

Bellefonte, Pa., April 7, 1911. To CORRESPONDENTS .- No communication published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The flittings are over and everybody is fairly well located by this time. -Mrs. James Carson, who had been quite ill the past week, is very much improved at this writing.

-----William Carson and his family, who have been living on a farm below Centre ty commissioners, addressed council and Hall, moved last week to a farm near Spring Mills.

-----The storm doors at the Bush house were removed on Friday, but this is no consternation among the borough lawassurance of warm weather, even though makers, but Mr. Dale explained that the spring is here.

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Sloop are cede or the county would be liable for mourning the death of their two days old baby, which occurred in the Bellefonte ing the old one was to have the matter hospital on Monday.

-Mr and Mrs Claude A Mevers ries and approved by the court. Then the and family moved from Beech Creek to letting had to be properly advertised and State College this week, where Mr. Meyawarded to the lowest bidder. ers will open up a barber shop.

-Confirmation services will be held by Mr. Dale and discussed by council and in the Reformed church Palm Sunday as there seemed no other legal method morning at 11 o'clock. Prof. Clarence Toole will sing "The Palms" at this serv- temporary repairs on the north side of ice.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hinterlitner moved last week from Spangler to Clearfield, the latter place being a more cen- a petition to the grand jury at the May tral location for Mr. Hinterlitner's business.

-The members of the Bellefonte chapter D. A. R., were entertained at their regular monthly meeting by Miss Morris, at the Bush house, Tuesday night.

----Miss Anastasia Armor was eighty years old on Wednesday and celebrate l her birthday reading and inspecting a shower of postcards sent her by her many friends.

bridge.

-----The office of the Keystone Gazette in this place is to be equipped with a new typesetting machine; which editor Harter expects to have on hand and in operation inside of a month.

-The Misses Mary and Annie Brown have purchased a property at State College and last week moved there from their home at Lock Haven, expecting to fill the house with lodgers.

-----Mrs. McGeary, of Bradford, will be fonte. in Bellefonte on Wednesday, April 19th. and that evening will conduct a mission" ary meeting in the Free Methodist church at the Forge. The public is cordially invited to attend.

BOROUGH COUNCIL AND THE HIGH -This is the season of the year JOHN PRICE JACKSON BANQUETS GOOD STREET BRIDGE .- The regular meeting of when the painters and paper hang. ROADS TRAIN PEOPLE .- As a fitting cliborough conncil on Monday evening was ers are reaping their harvest and the taken up almost entirely with a discus- man of the house who tries to sneak the good roads special through the State sion of the High street bridge question quietly in along about midnight is liable and the one thing certain now is that it to step in a paint pot or paste bucket. will be some months, at least, before the Announcement has been made at bridge will be repaired or a new bridge Pittsburg of the engagement of Miss Ida built. Only six members were present Anderson, a sister of John Anderson, of at the meeting and the routine reports of Tyrone, and Mr. Humrichouse, of Cocommittees were heard and recorded. shocton, Ohio. The wedding, for which nothing of importance developing. only a very few invitations will be issued. A motion was then made that the York will take place in June. Bridge company be requested to proceed with the repairs on High street bridge. After the motion had been duly seconded regiment Spanish-American war veter- the Pennsylvania railroad: Clement Dale Esq., solicitor for the counans will be held this year at Clearfield on April 26th and 27th. Bellefonte and Censtated that the present procedure in retre county have a number of men who intendent of motive power; Mr. Spangle, building the bridge in question was illegal are members of this association and most and entirely contrary to law. Naturally of them will likely attend this reunion. this announcement created considerable only way the commissioners could pro-Only al Fauble's. :011.

either building a new bridge or rebuild-

-The biennial report of the Danville passed upon by two successive grand justate hospital for the insane has been received at this office. It shows that during the year 1908-'09 Centre county had nine male and six female inmates and The matter was thoroughly explained during the year 1909-'10 five male and four female, while since the hospital has been in operation Centre county has had of procedure it was decided to make 165 male and 115 female inmates, or a total of 280. the present bridge to make it perfectly -The Pennsylvania State College safe for travel and close up the south side, which is now torn up, then present having the connecting link in the Lewis- Jackson, who was the man in charge of burg & Tyrone railroad, from Lemont to the good roads special; Dr. G. G. Pond, term of court for a new bridge. If that Fairbrook, built some time in the future. Dr. William Frear, Dr. Benjamin Gill, Elgrand jury approves the petition then it And in this connection it might be ton D. Walker, H. B. Shattuck, R. I. Webwill have to be held over and go before said that the railroad officials are not ber and M. S. McDowell. the grand jury at the September term. If adverse to building the road at any time The menu served by landlord Aikens both grand juries pass upon the petition favorably then it will be up to the court if they can be assured of its being a pay-for approval before any definite action ing investment.

can be taken toward rebuilding the -Six Philipsburg boys ranging in ge from sixteen to twenty years have While there is no predicting the action gotten themselves into the clutches of the of any grand jury there is hardly a doubt law for stealing copper wire from the but that the petition will pass. There Bell telephone company, while Hyman is not another bridge in the county that Garfinkle is wanted on the charge of reis really more of a county bridge than ceiving the stolen goods. Practically all the one on High street. Every resident the stolen wire was recovered, but the of the county who comes to Bellefonte boys have been held under three hundred by train must cross and recross that dollars bail each for their appearance for bridge, and seventy-five per cent. of the trial in the Centre county court. people who drive into town cross the bridge at least once or twice during their stay here. And naturally they are as much interested in having it a safe and sound structure as the people of Belle- cember term of court for the murder of hour, those present took their departure Mrs. John Baudis, of Scotia. Delige, if he for their respective homes.

It might not be out of place to state has a full comprehension of the nearness max to the close of the sixty days tour of operated jointly by The Pennsylvania State College, the Pennsylvania Railroad company, the State Highway Department and the United States Bureau of Good Roads, John Price Jackson gave a banquet on Monday evening, at the Nittany Inn, State College, to all those who administered in any way to the success of the undertaking. Just thirty-eight plates were laid and prominent among those at -----The annual reunion of the Fifth the table were the following representing

George W. Creighton, superintendent Middle division; R. N. Deberow, superdivision freight agent; Joseph J. Rhoads, assistant engineer; H. M. Chenoweth and J. N. Nelson, special agents to the superintendent, all of Altoona: Walter G. -Let your new Easter hat be a Stet. Thompson, of Elmira, N. Y., assistant engineer on the Northern Central division; J. K. Johnston, superintendent of the Tyrone division; R. B. Freeman, trainmaster, and W. H. Hoover, accountant. Representing the U. S. Good Roads Bureau was Mr. Winslow while the State Highway Department was represented by Mr. Gephart, Mr. Fees and others. Among the other guests were Col. John A. Woodward, Dr. Grier, of Birmingham; Dr. Findley, of Altoona: Theodore S. Boal, of Boalsburg, and Col. W. F. Reynolds and Robert F. Hunter, of Bellefonte: Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of the College, presided and among the members of the authorities have not given up hope of faculty present were: Dean John Price was quite elaborate and a feature of the service was the soldier-like precision with which a number of college students officiated as waiters. When the inner man of all present had been amply satisfied Catharine, were over at Potters Mills over Sun-Dr. Sparks, in his capacity as toastmaster. called upon Dean Jackson to express the appreciation and thanks of the College to the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad and all others who so willingly and cheerfully gave of their time and labor to make a success of this innovation in spreading the good roads doctrine, which Mr. Jackson did in his customary suave and pleas------Two weeks from next Tuesday ant manner. Brief remarks were made will be the day for the execution of Bert by several of the other gentlemen pres-Delige, the negro convicted at the De- ent when, owing to the lateness of the

During the sixty days the good roads that plans have been prepared for an of the fatal date, gives no evidence of special was on the road it traversed most C. C. Shuey. entirely new bridge which, if built, will being affected by it, as he is at all times of the important lines of the Pennsylvamean a structure that will last for gen- as stolid and indifferent in regard to the nia railroad and through practically all the erations without any repairs and which consequences as he was during his trial. good agricultural districts of the State, will cost the county only a normal sum. So far there is no evidence that sheriff These plans have the approval of the W. E. Hurley has changed his mind in miles. The train was visited by over fifty-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte yesterday -G. A. Confer, of Howard, was a WATCHMAN office caller on Monday. -Mrs. Claude Jones, of Tyrone, spent la

Friday with friends in Bellefor -Mrs. W. A. White was an over Sunday visite with her many friends at Howard -Miss Mary Treaster left Bellefonte Friday for an indefinite stay with her parents at Coburn. -Miss Louise Maitland, of Williamsport, has een the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Cruse. -Mrs. Spiglemyer spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. D. Huffman, of Williamsport -Mrs. Hart, of Bishop street. left Bellefonte Saturday for a visit with relatives at Bloomsburg

-Lewis Miller left on Saturday for Philadelphia, where he will be employed in a machin -Edward P. Irwin came in from Cherrytree last Saturday and remained over Sunday with Mrs. Irwin. -Mrs. Harry Curtin, of Curtin, expects to go to Pittsburg today for a short visit at the hom of her son Mac.

-Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Runkle, of Altoona were over Sunday visitors among their various elatives in this place.

-Mr. D. W. Meyers, of Boalsburg, was Bellefonte on Wednesday on a business trip and made a pleasant call at this office. -Miss Elsie M. Sellers, of Buffalo Run, is now resident of Bellefonte: having come here to learn millinery with Miss Snyder. -Mrs. John McKelvey and daughter, Mrs.

Clyde Sylvus, of Sunbury, were in Bellefonte on a business trip Tuesday and Wednesday. William T. Speer Jr., of Pittsburgh, spent two days of last week in Bellefonte, looking after some business relative to his father's estate. -Mrs. James Dolan and daughter Stella left jast Friday for their home in Pittsburg, after a weeks visit with their many friends here. -Mrs. John T. McCormick. of State College was in Bellefonte on Wednesday shopping and spending the day with Mrs .Margaret Hutchinson -Mrs. John I. Olewine and her son J. Harris are planning quite an extended trip through the South for the latter part of this month or early in -Mrs. George Green, of Lock Haven, and her two little daughters, went up Buffalo Run Tues-day, for a short visit with Dr. Green's mother, at

-Archibald Allison and daughter. Miss day to see the former's brother Edward, who has been on the sick list

-Harry McCracken, of Ferguson township, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday attending the appeal. While he has a good farm on the Branch he feels that it has been appraised a little too

-Fred Chambers, son of Col. and Mrs. E. R. Chambers, who is now traveling on the road advertising and selling Pall Mall cigarettes, was in Bellefonte covering the town on Monday. He travels over practically all of Pennsylvania

-Mrs. Charles Donachy and her two children, Sara and Charles, came to Bellefonte from their home at Williamsport Thursday, being joined by Mr. Donachy Saturday, they were the week-end guests of Mrs. Donachy's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

-After living for over five years at State College, where she has been educating her children. Mrs. Mary Martin returned to Nittany valley Saturday, having shipped her goods during the week. She anticipates making Snydertown her

FERGUSON TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT .- One of the largest crowds that ever packed the I. O. O. F. hall at Pine Grove Mills was there on Wednesday evening to witness the annual commencement exercises of the Feiguson township High school. Prof. L. C. White presided and the music was furnished by the Christy Smith orchestra, of Bellefonte. The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rev. J. S. Pittinger after which the seven members of the graduating class delivered their orations, ending with the valedictory by Miss Viola Burwell. The commencement address was delivered by Hon. W. C. Heinle, of Bellefonte, who not only gave the graduates some good advice but told of the large number of men and women who attained conspicuous places in the world who were educated at the Pine Grove Mills schools and Academy. At the close of Mr. Heinle's address Prof. White presented the diplomas to the seven members of the graduating class, namely: Miss Claire Martz, Miss Maude

Ellen Smith, Arthur Burwell, Foster Musser. Miss Grace Elder, Fred Roush and Miss Viola Burwell. All in all it was one of the most successful commencements in the history of the Pine Grove Mills High school

HOSPITAL NOTES .- Last Saturday evening Frank Lannen, of Union township, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital suffering with a broken arm and badly sprained shoulder sustained in a fall from a horse. The fracture was reduced and he is now getting along all right. On Monday an operation was performed on Harry Harvey for an abscess on the back and yesterday morning J. Willard Barnhart, the eleven year old son of J. W. Barnhart, of Howard street, underwent an operation for appendicitis. Other operations during the week were Emanuel Korman, of Pleasant View, and Mrs. Ethel Tate, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Susan Saul was brought to the hospital from Pennsylvania Furnace and admitted for treatment. Mrs. Sarah Shilling, of Bellefonte, was discharged.

BEHEADED UNDER HIS TRAIN .- Andrew . Epp, of Reading, husband of Miss Daisy Rhoads, formerly of Runville, this county, while on duty as an engineer on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad on Sunday afternoon, March 26th, was jolted from the engine when it came to a sudden stop through the breaking of an air hose, at Palmyra, Pa., fell under the wheels of the front car and was beheaded, his death being instantaneous. He was thirty-five years old and served in Porto Rico during the Spanish-American war. He had been an engineer on the Reading railroad the past nine years. He is survived by his wife, four children, one sister and three brothers. ----The Pleasant Gap High school will hold their commencement exercise next week, beginning on Sunday afternoon at 2.45 o'clock when the baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Methodist church at that place by Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of Bellefonte. The graduating exercises will be held on Wednesday. The six members of the class are Lee H. Zonge, Clarence Wallace Crust. Elsie Irene Herman, Marian Bell Gettig. Emeline Elizabeth Noll and Lawrence Ward Hile.

-Let your new Easter hat be a Stetson. Only at Fauble's.

In the meantime the structual work, ----Announcement has been made old plank, etc., piled in the street at the of the engagement of Miss Thomazine bridge will be removed so as to open the H. Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. street as much as possible and the torn Iames H. Potter, of this place, to H. Laird up portion of the bridge will be built in Curtin, of Curtin; the wedding to take so as to preclude all danger of accidents. place some time during the summer. On Wednesday afternoon the county

-The Senior class of the Bellefonte commissioners with their attorney, repre-High school will deliver their Easter orasentatives of the borough council, the tions in the new High school building on borough solicitor and representatives of Thursday afternoon, April 13th, at two the York Bridge company held a meeting o'clock. The patrons of the school and in the commissioners office and went over the entire bridge situation with the result public in general are invited to attend. that a petition was prepared, and which -On Thursday evening of last week is now being circulated for signers, to be Mrs. Robert Woodring, of east Howard street, fell down a pair of stairs, broke her presented to the court asking for the appointment of viewers to inspect the bridge nose and cut quite a gash in her head. and determine whether it can be repaired Though her injuries were rather painful or a new one is necessary. This, of for a day or two she is now around as course, is the first step in line with the usual. above statement in regard to what will in

----In the list of recent promotions on all probability be done. the New York Central railroad is that of Donald L. Sommerville to assist superinhas been permanently stopped from retendent of the Beech Creek division with building the bridge according to their headquarters at Jersey Shore. Mr. Somown plans and specifications their men merville is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James yesterday afternoon removed the trestles L. Sommerville, of Winburne, but formerly of Bellefonte. of all obstruction.

----John S. Walker last week purchas ed from the Keeler company, of Williamsport, a big seven passenger Franklin automobile, which he will use in touring, retaining his old car for use around town ware company's store to have that thoroughfare paved with brick but the matter and in going back and forth from his was held over for the present. The foot home to his office. The purchase was made through John Sebring Jr.

-The State College Symphony orchestra gave a concert in Altoona last to remove it. Friday evening that was attended by an audience of over one thousand people. The proceeds will be devoted to the exers adjourned. penses of the Senior class at the commencement in June. Following the concert the members of the orchestra were banquetted at the Logan house.

---- To show their appreciation of himself and family the members of the Methodist church in Sunbury presented Rev. George M. Glenn a gold watch and chain and Mrs. Glenn a lot of table silver and linen prior to their departure last week for the reverend's new field of labor in Philipsburg. Rev. Glenn, by the way, was very successful in his pastorate at Sunbury

-----Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Faust, of State as a lecturer Dr. Grenfel was a disap- knocked out a cylinder head. Fortunate-College, have gone to Jersey Shore, where pointment to the audience and his deliv- ly the train had not yet gotten up full the former will take charge of the new ery was so low and indistinct that those speed and the engineer was able to bring fruit farm to be planted and conducted in the rear of the church could not it to a stop before any further damage Bartlet fifteen dollars, almost three times there by the Pennsylvania Fruit Farms understand or comprehend the half he was done. The accident occurred at a company on the old Dewey farm, recently said. The cause he champions, however, place where there is a cut on one side and the property of J. P. Hewitt. Mr. Faust is as worthy as any other missionary a high embankment on the other and had has given special attention to fruit cul- work and because of that fact no one the train been running at high speed a ture and will in all likelihood make a suc- present was sorry at thus having contrib- very bad wreck would probably have next Wednesday for the Easter vacation cess of the new venture. uted even so little toward the same.

county and borough officials and the regard to denying admission to all appli- two thousand people who inspected the cants to see the hanging; though of whole question now is one of legal procedure to have the bridge built. have to be present according to law.

modern road making machinery and liscourse the jury, physicians, etc., will tened to the vari lectures on road making. When the train finally returned to State College last week it was the in--State Varsity found the Academy tention to store the machinery until next boys no "cinch" Monday in their opening winter and spring when it is likely angame on old Beaver field. In fact the other good roads tour will be made. But Academy outbatted State and held them the Pennsylvania railroad company has down to a 3-1 score. Symes pitched a had requests from a number of railroad great game and was cleverly supported companies in other States for the loan of by catcher Beattie and the whole Acadethe equipment to use in a similar cammy nine. Nearly 1700 people witnessed paign and it is likely the request will be the game. Dillon's throw home from granted. All in all everybody interested deep centre catching a runner at the feels very well satisfied with the work plate was a fine bit of work. "Red" they have done and the possible good it Smith had his batting eye well trained may accomplish.

cracking out a double and a single. The season will be opened in Bellefonte to. morrow, weather permitting, at 3 p.m., on Hughes field. A strong aggregation from State College will play the Academy. Go out and encourage our home boys.

pany did not make a ten-strike in their -Let your new Easter hat he a Stet performance at the opera house two of son. Only at Fauble's. the members performed an after act that light. After the show was over Jacob -When architects Newman and Har-Bartlet hauled the company's baggage

ris drew the plans for the remodeled from the opera house to their car at the A petition was presented from the ad- court house they provided spaces in the railroad station and while unloading the jacent property owners of that portion of library or memorial hall on the second last load the stage manager disputed the High street from the bridge over the race floor for paintings of the various judges number of trunks, claiming they had only to the crossing at the Potter-Hoy Hard- who have presided over the Centre coun- sixteen. Mr. Bartlet declared they had ty courts. Judge Orvis, the present innineteen, but that he was charging for cumbent, is the only living judge in Cenonly eighteen. When the stage manager tre county and he and friends of a numdeclared he would pay for sixteen and no ber of former judges have given orders for paintings to the well known portrait on his wagon, said he would not unload painters, Antrim & Landsy, of Philadelthem until he was paid for hauling eighphia. The very fact that the portraits teen trunks.

will be painted by this firm is evidence Hardly had he made the declaration that the judges gallery in the court house until the stage manager jumped from the fairly as it does. library will be one of unusual excellence car onto the wagon and struck Bartlet on and the surviving friends of all deceased the chest, knocking him backwards off the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Waite Thursday afterjudges should see to it that the gallery is the wagon. He fell on his head and noon were her daughters, the Misses Sarah, of shoulders and might have been killed or

-The passenger train on the Lewis- Policeman Harry Dukeman was standing nearby and he at once made for the aggressive showman, who ran into the car. Dukeman followed, when the property manager took a hand by jumping into the Mr. and Mrs. Horace Meyer, of Tyrone. car and grabbing the policeman by the coat. The latter struck him over the hamlets, hospitals, the natives, dog-sleds, and had gone but a short distance the time being. He then started with the head with his mace, laying him out for stage manager for the lockup but the latter pleaded to be taken to the manager of the show at the Bush house and the what the bill for hauling would have been.

> ---- The Bellefonte Academy will close of six days.

-Since the burning of their farm residence near Gatesburg last week Mrs. Frances Knoche and daughter Beatrice have spent most of the time in Bellefonte, guests at the Brockerhoff house. Mrs. Knoche is making arrangements to rebuild as soon as possible.

-Mrs. J. Y. Dale, who left Bellefonte a short time before Christmas for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Berger, at Catonsville, Md., before going to Spartansburg, S. C., to spend the remainder of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Wetmore returned to her home at Bellefonte Friday.

-Isaac Ward, of Clark, Ohio, and W. S. Ward, of Pennsylvania Furnace, were in Be lefonte or Tuesday and pleasant callers at the WATCHMAN office. The former was called to his old home in Ferguson township on account of the death last week of his mother, the late Mrs. Simon Ward.

-Mrs. Isaac Gray and her daughter. Miss Esther Gray, who have been spending the winter at Sunbury and Scranton, with Mrs. Gray's SHOWMEN IN TROUBLE. - A large daughters, Mrs. George M. Glenn and Mrs. audience was present in the opera house Hartsock, have returned to Centre county to on Monday night to witness the performopen their house on their Buffalo Run farm for ance of "My Cinderella Girl" and while the summer.

some of the parts were well taken the -Mrs. Bottorf and her daughter. Miss Ruth musical specialties were not up to the ad-Bottorf, returned to their home at Lemont th week, after a visit of several weeks with Mr. an vertised standard. However, if the com-Mrs. Linn S. Bottorf, at Asheville, N. C. Mis Bottorf having accepted the position of assistan to the instructor of music at State College wi begin her work immediately after the Easter brought them very much into the limevacation

> -Malcolm A. Mitchell was in Bellefonte las week from Wednesday until Saturday, having stopped off on his way out to Detroit, Mich., from a two month's stay in New York where he was engaged in inspecting cars for the Chalmers-Detroit Motor company, by whom he is employed He also spent a few days at the Pittsburg auto

-Mr. E. C. Beezer whose management of the Philipsburg Brewery is making it one of the most successful establishments of the kind in Central Pennsylvania, had business in Bellefonte or more Mr. Bartlet, who had three trunks Thursday and while here found time to run in and congratulate the WATCHMAN on its general popularity as well as his acknowledged excel lence. Mr. Beezer says he has been a regular reader of it since a boy and expects to continu as such as long as it gives the news, as clean and

--Among the out-of-town people who attended Wilkinsburg and Laura, of Northfield, Mass.; Mrs. Forcey, of Woodland, and Mrs. Stevens, o seriously injured but fortunately wasn't. Kermoor; her sons, Edward with his wife and family, of Hazleton; Harry and his wife of Altoona: John with his wife and family, of Lock Haven; Wilbur and Blair, of Stormstown; her sister, Mrs. Amanda Meyers, of Warriorsmark; her brother, Christopher Eyre, of Tyrone, and

> -W. G. Lave, who made the acquaintance of the people of Bellefonte eighteen months ago when he was here as the singer of illustrated songs at the Sconic, was in Bellefonte "between trains on Tuesday afternoon on his way from Johnstown to Lock Haven. During the past year he was a nember of the Orpheus Concert com pany and during the season they covered twenty-four of the eastern and middle States. This is now their vacation season and Mr. Laye is putting in the time booking Star Course entertain nts with Y. M. C. A. and other associations Mr. Lave's contract with the Orpheus compan runs for three years and they will open their sec ond season early in June in Oklahoma City from where they will travel south and west as far as the Pacific coast, giving concerts in most of the coast towns and cities in California.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer, The prices quoted are those paid for produce Potatoes per bushel..... ggs, per do

Tallow, per pound Bellefonte Grain Markets

Corrected weekly by C V U

	The full of the start of the the the start of the start o is	The following are the quotations up to six o	'cloci
d	Thursday evening, when our paper goes to	press
88	Red Wheat	$.8
at	White Wheat. Rye, per bushel	8
ш	Corn, shelled, per bushel	6
er	Corn, ears, per bushel	5
	Oats, old and new, per bushel Barley, per bushel	35
-	Contraction of Association and Association	-

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening

Wheat-Red	5.90@.911
" -No. 2	.87@884
Corn -rellow	52@524
-Mixed new	50@501
Oats	351/2@3
Flour Winter, per barrel	3.50@3.7
"—Favorite Brands	5.25@5.7
Rye Flour per barrel	4.00@4.1
Baled Hay-Choice Timothy No. 1 1	10.00@21.0
" " Mixed No. 1 1	13.00@17.0
Straw	7.50@10.0
and the second s

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING CHARGES:

A limited amount of advertising space will be old at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising runn

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.

bridge over the old canal opposite Frank McCoy's residence was declared unsafe and the Street committee was instructed There was nothing else of importance brought before council and after the approval of the bills the borough lawmak DR. GRENFEL'S LECTURE .- Quite a goodsized audience was present in the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening to complete. hear the lecture by Dr. Wilfred T. Gren-

been the result

fel, the English doctor-missionary among the fisher folk of Labrador. There is no burg & Tyrone railroad was over an hour denying the fact that the doctor has done late on Wednesday evening, caused by and is doing a good work among the peo- an accident to the locomotive, but at ple of Labrador and his talk on Saturday that the passengers have reason to conevening was confined entirely to a state- gratulate themselves that they all escapment of cold facts, which he illustrated ed without injury. The train left Wyker by various views of the country, fishing station, this side of Lewisburg, on time etc. It must be confessed, however, that when one of the driving rods broke and

Inasmuch as the York Bridge company

"om the creek so as to clear the stream