Bellefonte, Pa., January, 13, 1911.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

---The mid-winter examinations were held in the High school this week.

-Marcy Hunter is one of the coasting victims of the past week, having been | tion. run into by another sled, though not seriously injured.

Mrs. Bartley and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, of Bishop street, and Mrs. Nancy Orbi son, of Spring street.

--- Thomas H. Murray Esq., the well known attorney of Clearfield, was married Reno, at Sharon, Pa.

LIVERY STABLE FOR RENT.-A large brick stable in the best business part of the town. Address, P. O. box 247. Belle-56-2-3t

-In another column of today's paper will be found an advertisement offering for rent the livery stable recently oc- been in filling the order when we tell you this spring. Quite a number of farmers cupied by Baum's livery, in the rear of Lyon & Co's store.

er, who have been ill at their home on and Sam's belongings were loaded onto life. The beginning of next month will Allegheny street, for several weeks are it, but spurning the comforts of the cars witness the opening of the public sale reported as being much better and well he hooked up his own horse and hit the season, which will continue until the last on the way to recovery.

--- The engagement of John R: Bartruff, formerly of this place but now of Waltham, Mass., and Miss Cora Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, has been announced, the wedding to take place in June.

---The Commercial Travelers' association of Philipsburg will present a petition to the Legislature asking for an appropriation of $20,000 for the purpose of band together so that it was the longstraightening Moshannon creek, at that

Mrs. William Bell property on Thomas the house and continue her residence there.

-Last Friday evening a small fire occurred in the room on Bishop street occupied by the Chemical Closet company as a store room, caused by the leaking of a coal oil stove. Fortunately the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

--- J. D. Murray, of Centre Hall, recently sold his dwelling house and furniture store room in that place to Samuel W. Moore, of Germantown, near Philadelphia, and the latter will move his family there and make that place his fuOthers who have no interest in its local and they were all submerged in several in Bellefonte all last week and held the we heard but yesterday stands out unique. nearby house got dry clothing and made for same, which he did and, although the week of prayer services. He is an able preacher and the congregation was well Seville, Ohio. He was speaker of the day they returned their borrowed clothing nally granted last Friday and received by pleased with him. While here he was House of Representatives in Ohio, in 1852, and secured their own togs. the guest of Mr. William Humes and and for the past 35 years has been presi-Gen. James A. Beaver.

--- The members of the Undine fire company had dutch lunch at their build. his eyesight is some what impaired his ing on Bishop street Tuesday evening, having as their guests members of the Logan fire company and representatives of the press. The evening was passed very pleasantly by all present.

-The new vestibule trains put in service on the Bald Eagle valley on Tuesday look so fine and will, no doubt, prove so much more comfortable to the traveler that Supt. Johnston will follow this advance up by equipping of the valley trains with the modern coaches.

--- A sledding party of eighteen children from the C and D classes of the High school are anticipating being taken tonight by Frank Musser to his home a short distance from Bellefonte, where and long haired resident of Eagleville they have arranged for an oyster supper and will spend the evening.

--- A. C. Mingle has had plans prepared for a row of brick houses he will build the coming summer on Logan street, between Spring and Allegheny streets. The houses will contain five or six rooms and will be for renting purposes.

Pennsylvania at Mill Hall has been com- tion, though she will likely be able to obpleted and put in use and patrons of tain a verdict compelling her husband to these two railroads will naturally appre- support herself and children. ciate the improved comforts and facilities afforded by the new building.

-Miss Lela Ardery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ardery, last week resigned her position as clerk at The Index and on Tuesday morning went into the law office of W. Harrison Walker Esq., as assistant stenographer. Miss Carrie Miller succeeds her as clerk in The Index.

-The natural crop of ice this year firm who has not harvested bountifully The scene is cast at Ft. Reno in the has only himself to blame. Ice has been cut from ten to fourteen inches thick and in every detail. of excellent purity. Part of the supply in Bellefonte was shipped here from Hecla, having been cut on the lake there on exhibition in an Altoona store a fine specimen of black bear. It was shot by were elected for the ensuing year: Presi- they are not considered good enough for who drop out at the holiday vacation for month ago and had been kept in cold stor-

THEY LANDED SAM.—The Pennsylvania to government bonds, it is the greatest Bert Delige will be named before next tel and the hotel at Centre Hall. In the this without any resentment for the disappearance of our pass three years ago.

They wanted Sam up at Tyrone for the dulcet tones he can emit from the -Among the sick of Bellefonte are large end of a cornet. They wanted him for the Company band that is forming up job worth over a hundred a month as long as he had that horse and wagon and a lot of most congenial cronies on the on Friday of last week to Miss Fannie streets here. Sam has always had that peculiar something that lurks in the bones of all native born Bellefonters and keeps pulling them back to the old place whether they want to return or not. It's like the hook worm and there's no fighting it off. Mr. Sousa Sausser wanted Sam and so the order went forth to get him.

You can imagine what trouble there has that it has taken over six months to will sell part of their stock while a large finally entice our drayman who doubles -Both Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shoemak- in brass. Last week a car was sent down into other business or retire to private township road for the thirty-three mile drive to Tyrone.

> Good-bye Sam. Fare thee well You've gone to Tyrone

Seriously, the loss of Mr. Bryant to Bellefonte is really a lamentable one. He was an exceptional musician and seemed to have the ability to hold the Coleville est lived musicial organization this community ever enjoyed. It was his -Calvin Troup has purchased the playing and his devotion to the band that made it always so pleasing and we regret street that the Moerschbachers had hoped exceedingly anything that contributes to to secure. Mrs. Bell will retain rooms in its disruption quite as much as the loss of its star cornet soloist.

> PROBABLY WITHOUT AN EQUAL-Really it would be little wonder if the WATCH-MAN became conceited. Of course we just naturally have to own to a little of it, but the grist of nice things that finds its way to our desk most every day has grown so great lately that our labors really seem to be labors no more. What a pleasure it is, too, to know that there dent of the Ohio Insurance Co. Mr. Dannley, of Seville, writes us that though mind is as alert as ever and he takes long walks every day. One of the objects of these walks is to visit the Dannley store once a week to hear the WATCH-MAN read.

Mr. Dannley says he does not care for the basket-ball and foot-ball news, but the "Ink Slings" and editorials seem to stir up the spirit of Democracy in him like nothing else could possibly do.

We feel flattered indeed at the appreciation shown by this wonderful Ohioan who is so near a century old and so blessed with the retention of all his faculties.

AGAIN IN THE LAW'S CLUTCHES .- Wilwho at the last term of court was convicted of assault and battery on his wife, was again arrested last Friday on a warrant sworn out by his wife charging him upon furnishing bail for his appearance a bath and be modern in every way, and his wife left home at the time she claim. free. ed her husband assaulted her and has re---- The new joint station of the New fused to return it is not believed she will York Central and Central Railroad of be able to sustain the charge of deser-

THE FLAMING ARROW.—This play will Tuesday evening, January 17th. The story is one of which the emotional interest is intense, the comedy element unusually strong and the sensational features make it equally attractive to the gallery and parquet. The story centers around "White Eagle" an Indian brave and "The White Lilly" a beautiful daughhas been very plentiful and the man or ter of Col. Fremont of the U. S. Army. frontier days and is historically correct urer, Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte. times, and that is five cents.

R. R. Co. has achieved the greatest engi- that when he turns the reins of Governor noon Judge Orvis disposed of the applicaneering feat of the age in the completion of this Commonwealth over to John K. tions for liquor licenses in the county, of its river tunnels and New York city Tener it will be with a clean slate and no granting all but three which were held terminal, when all other securities are uncompleted work on hand. If such is over. The three were the Passmore crumbling those of the Pennsy stand next the case the day for the execution of house in Philipsburg, the Spring Mills horailroad system in the world and we say Tuesday, if it has not already been fixed. cese of the Passmore house the applica-

----Rev. Daniel Gress has tendered his But in Samuel Bryant, ex-drayman and resignation as pastor of the Reformed cant has been named it was held over. leader of the Coleville band, this great church at Centre Hall to take effect the In the case of the Spring Mills hotel the corporation, or one of its divisions, found first of February, in order that he may application was made by J. Warren Wood a proposition almost impossible of solu. accept the pastorate of the charge at and it is understood that he has failed in Harrison City, Westmoreland county. Rev. Gress has been pastor of the Centre the license was not granted to him. As Hall church since 1903 and his work there to the Centre Hall hotel, it was held over has been quite successful.

-The annual Central Pennsylvania there and Sam didn't care about taking a M. E. conference will this year be held in the Methodist church at Bloomsburg, of which Rev. Edgar R. Heckman is pastor, the week beginning March 13th. Bishop W. P. Anderson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will be the presiding officer at the conference. So far as known there is nothing special to be brought before the conference at that time.

> -From present indications there will be a large number of public sales of farm stock and implements in Centre county number will sell out entirely, either to go of March.

---- Jacob Finklestine has leased the room in the Aiken block on Allegheny street now occupied by Harry Otto's pool room and cigar store and will move his five and ten cent store there from the Bush Arcade on April first. In order to afford him more room the Aikens will vacate their large dining room on the second floor of the building and a stairway will be put up so that he can occupy both floors.

---Senator John O. Fox, chairman of the committee which has in charge the arrangements for the inauguration of John K. Tener as Governor, next Tuesday, last week sent an invitation to Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of The Pennsylvania State College, to have the college cadets form part of the parade on that occasion. The invitation had to be declined, inasmuch as the young men are not properly equipped with winter uniforms.

are people who understand and value the students, one of whom was Raymond considerable of a loss. WATCHMAN for its real worth. Many do Jenkins, went to Oak Hall to skate on

---Owing to the hot water system getting out of order there was no heat in the convent on Bishop street and to keep | Sellers a receipt for a year's subscription warm the Sisters built a fire in the grate. The latter was evidently imperfectly con- 2nd, 1856. It is in a remarkable state of structed as the flames eat through and set fire to the floor, burning through and under the floor quite a distance. James Noonan and several other men were notified and they tore up a portion of the floor and succeeded in extinguishing the flames without sending in an alarm and calling out the firemen.

During the past two or three weeks G. Willard Hall has been traveling over the county soliciting advertising for the big illustrated program the Centre county commissioners are going to have printliam Kessinger, the much be-wiskered ed for the official dedication of the new court house, which will take place either the latter part of this month or beginning of next. The program will be in book form, quite elaborately illustrated with views of the exterior as well as interior with desertion and non-support. He was of the court house, pictures of the various brought to Bellefonte but was released court house officials, etc. An edition of five thousand copies of the book will be at the next term of court. Inasmuch as published and the same will be distributed has so enthused him in the poultry busi- more of their wedding anniversaries. ness that he intends to go into it on the wholesale plan.

-Governor Stuart has announced LICENSES GRANTED.-On Tuesday aftertion had been made by James Passmore prior to his death and as no other applisecuring a lease for the coming year, so because of the fight being made by citizens of that town against a licensed place. The licenses granted are as fol-

> N. L. Dagger.
> Horton S. Ray...
> James A. Noonan...
> Henry Kline...
> J. McClellan Davis...
> Chas. W. McMurtrieHoward Boro...
> A. Shawver... Millheim Boro...
> Dailinsburg... A. Shawver... Waple..... J. Rapsey..... Frank | Harry hn G. Uzzle......Snow Shoe Boro enry J. KohlbeckerCentral City..... Boggs Tw. Rebersburg. Potters Mills Old Fort.... ..Potter Clarence....Snow Shoe WHOLESALE LIQUOR Philipsburg Second Ward

George Parks. James Black... ...Casanova......Rush Twp ...Clarence.....Snow Shoe Philipsb'g Brewing Co.....Philipsburg...Sec. Ward

BROUSE GRANTED OLEO LICENSE .-James Foust, the state pure food commissioner, has announced his intention to curtail the number of licenses to sell oleomargarine in the State and has held up many applications in Philadelphia, and one of the applicants has already taken the matter into the courts to determine just what discretionary powers the pure food commissioner may have.

R. S. Brouse, the grocer in the Bush Arcade, is the only dealer in Bellefonte who sells Oleomargarine, regularly and several days before the beginning of the new year he sent in his application for a license for 1911, accompanying the same with a certified check for the fee. Withwere returned with a very brief letter spring. from Foust stating the license was refused, but giving no reasons therefore. Mr. Brouse had quite a stock of oleo on hand Wednesday, on his way back to Philadelphia from -Last Saturday three State College and to thus deny him a license meant Centre Hall.

The next day, however, H. L. Banzhoff, not believe in its politics but they like it the dam and while they were enjoying of Altoona, pure food inspector for this Bellefonte were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gault for because of its clean, reliable home news. themselves at the sport, the ice broke district, called Mr. Brouse by telephone that occasion. and explained the probable reason for news have an abiding faith in its politics. feet of icy water. They managed to get the refusal of his application for a license -Rev. Dr. Eddy, of New York, was Among this latter class a man of whom out with little difficulty and going to a and told him to make another application It is J. C. Johnson, aged 98 years, of their way back to the college. The next license was held up one week, it was fi-Mr. Brouse on Saturday.

WHEN THE WATCHMAN WAS AN IN FANT.-Recently we received from C. M. to this paper which was dated September preservation to be fifty-four years old, and bears the signature of Henry Hays, who was then the owner of the paper. The receipt is in favor of the late Agnew Sellers, of Buffalo Run, and as its date shows that he began taking the paper in the very first year of its existence it is a matter of great gratification for us to know that the paper is still a regular visitor to the members of his family at the old home up Buffalo Run.

In 1856 the WATCHMAN was issued on Wednesday morning and was only a four page paper. It has grown in size and quality since those days and measured by whatever standard you will it is the best weekly newspaper published in the State of Pennsylvania today.

CELEBRATED MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY. -During the holiday season Mr. and Mrs. William Dillon, of Braddock, celebrated the thirty-eighth anniversary of their marriage with a family reunion of all their children and it was a happy and day afternoon for Vicksburg, Miss., where he ---William Harshberger, a former festive day for all. Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Pennsvalley resident who the past few are quite well remembered by many peoyears has been conducting a dairy farm ple in Bellefonte. He was a native of trip and contemplated sojourn. at Bellwood, Blair county, will make sale Snow Shoe where he grew to manhood of his dairy herd and entire outfit on His wife was Miss Cooney, of this place, March 16th and move onto a farm he and after their marriage they lived here has purchased near Roopsburg, this coun- several years prior to moving to the be the attraction at the opera house on ty, and engage in the poultry business. western part of the State. They have Two years ago Mr. Harshberger bought nine children and all of them are an seven hundred little chickens from the honor to their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Kerlin poultry farm at Centre Hail and Dillon, while a little past the meridean of last year, he alleges, he cleared almost life, are both enjoying the best of health three dollars per head on them. This and will no doubt live to enjoy many

A REMARKABLE RECORD .- The Beile--The one place in Bellefonte that record unequalled by any educational in- up in the western part of the county, aside from holds its popularity continually is the stitution in the country and that is that Scenic. In the program of moving pic- every boarding student who was in attures shown there manager T. Clayton tendance before the Holidays has return-Doctors Elect Officers. - At the Brown exercises exceptionally good judg- ed to complete the year, and one new regular annual meeting of the Centre ment in making his selection. Only the student arrived on Monday from Pitts- Nittany valley and it was a real pleasure to see county medical society, held in the arbitra- best that it is possible to obtain are burg. At most every preparatory school -On Saturday of last week there was tion room at the court house on Wed- shown, and this means that quite a num- and college there is always a certain per he had was about the cold and stormy weather of nesday morning, the following officers ber are discarded every week because cent., either small or large, of students one of the Uzzles of Snow Shoe over a dent, Dr. P. Hoffer Dale, of State College; the people of Bellefonte. Nothing de- various reasons. It may be for sickness, first vice president, Dr. E. A. Russell, of grading is ever thrown upon the screen lack of funds, dissatisfaction or disincliage ever since. In fact it was frozen so Unionville; second vice president, Dr. R. at the Scenic and you never need have nation for further study. But this year the tab on several subscriptions to the WATCHstiff that it stood in an upright position V. Foster, of Centre Hall; secretary, Dr. any fear about allowing your children to not a student dropped from the Academy on its haunches and was fully six feet in R. G. H. Hayes, of Bellefonte, and treas- attend. Only one price prevails at all rolls, and it is the first time in the history of the institution for such a record.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Miss Blanche Henry, of Ebensburg, is a guest f Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker. -Auctioneer L. F. Mayes, of Lemont, transact d business in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

-Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell has returned home rom her holiday trip to Indianapolis, Ind -Mrs. Catharine McKinley, of Juniata, guest of Mrs. R. B. Taylor, on Spring street. -Mr. and Mrs. Will Glenn, of Cleveland, Ohio. re visiting Jere Glenn and family at Curtin -Mrs. Sarah Gephart is in Bellefonte, after pending several days with her parents at Logan--Lester Sheffer was an over Sunday guest at Sheffer, on Curtin street. return to Bellefonte today.

-Miss Ruth Kauffman, of Altoona, left on Tuesday after spending several days at the John Love home on Reynold's Avenue.

left for her home in Philadelphia yesterday. -Miss Louise Garman returned to her home at Williamsport Sunday after visiting since before Christmas with her cousin, Miss Helen

week in Philadelphia, will return to Bellefonte

Ceader.

-Mrs. James Gilliland, of Linden Hall, was in Bellefonte Wednesday, shopping and visiting for a short time with Mr. Gililland's sister, Mrs. Hammon Sechler.

-Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McQuistion, of Pitts. burg, came to Bellefonte Monday and have been in the case of the supervisors of Spring guests this week of S. A. McQuistion and his township against the Central Railroad com-

-Capt. John R. Lemon, of Gatesburg, arrived n Beliefonte yesterday and since has been hobnobbing around among the politicians, which always is a significant fact.

-Mrs. Howard Spangler is expected in Belleonte tonight, after visiting for six weeks in New York city, with her daughters, Mrs. Arthur Brown and Miss Marion Spangler. -Mrs. J. Irving Foster, of State College, was in Bellefonte Monday, for a short time, on her way to Harrisburg where she will visit for two weeks on road. In order to afford proper drainwith her sister, Mrs. A. L. Miller. Bellefonte on Sunday morning and remained during the day with his mother, brother and sisters, leaving for home on the 4.44 p. m. train. Sprankle having joined the party Monday, re- $45.61.

urned to her home at Tyrone, Wednesday, -William P. Brew, of New York City, was the uest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenlon at the Bush that was quite a surprise in Bellefonte ouse, Sunday, having stopped in Bellefonte on his way east from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

-Mrs. Robert Cole spent Tuesday in Williamsport, having had for a year and a half very serious trouble with her eyes, Mrs. Cole has been in three days his application and check under the care of Dr. Haskins since early last -Will Laye, who spent a few months in Bellefonte assisting T. Clayton Brown in the management of the Scenic, was a visitor in Bellefonte on -Mr. and Mrs. James Gault, of Howard, celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary Wed-nesday, Mr. Gault's mother and sisters from Benedict Beezer went to Monongahela City on Sunday to help look after Joe Fauble's clothing store while the latter is away on a business trip to New York city. He expects to be away a week or ten days.

of the coming of her aunt, Miss Curtin, and her grandson, Gregg Sheldon, who returned to Bellefonte Saturday of last week.

-Mrs. C. H. Meyer, of Reedsville, spent Friday night of last week in Bellefonte, the guest of Miss McQuistion. Mrs. Meyer was on her way from Williamsport to visit her father, Captain Geo. M. Boal, of Centre Hall.

-Miss Cora Holmes, of Wilkinsburg, who has been the guest of Mrs. James Harris for the past week at her home on Spring street, went to State College Thursday, expecting to visit during January with Miss Betty Stewart. -R. W. Bloom of Center Hall was in town

Tuesday night; having come over to attend the meeting of the Moose. Mr. Bloom is a son-inlaw of D. P. Houser and has been farming near Center Hall for eighteen years. -W. E. Tyson, of Tyrone, was in town Wednesday, but he has evidently gotten so swelled over the new quarters that have been assigned to his chief and himself in the station up there that he has forgotten some of his old friends here. -Mr. Charles McLaughlin, of Snow Shoe Intersection, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday and a caller at this office. Charlie, as he is more familiarly known among his friends, is one of the old-time residents of that section and a good Democrat as well. -Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox went over to Markles burg on Tuesday where he attended and was one of the pallbearers at the funeral of the late Rev. Geo. D. Pennepacker, one of the best known ministers in the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church. -Col. Austin Curtin left on Wednes expects to spend the winter. Col. Curtin's health has not been the best of late and he deemed it advisable to seek a warmer climate, hence this -Mrs. Edwin Sparks, Mrs. G. G. Pond and

Miss Lovejoy, of State College: Mrs. James Thompson, of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Henry, o Martha, were in Bellefonte Tuesday night, at tending the regular meeting of the D. A. R., held at the home of Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, -John D. Miller, of Hublersburg, was in Belle fonte on Tuesday and as this is the time of year when candidates are springing up on all sides like wild flowers it is just possible that he was here to put his finger on the political pulse and find out if it beat in unison to his touch -Farmer John B. Goheen, of Ferguson town hip, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday. He was down attending to a little personal business. fonte Academy can probably boast of a but couldn't think of anything especially new the cold weather and the prospect for a large mber of public sales this spring.

visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday. He is one of the best known as well as substantial citizens of him looking so well. In fact the only complaint Monday, but then that was an affliction we all had to bear.

-Harry T. McDowell, of Howard, spent a few hours in Bellefonte on Monday and was a welcome visitor at this office, inasmuch as he had MAN shoved ahead another year. Mr. McDowell realizes that it takes money to run a newspaper as well as any other business and he is always prompt in paying his portion.

-John R. Powers, who spent the Holidays with his sisters, Mrs. Julia Connelly and Mrs. James Nolan, on Logan street, departed for his home on Tuesday. He is one of Bryn Mawr's most prominent business men. It has been sev eral years since he visited Bellefonte but from the good time shown him while here we think won't be so long again.

TEMPLETON TO TEACH PRISONERS. -Former State Senator Chambers O. Templeton, of Tyrone, who last week pleaded guilty to the misappropriation of funds to his own use and, was sentenced in the Blair county court to not less than three years nor more than twelve in the the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel western penitentiary, to which institution he was removed on Thursday, has already -William P. Humes, who has been spending a had his job picked out for him. He will part of this week at Somerset, is expected to re- be made a teacher in a penitentiary school.

Two weeks from next Monday a new departure will be taken up in the peni--Mrs. Agnes Moore, who has been here for tentiary, when a school for the illiterate ome time as the guest of Mrs. Sarah Satterfield. | confined there will be started. There will be one teacher for every ten men, and the teachers are being selected from among the more intelligent inmates of the place. Among the instructors chosen -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warfield and their is Mr. Templeton, who, on account of his daughter Mary, who have been spending this superior mental attainments, will be given charge of one of the higher classes.

SUPERVISORS SUE RAILROAD COMPANY. -Justice of the peace Henry Brown held court in the grand jury room in the court house last Thursday to hear the evidence pany of Pennsylvania brought to recover the amount of money expended by the supervisors in maintaining a bridge which they claimed it was the duty of the railroad company to do. It appears that when the railroad was built they built a trestle bridge over the road a mile and a haif east of Beliefonte, and were then compelled to lower the grade of the wagage a culvert and bridge was put in at -Joe Fauble, of Monongahela City, arrived in that place and since then the railroad company failed to keep the same in repair. 'Squire Brown heard the evidence -Miss Rose Beezer has been entertaining Miss and on Tuesday morning gave judgment Hughes, of Clearfield, for the past week, Miss in favor of the supervisors in the sum of > GARMAN-PIPER-A Tyrone wedding was that last Thursday afternoon of Allen S. Garman, formerly of this place, and Miss Ruby Piper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Piper, of Tyrone. The nuptials were celebrated in the parlors of the Garman house and were performed by Rev. E. H. Wellman, rector in charge of the 1rinity Episcopal church. On the same day Mr. Garman took charge of his hotel and will conduct the same in the future.

> ---George C. Meyer, of State College, has made complaint to the State Railroad Commission of discrimination him in demurrage by the Bellefonte Central Railroad company and the matter will be investigated in the near future.

Sale Register.

MARCH 3RD.—At the residence of D. L. Meek, at Waddle Station, Patton township. Horses, young cattle, sheep, shoats and other farm animals; also all kinds of farm machinery and utensils, wagons, etc., all in the best of order and of the latest and most improved patterns. This will be one of the largest sales in the county and will begin promptly at 9.30 a. m.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce Potatoes per bushel Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. White Wheat.

Rye, per bushel.

Corn, shelled, per bushel.

Corn, ears, per bushel.

Oats, old and new, per bushel. Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Wheat-Red. Corn -Yel -Winter, per barrel.

The Best Advertising Medium in Central

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read

Paid strictly in advance... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions discontinued until all arrearages are settled, cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be old at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running for

First insertion, per line. Each additional insertion Each additional insertion, per line Local Notices, per line Business Notices, per line BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per inch, each insertion......25 cts. The following discounts will be allowed on ad-ertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three mos. 10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos...... 15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos....... 25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents, are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.