Bellefonte, Pa., November 11, 1910.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications ned unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

husked.

--- The ladies of the Reformed church will hold a Thanksgiving market and an apron sale on Tuesday and Wednesday of Thanksgiving week.

--- Dr. Kilpatrick is happy again because he has recovered his dog "Flake." The canine was found at the home of a resident of Marsh Creek.

m. Thanksgiving day. The Rev. C. W. over the dead body of Mrs. Baudis. It ing. Nothing new was divulged on the mountain and down in the vicinity of by the men's chorus.

Taylor, of this place.

Warfield's friends were invited.

-Seventy-two invitations were issued for the card luncheon given by the Misses Mary and Helen Ceader, at their home on Allegheny street, Thursday, between the hours of eleven and three.

-At a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. this evening at five o'clock.

by the score of 34 to 0; Indiana Normal upon her mouth and chin and at first did some one running away from where the ning from the alley at Parrish's drug and the Bellefonte Academy played a 0 to not know she had been murdered, and it body was found, and the running was store to Bishop street, including the Dia-0 game and the Bellefonte High school de- was only after a close examination that heavy like that of a man. feated the Lock Haven Normal reserves they discovered her throat was cut. 6 to 0.

miners in Snow Shoe had gone out on a to the house and remained there all night-

-The venerable Rev. George D. Pennepacker, of Huntingdon, well known by Bellefonte and Centre county Methc. main cut. dists, suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy at his farm near Marklesburg last Saturday, but his condition is not considered

--- Harry Otto spent two days out in the Scootac region last week hunting for the nicest bunch of game brought to Bellefonte so far this season; and of course he shot them all himself.

Mrs. Isaac Gates, of Tyrone, but former- rection and found Mrs. Baudis' body ly of Centre county, was married to Miss lying along the path in a field of grass, Elsie Nieweg, of Norwood, near Philadel- one hundred and eighty steps from the mission will be 50 cts., seats in the phia, last week. The wedding took place house. at the home of the bride's uncle, E. District attorney W. G. Runkle was Walter Spain, and was quite an elaborate sworn and testified that in his capacity adelphians an opportunity to attend the to a telephone message informing him of lege today (Friday) a special train left and sheriff Hurley, policeman Henry there at 11:30 o'clock last night. Many Dukeman and Harry Goss went to the visitors are already at the College and the Delige home on the morning of the 17th.

have homes for; preferring to give them vious, including coat, trousers, shirt, hat in adoption. Also a girl seven years old and shoes. He brought the same home for whom a home is desired. Any person with him and kept them under lock and desiring one can secure particulars by key until October 20th when he personinquiring of Miss Emily Natt.

-On Thursday evening of last week Jerome Harper came to Bellefonte from his home in Glen Campbell on a visit. At the time he had affection on his face which he believed to be barber's itch. The affection spread rapidly to his arms and chest and Saturday he went out to the Bellefonte hospital where he has since take personal charge of the operations its admission. up his residence in Philipsburg.

Richard Stewart Topelt.

fly. Bock Haven held Bucknell Varsity in a heavy expense. to one touchdown. The game will be On cross-examination Mr. Chambers being kicked off the job, and he very jucalled at 3 p. m. Admission 25 cents.

Bert Delige Held for

Dr. Pond Testified to Finding Blood Spots on Clothing and Judge Deems Evidence Sufficient.

D. Zerby.

Winey will preach the sermon. Music was the morning of the 17th when he got cross-examination. -Mr. and Mrs. Warren Elsey, of cot in the Baudis home. He impanelled testified to the finding of the tracks on as deep into the wilds as possible. Of marriage Mrs. Elsey was Miss Berenice had been cut, which caused her death. in the direction from where Mrs. Baudis' bear or two, as they are also said to be There was one large cut extending from body was found up over the hill to a deep quite plentiful this season. -A surprise party, altogether ar- ear to ear, cutting completely through cut near the Delige home. Saturday night, to which twenty of Mrs. cles of the spinal column were found trail.

general strike, but an investigation proved Dr. S. G. Coons, of Scotia, testified to that they had only laid off for the elec- having been summoned on the night of tion and all are back at work again as the murder and finding the woman with her throat cut. He also testified to there being several minor incisions in the muscles of the spinal column, and inside the

Mrs. Baudis had been there to spend the early part of the evening on October 16th, and that she was in good health.

John Sulky, father of the dead woman small game and came in with seven fied that his daughter left home about five burn, Millheim and Penn Hall. pheasants, three squirrel and a rabbit, o'clock in the evening. That about 7.30 o'cleck, or a few minutes earlier, while an's scream from the direction of the at State College, tomorrow, Saturday work of laying the brick was done by the in Bellefonte attending to business, went on to -Samuel C. Gates, son of Mr. and corn field. He at once went in that dias an officer of the law he went to Scotia -For the purpose of affording Phil- on the night of October 16th in response Pennsylvania Day exercises at State Col. Mrs. Baudis' mysterious death. That he indications are that a large crowd will be Bert was not there but was helping a neighboring farmer raise potatoes. He the club or not, as well as every man who time to get to a place of safety, but the -The Children's Aid society of Belle. was sent for and Mr. Runkle accompanfonte have two little girls, aged four and | ied him to his room and sucured the | to be present. one years respectively, they would like to clothing he had worn the evening preally delivered them to Dr. Pond, of State College, at his office in Crider's Exchange. On cross-examination Mr. Runkle stated that when he got the clothes he wrapped them up in a bundle and took them over to the Furnace company's office where he wrapped them and tied a string around them and that they were either in his possession or under lock and key from that time until delivered to Dr. Pond.

-A young son was recently born to ing and making an examination thereof. in the Scoatac region, to hunt rabbits. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Topelt, On the waistband of the trousers he found Late in the afternoon they were attractpeople of Bellefonte as Miss Elizabeth wrist of the right sleeve. An analysis in a trap that had been set by Mr. Lovett Brouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. showed the spots to be blood and ex. Brouse, of Thomas street. The young actly similar to human blood. A piece of killed and when dressed weighed one former was chosen by a vote of 18 to 16. man, by the way, has been christened fence rail on which there also was a spot hundred and seventy-five pounds. Lovett -R. F. Niehis, of Philipsburg, has jected to its being admitted as evidence the late Jenkins David, near Snow Shoe. produced to show that the prisoner had day. The property includes four mines in crossed the fence. The judge decided active operation and two more active that the piece of rail was a proper exhibready to open. Mr. Niehis expects to it but the district attorney did not press though for the present he will not give At this juncture the court took occasion to caution the editors present in the -Beilefonte lovers of football will matter of what they would say in regard M. Orr, who had charge of the work, have another chance to witness a close to the hearing and the prisoner, as any gave the men the alternative of going and exciting game tomorrow on Hughes article tending to influence the public back to work for the same wages-$1.75 Field when Lock Haven Normal's eleven mind and prejudice the people against per day-or not going to work at all, and plays the Academy. These teams are the prisoner might be good grounds for all of them returned to work but two. bitter rivals and they will make the fur a change of venue and entail the county He also gave the walking delegate the asked Dr. Pond the difference between diciously chose the former.

Mrs. Baudis' Murder. of the corpuscles. He further stated that will open next Tuesday morning and blood.

testified that he and Bert had spent Sun- hunt. Reports from woodsmen and othday at Pinetop near Waddle, and that ers who have been in the mountains are At a habeas corpus hearing yesterday they both had been drinking some. When that deer will be more plentiful this year Bert Delige (colored) was held for trial asked how much he stated that they only than last, a fact hunters will surely apfor the murder of Mrs. Hilda Baudis, of had two kegs of beer. It was about preciate, though that is no evidence that Scotia, on the night of October 16th, and seven o'clock in the evening when they they will meet with better success. Last number of farmers in Centre county with was remanded to jail without bail for triquite a lot of their corn in the field unfact that the court house was crowded passed Mrs. Baudis came out and started county that were killed in previous years. shows that considerable interest is mani- home. She walked faster than they did And yet there were deer in the woods, as fested in the case. At the hearing dis- and passed them on the way, bidding many were seen, but at too great distance trict attorney W. G. Runkle was assisted them good evening. The witness testi- to offer even a possible good shot. by N. B. Spangler and the prisoner was fied that he and Bert went into the house Last year, as well as in some previous represented by E. R. Chambers and W. together and that he took off his shoes, years, the hunters who went farthest out The first witness called was Dr. S. M. and did not see Bert again until he went the Seven mountains had the poorest Huff, of Milesburg, coroner of Centre up to bed at ten o'clock when he found luck. Most of the deer killed were nn the county. He testified to having received him in the room, the two sleeping togeth- foothills of the Alleghenies or on the first -Union Thanksgiving services will a summons to go to Scotia on the even- et. That he did not know Mrs. Baudis and second ranges of the Seven mounbe held in the Reformed church at 10 a. ing of October 16th to hold an inquest had been murdered until the next morn- tains. Deer were even killed on Brush again be hostess at a large card party once to the place from which the cry of woman scream in the direction of the Shoe west to beyond Philipsburg. terror came, being among the first to ar- cornfield. He at once ran in that direc--On the grid iron last Saturday rive upon the scene. They found Mrs. tion and found his mother. While run-State College defeated St. Bonaventure Baudis lying on the ground with blood ning there he stated he plainly heard paved portion of the new state road, run-ment the court stated that he deemed the the town but every resident of the bor--On Tuesday a report was spread the woman lay, and the body was quite evidence sufficient to hold the prisoner ough has an opportunity to pass judgbroadcast all over the State that all the warm. He also helped to carry the body for trial and he was remanded into the ment upon it. That it is an improvement location. custody of the sheriff.

> in a serious condition, the result of an Mrs. J. A. Aiken was the first of the proved. attack of vertigo while in the bath tub property owners along the street to fix Saturday night.

Miss Rilla Ghener testified that she of the Lutheran church Rev. B. R. M. property owners will also bring their lived on the hill north of Scotia and that Sheeder will sever his connection with the Sheeder will sever his connection with the same on November 21st and go to Ciarion as pastor of the Lutheran church there. The Aaronsburg charge which will thus be left vacant consists of the and who made his home with her, testi- churches at Aaronsburg, St. Paul's, Co-ball game will be played on Beaver field, will come of it is not yet known. The afternoon. The Lewisburg rooters will John W. Orr Construction company and Lemont at noon for a short visit with Mr. and come to State by special train and have they did a good job. an idea that they can win the game. Adgrand stand 50 cts. extra, the bleachers 25 cts. extra. Parties in automobiles will be charged 75 cts. each admission.

---- Mrs. Edward W. Biddle, of Carlisle, president of the Pennsylvania Fed- tained a number of contusions on the eration of Women, will be in Bellefonte on Wednesday night of next week, No- seriousness of his injuries, it is believed vember 16th, and will make an address he will recover. King had charge of the Centre Hall on Friday. before the Civic club in the Reformed blast and after loading the hole he apchapel. Every woman in Bellefonte re- plied the match to what he supposed gardless of whether they are members of was an ample length of fuse to allow him believes in civic righteousness, is invited

Bertha Meshaw, who went to the Mont Alto sanitorium last spring for treatment, will be pleased to know that her sojourn there has been very beneficial. During the six months she has been there she has gained about fifteen pounds in every way than she has in a year. She will remain there some months longer until her strength has completely returned.

---On Thursday of last week Michael Lovett, of Monument, and Herbert Clark, Dr. Pond testified to receiving the cloth of Blanchard, went out on the Big Run, several days previous. The bear was

> -Last Saturday afternoon "Crow" Brown constituted himself a local walking delegate labor agitator on the brick paving job in the Diamond and succeeded in inducing the laborers on the job to go on a strike for higher wages. John alternative of making himself scarce or human blood and ox blood and the latter OPENING OF DEER HUNTING SEASON.stated that it was easily told by the size The deer hunting season in Pennsylvania there is no other blood like human from all indications the usual number of Centre county hunters will go out on the Aaron Delige, a cousin of Bert Delige, mountains for their two weeks annual sat down on a chair and went to sleep on the Alleghenies or deepest into the in Pittsburgh. Coburn. But notwithstanding this fact there and found the body laid out on a R. E. Cronemiller was recalled and the majority of the hunters prefer going Pittsburg, are rejoicing over the arrival a jury and held an inquest. His examin- the old mud dam, some distance from course this has another advantage, as of a nice little daughter. Prior to her ation showed that Mrs. Baudis' throat the regularly traveled path, and leading they stand a good chance of getting a

The Panther hunting club will leave for ranged for by Mary Warfield, was given the flesh of the front of the neck and Judson Williams and James Hilyare their camp in the Scootac region on the for her mother, Mrs. Frank Warfield, back to the spinal column. In the musthree or four minor incisions. From the Thomas Baudis, the ten-year-old son of entire party will not go out tomorrow but evidence the jury returned a verdict that the murdered woman was called. He those who will compose the advance guard day for Binghampton, N. Y., where he is now Mrs. Baudis came to her death at the stated that he did not know the meaning will be John Knisely, Linn McGinley, Harry hands of parties unknown. On cross ex- of an oath but the court heard his state- Gerberich, W. C. Cassidy, Henry Kline, Edamination the doctor admitted that he ment. He said that he and his brother mund Blanchard and one or two others. The found the body in the house and not at Charles had spent the day at State Col- balance of the party will go out for part the place where the crime was committed. lege and arrived home about 6.30 o'clock. of the time during their two weeks camp. R. E. Cronemiller testified that he with His sister Mary and grandfather were The Curtin township crowd and the T. A. Shoemaker Tuesday evening, for Frank Fields and others living on the hill the only persons at home when they got Blanchard party will also go into the George R. Meek and his wife, fourteen between Scotia and the Baudis home there. He was standing on the porch Scootac region while various camps will covers were laid. Mrs. Shoemaker will heard a woman's scream and went at with his grandfather when he heard a be pitched in the mountains from Snow

> THAT BRICK PAVING.—At last the brick mond is practically completed and not At the conclusion of the boy's state. only the business people in that part of nicely-graded street and improves the --- Mrs. Joseph Miller is at her home appearance of that locality very much. her pavement to correspond with the street by putting down one of con- Windy city and having seen several of the street by putting down one of conice as pastor of the Aaronsburg charge on Allegheny street. Other date. There is now some talk among the will in all probability settle in Bellefonte. property owners from Parrish's drugstore W. A. Lyon, was an arrival home the latter part north on Allegheny street to Linn street of last week. He had been working in Pittsburg --- The annual Bucknell-State foot- ed, instead of asphalt-macadam, but what

BADLY INJURED IN PREMATURE EXa blast at the plant of Chemical Lime ty, to join his wife, who has been visiting relatives company, up Buffalo Run, last Saturday, valley, Mr. and Mrs. Bell will return to their Oliver King, of Lyontown, had one leg, home next week. one arm and several ribs broken and susface and body, but notwithstanding the fuse was evidently defective as King had gotten only a short distance from the -The Bellefonte friends of Miss place when the blast went off. He was thrown some distance and was a human target for a shower of flying rock and

His fellow workmen, who saw the ac cident, expected to find him dead but instead found him with the above injuries weight and feels stronger and better in and conscious. He refused to be taken to the Bellefonte hospital and after he was made as comfortable as possible he was taken to his home at Lyontown where he has been getting along as well as can be expected.

FOLMER ELECTED COLONEL OF TWELFTH .- At a meeting of the line officers of the Twelfth regiment, held in Sunbury last Saturday, Capt. W. L. Folmer at their home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. two spots and on the coat one spot on the ed by a disturbance in the undergrowth of Lewisburg, was elected colonel of the Topelt will be better remembered by the right lapel and three spots just inside the and going to the spot discovered a bear Twelfth regiment, N. G. P. Capt. Folmer and Col. H. S. Taylor, of this place, were the only candidates in the field and the Col. Taylor, however, alleges that the was brought forth but Mr. Chambers ob- conducts a butcher shop and boarding election was made through intimidation house at Monument and his customers and coercion and declares he will prefer purchased the coal mining interests of on the ground that nothing had been and boarders had bear meat the next charges against the guilty parties and demand an investigation and re-election. His allegation is that several members of the Guard kidnapped an officer who was pledged to weeks with the Mayo brothers, the famous sur him and kept him in their hands until geons, while Edmund is bound for New Mexico time for the election when they marched where he will spend the next four or five years or him into the room and did not allow him away from them until he had cast his vote for Folmer. The colonel, however, entirely exculpates Folmer from having anything to do in the matter.

----Arrangements have been about completed for the Meyer-McIntyre wedding, which will take place in the Presduring the month of February.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Frank K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, spent Tues--Daniel Rosenhoover, of Altoona, was a Belle fonte visitor over Sunday.

-Frank K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, was a Belle fonte visitor on election day. -Edward Allison, of Potter's Mills, was a siness visitor in Bellefonte on Saturday

-Mrs. J. Frank Bradford, of Centre Hall, was nte on a shopping tour on Saturday. -Ray Callahan, of Flemington, spent Saturday and Sunday with his cousin Ralph Struble of this

-Mrs. George Fisher and little son, of Boalsburg, are guests at the Rhine home on Logan -Mrs. Harry E. Jenkins spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Lukenbach in Tyrone -Mrs. Joseph Fox and her daughter Miss Anne, have been spending the week with friends -Mrs. Upton H. Reamer has returned home after visiting for a week with her sister in -Mr. and Mrs. John Huffman and family can to Bellefonte on Sunday in their automobile and spent the day at the Spigelmyer home. -Mrs. George H. Emerick, of Centre Hall, spent a part of the week in Bellefonte, the guest of her brother, Mr. J. C. Harper, and family. -Leander and Mrs. Green, of Milton, came up to Bellefonte last week to be for the winter with Leander's mother, Mrs. Maria Green. -Lieutenant Richard Taylor came to Bellefonte from Huntingdon on Sunday and remained over until Tuesday in order to be here for the election. -Miss Mary Brockerhoff, who has been for the past five months traveling in Europe, will sail from Genoa arriving in New York, November

-Joseph W. Lose arrived in Bellefonte from Philadelphia on Monday evening and left the next

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, of Altoona, left Bellefonte yesterday, after being with Mrs. Stover's mother, Mrs. Samuel Gault since Saturday of last week'

W. M.Grove, of Spring Mills, was one of the return judges from Gregg township on Wednesday and naturally came in to have a word or two before leaving town. -William Sproul, of Hecla Park, was in town yesterday attending to a little business for his father Mr. Samuel Sproul and part of it was to see that his paper is paid another year in advance.

-Mrs. W. C. Cassidy will leave tomorrow for a nonth's visit with friends in Pittsburg and Can' ton, Ohio, while her husband is out with the

-John Guisewhite and Robt. Hood came home from Cherrytree Saturday to be here for the election and since that have been busy getting -Dr. Finley Bell, of Lakewood, N. J.

spent Friday of last week in Bellefonte, called here by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Will Chambers, whose condition is very much im--James H. Corl came home from Chicago or World's series baseball games was in a position to deal out the real dope to the fans here. -The Misses Mary and Lila Twitmyer, of portion of the town will be very up-to- methods of dressmaking and upon their return -Jack Lyon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs.

of petitioning to have that thoroughfare for some weeks past but came home because he paved with brick, as was at first propos- was one of several thousand men laid off in definitely.

Mrs. Jack Mitchell, returning to Lock Haven in -C. C. Bell, of Coatesville, came to Bellefonte PLOSION.—In the premature discharge of the forepart of the week from Huntingdon coun-

> -On their return trip from a three weeks visit with friends in Pittsburg, Allegheny and Butler, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday and after spending the night with friends here returned to their home in

> -Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning from the south, where they have spent the greater part of the summer After devoting this week to getting in readiness for his winter's work, Mr. Walker will resume his fish business Monday.

-A very pleasant caller at this office the mor ing after the election was Mrs. D. Q. Decker, of Altoona. She was on her way home from Pine Grove Mills where she went last Saturday in company with her mother, Mrs. William Brouse, who will spend the winter in Centre county.

-Miss Sara Waite came to Bellefonte Monday from Wilmerding, to be indefinitely with her mother, who is seriously ill at her home on Thomas street. Miss Laura, another daughter came from Pittsfield, Mass., two weeks ago being here at the time of Mrs. Waite's accident.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strouse, of Pine Grove Mills, were Bellefonte visitors on Tuesday. He is election judge in the eastern precinct of Ferguson and brought down the returns while Mrs. Strouse came along to do some shopping. Both of them were pleasant callers at this office.

-Mrs. Will Kurtz, of Berlin, with her day Emily, was for a few days of the week in Bellefonte with Mr. Kurtz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz, going on to State College Thursday where they will spend Pennsylvania Day with another daughter, Miss Wilford, who is in Col-

-Frank Graham, of Milton, and his friend, Mr. Blaney, of Pittsburg, spent several days in Centre county last week for small game. When Frank used to roam over Centre county hills he knew almost to a certainty where rabbits and birds were to be found but they have evidently changed their haunts as he was not very success ful in his last week's hunt.

-Dr. R. G. H. Hayes and son Edmund left Bellefonte on Saturday evening for the west, the doctor to go to Rochester, Minn., to spend two a ranch about fifteen miles from Tower City that is, if he don't get homesick in the meant and return home.

-Dr. D. G. Stewart and landlord H. S. Ray, of the Brockerhoff house went to Philadelphia on Wednesday of last week on their way to Baltihore to see the aviation meet. But when they went down to Washington on Friday they were caught in that real winter-like blizzard, which was so bad in the national capital that it was impossible to get out and around, and as the aviation meet had to be postponed on account of the storm, they returned home on Saturday.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider are spending

-Mrs. Guthrie is the guest of Miss McCalm at her home on Linn street

-Misses Roxie Bellman and Esta Knarr, of Millheim, were Bellefonte visitors yesterd

-Mrs. Claire Williams, of Jersey City, is with her mother, Mrs. Wm. A. Lyon, who has been il for the past two weeks at her home on High St. -Mrs. Hinterlightner came from her home at

Spangler Tuesday, for a visit with her grand-mother, Mrs. Nora McClain, of Allegheny street. -Mrs. W. I. Fleming is in Harrisburg taking charge of Mrs. Ward Fleming's house, while sh and her small son, are visiting with her parents

-Miss Grace Cook left today for Philadelphia expecting to attend some special celebrations at Walnut Lane, the school from which she graduated last year.

-While down in this end of town shopping yeserday afternoon Mrs. J. M. Shutt dropped into this office for a little rest which proved a very pleasant call.

-Mrs. John L. Sommerville, of Robertsdale will leave Bellefonte today, after being since Tuesday, the guest of the Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine, at their home at "Burnham -Mrs. Philip Waddle, went to Millersville sister Mrs. Pickle, and to help her brother Wilbur in the arrangement of his new dental offices in -Mrs William Johnson with her two children Ruth and Jean, who have been in Bellefonte the

Thursday, for a visit of three weeks with her past month, will return to their home in Juniata today and will be accompanied by Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs Jame Foster -William H. Beck, one of the successful farmers of Walker township, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday and like a whole lot of other successful men could not go home without making -Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strouse, of State College, with their little daughter, drove to Bellefonte Thursday, spending a busy day in the shops and looking after other business that accumulat for the progressive farmer. -'Squire O. H. Nason, of Julian, was in town vesterday attending to a little business prepara tory to starting out to his hunting camp near Beaver to look for deer next week. That is, it his 'rheumatiz" doesn't get any worse. -Rev. J. A. Woodcock, of Birmingham, was in Bellefonte Thursday on his way for a short visit with Mrs. Woodcock, who with her little daughter Anna, is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, at GIBBONEY IN BELLEFONTE. - D. Clarence Gibboney, the well known reform lawyer of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte on Sunday evening and lectured in Petriken hall on "Civic Righteousness." He addressed two meetings in Philipsburg the same afternoon and was brought to Bellefonte by C. Y. Wagner in his automobile. The party was late getting here, it being some time past seven o'clock, and the meeting which was set to begin at 7.30 did not open until 8.20. Notwithstanding this fact the hall was well filled with those either anxious or curious to hear the speaker. While Mr. Gibboney's speech was not entirely a political one, inferentially it was undoubtedly intended to help him in his campaign for the Lieutenant Governorship. But at that it was an able address in which the speaker very concisely told of the evils existing -Mrs. J. Kyle McFarlane came up from Lock in such large cities as Philadelphia, and Haven Thursday morning, spendingla few hours the various reforms needed. He was listened to with very close attention, although he spoke ninety minutes. Mr. Gibboney left Bellefonte immediately after the meeting, having gone to Lock Haven by automobile to catch a midnight train for Philadelphia.

-Former county commissioner Philip Meyer came over from his home in Centre Hall last evening probably to talk over the election results with old friends here. It should be a matter of gratification to him that he was not one of the exs who deserted their party.

-Dr. David S. Monroe, the veteran Methodist minister, has finally succumbed to a breakdown in health after over a half century of active work in the Master's vineyard and has been compelled to relinquish his pastoral work at New Cumberland, Pa. He is now in Altoona at the home of a friend resting and husbanding his strength for the few remaining years of life yet his. Dr. Monroe is probably one of the best known and during his entire life hardest working ministers in the Central Pennsylvania conference. He was at one time pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, was presiding elder of the Altoona district and has filled so many appointments throughout the conference that he is probably better known than any minister; and his hundreds of friends wish for him a few more years of a restful, peaceful life.

-The Pullman car "Driftwood" carrying a number Pittsburgers passed through Bellefonte for State College. The gentlemen and ladies went up to be there for the Pennsylvania day exercises today.

--- Mrs. W. A. Lyon, who was quite ill for a week or so, has practically recovered her usual health.

Public Sale.

ember 23rd, 1910, sale at 10:30 sh

or produce.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. White Wheat... Rye, per bushel... Corn, shelled, per bushel... Corn, ears, per bushel... Oats, old and new, per bush