CORPORATIONS HAVE MONOPOLY ON STATE'S WATER RIGHTS.—During the past week the Philadelphia North American published a series of articles showing how various corporations in the State have gobbled up practically all the water rights in the State worth having. The article in Monday's paper was devoted to the rights owned or controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad company, either incorporated or unincorporated companies and in the list are the following in Centre county:

At Rising Spring station, a spring.
At Oak Hill station, a mountain run.
At Zerbe station, a mountain stream.
At Curtin station, a well.
At Port Matilda station, a spring.
At Holders Plug station, a mountain run.
At Martha Furnace station, a well.
At Scotia station, a well.
At Snow Shoe Intersection, Wallace run.
At Rhoads station, a spring.
At Mount Pleasant station, Armagh run.
At Sandy Ridge station, a spring.

The fact of the matter is, the above are merely water tanks from which the company secures the water for its locomotives. And if all the others mentioned by the North American are of this same class we are at a loss to understand its zealous efforts to manufacture a mole hill into a mountain.

BUSINESS CHANGE AT PLEASANT GAP.—John Griffith has sold his general store at Pleasant Gap to C. K. Stitzer, who will take charge about March 1st. Mr. Stitzer has been connected with Lyman Emter, the Scotia merchant.

They were both born and raised in Centre county and were married in Bellefonte on February 12th, 1852. Though they have lived in the west many years they are still remembered by a few of the older residents of Bellefonte and lower Bald Eagle valley.

The lady who accidentally carried home with her an extra pair of long white gloves from the army of the night of the Charity ball, can find the owner by bringing them to the WATCHMAN office.

In anticipation of Mrs. Canfield's return to Bellefonte today, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett have moved the greater part of their things from the Bush house, expecting to spend the summer with Mrs. Daggett's mother at her home on east Linn street.

The people of Boalsburg participated in a George and Martha Washington dance on Tuesday evening which was attended by most of the people of the town. William Stewart had the affair in charge and it proved a most enjoyable occasion for all.

Those of our readers who read the letter published in the column "With the Churches of the County" must certainly be impressed with the belief that the colored people of Bellefonte have a singularly sensible, humble and christian man serving them as pastor. We have never heard Rev. Paul preach nor do we have personal acquaintance with him but the humble dignity with which he has presented his thoughts in this communication proclaims a man of sense and a man of Christ.

Editor Democratic Watchman.

DEAR SIR:

Many of your readers, friends and residents of Bellefonte, will doubtless remember the Sunday morning in last year, when our church was literally wiped away by a disastrous fire, and that this occurred on the 20th of February, 1910, exactly one year ago on Monday of this week.

It was a severe blow on a poor and struggling congregation; nevertheless, cheered by the sympathetic utterances and kind promises of our many well-wishers, we saw, in the misty clouds that then enveloped us, gleams of hope. Not many days after we secured the little in-cypher in our hands, owing to the cost of building materials, for a while we were somewhat puzzled as to the proper course to pursue. We tried very hard to secure another and more desirable site, but having been blessed by unfriendly and unchristian agencies, we failed, and ultimately decided to purchase the old spot, loaned to the colored people by the late Mr. Wm. H. Thomas, fifty-one years ago last February. After paying the sum of $100 for same, and receiving a clear and undisputed title, we set to work to realize this gift to the church.

Through the kind interposition of the heirs of said estate, the purchase sum was donated to the church during the dedication season, for which we shall ever remain grateful.

On the 11th of May last, we started to erect a new building, which Mr. Robert Cole as architect and Mr. Isaac Miller contractor. Mr. Miller rendered faithful service and donated much time to us, and on October 15th we dedicated the edifice to the service of Almighty God. We owe this good old gentleman, Isaac Miller, $717.00, and although his strenuous efforts are being put forth both by the pastor and his congregation.

In reviewing the church's work for the past year we take this opportunity in openly thanking Mr. Wallace Gephart and his colleagues of the Y. M. C. A. building for their kindness and indulgence in allowing us the use of that place. We regard this as a great favor, especially as other places had been refused us. But by the kindness of the directors of the above, we were thus able to keep our little flock together, which was the very life and soul of the whole work. Whether we have satisfied the public in our endeavors, is a matter which it must decide.

The building speaks for itself. We ascribe to ourselves very little praise for accomplishing such a work as we feel our great indebtedness to the Great Head of the church, and secondly to the kind, good, and charitable friends who have so liberally contributed to the cause. We would gladly publish their names but space does not permit. Those who have helped us know, and above all God the Great Rewarder has taken full cognizance of them. We take this opportunity to express our undiminished gratitude to them, and prayerfully hope that the colored people of Bellefonte shall in the future so deport themselves in their various spheres of duty and their relationship to their white friends, as to be always deserving of their kindest consideration.

This week we have started a series of protracted meetings, as a mark of humiliation and thanksgiving to the Almighty for past mercies; we shall continue during next week. We earnestly solicit the prayers of all God's people for spiritual outpouring of the Holy Ghost at these services.

The following is our financial standing:

Cost of building	$3,755.00
Collected from insurance	890.00
By socials and subscription from colored people	192.25
Collected by Rev. P. E. Paul (besides an organ from F. Smith & Co. Philadelphia)	772.64
Total expenditure	$2,782.95
It will be seen that our entire indebtedness is $992.04.

P. E. PAUL, Pastor.

In the use of ordinary pills the dose must be increased the longer the pill is used. That means the pill habit is being established. In the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the dose is diminished instead of increased. That means that a cure is being established. The "Pellets" are an aid to Nature, and when the natural functions are re-established the "Pellets" having done their work can be dispensed with. They are invaluable for the cure of constipation and its myriad consequences.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, ETC.

"III SCORE & X"—Dr. Swallow is to the front again. This time, however, it is not as a candidate for gubernatorial or presidential honors on the Prohibition ticket, nor as a defendant in a Machine-made libel suit, nor even as an opponent of the arbitrary methods of Methodist Bishops; but as a publisher, in book form, of events happening in his own busy life as a circuit rider. The book is given the title of "III Score & X" or Selections, Collections and Recollections of Seventy Busy Years, and although largely autobiographical, furnishes a most interesting volume, especially for the older members of the Methodist church as well as for the general reader who enjoys the details of a good "scrap"—and the Doctor has had part in many a one. In it he offers made to write a continuous story of the over 300 incidents, events or subjects touched upon, nor to connect them and the 130 illustrations given in any way that would look like a pretense of making history. It is a Doctor Swallow book from the first to the last page—earnest, eccentric, positive, at times unfair, but always interesting. We say unfair because of its criticism of dead men who cannot defend themselves, as in the case of the lamented Andrew H. Dill, who, without naming him, is written down as "a Senator who catered to the doctor to forgive any man who believed in the teachings of Jefferson and would not mix his beliefs up with the fanaticism of the abolitionist or the fallacies of the prohibitionist. While interesting, because of the facts and personal incidents it gives that have never before appeared in print, as well as the scoring it gives the Republican State Machine, the book only emphasizes the teachings of Jefferson and would not mix his beliefs up with the fanaticism of the abolitionist or the fallacies of the prohibitionist.
