but surviving her are the following children: Harry, of Ohio; Elmer, of Boalsburg; Mrs. James Ross, Mrs. Mary Cunningham, Mrs. William Houser and Mrs. Samuel Gingerich, all of Linden Hall. The funeral was held at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, Rev. J. I. Stoncypher officiating and burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

GRESS.—Mrs. Emma Jane Gress, wife of Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall, died quite suddenly on Tuesday morning. About two weeks ago she contracted the whooping cough but it was a mild case and she was around the house as usual. Tuesday morning she got up feeling quite well and her husband went out to the woods for a day's hunt. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Gress was stricken with apoplexy and died within an hour.

Her maiden name was Miss Emma Jane Black and she was born at Adamsburg, Westmoreland county, on April 27th, 1870. She was united in marriage to Rev. Gress on September 2nd, 1903, and shortly afterwards they located at Centre Hall where Rev. Gress was called as pastor of the Reformed church, and that place had been her home ever since. She was a woman of great refinement of character, great kindness and sympathy for any one in need, and one greatly loved by every member of her husband's congregation as well as all who knew her. Her death is unusually sad because in addition to her husband she leaves three little girls, the eldest of whom is about six years old. She is also survived by one brother and two sisters.

The funeral services were held at her late home at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. They were in charge of Rev. Donat, of Aaronsburg, who was assisted by all the ministers in Centre Hall. Following the services the remains were brought to Bellefonte by conveyance and taken on the 1.07 p. m. train to her old home in Adamsburg where burial was made yesterday.

LUCAS.—Mrs. Edward Lucas died on Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, on Halfmoon hill. Mrs. Lucas came to Bellefonte from her Pittsburg home two weeks ago today, having just recovered from a bad attack of typhoid pneumonia. After her arrival in Bellefonte she suffered a relapse and her death followed.

Deceased was born in this place and was twenty-six years old. Since her marriage to Mr. Lucas she has made her home in Pittsburg. In addition to her husband she is survived by a little daughter, Catharine, her parents, two brothers and one sister, namely: Frank and George, and Mrs. Boyd Nolan. She was a member of the United Brethren church and Rev. C. W. Winey had charge of the funeral services which were held at her parent's home at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

AUTOIST HAS MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—On Wednesday afternoon George T. Bush took out his Ford runabout for the first time. He was down the state road towards Milesburg and got along fairly well until his return trip. He came up the grade to the lime kilns on low speed and when he struck the top of the hill he threw on his high speed without reducing his power. The result was the machine gave a spurt of speed and Mr. Bush lost control of same. It zigzagged from one side of the road to the other for a distance of perhaps one hundred feet then shot through the fence and down over the bank, a distance of thirty feet or more. In going over the bank the machine went right through the top of a small tree, breaking and splitting the branches but doing no damage to the trunk of the tree.

Mr. Bush, as soon as he realized that the car was going over the bank, crouched down in his seat and clung to the steering wheel. He is authority for the statement that the machine turned over sideways once or twice and when it finally landed it was right side up with Mr. Bush in his seat. Of course the machine was badly wrecked but fortunately the driver escaped with a few bruises and scratches and torn clothing.

NEW CLUB OFFICERS.—At the annual meeting of the Tyrone Country club last Thursday, held at their club house at Pennsylvania Furnace, officers for the ensuing year were elected and upon the list are the names of quite a number of old residents of Bellefonte and Centre county. The officers chosen are as follows:

President, A. G. Morris; vice president, George C. Wilson; secretary, A. M. LaPorte; treasurer, H. Himmelwright; directors, Richard Beaton, Claude Jones, R. J. Mattern, Dr. John B. Nason, R. A. Zentmyer. President Morris appointed the following standing committees: House, Richard Beaton, F. K. Lukenbach, Robert T. Garman; grounds, R. A. Zentmyer, W. E. Hoffman, A. M. Brown; finance, John D. Meyer, F. K. Mattern, E. M. C. Africa; membership, Dr. R. L. Piper, John L. Porter, H. M. Koch. A general gathering of members and their families was held at the club house yesterday.

At the reciprocity meeting of the State College Woman's club, to be held November 15th, at 8 p. m., there will be present Mrs. Edward W. Biddle, of Carlisle, president of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women; Mrs. William D. Crocker, vice president of the central district; Mrs. Harry Keller, president of the Bellefonte Woman's Club; Miss Helen E. C. Overton, regent, Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R.; Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt, president Bellefonte Parent-Teachers association, and delegates from several neighboring clubs.

—Mrs. George Ingram, of east Lamb street, is recovering very nicely from a two week's illness with pneumonia.

FINE GROVE MENTION.

John Gummo has a lime kiln in full blast. Roy Strouse is confined to his house nursing a bad cold.

Miss Bessie Bloom was a Sunday visitor at the G. B. Fry home.

Fred Randolph, who has been ill the past ten days, is some better now.

D. H. Krebs will till the fertile acres on the D. G. Meek Bunker hill farm.

The crop of Thanksgiving birds is light and prices are correspondingly high.

D. G. Meek is re-roofing the old home mansion at Fairbrook with slate shingles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Muser spent Sunday among friends at State College.

Frank McFarlane is having his tennat house painted with a fresh coat of paint.

We have met the enemy but they are not all ours. So up and at 'em again, boys.

N. E. Hess and wife spent Sunday at the home of grandpa McWilliams at Fairbrook.

O. M. Sheetz has been laid up with a badly sprained ankle caused by a runaway team.

Milton Kline and wife came up from Centre Hall and visited friends at Oak Hall Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Horner spent the first day of the week at the Jacob Zong home at Linden Hall.

Yesterday Paul Muser and family flitted to one of the State College farms of which he will have full charge.

Farmer Henry Gingerich was in hard luck last week losing by death a fine steer and a valuable brood mare.

Miss Grace Dale with her friend, Miss Sophie Johnson, of New Jersey, visited friends at Centre Hall last week.

Mrs. Eather Nearhood and sister, Miss Clair Boret, are visitors at the N. C. Neidigh home at White Hall this week.

Joe Markle, who went west years ago, is back visiting friends down Pennsylvania, with headquarters with his brother George.

Rev. John Houseman and a bunch of nimrods came down from Altoona for a hunt and got a nice bunch of rabbits and squirrels.

John H. Williams was called to the bedside of his mother who is suffering with a stroke of paralysis, at her home at Huntingdon.

J. A. Fortney, of Tusseyville, transacted business in town Tuesday and leased the Snyder farm on the Branch, to take possession April 1st, 1911.

William Quinn and William Hoy, two noted nimrods of Pittsburg, are here for their share of the game with headquarters at the St. Elmo.

Miss Ruth Ross is nursing a broken ankle caused by a fall and J. M. Weiland is housed up with a broken leg sustained in a fall from an apple tree.

On account of the arrival of a nice chubby boy at the home of Ed. Lucas grandpa Samuel Grove is walking on air. The lad has been christened Theodore Kermit.

Butcher Ray with his chum came down to the Junction for their share of bunnies and bagged three dozen rabbits and three small squirrels and other game in a two days hunt.

N. O. Dreible left for Wilmerding today to see his friend, Oscar Bowersox, who had three fingers badly mashed. Blood poisoning is feared and he is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Mary Walker, of Minnesota, is visiting her brother, R. R. Randolph, at the St. Elmo. While here she paid a visit to that great institution of learning State College. She is the wife of Rev. Walker, a son of the late Martin Walker, so well and favorably known by the older set.

Farmer George Rowe, tenant on the ex-sheriff Lehler farm on the South side, last Thursday while thrashing at the James Kimpfort barn, a plank fell from the cross loft striking him on the head. The next day Mr. Rowe was about the cook stove at the dinner hour and in removing the tight fitting lid from a large coffee boiler received a rush of steam in his face, making a bad scald.

Mine host of the St. Elmo, Keed Randolph, had an experience Sunday he does not seem want to happen again, while driving his two-in-hand over Tussey mountain the clip on one side of the tongue broke and in the twinkling of an eye the buggy ran up a bank upsetting. It was with much difficulty that he extricated himself and fortunately he escaped with but a few scratches and bruises. With the good luck of heavy ropes he managed to fix up and get home that night.

SPRING MILLS.

We had quite a snow storm here on Thursday evening last, the first real storm of the season.

Tuesday was election day, and almost as quiet as Sunday, no excitement anywhere, not even at the polls.

Allison Bros., have their new mill dam about completed. It is a very massive and substantial piece of work.

Mr. Zettle is putting down the foundation walls for his new residence on the main road to the railroad station—a very desirable location.

Turkeys don't seem to be very plentiful in our valley. I guess we will be forced to fall back on a small piece of sausage for Thanksgiving dinner.

All our merchants report a satisfactory business during last month. Commercial agents stopping off here say that traffic on the road is fair, orders quite numerous but small.

Our hunters are becoming disgusted to tramp through the woods and in mud puddles all day, and then return in the evening almost empty handed. They say is far from a joke, more like labor lost.

J. H. Rishel has placed above his store entrance a very large and handsomely lettered sign which adds greatly to the appearance of the store front.

H. I. Brian & Co. have also placed in the scale and office building at their coal yard a very conspicuous sign.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Steely, of Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Miller, of Mill Hall; Mrs. Owens, of Lewisport; Mr. Nofsaker, of Roaring Springs; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Miller, and son Charles, of Potters Mills; George Goodhart, Mrs. Daupt, Mr. and Mrs. Foreman, Mrs. Maggie Kremer, Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Mary Goodhart, all of Centre Hall, were here last week attending the funeral of Mrs. Nofsaker.

Mrs. Jane D. Nofsaker died on Tuesday morning last week from general debility and the infirmities of old age. She was born in Spring Mills, on March 6th, 1817, and consequently was aged 93 years, 7 months and 25 days, possibly the oldest woman in Gregg township, if not in Centre county, and was familiarly known by everyone as "Aunt Jane," a term she acquired when quite a young woman and which she retained during her life time. Previous to her marriage she was Miss Jane D. Kennelley, a daughter of Daniel Kennelley, at that time a well known and popular cooper of the south side of town, which is now called the "Hill." On September 7th, 1843, she was married to Michael Nofsaker, an able and skillful mechanic of his day, who died twenty-seven years ago. In early life Mrs. Nofsaker became a member of the Methodist church, and took great interest and an active part in all the proceedings pertaining to church work, the Sunday school particularly, and continued in active service over a generation, until advancing age commanded a halt. Kind, liberal and generous almost to a fault, the distressed never appealed to her in vain. She would willingly share the last morsel, part with her last coin to cheer and make glad a sad and desolate home. There was no ostentation in her kindly acts, for the left hand never knew what the right hand did and those whom she aided and befriended, now having bid the world good night, she is free from all pain and care for the grave is only perfect rest, will shed many a silent tear. Mrs. Nofsaker retained all her faculties until within the past year, when she commenced failing rapidly, and for the last month or two was almost helpless. They had no children. Of her father's family she is survived by only one sister, Mrs. M. B. Hering, of this town. The funeral services were held on the following Thursday and largely attended, Rev. G. W. McInlay, of Dudley, officiating, assisted by Rev. J. Max Lantz, of the Pennsylvania charge, and Rev. Dr. Schuyler, of Centre Hall. Interment in the Spring Mills cemetery.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.

This kind of weather makes you reach for more covers.

Rev. Bubb, from Salona, was seen in our town last Monday.

D. L. and Ward Markle, of State College, were at home last Sunday.

James Wilson, of Salona, spent Monday with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Carner.

Mrs. James H. Carner went to Salona on a visit with friends and relatives there.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hinds was buried here last Saturday.

Roy M., son of William Decker, who is teaching at Muncy, Pa., spent Sunday with his mother.

J. C. Bergstresser, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. E. L. and Mrs. Bergstresser.

Miss Pauline Taylor, of Mackeyville, visited at the home of J. H. Carner Friday and Saturday.

D. Alton Deitrich, of Rock Forge, enjoyed the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Deitrich last Sunday.

Frank Geary, of Lock Haven, came up for a day's hunt last Saturday and went home with a big wild turkey.

Those who went to Lock Haven on business last Saturday were Mrs. W. H. Markle, Mrs. L. H. Youcum and Mrs. A. H. Spayd.

The following persons went to Bellefonte on business last Friday, Wm. H. Markle, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Miller and Mrs. D. A. Deitrich.

Charles Carner and his friend, Mr. McCracken, who are students at the Williamsport business College, spent a few days at the parental home here.

LEMONT.

Tuesday brought snow.

The farmers are still busy husking corn.

The cold days of late must be part of the storm that passed around us.

The temperance lecture Saturday evening, was well attended and all were well pleased.

The wild-geese were seen Saturday, on their southward journey, so winter cannot be far off.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams are rejoicing over the little daughter brought to their home by the stork.

Butchering is now on with the hogs fat but very scarce; for they cannot be purchased at less than 11 cents per pound live weight.

The new roof put on the Lemont station by the Pennsylvania Railroad company ought to keep the interior of the building good and dry.

Sunday noon Spring creek was the lowest that it has been for many years, some places being so low that a person could walk across on the dry stones.

Frank Rickard and family moved from Altoona, into part of the house where they will stay until spring, when they will move into the Drecker property, which he has purchased.

Profs. Eters and Koch visited among the High schools in these parts recently to note what progress they have made in the last two years. It is hoped that the work was found up to the standard.

An English Author Wrote:

"No shade, no shine, no fruit, no flowers, no leaves,—November!" Many Americans would add no freedom from catarrh, which is so aggravated during this month that it becomes constantly troublesome. There is abundant proof that catarrh is a constitutional disease. It is related to scrofula and consumption, being one of the wasting diseases. Hood's Sarsaparilla has shown that what is capable of eradicating scrofula, completely cures catarrh, and taken in time prevents consumption. We cannot see how any sufferer can put off taking this medicine, in view of the widely published record of its radical and permanent cures. It is undoubtedly America's Greatest Medicine for America's Greatest Disease—Catarrh.

COFFEE

When goods advance on the market the retail price usually follows. But in regard to the recent advance in Coffees we have not followed the ordinary course, either by marking up the price or reducing the quality. We have found a new and more favorable market in which to buy the goods and maintain the high standard of our leaders at 18c, 20c and 25c per pound.

If you are using a Coffee at 20 cents per pound try our 18 cent grade.

If you are paying 25 cents for your Coffee try our 20 cent goods.

If or you are buying at 30 cents try the high grade goods we sell at 25 cents per pound.

This is a severe test but we are very confident we can make good. Give us a trial, and please mention in which paper you saw this advertisement.
