

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

The annual Presbyterian congregational meeting was called for Tuesday evening, January 10th, but was adjourned to meet Wednesday evening, January 18th, at eight o'clock sharp, in the Presbyterian chapel.

Last Friday night Mrs. William Tibbens, of Benner township, got out of bed to get more covering and in going about without a light got to the stairway and fell down, rolling and tumbling to the bottom of the flight.

At a recent meeting of the Bellefonte school board Jonas E. Wagner was elected supervising principal of all the Bellefonte schools and Charles Auman was elected principal of the High school.

John Sebring Jr., has his new garage on the alley in the rear of Spring street under roof and his own steam heating plant installed. As soon as all the frost is out of the ground he will have to dig out and remove about one hundred loads of clay before the concrete floor can be put down.

On Monday morning the trolley service on the eastern end of the Lewisburg railroad was opened up between Watsonstown, Milton and Lewisburg. By the end of another month or two the service will be extended to Millburg and probably as far east as Sunbury.

The Bellefonte Academy basketball team will play the Clearfield High school team in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this (Friday) evening at 8.30 sharp. The admission will be but twenty-five cents and all lovers of good, clean sport should attend.

The fact that the office of district attorney in Centre county now carries with it a salary of one thousand dollars a year makes it one worth while having, and already quite a number of willing young lawyers are aspirants for the nomination.

Last Saturday night about twelve o'clock Alvy Fetters, of this place, while in an intoxicated condition, went to the home of John Cogan, in Coleville, and demanded admittance. Upon being refused he proceeded to batter down the door with a stout club he carried, at the same time declaring he would kill Cogan when he got in.

The Charity Ball to be given by the Womans' Club of Bellefonte, on the night of February 14th, is the inauguration of an annual benefit, the interest of which should be so far-reaching as to include every resident of the town, and their friends wherever they may be.

HARTER.—Mrs. Lucy A. Harter, widow of the late David Harter, died on Friday, January 6th, at the old homestead in Marion township, now occupied by her son, C. M. Harter and family.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Zimmerman and was born in Union county, being 76 years, 2 months and 3 days old. When she was but a girl her parents moved to this county and located in Nittany valley, where most of her life was spent.

She is survived by two children, C. M. Harter, of Marion township, and Mrs. Koontz, wife of Rev. S. E. Koontz, of Winfield, Union county. The funeral was held from the Evangelical church on Sunday morning, burial being made in the cemetery at Jacksonsville.

BURKHOLDER.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Burkholder died at her home at Centre Hill, last Wednesday evening of paralysis. Up to the morning of that day she had been in good health; in fact was preparing breakfast when she was stricken.

Deceased's maiden name was Mary Ellen McClintic and she was born near Centre Hall on June 11th, 1845, thus being 65 years, 6 months and 23 days old. She was united in marriage to Felix M. Burkholder in September, 1876, and ever since that had lived at Centre Hill.

Her husband died in May, 1892, but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Bruce Ripka and Morris A., of Centre Hill; Wilbur E., of Bellefonte; Harry F., of Logansport, Ind., and Ammon R., of Philipsburg, N. J. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Kate Mapes, of Berlin, N. J.

PENNEPACKER.—Rev. George D. Pennepacker, D. D., passed away on Saturday afternoon at his farm home near Marklesburg, Huntingdon county, after nine week's illness as the result of a stroke of paralysis, aged 69 years and 9 weeks. He entered the ministry in 1867, and has always labored on appointments in the M. E. conference in Centre and surrounding counties, having been pastor of churches at Saxton, Birmingham, Altoona, Harrisburg, Tyrone, Bedford, Williamsport, Philipsburg, Clearfield, Mount Union, Bellefonte, Milton, Huntingdon and other places.

BARNES.—Thomas Barnes, for many years a resident of Philipsburg and the founder of Barnesboro, Cambria county, died at his winter home in Philadelphia on Wednesday morning of a complication of diseases. He was born in England in 1843 and came to this country when twenty years old and engaged in mining.

MEYERS.—Edward H. Meyers, a native of Centre county, died recently at his home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, after a brief illness. He was born at Rebersburg, this county, on July 3rd, 1847. His early life was spent in the vicinity of his birth and when twenty-five years old he went west and located in Iowa.

GLOSSNER.—On Wednesday morning of last week Henry Glossner, one of the well known residents of Nittany valley, died after a brief illness with pneumonia and heart trouble. He was eighty years old and is survived by his wife, one son and several daughters. The funeral was held on Friday, burial being made at Hubersburg.

HARTSOCK.—Mrs. Eliza Hartsock, one of the oldest women of Patton township, died on Sunday night, January 11th, of diseases incident to old age. She was a daughter of John and Eve Chambers, and was born in Patton township, about a mile from where she died, on December 18th, 1829, hence was 82 years and 24 days old.

Deceased lived her entire life in the community in which she was born and died. She was a faithful servant of God and a consistent member of the Methodist church for seventy years. She possessed those sterling traits of character which enabled her to meet all questions of life without any fear of results, trusting always to be guided and directed by Divine love.

Goss.—Mrs. Maria Goss, widow of the late Samuel Goss, died at the home of her son William, in Pine Grove Mills, on Monday afternoon. She had been in good health up to three days before her death when she suffered an attack of acute indigestion from the effects of which she died.

She was a daughter of David and Susan Harpster and was born in West Ferguson township. Had she lived until the second of March she would have been eighty-three years old. She was the last of a family of five brothers and four sisters.

HUSS.—George Huss, one of the venerable and well known citizens of Spring Mills, died on Friday evening of last week after an illness of some weeks. "Major" Huss, as he was more familiarly known among his friends and acquaintances, was born in Stuttgart, State of Wurtemberg, Germany, over sixty-nine years ago.

HOSPITAL NOTES.—There are now twenty-two patients in the Bellefonte hospital. During the week Erna Brown, Lulu Shirk and Bessie Brown were operated on for appendicitis; Daniel Shuey, of this place, underwent a slight operation. Miss Minnie Gerginski, one of the third year nurses, has a mild attack of typhoid fever; a little son was born to Mrs. Charles McCoy on Tuesday; John Hassinger, of Scotia, and Joseph Gill, of Unionville, were admitted for treatment, and Andrew Breshnock, of Clarence, was discharged on Wednesday.

HOGE.—After an illness of several weeks Mrs. Walton G. Hoge died in a Pittsburg hospital on Tuesday morning. Her maiden name was Miss Grace Laughrey and she was born at Snow Shoe, this county, on February 22nd, 1884. In April of 1910 she was united in marriage to Dr. Walton G. Hoge and since that time has lived in Pittsburg. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughrey, of Tyrone, and three brothers, John J. and F. X., of Tyrone, and Edward, of Pitcairn. The remains will be brought to Bellefonte this (Friday) morning and the funeral held from the Catholic church, of which she was a member, at ten o'clock. Burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

PHILIPS.—Cyrus N. Philips, a well known resident of Madisonburg, died on Sunday morning of pneumonia, after an illness of about a week. He is survived by his wife and eleven children, namely: William and Elmer, of Miles township; Cleon, of Spring Mills; Earl, Clarence and Nelson, at home; Mrs. Minnie Ritter, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Lizzie Duck, of Potter township; Miss Bessie, of Aaronsburg; Bertha and Margaret, at home. Two brothers also survive, W. H. Philips, of Aaronsburg, and Frank, of Akron, Ohio. The funeral was held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Reformed cemetery at Madisonburg.

RUPERT.—Mrs. Levi Rupert died at her home at Beech Creek at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning from a complication of diseases. She was 57 years and 3 months old and is survived by her husband and two sons, Frank and Fred, both at home. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Christian church cemetery at Eagleville.

BROOKS.—Mrs. Sarah Ann Brooks, wife of James R. Brooks, died of her home at Pleasant Gap on Sunday morning from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained several months ago. She was a daughter of John and Rebecca Wagner Caldwell and was born in Clinton county, being 53 years, 7 months and 10 days old. Ever since her marriage to Mr. Brooks she had been a resident of Pleasant Gap and was very highly respected by the people of that community.

HENRY.—On Saturday morning of last week William Henry, an old soldier, died at his home in Ferguson township after an illness of several months with kidney trouble. He was born at Globe Run and was sixty-four years of age. He enlisted for service in 1864 and served until the close of the war, after which he located in Ferguson township and worked at his trade as a cooper. He was twice married. His first wife died thirty-two years ago, leaving him with four sons. Some years later he married Miss Elizabeth Ward who survives with three children. He also leaves three brothers and five sisters. Rev. J. C. Shultz officiated at the funeral which was held at two o'clock on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

BEST EVER SWEET PEAS.—Sweet Peas will unquestionably be the popular flowers with people of good taste and refinement the coming season. Why? Because no other flower yields such satisfactory returns in a wealth of beautiful and fragrant blooms for so long a period. But high grade seed of the choicest kinds is absolutely necessary for the best results. And just such seed, the very finest in cultivation, compose the collection offered below. Listen.

For 25 cents I will send postpaid to any address eight half ounce packets of the loveliest named varieties in the world and with all orders I will include a packet each of the famous orchid-flowered Sweet Peas. Countess Spencer, the White Spencer and the charming new Lavender Spencer, "Asta Ohn," so much admired by experts throughout the world, and a packet of the early aster, "Queen of the Market" and one of gorgeous double poppies. And I always do better than I advertise. Coin remittance preferred.

SPECIAL OFFER: To all who will order before February 15th, I will send as an extra a packet of the magnificent new orchid flowered Sweet Pea, "Paradise Spencer," a rare treasure which will charm all who know of it. Address EDGAR A. HIGGINS, Sweet Pea Specialist, Avoca, N. Y. 56-3.

MEETING OF POMONA GRANGE.—The first meeting of Centre County Pomona Grange for this year will be held in the hall of Progress Grange Thursday, January 19th, at 9.30 a. m. At this meeting the reports of the various business enterprises connected with the Pomona Grange will be heard. All come and let us have a good time. Fifth degree will be conferred in afternoon session. D. M. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

SPRING MILLS. L. F. Snodgrass, of York, made a business trip here last week. Ice of a superior quality has been housed by one of our people, most of the ice houses having been filled.

All our merchants report a very satisfactory trade during last month, and as a whole are satisfied with the year's business. David McCool, who has been on the sick list for a week or two, is able to be about again. Quite a number of our people have the grippe. If I am rightly informed J. W. Wood will not be landlord of the Spring Mills hotel after April first. We will be very sorry to lose Mr. Wood, as he is an able landlord and a good citizen.

The blizzard like wind down this valley on Monday last, was simply a holy terror. At times it was impossible to face it, and the icy condition of the walks and roads only made bad worse. Mr. Zettle, who is erecting a fine residence on the main road to the station, has the frame up and sided. Of course the zero weather we have been having and still have, will stop all further operations. The Rebekah lodge had a festival in the old Duncan store room, now owned by C. W. Meyer on Saturday evening last which was largely attended. The lady managers deserve especial praise for the admirable manner in which they had everything arranged for the comfort of their patrons. All the eatables were of a most inviting character and quickly disposed of. Of course their chequer was greatly augmented.

RUNVILLE RIPPLINGS. Revival services are in progress. E. S. Bennett and family spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Plummer Strunk, of Wintona. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Valley View, spent Sunday with Mrs. Garbrick's grandmother, Mrs. Lida Witherite. Mrs. C. B. Friel returned home on Monday after a week's visit at State College, where her husband is employed. Morgan Shope, of Bellefonte, a grandson of Mrs. Jane Lucas, spent several days among friends here last week. The many friends of Mrs. Etta Robertson, of Philipsburg, are glad to learn that she returned from the hospital at Philadelphia last Saturday.

Mr. Lanning Irwin was chosen teacher of the young peoples bible class, namely, the Good-Cheer-Circle, owing to the absence of the former teacher, M. T. Shirk, who moved his family to Bellefonte for the winter season.

The supper which was held on Saturday night was well attended. The amount cleared was fourteen dollars and a donation of two dollars, making a total of sixteen dollars. Many thanks to those who helped the good cause along.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Carl were Oak Hill visitors Sunday. J. F. Kimport and wife were visitors in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss spent last week among friends in Altoona. Mrs. Maude Walker visited friends at Johnstown last week. Jacob Neidigh is loading a car of wheat at Penna. Furnace.

Miss Blanche Neidigh, a milliner at Altoona, came home for a brief rest. Miss Maggie Peters, a student at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was here over the holidays. Mrs. John H. Meyers is down at Hickory Corner this week seeking medical aid.

J. H. Ross and Henry Geringer were here Tuesday buying stock of all kinds. Butcher S. E. Kimport was here Tuesday after stock for his block at State College. Miss Mary Homan, a student at Lock Haven Normal, was here the past two weeks. Miss Blanche Hettinger was a welcome visitor at the M. E. Heberling home last week.

Alfred Lee has purchased the Fredericks farm, better known as the Robert Goheen farm. J. H. Hoover, of Axe Mann, was here last week taking orders for spring delivery of fruit trees. W. E. McCormick, who was home over Christmas, returned to his job at Uniontown Monday. Mrs. Hartshorn, widow of the late Col. Hartshorn, is visiting Rev. W. K. Harsh and family.

Geo. Potter Jr. has rented the old Nathan Grove farm to take possession April 1st, 1911. Fred Goss, a brakeman on the passenger on the Penna. is greeting old chums hereabouts this week. Oscar Bowersox, who is in a Pittsburg hospital being treated for blood poison, is now much improved. Miss Florence Giboney, one of the Central telephone exchange girls, was ill last week but is now better.

Matthew Goheen lost a valuable cow last Thursday. Dr. Nissley administered medical aid but came to late. D. B. Louder, after a prolonged visit among friends at Pittsburg and in Blair county, returned home Friday. Wm. Beck, formerly of this place but now of Blair county, will make sale and move to Ohio the first of March.

O. P. Bloom and family strolled over old Tussey and spent Sunday with Mrs. Bloom's parents at McAlevy's Port. George Dunlap is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little daughter at his home on Water street. Grant Charles, the cake and candy man, did up our merchants on Monday, after having a wreck in a snow drift west of us.

Mrs. Sadie Gardner closed her house in the Glades last week and went to Jersey City to spend the winter with her son Harry. Mrs. W. H. Goss and Grandmother Dannelly are confined to bed, suffering with a general breaking down of the system. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peters, of Oak Hill, enjoyed the sleighing and spent Tuesday at the home of grandpa Everts, on Water street. Mr. M. A. Dreibleib, who went to the Wills Eye hospital several weeks ago to have his eyes treated, returned home last Friday quite well.

Walter Weaver pulled in his threshing last week, after hulling 50,000 bushels of grain during the season. Wm. Glenn had the largest wheat crop. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolf are mourning the death of their baby boy, William, who died of pneumonia at their home at Oak Grove last Monday. George Carner has purchased the J. Warren Ingram farm for $9,500, and will take possession April 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram will visit friends in the west during the next year.

The Buffalo Run people very kindly remembered their minister, Rev. Harsh, last Wednesday evening when they came in sled loads, to the parsonage at Lemont. It was in the shape of a donation party and they filled the pastor's pantry and granary. H. N. Krebs and daughter Lucy, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Everts, Bert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Keller were among the mourners at the Mrs. Fleming funeral at Steffey's church last Saturday. The lady was a sister of Squire Keller of this town and had frequently visited here. Geo. Bell and mother enjoyed the sleighing from Spruce Creek and spent Sunday among friends in town. Mrs. Bell remained with her mother who was ill. They left for home Monday morning, just in time to receive the sad news that her mother died soon after her departure.

Frozen to Death in Sleigh. The extreme cold weather is held responsible for the death of Elmer C. Campbell, a freight hauler, whose dead body was found lying in the bottom of his sleigh in the business section of Utica, N. Y., Thursday. Campbell, who was about fifty years old, lived at Stittville, a dozen miles north of Utica, and it is assumed that he was overcome by the cold while driving to this city. Fire and Panic in Church. Twenty-one persons are dead and many others may die as the result of a fire and panic in the chapel of the Hacienda Cardenas, at San Luis Potosi, Mex. The fire was caused by the candles on the altar and most of the deaths occurred in the panic-stricken rush of the worshippers to get out of the small church. Quakes Raise Lake on Town Site. Messages received in St. Petersburg from Tashkent, Russian Turkestan, say there are confirmed rumors that the towns of Przhvaisk and Pishpek in the territory of Semirychensk, were destroyed by an earthquake and that a lake has formed on the site of the former place. Boy of Five Kills Grandmother. After his father had been arrested in connection with the shooting to death of his grandmother, a five-year-old boy at Danville, Ky., confessed that he had shot her accidentally while pointing an old shotgun at her in fun. He hid in an outbuilding all night.