Taft Threatens

Extra Session. Senate Must Vote on Reciprocity or Meet Again.

If administration senators had any doubt about the attitude of President Taft toward the Canadian reciprocity agreement it was removed when Senators Crane and Carter returned to the capitol from a conference with the president at the White House.

The message which these senators brought to their colleagues was that there must be a vote on the agreement at the present session or congress will be called back in extra session almost immediately after adjournment on March 4.

The senators were called to the White House and the president urged upon them the necessity of expediting legislation in the senate.

Vice President Sherman and Senator Smoot were also in conference with the president.

The message the Massachusetts and Montana senators took from the White House to their colleagues was that there must be a vote on the agreement at this session or congress will be called back.

Although Messrs. Crane and Carter declined to discuss their mission the news soon leaked out that the president was insistent upon a vote.

It is said he made plain his belief that the country generally favors a reciprocal trade agreement with Canada; that the McCall bill to put the agreement into effect will pass the house with a large majority, and that the senate would also pass it if given an opportunity to vote.

Senate rules, which permit untrammeled discussion of a measure, are the principal barriers to a vote in that body. It is known that Senators Heyburn and Bailey are bitterly opposed to the agreement and that the opposition extends also to most progressive Republicans who represent agricultural states.

Some of these senators have hinted that their relations with the White House have not been sufficiently pleasant to cause them to exert themselves in support of an administration measure.

Senators Crane and Carter began a campaign designed to advance the president's program. Already they have conferred with other senators who are especially friendly to the administration and have sought to enlist their services.

At the capital the impression has been that Mr. Taft would insist upon votes on both the Canadian agreement and the permanent tariff board bill, but this was partially removed.

According to general report, the president places the Canadian agreement above the tariff board measure, and would be satisfied if the former were enacted at this session.

If an extra session should be called, it is understood that the president would then demand the creation of a permanent tariff board, and might go so far as to promise data on the wool and woolen schedule if the Democratic house desisted it.

Big Collie Refused to Eat After His Master Died. A fine Scotch collie, the dog of Benjamin Benkins, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., who died several days ago, gave his life in mourning for his master.

Dainties that he liked were placed before him without tempting his appetite, and he gradually grew so wasted that Mrs. Benkins had him killed to prevent his starving himself to death.

San Francisco Assured of Fair. San Francisco won the unanimous vote of the senate committee on industrial expositions for the Panama Canal exposition. New Orleans has abandoned the fight and there is little doubt now that the resolution sending the 1915 fair to the Pacific coast will be adopted in the senate without opposition.

F. E. B. We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation for February—Feb.—means Freeze every body, and that man looked frozen in his ulster. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth that stays, the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body.

We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth. It invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls, to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimulates and strengthens at the same time, and all its benefits are lasting. There may be a suggestion in this for you.
