

Jerome Harper left Bellefonte on Monday for Buffalo, N. Y., where he has accepted a position with a large tea importing house, with the expectation of ultimately going on the road for them as a traveling salesman. It is stated that he and Miss Lulu Smith will be married in the spring and then he expects to make Bellefonte his headquarters and live at the Smith home.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. S. E. Tressler has been ill but is improving. Samuel Grove, of Benore, spent Sunday with his family here. Ed Wooster and sister, of Grayville, spent Tuesday in town. Aaron Burchfield, of Salsburg, is greeting old chums hereabouts. E. S. Tressler purchased the Otis Hoy farm at Pine Hall, for $300. A pack of dogs killed two of Jacob Harper's sheep last Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Musser spent Wednesday with friends at State College. A little boy arrived at the home of supervisor Adam Cramer yesterday morning. Samuel Hess, a student at the Bellefonte Academy, is home with a dose of mumps. Mrs. N. C. Neidigh is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, at Spruce Creek. John M. Homan, a retired farmer, went down Pennsylvania Tuesday, in quest of a job. Will Swabb, one of Harris township's supervisors, is visiting his brother Frank, near town. Walter McNarey, a student at State, spent Sunday with his classmate, Fred R. Fry, at Fairbrook. February 14th the township High school will hold their annual banquet in the I. O. O. F. hall. Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of The Pennsylvania State College, with his daughter, was in town last week. The teachers district institute will be held on February 11th. A splendid program has been arranged. The venerable Samuel Garner is critically ill at his home, suffering from the kick of a horse he was leading to water. Henry Klapper sold his farm to J. G. Strayer last week for $2000. It is known as the old Rumberger place, at Gatesburg. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hess enjoyed a drive to Bellefonte Thursday and spent the day with Grandmother Hess, on Reynolds Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bailey tarried awhile in town Wednesday. They were on their way to attend the funeral of Mrs. McCauley, at Petersburg, on Thursday. Mrs. James Dreese, of Adamsburg, is visiting her brother, H. H. Goss, near town. She is better known as Mrs. Henry Koch, a former merchant of our town. The first time in fourteen years George Ard Goss, of Pittsburg, is visiting the home of his birth, making his headquarters with his brother-in-law, Hon. J. W. Kepler. The ladies of the Bethel church will hold a festival in the I. O. O. F. hall at Pine Grove Mills, beginning February 1st and continuing each evening of that week. Everybody is cordially invited. David Porter Henderson, an old battle-scarred veteran of the Civil war, is quite ill at his home at Spruce Creek. His daughter, Mrs. N. C. Neidigh, of Pine Hall, is at his bedside administering to his wants. We owe Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlap an apology for stating last week that they had a new little girl at their home, because they haven't. It's a boy, which makes them all the prouder, and the young gent has been christened William McManus, after his grandfather. The newly elected officers of Centre Grange No. 254, of this place, were installed last Wednesday evening by past master David Williams, as follows: Master, F. W. Swabb; overseer, N. O. Dreibleis; lecturer, Miss Susan Daumley; Steward, W. H. Goss; chaplain, W. J. Dale; treasurer, N. E. Hess; secretary, E. C. Musser; staterkeeper, H. A. Elder; crier, Mrs. W. H. Goss; pomona, Mrs. H. A. Elder; flora, Mrs. Emma Meek.

SMULLTON.

George A. Smull was away a few days last week on business. Mia Greninger, who worked for H. Lambert, has returned home again. Serene Harry and wife entertained a young couple from Sugar Valley Sunday. Maggie Harry visited at Mill Hall several days last week, returning home Saturday. Rev. J. Max Lantz delivered an excellent sermon on "The Talents," last Sunday morning. F. D. Stover, one of the old Civil War veterans, says this has been a severe winter and tells on old age. Mrs. Jacob Walizer spent a few days last week at Spring Mills, having been called there because of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Sol. C. L. Beck has rented the Dewler property, now belonging to Henry Wolfe, of Madisonburg. Mr. Wolfe recently purchased same from George H. Smull. There seems to be plenty of houses for rent this spring, both at this place and Rebersburg; one reason for it being that many families have moved to other localities. We understand that the home of W. M. Bierley at this place is for sale. Mr. Bierley, no doubt, will continue his residence at Rebersburg, for the reason that he is mail carrier between Rebersburg and Coburn. The Smullton Water company held their annual election early in January and the officers elected are as follows: President, Serene Harry; secretary, H. H. Stover; treasurer, C. D. Smull; trustee, S. A. Walizer; water supervisor, Jacob Walizer. The company is now entirely free of debt, which is a good showing.

LEMONT.

Miss Nellie Struble visited last week with her friend, Miss Mabel Kline. Rev. Smith, of the U. B. church, circulated among the people of this charge last week. The first part of this week was quite cold, the thermometers at times standing at ten degrees below zero. Jared Mayes and Robert F. Evey, of Watson town, visited among friends in and around town last week. The stork left a great big daughter at the home of Charles Zeigler, one day last week, and they think that she is the only girl. Mrs. John Wieby, who has been quite ill the last few weeks, is at present on a fair way to get well, if nothing sets in to interfere. Some of the farmers of this community are busy trying to finish their corn husking which they did not finish last fall, as winter set in too early. The United Evangelical meeting is still going on and doing much good in this community, as up to this time there have been more than fifty who have confessed and sixteen still forward. Miss Maggie Thomas is making a visit of a few days at the home of George C. Williams, her uncle, while on her way from Spring, Ill., to New York, to lay in a stock of spring goods for the firm in whose employ she is.

RUNVILLE RIPPINGS.

Clara Iddings, of Wingate, was a caller in town Thursday evening. Jacob Mitchell is now erecting his sawmill in what is known as the old blacksmith shop. Rev. C. W. Winey, of Bellefonte, preached a fine sermon to a large congregation last Friday night. Mrs. Addie Lucas is spending some time with her aged father, at Bush Hollow, owing to his illness. Mr. Dean and family, of Orbisonia, and Mrs. Chamberlin and daughter, of Lakemont Terrace, spent part of last week with their father, Rev. I. H. Dean. Rev. Wolf departed for his home at Middleburg on Friday; he had the pleasure of seeing eleven souls come to the altar while he was present with us. Rev. A. S. Wolf, of Middleburg, returned Monday to assist Rev. I. H. Dean with the revival meeting; at this writing there have been twenty-four conversions, four confessions and five at the altar.

STATUES WEAR PLASTER PANTS.

The first of the heroic marble figures of the Barnard group of statues at the capitol building, Harrisburg, Pa., was put into place and stripped of its covering and was found to be draped with plaster of paris. The treatment is in line with what Barnard is reported to have promised when his attention was called to the protests against the nudity of the figures. The men in charge of the groups say that the plaster will remain until orders are received from Barnard or state officials to remove it.

$10,000,000 More From Carnegie.

Andrew Carnegie has announced in New York city an additional gift of $10,000,000 to the Carnegie institution at Washington, making the total endowment now $25,000,000 and bringing the amount of Mr. Carnegie's philanthropies close to $200,000,000. The Carnegie institution was founded in 1892 for the purpose of higher education and advanced research. The original endowment was $10,000,000, to which further gifts were added, making it $15,000,000, until this gift was announced.

Clubs Wife to Death.

John McCombs, a farmer of near Indiana, Pa., fired at his wife with a rifle, and, missing her, clubbed her to death with the butt of the gun. He then went to the house of Joseph Pratos, some distance away, and told him what he had done. Pratos refused to believe him, and was preparing to go back with McCombs, when the man entered Pratos' barn and hanged himself. He was cut down in time to save his life.

Boy of Five Kills Grandmother.

After his father had been arrested in connection with the shooting to death of his grandmother, a five-year-old boy at Danville, Ky., confessed that he had shot her accidentally while pointing an old shotgun at her in fun. He hid in an outbuilding all night.

Flood Victim's Skeleton.

The skeleton of one of the victims of the Johnstown, Pa., flood has been found near New Florence, twenty-two years after the flood. The bones will be interred in Grand View cemetery, where 777 other unidentified bodies of the flood lie buried.

Phillips Dies of His Wounds.

Author Passes Away During A Coughing Spell.

David Graham Phillips, the novelist, who was shot six times on Monday afternoon by Pittsburgh Coyle Goldsborough in Grammercy Park, died at the Bellevue hospital in New York. Mr. Phillips had been vomiting blood during the day, which symptom told the physicians that the perforation in the lung caused by a bullet which had entered the right chest and had passed out of the body near the left shoulder blade, was not healing. Dr. Eugene Fuller, Mr. Phillips' personal physician, gave the patient what relief he could, but the patient's condition became especially alarming. The excessive pain of his abdominal wound during the day, the constant leakage of blood into the throat from his lung and intestinal sufferings following the administering of ether on Monday, had worn the novelist out. During a severe spell of coughing he died. At his bedside were Mrs. Frevert, his sister; Mr. Harrison Phillips and Dr. Fuller. Senator Beveridge, who roomed with David Graham Phillips at Depau university, had been at his bedside during the day, arriving from Washington, but he was compelled to leave for Washington again shortly afterwards.

Many magazine writers, novelists and artists visited the hospital, but none of the callers except Senator Beveridge were permitted to visit the patient's room. Many of the visitors and others had sent floral gifts, and after they learned of the death of Mr. Phillips these were arranged about his bed. More evidence showing that Goldsborough held enmity toward Mr. Phillips was learned, but at best no one seemed able to piece enough of this evidence together to show why Goldsborough should have gone to the extreme of shooting Phillips or, for that matter, why Goldsborough, unless his brain were normal, should hold any enmity at all. Stories that the violinist shot the novelist because Mr. Phillips had written a novel in which characters in one of his books, which Goldsborough thought were taken from Goldsborough's own family in Washington, where Mr. Phillips lived for a short while, were repeated to Harrison Phillips, and he was asked whether or not the publishers of the book had sent out press notices at the time the book was published to the effect that some one had objected to the novel on the score that it caricatured members of a certain family. Harrison Phillips replied that he remembered that notices of this character had been sent out when the book left the press. He was asked whether he thought these notices were merely the work of the publisher's publicity department or founded on fact. He said that so far as he remembered they were founded on fact. He said, however, that neither he nor his brother nor sister knew the Goldsborough family. It was learned also that almost a year ago Goldsborough went to the city hall to complain to Mayor Gaynor about persons annoying him. During this visit the violinist mentioned to the mayor's secretary, Mr. Adamson, the name of David Graham Phillips, but not with any especial show of animosity.

New Jersey Elects Martine. James E. Martine, of Plainfield, was elected as the United States senator in joint session of the New Jersey legislature to succeed Senator John Kean. Martine received 47 of the 51 Democratic votes, or six more than a majority of the two houses. Three votes were cast for ex-Senator Smith and one of the Democratic members did not vote. Ex-Governor Stokes received a majority of the Republican votes, 21 out of 20 being cast for him. Seven of the ten members who voted for Smith took advantage of his releasing them and voted for Martine. The three who remained loyal to Smith were Assemblymen McGowan, Phillips and Shalvey, all of Essex, Smith's home county.

LaFollette Wins by Big Vote.

United States Senator LaFollette was formally re-elected in joint session of the Wisconsin legislature by a big majority. Chief Clerk Shaffer, of the in both houses, which showed that LaFollette received 24 in the senate and 59 in the assembly out of a grand assembly, read the record of the vote total of 129 votes.

Woman Burned to Death.

A woman was burned to death and her seven-months-old baby was over- come by smoke in a fire which burned out the apartments of Michael E. Landrigan, on West Sixty-eight street, New York. Landrigan, who had fled to the street with his unconscious child in his arms, was uninjured except for a cut on the head. The police believe the fire was caused by an overturned lamp.
