Ethers and Prof. Battenhouse, of State College. Miss Burwell and Miss Goheen gave splendid recitations. The general impression is that the institute will result in much good to all those who attended.

REBERSBURG RUMBLINGS.

Report says that Rev. W. C. Bierly has postponed the building of his house to some future time. Mr. Krape, of this place, is on the sick list. There is considerable complaining just now among our people. Preaching services next Lord's day at the Lutheran church at 10 o'clock a. m. and at the Reformed church at 7 o'clock p. m. The members of the Reformed church are possibly better reformers than performers, judging by the slow progress of the preachers here. The Revs. Haney and Wolf, of the Evangelical church, and Rev. McLaughlin, of the United Evangelical church, expect to go to conference next week. Claud Haines is now one of our general merchants, although he himself intends finishing his school term as teacher of the grammar department at Millheim, but the work is being carried on by the genial L. B. Frank, assisted by Mrs. Haines. The water main sprung a leak last Sunday night and the people of east Rebersburg were left high and dry for a while. Prof. Gramley couldn't wait for breakfast and "squire Meyers" face was twice its usual length because of the mud right by his door. It is wonderful how a little thing can affect the high and heavy. The special Lincoln day exercises last Sunday at the Lutheran church under the auspices of the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans, were largely attended. The music was all of a national nature and inspiring. The address by the pastor, Rev. Whitman, upon the subject "True Patriotism an Incentive to Noble Deeds" was well received. The installation services last Friday evening of the Rev. George A. Stauffer, of the Reformed church, were well attended and impressive. Besides pastor Stauffer the following ministers were present and took part: Rev. S. Kohler, pastor of the Reformed church at Millheim, who set forth "The Duties of the Pastor"; Rev. H. I. Crow, pastor at Hubersburg, spoke on "The Duties of the Congregation." After which the Rev. Wm. Donat, pastor at Aaronsburg, performed the installation services, assisted by pastors Kohler and Crow. The Rev. N. A. Whitman, pastor of the Lutheran church, extended the greetings of himself and people to the reverend gentleman and pronounced the benediction. The writer is glad to notice so kindly a feeling existing between the pastor and people and wishes them a long, successful and mutually pleasant pastoral relation.

Declare Clark Has Given Only Effective Weapon Against Reciprocity.

Champ Clark's remarks in Washington when discussing reciprocity has caused a lot of comment in Toronto, Can. The prospect of annexation to the United States is the last thing any Canada wants, and the congressman's declaration as to the ultimate effect of reciprocity is ranking in the hearts of Liberals, who here heretofore been strong supporters of reciprocity. The government supporters say Mr. Clark's speech has given the opponents of reciprocity their only effective weapon.

17 Year Locusts Due to Visit Kansas.

Seventeen-year locusts are due to visit Kansas the next three months, according to Professor P. A. Glenn, of the department of entomology of the University of Kansas. The locusts, he predicts, will appear in the eastern part of the state, probably about the last of May. Seventeen years ago this spring Kansas suffered a visitation of the pest.

Two Thieves Steal $29 From Solitary Prisoner and Escape.

Two masked burglars broke into the town jail at Warrior Run, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and after smashing open the door of the cell containing Stanley Jandus, the only prisoner, they robbed him of $29 after threatening his life with a revolver. They fled, and Jandus, finding himself free, went out and aroused the police and the burglars have not yet been captured.

Pares Corn; Dies.

Paring a corn was the cause of the death of Paxton C. Layton, a member of a prominent Delaware family, in Frankford, Del. Layton a few nights ago while paring a corn with a razor cut a small wound in his toe. He thought nothing of it until the leg began to swell and he found that blood poisoning had set in.

Miss Daisy Green is Named as Division Passenger Agent.

Miss Daisy Green, for years chief clerk of the Davenport, Ia., office of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway, has been appointed division passenger agent. She is the first woman, so far as railroad men know, to occupy such a position in the United States. Her territory extends from Watertown, Ill., to Bettendorf, Ia.

Hat Pin Wound Kills Man.

Captain Andrew Englund, who was one of the best known sea captains on the New England coast, is dead in Boston as the result of a jab from a hatpin. With his wife, he was riding in a crowded trolley car, when a woman standing beside him turned her head suddenly and he was jabbed by a pin in the cheek. He thought nothing of it for two weeks or more, and then his face began to swell and he was taken to the City hospital, where he died of blood poisoning.

Wife Slayer a Suicide.

Gibbons Succeeds Ryan.

Cardinal Gibbons was appointed by President Taft to be a member of the board of Indian commissioners in place of the late Archbishop Ryan.

Clark's Talk Jars President.

Mr. Taft Surprised at Annexation Speech.

President Taft expressed astonishment to some of his congressional callers at the White House that Representative Champ Clark, who is to be speaker of the house in the next congress, should have injected into the discussion in the house when the reciprocity bill was passed any thought about the annexation of Canada. Nothing could be further from the mind of President Taft, it was said at the White House. There has never been the least intention upon his part to make reciprocity a part of a scheme for annexation. Mr. Clark certainly did not speak for the White House when he made such a statement, it was said. Friends of the president went so far as to say that they did not believe Mr. Clark was speaking for Democracy either. The friends of the reciprocity agreement were scared when they read Mr. Clark's remarks. They immediately felt that such utterances would offer the food for agitators in England and the Dominion which they have long sought in vain. The bogey of annexation will spring up now possibly, with the result that a propaganda so strong as to insure the agreement's defeat will be forthcoming. The speech of Mr. Clark is regarded as a "bomb" not to be expected from such a source. Members of the house of representatives are much surprised that the remarks of Mr. Clark with respect to the annexation of Canada should have kicked up such a fuss as reports received in Washington indicate. Mr. Clark's views on annexation are well known. In the course of his speech on the McCull bill he said: "I am in favor of the reciprocity treaty to promote our trade relations. That is what we spent that money for. We are not spending that vast sum because we are altruists, but as a business matter. I am for it, because I hope to see the day when the American flag will float over every square foot of the British-North American possessions clear to the North Pole. They are people of our blood. They speak our language. Their institutions are much like ours. They are trained in the difficult art of self-government. My judgment is that if the treaty of 1857 had never been abrogated the chances of a consolidation of these two countries would have been much greater than they are now."

Representative Martin, of South Dakota, then asked if Mr. Clark favored "the abrogation of our tariff law entirely, so far as Canada is concerned, by having free trade with Canada on all products."

Mr. Clark replied in the affirmative. "Yes," he said; "by taking Canada in to become a part of the United States." Mr. Clark a moment later in a colloquy with Representative Norris, of Nebraska, reiterated his hope that Canada would become a part of the United States.

Over $20,000 Worth of Jewelry Stolen. An inventory of the articles stolen from the residence of Charles G. Roebeling in Trenton, N. J., last Wednesday night indicates that the burglar made a haul representing between $20,000 and $25,000 in intrinsic value. Among the articles taken were a number of valuables which money cannot replace. Among these was a locket set with diamonds and pearls, which was a gift from the late Mrs. Washington R. Roebeling to Mrs. Cornelius Hook, sister-in-law of Charles G. Roebeling. The locket was exhibited at the Paris exposition, where it was awarded first prize. The robbery, one of the largest ever accomplished in this vicinity, has been placed in the hands of Pinkerton detectives for investigation. It is now the accepted theory of the detectives that it was accomplished by some one having inside knowledge as to both the house and the customary movements of the family.

2,000,000 Starving in China.

Dispatches received by the Red Cross in Washington disclose appalling famine conditions in China. Amos P. Wilder, American consul general at Shanghai, reports that 2,000,000 Chinese will die from the present famine unless relief is afforded promptly. Another report received by the Red Cross says that horrifying scenes are being enacted, that parents are trying in desperation to give away their children and that dead bodies are lying along the roadsides. The report from Shanghai adds that at least half a million dollars in gold will be needed immediately to relieve the suffering. The area affected by the famine is about 300 by 100 miles. There will be no crops in the district until the end of May and the Chinese relief is entirely inadequate.

Bishop Whitaker Dead of Grip.

Bishop Ozi W. Whitaker, head of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania, died at his home, 4027 Walnut street, Philadelphia. His death was caused by a general breakdown, due to his advanced age, nearly eighty-one years, augmented by a severe cold that threatened pneumonia.

The serious turn in his illness came about a week ago. He showed slight improvement at times until Wednesday night, when he fell into a sleep from which he could not be wakened. Dr. John H. Girvin, his attending physician, said that death was peaceful and without pain. At his bedside when he passed away were two nieces and other relatives. His wife died in June, 1908.

A LUCKY ARTIST.—Recently a prize of $2,000 was offered to the artist contributing the best drawings of a comic feature for Sunday newspapers. As a result of the offer several thousand artists from every section of the United States, from Canada and from foreign lands across the sea contributed drawings. The judges gave a most scrupulous attention to every one. Slowly the mountain of submitted comic series diminished until there were but 100 drawings left. Fifty of these were rejected a week later. Later but six remained, any one of which would have made a desirable comic feature. At last two were put aside and finally Mr. Twee Deedle was chosen and the $2,000 was awarded Mr. John R. Gruelle, of Norwich, Conn., whose prize comic, "Mr. Twee Deedle," will be the delight of mothers, cousins, aunts, sisters and children for several months. Unlike many comic features, "Mr. Twee Deedle" is intended to teach a lesson to children of this country and at the same time furnish them innocent amusement. Just funny enough to gain the attention and thereby directing their minds to better things. "Mr. Twee Deedle" has been added to the already high class comic section of The Pittsburg Dispatch and with Captain Kiddo and four other splendid features will make The Dispatch comic the best in the world. See that your children are supplied with a clean comic feature when you get your Sunday paper. The publisher of The Dispatch endeavors to keep its comic section in keeping with the other features, making it the ideal paper for the homes, where children should be given the very best. Grown-ups, too, will like "Mr. Twee Deedle" and will praise the judges for awarding the $2,000 to its originator. The first of "Mr. Twee Deedle" will appear in The Dispatch Sunday, February 19th.
