

Bellefonte, Pa., March 31, 1911.

P. GRAY MEEK. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice

this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance . Paid before expiration of year 2.00

Paid after expiration of year

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

members are urged to be present.

-Another meeting will be held in this (Friday) evening at eight o'clock for for the organization of a Retail Mer-Bellefonte is requested to attend as some questions of unusual importance will be

---If anybody asks you to make a date May 5th and 6th, don't do it unless it is to live for that day but Providence willed a date to attend the performance of the it otherwise. Academy minstrels, which will take place on those evenings. It may seem a little marriage in Bellefonte to Miss Bridget tery. far ahead to be talking of this now but Schroyer, of Chicago, will be interested in learning that he is fast becoming a milpatented invention of his which has been adopted by the Pullman car company and other car companies. He has purchased a handsome home in one of the fashion- Catholic cemetery. able suburbs of Chicago and drives around in a ten thousand dollar Pierce-Arrow car.

week that taxed his acumen to the limit, quite suddenly. It was an action of one woman against and get all of them satisfied.

-Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewthe National Guard officers selected to go to the maneuvre camps along the Mexithe United States troops. Eighteen out of a total of over four hundred willing ones have been detailed to report at San Antonia, Texas, April fifth, but none of the Bellefonte officers of Company L, Twelfth regiment are on the list

-The general saying is that everything is a matter of habit. In many in-

Mr. Hancock, and who declared it one of will be made in the new cemetery at Pine the very best likenesses of a man he had Grove Mills. ever seen, while as a work of art it is also high class.

Kathryn will go to Tennessee where the Sunday. former is working for the J. G. White people and the latter is a hospital nurse, and Richard will continue his work in Baltimore.

one of the lower priced cars, it is not at township where interment was made. all cheap looking and its twenty horse power gives it all the power and speed GORDON.—Harry Gordon died at the is a Buick runabout with rumble seat re- morning, after a long illness with tubercuis a light machine, but has plenty of pow-er and speed to take the hills of Belle-ber of brothers and sisters. Arrangements

Brown.-Edward Brown Sr., for many disease but merely the wearing out of several years.

Village Improvement committee will im- "Our House." He later became proprietor Philipsburg. streets. He was always of a frugal nature Mass.; C. C., whose present address we the American Lime and Stone company be prepared for it, if it comes. chant's association. Every merchant in fonte his home until something over a Mrs. John Stine Jr., of Buffalo Run, and them for burial, the funeral being feld never was fully contented in that city and the family were making preparations to for either Friday or Saturday evenings, return to Bellefonte and Mr. Brown hoped

When a young man he was united in Burns, a native of Dublin, Ireland, who the fact that it is to be an athletic benefit died many years ago. His only survivors should stir up everyone to work for its are his son Edward, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Kane, of Altoona. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church ---The Bellefonte friends of Harry H. in Baltimore on Sunday and on Monday Bellefonte. They were taken to the lionaire, if he is not already one, from a Catholic church where an opportunity

TEST .-- Mrs. Harry Test, of Philipsburg, died at the home of her niece in Pitcairn --- 'Squire George S. Berryhill, of on Sunday night, of heart trouble. She Blanchard, who has a reputation of set- left Philipsburg last week in good health apolis, Minn.; Frank L., of Duluth, tling more cases than any other justice of and had been with her niece only a few the peace in the county, had one last days when she was taken sick and died

Deceased was a daughter of Reuben three others for slander and as each and land Elizabeth Iddings and was born at all of them had to have their say it took Plum Grove, in Union township, on Septhe 'Squire some time to smoothe their tember 11th, 1862, hence was 48 years, 6 cemetery. ruffled feathers-and tempers as well- months and 15 days old. Since her marriage to Mr. Test she had lived in Philipsburg. Surviving her are her husband art made public least Friday the names of both of Philipsburg. She also leaves one brother and three sisters, namely: Philip, Alma White, of Columbus, Ohio. The remains were taken to her late home in Philipsburg on Tuesday evening from where the funeral was held vesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

stances such is the case, but it is more with pneumonia Mrs. E. C. Musser died than habit that draws the large crowds to at her home in Greenville, Pa., on Wedthe Scenic every evening. It is the good nesday morning. Her maiden name was program of moving pictures you are al- Miss Mabel Worley and she was born in ways sure of seeing and the excellent or- Williamsport twenty-one years ago. Last der at all times. There never was anoth- September she was united in marriage to er place like it in Bellefonte and it has E. C. Musser, of Ferguson township, and no superior, if any equals, anywhere in immediately thereafter they went to the State. That's the reason it is so well Greenville where Mr. Musser became patronized. If you don't attend, try it principal of the public school. Mrs. Musser was a member of the Lutheran church M. A. Landsy has had on exhibi. and Sunday school and an earnest worktion at the Brockerhoff house this week a er in both. She was a bright and inlife size painting of J. D. Hancock Esq., telligent young woman and her untimely of Franklin. It is one of the best re- death is deeply deplored by all who knew productions in oil turned out by this well her. The remains were brought to Cenknown firm of portrait painters, Antrim tre county and taken to the Musser home & Landsy, of Philadelphia. In fact it is on the Branch from where the funeral so life-like in appearance that it was will be held tomorrow (Saturday) mornstrongly commented upon by Rev. John ing at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Sausserman, Hewitt, who is a warm personal friend of State College, will officiate and burial

ENTWISLE.-Joseph Lee Entwisle, a brother of Mrs. Frank P. Blair, of this -Edward Brown Jr., bought the place, died at his home in Lorain, Ohioproperty of James McCafferty on east last Friday, after an illness of two years Logan street and will make that place the or longer with diabetes. He was sixtyhome of his family instead of Baltimore. three years old and a native of Philadel-Mr. Brown and family accompanied the phia. By profession he was a civil engiremains of his father here on Monday neer and was one of the men who assistand are now in Bellefonte awaiting the ed in surveying the site for the big steel arrival of their household goods. Once mills located there. He never married they have everything fixed up Mrs. Brown and in addition to Mrs. Blair is survived and two children, Mame and Leo, will by one other sister and five brothers. remain here. Mr. Brown and daughter The remains were buried in Lorain on ing. The opening exercise will be fur-but a number from out of town. One her daughter. Funeral services were tend these interesting exercises, machine which attracted considerable at- held on Tuesday evening and on Wednestention was a Regal runabout driven by day morning the remains were taken to what was once a robust constitution The deceased, whose maiden name was by her father, Henry Stoner, and the fol- will be received on Sunday as usual and Lowrie, Warriorsmark; vice president, to this country when a young man and years ago, first locating in Lancaster, and Evangelical church and Rev. S. A. Snyder to deliver mail to the traveling public. Huntingdon; Mrs. H. H. Stiles, Altoona; During the first few years of his life in township, Clearfield county, marrying were held on Sunday morning, burial mail as usual, as such mail will be prompt- J. C. Day, Tyrone; Mrs. A. H. Irvine, -The regular meeting of the Wom- tions and later embarked in the hotel on the old homestead near Kylertown. al cemetery. an's Club of Bellefonte will be held in business. His first venture was as land. Her husband dying about eight years ago. Petriken hall Friday, April seventh, at lord of a hostelry on the southwest cor- she has, during the past four years, made Unegona, the Italian that they are expecting an important let, retary, Mrs. H. R. Smith, Altoona; corsota, also survives.

1 desired. Another new car in Bellefonte home of his parents at Fairview yesterday ly her entire life was spent in Walker ceived last fall by John Sebring Jr. It losis. He was aged about twenty years but surviving her are the following chilwriting.

The funeral took place on Friday afterresidence of her son, John B., in South Philipsburg, Rev. W. G. Fulton officiating, for 1910 which showed an increase in the be made. with interment in the Philipsburg ceme-

BIERLY.-Mrs. Rose Levey Bierly, wife of Albert Bierly, of Milesburg, died in the Bellefonte hospital at an early hour morning the remains were brought to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment but her case was practically hopeless.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. was given all those desiring to do so to James Levey and was born in Milesburg take a last look at one whom they knew for about thirty-seven years ago. She was a years, after which burial was made in the member of the Presbyterian church and a woman of true christian character. Surviving her are one son and three daughters, namely: Raymond, Ruth, Sarah and Hannah; also the following brothers and sisters: W. H., of Minne-Minn.; James E., of Woolsey, S. D.; Melville, of California, and Mrs. Bertha Leicht, of Huron, S. D. Rev. W. K. Harnish, of Lemont, officiated at the funeral which was held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Bellefonte Union

ORNDORF.-Something over a year ago Nathaniel J. Orndorf, of Woodward, suffered a stroke of paralysis which left him an invalid until Friday of last week when of Plum Grove; Mrs. Willard Fisher and of which he died on Sunday afternoon. week Miss Tate, of Bellefonte, undercan frontier to view the movements of Mrs. Hannah Gill, of Unionville, and Mrs. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel went an operation for appendicitis and do, and the following brothers and sis- ed. MUSSER.—After only four days illness Gehret, of Loganton; Mrs. Aaron Stover most peculiar on record. It will be re-> died at her home in Chicago last Friday of pneumonia after a brief illness. She fectly safe for her to return home. caught a bad cold while making preparacausing her death.

parents being Isaac and Emeline Odenkirk, of Huntingdon county, where she was born. The family moved to Chicago about fifteen years ago and it was there her husband died a year later. Her only survivors are two daughters, Mrs. E. P. Vanderwicken and Miss Adelaide, both of Chicago, and her sister, Mrs. Aiken. The funeral was held on Sunday, burial being made in Chicago.

return home tomorrow.

. . Parent--Teachers Association will meet next Tuesday evening, April 4th, in the KAUFFMAN. - Mrs. George Kauffman ness of less than two weeks. She was seventy-three years of age and practicaltownship. Her husband died last June dren: Mrs. Catharine Harshberger, of was made at Zion on Saturday.

HOFFMAN.-Mrs. Catherine Hoffman, SPANGLER.-Following an illness of considerable property. He made Belle- burg; Mrs. Jacob Stofflett, of Pottstown; charge of the remains and prepared fonte his home until something over a Mrs. John Stine Jr., of Buffalo Run, and them for bur:al, the funeral being feld At a meeting of the Bellefonte minyear ago when he accompanied his son Mrs. J. C. Homer, of Johnsonburg. One from the Catholic church yesterday mornisterium held Tuesday afternoon in the lic cemetery.

> past ten years of only 530. The debiggest increase in population is in the and that some of the largest busines ship while the biggest decrease is in of mail at this office, these eight men are

	1910	19
Bellefonte borough		42
Benner township		12
Boggs township	1565	18
Burnside township	356	4
Centre Hall borough	500	5
College township	1135	11
Curtin township	740	5
Ferguson township	1558	15
Gregg township	1635	20
Haines township	1176	14
Halfmoon township	562	•
Harris township	759	8
Howard borough	667	5
Howard township	709	8
Huston township	674	7
Liberty township	1226	11
Marion township	486	5
Miles township	1303	13
Milesburg borough	531	5
Millheim borough	626	-
Patton township	907	-
Penn township	856	5
Penn township	3585	38
Potter township	1471	1
Rush township	.3763	2
Snow Shoe borough	643
Snow Shoe township	2166	27
South Philipsburg borough	434	4
Spring township	3075	29
State College borough	1425	8
Taylor township	493	5
Union township	777	1
Unionville borough	343	1
Walker township	.1164	12
Worth township	754	1
	-
Centre County	A3 494	59.5

he had another stroke from the effects Hospital Notes.-During the past Orndorf and was born at Woodward fifty- George Flick, of Fleming, had the first eight years ago. He was a farmer by oc- finger of his left hand amputated. There cupation and a good citizen in every way, are now twenty-six patients in the instiher marriage was Miss Fietta Vonada, a week and Mrs. George Darr, of Coleville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vona and Mrs. Cora Fink, of Julian, discharg-ters: Benjamin, Samuel and Mrs. Harvey Mrs. George Darr's case is one of the and Mrs. Adam Hoover, of Woodward; membered that over two months ago she Mrs. Curtin Klechner, of Millheim: Mrs. ran a needle into her abdomen while doing James Peck, of Brush valley, and Mrs. the family washing and a week or so later Clara Confer, of Sugar valley. Funeral blood poison set in. She was taken to services were held in the United Evangel the hospital but all efforts to locate the ical church on Wednesday morning, after needle proved futile. Her condition bewhich burial was made in the Woodward came so bad that the doctors had little hope of saving her life but when her condition seemed most critical she suddenly THOMAS.-Mrs. John H. Thomas, a took a turn for the better and improved sister of Mrs. J. A. Aiken, of this place, right along. While not entirely well her condition is such that it was deemed per-

Jacob Marks is still in the hospital, but tions to come to Bellefonte to visit her is convalescing now more rapidly than sister and pneumonia rapidly developed at first and he will likely be discharged in the near future. He has been in the Her maiden name was Odenkirk, her hospital since February 6th, or almost eight weeks.

noon and at eight o'clock this evening the members of the Methodist church Halfmoon valleys. will tender their new pastor a formal reception in the lecture room of the church.

---- Architect Robert Cole has completed plans and specifications for a new PARENT--TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.-The call for a substantial brick structure with plans have been approved and accepted by the school directors.

nished by about ninety pupils from the tion of the State the good roads special will be open not only to the students of the county interested in improving the pub-Wilbur Leitzel, of State Coll ge. Though the Mt. Pleasant cemetery in Taylor died at her home near Zion on Tuesday lic highways. Addresses will be made of last week, of pneumonia, after an ill- by competent speakers and the latest improved road making machinery will be birthday anniversary of Mrs. F. C. Mc-on exhibition all the time. special for the present.

MOVEMENT TO KEEP POSTOFFICE years a resident of Bellefonte, died at widow of Peter Hoffman, died at the three months or over Mrs. Annie Eliza- CLOSED ON SUNDAYS.-The postoffice deing. His death was due to no particular 22nd, after an illness covering a period of was aged 37 years, 9 months and 23 days, on Sunday, so far as the local patrons of the following officers were elected for the In addition to her husband she is survived the office are concerned. Mail matter ensuing year: President, Miss S. R. house. After quitting the hotel business member of the Presbyterian church, a morning. Pneumonia was the cause of ter and where it is from when it will be literature, Mrs. F. B. Reed, Clearfield:

MATTER.

Edward and family to Baltimore. But he brother, Adam Knapp, residing in Minne- ing. Interment was made in the Catho- Y. M. C. A. building, to which the business men of Bellefonte had been invited. postmaster Harter and assistant post-CENTRE COUNTY CENSUS FIGURES .- master Chambers presented information noon, March 24th, at 2 o'clock from the Some time ago the WATCHMAN published their men every Sunday morning in order the total census figures of Centre county that a Sunday office delivery of mail can

It was stated that a force of eight men tailed statistics by boroughs and townships has now been made public. The patrons called at the office for their mail borough of State College and Rush town- firms never lifted their mail on Sunday.

Monday morning. She had been ill for Gregg township. The complete figures prevented from enjoying their lawful day of rest and denied the privilege of attending Sunday morning services.

Believing that all unnecessary work on the Lord's Day is wrong and that the employees of the postoffice have a right to their Sunday as a day of rest which accords with the opinion of the Postmaster General, who believes that every man is entitled to one day of rest in every seven ----the Bellefonte Ministerium unanimously agree to request the Hon. Postmaster General to instruct the postmaster of the Bellefonte office to discontinue all Sunday delivery of mail to patrons, in-sofar as such an order will not conflict with any existing rules of the Postoffice Department.

In taking such action we realize that we are making no unusual or unreasonable request, but are following the ex ample of many cities and towns through-out the United States. ut the United States.

We further believe that the closing of our postoffice on Sunday will aid very materially in effecting better observance of the Lord's Day in this community.

AMBROSE M. SCHMIDT. JAS. F. HOWER, C. C. SHUEY.

Committee.

THE SPROUL ROAD BILL APPROVED BY COMMITTEE.—The Sproul state highway friends at McElhattan, is home with his son, bill has been reported out of committee is every reason to believe it will be pass. ing school at Selinsgrove, is at home on a few He is survived by his wife who, prior to tution, there having been two deaths this the Governor. This is the bill that provides for the building of about five thous- A. G. Kreamer. every county seat in the State at a total cost of fifty million dollars.

> Under the original bill the route from Lock Haven to Tyrone was by way of Bald Eagle valley and Nittany valley and State College was untouched The bill was later amended and the road as now planned for Centre county will be over the following routes:

> From Bellefonte across the Seven mountains to Lewistown: and from the Old Fort through the Narrows to Lewisburg. From Bellefonte to Lock Haven by way of Nittany valley, and from Bellefonte to Huntingdon by way of State College and Pennsylvania Furnace. A letter received from Hon. J. C. Meyer yesterday stated that he had succeeded in having Route 219 also scheduled which provides for a road from Clearfield by way of Philipsburg and Port Matilda to Milesburg, thence down Bald Ea---- Rev. and Mrs. Ezra H. Yocum will gle valley to Lock Haven. The above arrive in Bellefonte this (Frid y) after- routes cover Centre county complete, with the exception of Buffalo Run and DOES CENTRE COUNTY WANT THE WEST: All members and friends are invited to ERN PENITENTIARY.—There is a bill now before the Legislature, which has been favorably reported out of committee for the removal of the western penitentiary Walker township High school building to from Allegheny county to the central be erected at Hublersburg. The plans part of the State, either Huntingdon or Centre county. The fact that Governor all necessary modern conveniences. The Tener has expressed himself in favor of water soon covered the road in all low places. the bill looks as if it might pass and become a law, and then the question would be the choosing of a suitable location. ---Having traversed most every sec- Centre countians tried very hard to secure the Masonic home which went to College first and second grades of the new build- train operated by the Pennsylvania rail- Elizabethtown, Lancaster county, and we MERRYMAN.-Mrs. Elizabeth Merry- ing. D. F. Fortney, Esq. will read a paper road and The Pennsylvania State Col- have always been anxious to secure any man died on Sunday morning at the home on "The Use of School Buildings and lege, passed through Bellefonte on institution or industry that would add to of her daughter, Mrs. David Frantz, in Grounds as Centers of Education and Rec- Wednesday on its way to State College, the prosperity of the county or the citi--Sunday was warm and pleasant and Altoona, of general debility, aged seven- reation." The question box will be con- where the equipment will be kept until zens thereof, but when it comes to going a larger number of automobilists were ty-five years. She was born in Taylor tinued from the last meeting, as there the train is sent out on another trip. after the penitentiary that's a matter for out taking a spin than had been in evi- township, this county, where she spent are a number of interesting and import- Taking advantage of the train's lay up at very careful consideration. As a general dence since last fall. These included not practically all her life, going to Altoona ant questions to be discussed by the parthe college a big good roads meeting will rule everybody tries to keep about as far only owners of machines in Bellefonte, three years ago to make her home with ents and teachers. All are invited to atcollege but farmers and everybody in the tempting fates to have it brought any Poorman. nearer.

> ---Tuesday, March 28th, being the of the county. Intyre, of Pittsburg, formerly of Belle-In addition a meeting will be held on fonte, she was very agreeably surprised Monday. The cars will be open for in- to receive 116 post cards from friends. ter. The wedding will take place in June. Lime is also useful.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS -At the annual meeting of the Woman's the home of his son, Edward Jr., in Balti- home of her son, John B. Hoffman Esq., beth Spangler, died at her home at Tus- partment is inaugurating a movement all Missionary society of the Huntingdon more, at 7:30 o'clock last Thursday even- in South Philipsburg, Wednesday, March seyville on Thursday of last week. She over the country to close the postoffices Presbytery held in Tyrone last Thursday owing to his extreme age, which was just Catherine Knapp, was born in Germany lowing brothers and sisters: William, of distributed by the clerks, but the carriers Miss Annie Irvine, Hollidaysburg: Miss three days less than one hundred years. on December 8th, 1828, making her age Centre Hall; Charles, of Tusseyville, and will not be on duty to sort their mail. Sara D. Morrow, Tyrone; Mrs. Samuel Deceased was born in County Donegal, 82 years, 3 months and 14 days. She Mrs. Nora Cummings, of Linden Hall. No stamps will be sold, but the general Barber, Curwensville; Miss Mary Hunter Ireland, on March 27th, 1811. He came came to this country about fifty-eight She was a devoted member of the United delivery window will be open a brief time Linn, Bellefonte; Miss Mary C. Speer. shortly afterwards located in Bellefonte. about four years later, moving to Cooper had charge of the funeral services which All box holders will be able to get their Mrs. George L. Russell, Lewistown; Mrs. Bellefonte he followed various occupa- Peter Hoffman and living for many years being made in the Zion United Evangelic- ly distributed. Local patrons who are Curwensville; Mrs. William Thompson. served by carriers will be unable to get Lemont; Mrs. E. E. Kerr, Bedford; Mrs. their mail on Sunday, but in the event Albert Foster, Lewistown; recording sechalf after three o'clock. A meeting of the ner of Bishop and Allegheny streets called her home with her son, John B., in South who while delirious raised such a rumpus at the Bellefonte hospital a week ago general delivery window when it is open Spruce Creek; assistant, Miss Elizabeth mediately follow that of the club and all of the Butts hotel, now called the Brant She was a good christian woman, a last Sunday night, died on Tuesday and filling out a blank describing the let. Hemphill, Hollidaysburg; secretary of he conducted a butcher shop and grocery fond mother and a kind neighbor, beloved his death. He was about twenty-five given if there. The movement went secretaries of young peoples societies and store respectively in his own building on by all who knew her. Surviving her are years old and his only relative in this into effect in Altoona last Sunday and bands, Miss Anna Fisher and Miss Nannie the office of W. Harrison Walker Esq., the corner of Allegheny and Bishop six children, viz: Herman, of Waltham, country is one brother, who works for may strike Bellefonte sooner or later, so Jackson, of Huntingdon; secretary of study classes, Miss Grace Burket, Tythe purpose of furthering the movement and naturally was successful in acquiring could not learn; John B., South Philips Undertaker Frank E. Naginey took THE MINISTERIUM TAKES ACTION IN THE rone; treasurer, Mrs. C. S. Jones, Ty-

Marriage License.

John S. Rishel and Cora M. Shaffer, both of Madisonburg. Mitchell Poorman, of Snow Shoe, and Rosie Heaton, of Yarnell.

J. W. Bair and Josie P. Runkle, both of Smullton.

William L. Cramer, of State College, and Gertie E. Swartz, of Bellefonte. Harry B. Walk, of Philipsburg, and Jessie Middleton, of Chester Hill.

James T. Imel, of Bellefonte, and Mary

N. Lucas, of Howard. John Collins, of Cassanova, and Sarah Morgan, of Winburne.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.

Wm. L. Mayes, of Bellefonte, is visiting in our Mrs. Thomas Barner is on the sick list with a very severe cold. Walter Agar, a local shipper, moved several car loads of hay recently.

Mrs. Samuel Martin, of State College, moved back to Snydertown recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Miller spent a few days over in Pennsvalley last week. J. W. Carner, who has been ill for some time past, is not improving very fast. A very heavy hail storm passed over our section of the county last Monday

James Deitrich and brother William have been sawing wood in our town this week. Candidates for the various offices of the county seem to be plenty, and are on the move. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Deitrich spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kauffman at Zion.

Mrs. G. F. Hov returned home after a two week's stay with her daughter in Philadelphia. Mrs. Samuel Hinds, of Lock Haven, visited with her grandson, Perry Hinds, of our town, last Fri

William Carner, who stent the winter with with favorable recommendation and there | Miss Rosie McCormick, who has been attended days vacation. Boyd Kreamer, who has been living in Fleming and miles of state highway connecting The school teachers are returning one by one from their winter's work and do not look the worse of the wear. The residents of our town, in order to prevent sickness in the spring, should begin early to clean up and remove rubbish. The farmers who have been denrived of the cream separating station here, are beginning to ship their milk to the Mill Hall milk condensary.

LEMONT.

Sunday reminded us that this is spring. Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. W. O. Dougherty are both quite ill at present. The sick are slowly improving at this writing but Frank Rhykard is not able to be out as yet. L. W. Musser and wife are rejoicing over the son that the stork left at their home last Wednes-Earl Shawver, who has been in Canada all winter, came home last Monday to visit with his par

Paul A. Noll and Lydie Rothrock, two of College township's teachers, were off on the sick list for a few days last week. Mabell Kline, daughter of John Kline, is at pres ent confined to her home with an attack of rheumatism, which will make it bad for moving. John, Joseph, William and Alfred Wasson, with their families, were called here last week to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Lena Was The changes made by the Pennsylvania Rail road company in the station here, by putting in scales, will make it handy for all who have to handle heavy freight that they wish to weigh. Sunday afternoon and night it rained quite heavy, but Monday afternoon the heaviest thunder and hail storm passed over this section that we have had this spring, and the hail lay on the ground from one to two inches deep, while the

RUNVILLE RIPPLINGS.

Morrell Lucas is home for some time. Katharine Lauck departed on Monday for State Wm. Walker came up from Milesburg last Friday to spend the day with his friends. Miss Lucy Smoyer was a pleasant guest with her sister, Mrs. Sara Rine, of Bellefor The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lauck and family feel very sorry to see them move.

Mrs. Claude Lucas and family, of Snow Shoe. pent a few days with relatives here this Misses Maudella Poorman and Lucy Kline spent possible to do, and it would seem like Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Claude

Charles Williams came up from William spend part of the week with relatives in this part

Mr. and Mrs. Irv. Lucas came down from Altoona to spend a few days with Mrs. Lucas's sister, Mrs. Mary Dale, -Greiner says his prefernce is for stable spection from 9 a. m. to 4p. m. each day. At a reception held at her home in the manure on asparagus, and he believes one cannot injure an asparagus bed by evening announcement was made of the er and speed to take the hills of Belleonte with apparent ease. Several other new cars are expected in Bellefonte in the

and is survived by his parents and a numditorium at four o'clock Monday. This new cars are expected in Bellefonte in the ditorium at four o'clock Monday. This of Zion, and Miss Ada, at home. Burial will close the work of the good roads beth to Joy Elmore Dundore, of Lancasalso good. It should be applied in the fall.