Bellefonte, Pa., April 7, 1911.

P. GRAY MEEK.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.-Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the owing rates: Paid strictly in advance Paid before expiration of year . Paid after expiration of year possibly April has come.

-Brother BLAKESLIE announces with a flourish of trumpets that he is going to claims that he wants "to do the right thing," we presume he has figured out that this is about what his services in the position he has so ostentatiously accept-have been passed and signed by the Governor. At a caucus on Tuesday the Machine decided to make it a law this week. In fact if it is to be operative at all this year it must be signed before tomorrow, the day on which the proclamation for the regular June primaries must be published. Such a change will make the campaign for nominations of all candidates in where interment was made. the field now extend until the last Saturday in September, four months longer and will mean a pretty penny of expense and time to the poor fellows who have been hustling since the first of the year.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

-Harry Auman, clerk at the Brockerhoff house, has been confined to his home this week with rheumatism and other ailments.

Thomas W. Fisher, of Unionville, and Simon Sellers and for almost a half cen- brother, Jonathan Rothrock, of Wallace- ets and turned it over to the authorities. Miss Martha Zahniser, of Port Allegheny, tury the family was one of the best ton, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Shimel, Of course it is just possible that the myswere married at the home of the bride's know and most highly respected at of Morrisdale, and Mrs. J. A. Albert, of tery will be cleared up at the hearing on parents yesterday noon. After a brief Stormstown, this county. Mr. Sellers South Philipsburg, also survive. wedding trip they will take up their resi- died about twelve years ago and since Revs. Miller and Hawkins officiated at dence on the Fisher homestead near then Mrs. Sellers has made her home with the funeral which was held last Saturday Unionville.

-Harry Keller will read a paper on "The Legal Rights of Women" before the Woman's club of Bellefonte, at their regular meeting in Petrikin hall, this (Friday) afternoon at half after three o'clock. Village Improvement committee. It is important that all members of the club be present.

--- The Epworth League of the Methodist church will have a social and enbalance of the evening will be spent in a tery for interment. general social way. No admission will be charged. Every member and friend of the League is requested to be present and bring their friends.

----Harry Alters is a very peaceable man and his shooting gallery and cigar store is not a fighting arena by any means, but for a few minutes yesterday noon it was the scene of a lively fistcuff when a gentleman from Unionville battered Michael Meyer's face until it looked like a heefsteak. In the scuffle the end glass in the big candy show case was broken. The altercation arose over a dispute at

--- Rev. and Mrs. Ezra H. Yocum argiven a formal welcome by the congre- Lodge of Bedford. His surviving chil- cemetery. gation in the lecture room of the Meth- dren are as follows: Mrs. Duke Copelin. odist church. A large number of the Mrs. Artha Parker and George Hurley, of members of the congregation were pres- Philipsburg; William E., of this place: ent and after a little speech making everyone extended a personal greeting and Galbraith, of Huntingdon; Mrs. Daniels welcome. Rev. Yocum preached his first and Mrs. Howard Fleck, of Altoona. sermons on Sunday and pleased the congregation very much.

-The preliminary contest for the selection of the ten students of the Junior class of the Bellefonte High school who will contest for the Col. W. F. Reynolds prizes at the annual commencement in June was held in the High school building last Friday afternoon and resulted in the selection of the following: Joseph Ceader, Margaret Gilmore, Talmage Hafer, Dorothy Jenkins, Hazel Johnson, Ruth Kline, Basil Mott, Sarah Shuey, Harold Ward and Ruth Wetzel.

--- If anybody finds the carcass of a big muskrat in Spring creek between Bellefonte and Milesburg or down Bald Eagle they are hereby notified that it is the lawful game of Trood Parker, of this office. On Tuesday morning his ratship was amusing himself and also endeavoring to get a good meal by trying to catch the trout in Spring creek, right opposite this office. Inasmuch as the trout in the Albright, at Spring Mills, last Friday after will also be a Bald Eagle route from Lock creek have been a great attraction many a long illness with tuberculosis. He was Haven to Port Matilda and the people of Bellefonte are just as glad that such is to persons think they ought to be protected so in order to protect them from the years, 4 months and 20 days old. Sur- be. Bald Eagle is a nice valley and while muskrat Trood shot the rat, but the water was so high he was unable to reward suffered a stroke of apoplexy from was not unexpected. o'clock.

mark valley on March 25th, 1832, hence 76 years, 7 months and 14 days old. When doctor went to a drug store to get some were attended by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. -Wednesday actually performed enough was 79 years and 7 days old. On March a young woman she was united in mar-medicine and while away Snook and his Swabb. The ceremony was performed 4th. 1852, she was united in marriage to riage to Simon Ward and her entire life son went to Frank Bartley's livery sta- by Rev. W. J. Dice, of Millheim, the ring Henry Waite and the first twelve years of was spent in the vicinity of her birth. ble where the former bought a dog for service being used. -President TAFT said he could write their married life were spent in farming She became a member of the Presbyter- four dollars. On his way back he met The bride is a graduate of the Lock his message to Congress in thirty minutes in Huntingdon county. In 1864 Mr. Waite ian church when a girl and during her Jackson in the Diamond and the two of Haven Normal school and for several and after the session is finished he will be purchased a farm in Halfmoon township entire life she was consistent to its doc- them went to the Garman house where terms has taught the Aaronsburg primary an intellectual laggard if he can't write all and lived there until his death in 1873. trines and teachings. As a neighbor and they had several drinks, Snook paying school very successfully. Mr. Bower is that is fit to print of his views in thirty After that Mrs. Waite managed the farm friend she was always ready and willing for them. ren church and a woman who was as up- her many kindnesses. whom sincerely mourn her death.

of the paper reaches the readers of township; Miss Laura A., of East Northof Hazleton, and Miss Ella, at home.

Funeral services were held in the Unit- the cemetery at Graysville. ed Brethren church at 12:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev.

SELLERS.-Mrs. Elizabeth Sellers, wid- days old and was born in Clinton county. find a cent. Afterwards Mr. Dreese ow of the late Simon Sellers, of Storms- When a young man he went to Clearfield went through Snook's clothes and from town, died at the home of her daughter, county, where he lived a number of one of his trouser's pockets drew a small Mrs. T. Wilson Way, at West Chester, on years, finally locating in Philipsburg. He roll of bills which when counted amount-Sunday afternoon. She contracted a bad was a cabinet maker by trade and an up- ed to thirteen dollars. Counting about cold about a week previous which devel- right, conscientious citizen in every way. seven dollars that Snook had spent would oped into the grip, which caused her Sixty-two years ago he was united in make twenty, leaving $23.50 to be acdeath, owing to her advanced age.

ket and she was born in Warriors children, namely: James, Orin, Mrs. clares there was no money in Snook's mark valley almost eighty-three years Jesse Owens, Mrs. Michael McGuire and pocket when he searched him, but Dreese -Harold Fisher, son of the late ago. She was united in marriage to Mrs. Jerry Funk, all of Philipsburg. One drew that amount from one of his pockher children. She was a member of the afternoon, burial being made in the Phil-Methodist Episcopal church and her ipsburg cemetery. home was always regarded one of the most hospitable in Stormstown. Surviv- TATE.—An unexpected death at the Deceased was in his eighty-first year Mrs. John Posk, of Pittsburg; Mrs. A. B.

The funeral was held on Monday, the remains being taken to Roaring Springs BANEY .- Mrs. Viola Baney, wife of ing. Albon Baney, of Port Matilda, died at the Bellefonte hospital about six o'clock on Sunday evening. She had been a sufferer for some weeks with tuberculosis of the bowels and two weeks or more ago was brought to the hospital for treatment but her condition was such that her recovery was impossible. She was born in College township forty-seven years ago and was a daughter of C. D. and Catharine Houtz. Surviving her are her husband and several children. The remains were taken to her old home near Lemont from where the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made at Shiloh.

ALBRIGHT. - Harry Herbert Albright died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Joan this route than the other. However, there at regular quarterly rates.

Albeight at Soving Mills last Friday after will also be a Rald Eagle route from Lock All mail deposited up to 4 p. m. will be born November 11th, 1883, hence was 27 Belleionte are just as glat that valley can be the case as residents of that valley can viving him are his mother and a number not as direct as the Nittany valley route of brothers and sisters. Rev. J. Max Lantz officiated at the funeral which was a good state highway it will be traveled cover the carcass and secure the pelt as held on Monday afternoon, burial being frequently by persons going from one town to the other.

WAITE -Quite a sudden death on Mon- | WARD .- Mrs. Anna Ward, relict of LEMONT MAN ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY | BOWER-SWABB-The home of Mr. K. C. day afternoon was that of Mrs. Anna Simon Ward and a life-long resident of -John Jackson, of Lemont, is under two Swabb, at Aaronsburg, was the scene of Waite, relict of Henry Waite, at her home | Ferguson township, died at her home at hundred dollars bail for a further hear- a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evenon Thomas street. Last November she Baileyville at 2.30 o'clock last Thursday ing on Saturday, April 15th, on the charge ing when her daughter, Miss Ruth K. fell and fractured her hip, but the frac- afternoon. She had been a sufferer with of robbing Ward Snook of upwards of Swabb, was united in marriage to E. B. ture had healed nicely and she has been dropsy and heart trouble a long time and forty dollars in money. Snook, who Bower. A large number of guests were up and around for some weeks. Monday the past year had been practically blind works for the McNitt Lumber company, present to witness the ceremony which she ate a hearty dinner and shortly after- and almost helpless, so that her death came to Bellefonte on Wednesday morn- took place at six o'clock in the evening which she died shortly before three She was a daughter of Richard and He was accompanied by his fifteen year bridal party entered the parlor while Elizabeth Meyers Irvin, early settlers of old son and the two of them went to Dr. Mrs. P. D. Swabb played Mendelssohn's Deceased was a daughter of John and Ferguson township, and was born at Fisher's office where Mr. Snook consult wedding march. The bride wore a gown Susan Eyre and was born in Warriors Baileyville on August 16th, 1834, hence was ed the doctor for some ailment. The of white crepe de chene and the couple the WATCHMAN the new primary bill will field, Mass; Harry A., of Altoona; Mrs. home on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 were found in his pockets, but he proved James Forcey, of Woodland; J. Edward, o'clock. Rev. R. M. Campbell had charge that he had gotten that money-$4.20 in > were taken by train to Waddle station, died in that place last Wednesday. He has worked, going his bail. thence by conveyance to Grays cemetery, had been ailing for several years and his When Dukeman arrested Jackson he death was due to paralysis.

marriage to Miss Mary Jane Flegal, of counted for. But the greatest mystery Her maiden name was Elizabeth Bur- Clearfield county, who survives with five of all is the thirteen. The policeman de-made in the cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

for interment in the cemetery at that L., and a half-sister, Mrs. George Fortney, of Boalsburg. Burial was made in the Boalsburg cemetery yesterday morn-

> BOTH VALLEYS ON STATE HIGHWAY of the Lock Haven Express waxes wroth over the fact that the people of Nittany lic the Bellefonte postoffice will be closed valley, Bellefonte and State College suc- next Sunday, April 9th. ceeded in having the original schedule of the Sproul bill amended so as to make the route through Nittany valley and by way of State College and Spruce Creek valley to Huntingdon. It was not with any antagonism against the people of lower Bald Eagle valley that the change was asked for, but because it would make a more di- charged. rect road between Lock Haven and Huntingdon by twenty miles or more, while it was believed that greater and more important interests would be conserved on which can be rented for Sunday service

ing and cashed his pay check for $43.50. and promptly at the appointed hour the until 1894 when she moved to Bellefonte, to extend a helping hand and many there From there they went back to the doc- for the Bellefonte Lumber company and She was a member of the United Breth- are who have good cause to remember tor's office and they had hardly arrived after a brief wedding trip the young couthere when Snook fell on the floor in a ple will be at home to their friends at right in her every day life as she was in Her husband died many years ago but drunken stupor. When the doctor re- their already furnished home on Valenserve as secretary of the dis-organizers precept. Since coming to Bellefonte she surviving her are the following children: turned the man was still lying on the tine street, this place. Among the guests made many warm personal friends all of Man John Boundary made many warm personal friends, all of Mrs. John Boop, of Harrisburg; Elliott, of floor. Jackson had disappeared and present at the wedding were Mr. and Washington, Pa.; Isaac, of Clark, Ohio; Snook's son said that he had gone through Mrs. E. A. Bower, Miss Helen Bower, She was the mother of eleven children, and W. S. and Mrs. C. B. Hess, of Bailey- his father's pockets and taken his mon- Mrs. Mary Burd, Mrs. Effic Weaver, of all of whom survive, as follows: Darius, ville. She also leaves two brothers and ey. The doctor telephoned for a police- Aaronsburg; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burd, of this place; John S., of Lock Haven; two sisters, namely: Samuel P. Irvin, of man and Dukeman arrested Jackson as Coburn; Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Swabb and ed will be worth. And we agree with Mrs. Blair Stevens, of Kermoor; H. B. Lewistown; William, of Pennsylvania Fur- he was getting on the Lewisburg train to son Joseph, of Spring Mills; Mr. and Waite, on the old homestead; Miss Sarah

—It is quite possible that ere this copy

Waite, on the old homestead; Miss Sarah

—It is quite possible that ere this copy

Mrs. A. Graffius, of West Moshannon.

West Moshannon.

Mrs. A. Graffius, of West Moshannon.

Mrs. A. Graffius, of West Moshannon. The funeral was held from her late en a hearing. On being searched $3.16 Tusseyville. of the services and burial was made in fact-from Lewis Gettig. He denied that he had taken a cent from Mr. Snook but there was enough of mystery about the ROTHROCK.-William T. Rothrock, one case to hold him for a further hearing, I. C. W. Winey, after which the remains of the oldest residents of Philipsburg, J. Dreese, of Lemont, for whom Jackson claims that he also searched Snook to see Deceased was 85 years, 1 month and 20 if he had his money and that he did not April 15th, at eleven o'clock a. m.

son. Only at Fauble's.

ing her are the following children: John Bellefonte hospital was that last Thurs-W. Sellers, of Tyrone; Mrs. T. Wilson day afternoon of Miss Rye Tate. Several in Williamsport during the week of April sought the good services of Dr. Fife, who Way, of West Chester, and W. H. Sellers, days previous she underwent an opera- 10th, will to a certain extent inaugurate a in turn summoned Mrs. Daggett and Miss meeting and followed by a meeting of the meeting and the meeting a sisters also survive, namely: P. W. Bur- tion was serious it was not alarming until duce new models of various cars, which Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and ket, and Mrs. George W. Loner, of she suffered a collapse on Thursday and have universally been accepted by the Mrs. Shuey drove back to the Reynolds Stormstown, and Mrs. G. W. Burket, of her death was the result. She was about men who know what a reliable automo- farm at Rock, where he is the tenant thirty years of age and was born at bile is. It will give the prospective auto farmer. The body was taken to the home of her Pleasant Gap, but she made her home in buyer a better opportunity to observe son John W., in Tyrone, on Tuesday Bellefonte the past few years. Surviving what in reality constitutes an automobile, tertainment in the lecture room of the evening where the funeral services were her are the following brothers and sis- viz: the various component parts that church Thursday evening, April 13th. A held and on Wednesday morning the re. ters: Life and John, of Pleasant Gap; make up the whole, that make possible short program will be rendered and the mains were taken to Gray's church ceme. Mrs Bruce Baney, Mrs. John Love and all that can be produced by these won-Miss Edith, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Samuel derful mechanic devices. There will be Gibson, of Lewistown; Miss Elizabeth, of on exhibition various models of the E. M. HURLEY.—William Hurley, father of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret, of F., Cadillac, Oldsmobile, Stoddard-Dayton, them all happiness possible in their marsheriff W. E. Hurley, of this place, died at Johnstown. The funeral was held from Flanders, Matheson, Detroit Electrics, Simthe home of his daughter, Mrs. Duke the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Love, on plex, Rauch & Lang Electrics and Kelly Copelin, in Philipsburg, at four o'clock Willowbank street, on Saturday after- motor trucks, etc. In addition to these last Friday afternoon after an illness of noon at 2:30 o'clock. Revs. C. W. Winey exhibits there will be elaborate shows of Bellefonte, and Miss Mary Bair, of near only two days with neuralgia of the and C. C. Shuey officiated and burial was automobile parts and there will be personal representatives of the above differ- home of the bride's parents on Thursday ent makes of cars who will come direct evening of last week by Rev. H. A. Snook. and was born in Hagerstown, Md., though PALMER.-Mrs. Sadie Palmer died at from the factories to uphold their share The young couple will go to housekeepmost of his life was spent in Blair and her home along the foot of the mountain, of the week's business, who will explain Bedford counties. Since the death of his two miles beyond Valley View, last Saturall all about their respective cars and give wife twelve years ago he made his home day. The cause of her death was tuber- daily demonstrations of their cars. There among his children in Philipsburg. Mr. culosis of the lungs with which she had can be no doubt as to the success of this Hurley was a veteran of the Civil war, been afflicted for months. She was thirtyhaving served as a member of the Eighty- eight years old and was a daughter of Invitations have been mailed to nearly fourth regiment Pennsylvania volunteers. Adolphus and Margaret Eckley Lingeton. every automobile owner in the northern rived in Bellefonte last Friday and that He was a member of the John W. Geary The funeral was held on Tuesday afterevening the new pastor and his wife were Post G. A. R. and of the Odd Fellows noon, burial being made in the Meyer of others who may be prospective purchasers of machines. The people of Williamsport are not a little enthused over STAMM.—Benjamin Stamm, a lifelong the affair and will lend their hands to the resident of Boalsburg, died on Tuesday success of the great venture. Souvenirs morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. will be given to the ladies at the evening morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. Benjamin Stamm Sr. He was sixty-two years old and had been an invalid for many years. In addition to his mother Alco car in the last year's Vanderbilt race he is survived by a half-brother, Calvin will be on hand. The show will open Monday afternoon, April 10th, and will continue during the entire week. See advertisement in this paper.

Sunday Postoffice Service.

In compliance with the request of the ROUTE.—The Beech Creek correspondent Postmaster General, the soliciation of the Bellefonte Ministerium and the practicalunanimous consent of the general pub-

The boxes will be served as usual, but no stamps will be sold, and the general delivery window will be open for fifteen minutes—from 12 m. to 12:15—for the ac-commodation of the traveling public and for persons who expect special mail, for which requisition must be made at the window on the day before and on which special delivery rates (10 cents) will be

All special delivery letters will be delivered as usual and the lobby will be open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. for the accommodation of persons holding boxes; dispatched on the 4:44 train as usual.

T. H. HARTER, P. M. -Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris and Miss Morris, who have been spending the arrangements to finish moving their household winter at the Bush house, will move to the popular bookkeeper and accountant

SMITH-KESSINGER .- A wedding that was quite a surprise to many people was that on Tuesday morning of William H. Smith, of Johnstown, and Mrs. Florence Kessinger, of this place. The contracting parties met for the first time only about a month ago and so mutual were their sentiments that they decided to get married and at 10.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning they went to the Methodist parsonage on east Linn street and had the ceremony performed by Rev. Ezra H. Yocum. The same afternoon they left Bellefonte on the 1.23 train for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo, N. Y., and Niagara Falls, at the termination of which they will take up their residence in Johnstown where the bridegroom has their home all furnished and ready for occupancy, The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Krape, of Salona, but has made Bellefonte her home for some time past. The bridegroom is an old Bellefonte boy, well known to most of the WATCHMAN readers, and to both we extend congratu-

SHUEY-BORING.-The Bush house parlor was the scene of a quiet wedding yes--Let your new Easter hat be a Stet- terday morning when Rev. Dr. Fife united in marriage George F. Shuey and Miss Margaret F. Boring, both of Benner township. The couple made their appearance

> BAIR-RUNKLE .-- A quiet wedding took place at Centre Mills on Monday when J. W. Bair and Josie F. Runkle, both of Brush valley, were united in marriage by Rev. J. Max Lantz. Both young people are quite well known in their home neighborhood and have many friends who wish STROUSE-BAIR.- Robert Strouse, of Spring Mills, were quietly married at the ing in Bellefonte in the near future.

SPENCER-YARNELL.-John F. Spencer, of Bellefonte, and Miss Grace Yarnell, of Howard, were united in holy wedlock in the U. E. Parsonage at Howard on the display of spring and summer wheeled stock. evening of March 30th, Rev. M. J. Snyder officiating. May many blessings attend this newly wedded pair.

-Let your new Easter hat be a Stetson. Only at Fauble's.

time been making his home with his sister, and in order to have nothing in the way to pre-Mrs. Wade Cruse, on Curtin street, mov- vent operating expeditiously he has conclude ed last week into the Faxon house on inst. East High street, which has been occupied by Martin Dale; Mr. Dale with his eight weeks of High school in our Academy family having moved into the Swartz house on East Bishop street.

and their family have moved from Lock Haven to Mill Hall, where they will have in connection with their home ten acres of ground, which they will cultivate for raising vegetables.

RUNVILLE RIPPLINGS.

Miss Elsie Walker is spending a few weeks in William Watson and wife made a business trip to Bellefonte Saturday. Clir Poorman, who is employed at Zion, spent Sunday with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. E. Fisher moved to the Kreps farm at Holt's Hollow Tuesday. Mr. Barnhart and daughter, of Curtin, pleasant visitors at the Hancock home Friday. Adam Irwin, of Austin, is spending some time with his father, Henry Irwin, of Chestnut Grove. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shirk and family, of Bellefonte, spent several days in our burg making goods to the town where Mr. Shirk has steady they will be greatly missed as neighbors and in the church.

Jury List for May Court.

Grand Jurors-First Week. R. C. Palmer, farmer, Harris. H. O. Kauffman, farmer, Walker. Christ Smith, musician, Bellefonte. E. M. Woodring, farmer, Worth Adam Y. Wagner, gent. Bellefonte. C. Wingate, blacksmith, Rush John Weber, merchant, Howard John A. Woodward, gent. Howard. W. Thompson, teacher, Howard twp. Gordon Straw, laborer, Huston Wm. A. Lytle, farmer, College Wm. Thompson, Jr., farmer College. Mitchell Garbrick, clerk, Bellefonte. Z. W. Hoy, farmer, Marion. Herbert Schenck, farmer, Harris. Harry Harper, farmer, Union. Benard McGovern, lab., Bellefonte. Frank Confer, farmer, Howard twp. irvin M. Lucas, farm., Howard twp. Lloyd Cronister, farmer, Half Moon Chas. Arney, teamster, Centre Hall. Holloway Hoy, farmer, Walker. W. B. Walker, lab., Snow Shoe twp. C. A. Lukenbach, clerk, Bellefonte.

Traverse Jurors-First Week.

Calvin Rishel, farmer, Miles.

John McDonald, laborer, Huston. John Ellenberger, laborer, Ferguson Benjamin Breon, laborer, Gregg. Daniel Rossman, farmer, Potter.
Frank Haines, photographer, Phbg.
David Keller, farmer, Potter.
J. Dauberman, butcher, Centre Hall Wm. H. Fry, votorinarian, Ferguson John P. Harris, treasurer, Bellefonte J. H. Crouse, barber, Haines. H. B. Neff, farmer, Boggs. Chas. McMullen, merchant, Phbg. John Callahan, laborer, Rush. Wm. H. Gates, carpenter, Patton. M. P. Walker, clerk, Bellefonte. W. F. Thompson, cheaf. St. College C. W. Mauck, merchant, Millheim. H. H. Barnhart, farmer, Boggs. H. Haupt, tinner, Milesburg. C. T. Fryberger, ins. agt., Phbg. James Davidson, farmer, Boggs D. P. F. Heckman, farmer, Gregg David Hoy, laborer, Spring. George Dixon, laborer, Rush. George Pfoutz, laborer, Rush. Christ Pietcher, carp. Howard Boro. Victor Way, laborer, Half Moon. L. F. Runkle, laborer, Gregg. Samuel T. Smith, teacher, Liberty. A .J. Cummings, farmer, Harris. Daniel Markle, laborer, Bellefonte. Howard Struble, farmer, Walker. J. W. Bachelor, carpenter. Phbg. A. J. Hironomus, laborer, Penn. H. F. Chaney, lumberman, Worth. R. R. Blair, jeweler, Bellefonte. S. E. Kimport, butcher, St. College. D. W. Miller, farmer, Ferguson. Chas. P. Brackbill, clerk, Bellefonte T. J. Boalich, painter, Phbg. John C. Andrews, farmer, Huston. Daniel Spittler, laborer, Rush. Geo. B. Haines, gent. Miles. Samuel Ewing, laborer, St. College. J. C. Croyle, agent, Phbg. Samuel Klinefelter, farmer, Potter. J. W. Zeigler, farmer, Mile

Traverse Jurors-2nd Week. James Snyder, operator, Boggs. W. B. Thomas, agent, Milesburg. Clayton Walters, farmer, Spring. Austin Dale, farmer, College. George Mitchell, farmer, College. H. B. Baisor, teacher, Patton. James Kennelly, laborer, Gregg. F. P. Musser, J. P. Millheim A. J. Cook, gent. Bellefonte. John Fye, minor, Snow Shoe twp. Oscar Smith, coachmaker, St. Col. George Holt, lumberman, Unionville W. B. Ward, carpenter, Ferguson. G. R. Spigelmeyer, mer., Bellefonte Elmer Smith, farmer, Penn. G. Harnish, miner, Snow Shoe twp. G. O. Gray, ins. agt, Bellefonte. E. L. Noll, coal dealer, Milesburg. V. G. Hosterman, farmer, Haines. Zane Woodring, butcher, Phbg. Roland Shank, lab., Snow Shoe twp. Harry Johnston, farmer, Boggs. John Hoffer, clerk, Phbg. M. S. Feidler, gent. Millheim. Geo. Meiss, merchant, Potter. Ed. Baird Foreman, Milesburg Aaron Thomas, carp., Centre Hall. F. Smith, merchant, Centre Hall. H. Heberling, gent. Ferguson. R. F. Finkle, farmer. Gregg. C. E. Blake, farmer, Half Moon. John Beck, clerk, St. College C. H. Dale, farmer, Rush. Willard Hall, assessor, Bellefonte Chas, Homan, farmer, Ferguson, Harry Hoffer, clerk, Phbg. Samuel L. Condo, salesman, Gregg. F. A. Carson, merchant, Potter. J. P. Rearick, merchant, St. College. J. W. Wagner, farmer, Huston.

SPRING MILLS.

Old people say that we are to have the big onion now yet. Good gracious!!! Moving day is over, so everybody is settled and happy. The next move will be garden mak-

Sunday last was not a very favorable day for the display of spring garments, and very few

I. C. Condo, of the Penn Hall carriage works. is rearranging his salesroom to make his usual Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Steely, of Sunbury, were visiting here for a few days last week, guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. C. C. Cummings.

The high winds of last week played havoc with fencing in this neighborhood. Some of the garden fencing was blown down on all sides. H. I. Brian & Co. are making arrangements to have their coal yard planked, and also to erect several additional bins. The firm have been doing a large business

W. O. Gramley will soon commence enlarging -Mr. Irvin Krape, who has for some his barn and remodeling the "Wheatland Dairy:" dispose of all his live stock at auction on the 16th

Prof. W. A. Moyer will commence a se building on the 10th inst., for advanced scholars and those wishing to become teachers. The studies are all of the higher branches of learning, -Mr. and Mrs. J. Kyle McFarlane and the general instructions and discipline of a high standard. Mr. Moyer is quite popular, an accomplished scholar and the indications are that he will have a large class of students.

LEMONT.

We hope when spring comes that it will stay. Jacob Herman was busy plowing last Friday. Abe Evey is in Philadelphia having his hand

Frank Rhykerd was able to walk around in his room Monday Several of the schools of College township will close this week. Ephriam Klinger is able to be out again but had quite a time with the grip.

Edith Williams went down to Watsontown to visit at the home of Henry Evey. The boys are getting in their places, and it looks as though all would have something to do George Bloom and family were at Zion Friday and Saturday attending a birthday party at the home of John Yearick. Harry Baney and family, of Clearfield, and Ira employment. We are all sorry to see them go as Nearhoof and family, of Hannah, and other friends