

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Table with 2 columns: Rate, Amount. Includes Paid strictly in advance $1.00, Paid before expiration of year 1.50, Paid after expiration of year 2.00.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

—The Pennsylvania State College closed on Tuesday for the Easter vacation.

—The Bush house will serve a special Easter dinner for 75 cents. Music by Christy Smith's orchestra.

—Tomorrow R. B. Taylor's lease on the coal yard at the Electric light plant expires and the same has been leased by John McCoy. This does not mean that Mr. Taylor will go out of the coal business, but merely that he will locate his yard somewhere else.

—M. B. Garman has had the exterior of his home on Curtin street repainted so that it looks like a new house. He has also had stone pillars built at the corners of his front porch and also at each of the front corners of the yard, which present quite an imposing appearance.

—The funeral was held from her late home on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Fearon cemetery.

—On March 1st Britton Morgan went to Altoona and enlisted for service in the regular army, being assigned to the barracks at Columbus, Ohio.

—Sheriff Hurley this week had the old gallows brought down out of the hay loft of the jail stable and thoroughly gone over to see that they are in a safe condition to use on April 25th in the execution of Bert Delige.

—A dispatch from Omaha, Neb., published in the daily papers on Wednesday, stated that Mrs. David Davis, of Philadelphia, Pa., who with her husband and nine children were on their way to locate in Oregon, had gone violently insane on the train and it was necessary for a physician to administer drugs in order to enable her to continue the journey.

—Strangers remaining over night in Bellefonte naturally ask if there is a show or entertainment of any kind. Of course they are always referred to the Scenic as the one place they can always be well entertained and they go as a matter of course to help put in the time.

—On Thursday of last week Governor Tener signed the Alter bill for the removal of the western penitentiary to the location in the central or western part of the State where it can be made more of an outdoor institution than it is at present.

—The middle of April is practically here and so far there has been so little spring-like weather that the buds on the trees have hardly started.

—H. T. Wetzel and Arthur Long, of Howard, and Misses Gertrude and Estella Uhl, of Lock Haven, narrowly escaped being killed in an automobile accident at Avis last Saturday evening.

—Annie Eliza, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jodon, died at their home at Coleville last Thursday after a brief illness.

HALL.—After an illness of only a few days with pneumonia Mrs. Sarah Hall died at her home in Beech Creek last Saturday morning.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner McCloskey and was born at Hyner, Clinton county, September 22nd, 1824, hence was 86 years, 6 months and 17 days old.

Her husband died twenty-five years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Jacob A. Bitner, of Lock Haven; Mrs. William Shultz, of Lakehurst, N. J.; Mrs. James I. McClure, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Harry S. Berryhill, of Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Edwin S. Mobley, of Beech Creek; and Allison A., of Lock Haven.

The funeral was held from her late home on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Fearon cemetery.

WALKER.—At an early hour on Monday morning Andrew G. Walker died at his home at Yarnell, of pneumonia.

Deceased was about eighty years of age and was born and raised in the neighborhood of Runville, his parents being George and Catharine Walker.

Deceased was about eighty years of age and was born and raised in the neighborhood of Runville, his parents being George and Catharine Walker.

Rev. I. H. Dean, of the United Brethren church, conducted the funeral services which were held on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Advent cemetery.

FOREMAN.—Mrs. Sarah Foreman died at her home in Centre Hall on Sunday afternoon of pneumonia, though she had been in feeble health for some months with a complication of diseases.

Surviving her are the following children: Frank A., of Gregg township; David R., deputy prothonotary of Centre county; Robert D., of Centre Hall; J. Wesley, of Curtin; Edward F., of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Lyman Smith, of Centre Hall, and Kate and Jane at home.

HAZZARD.—William Hazzard Sr., a well known resident of Philipsburg, died on Monday night of infirmities of old age.

He had been in failing health the past three years and his death was not unexpected. He was born in Ireland in March, 1825, hence was 86 years and 24 days old.

He was thrice married and is survived by his third wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Mattie Mayes, of Julian, and the following children: Seth R., in Canada, and Mrs. William Mayes, of Beech Creek, by his first wife; Edward, of Tyrone, by his second wife, and Thomas, William and Mrs. Laura Brown, of Curtin; James I. and Miss Hannah, at home, by his third wife.

HICKS.—Mrs. William Hicks, a former resident of Philipsburg, died at her home in Barnesboro last Thursday.

JODON.—Annie Eliza, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jodon, died at their home at Coleville last Thursday after a brief illness.

HAZEL.—Samuel Hazel, one of the best known residents of College township, died at his home at Houseville on Wednesday of last week after a long illness with tuberculosis.

In 1876 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Breen, who died several years later. Early in the eighties he married Miss Priscilla Ray and to them three children were born, a son who died in infancy, and two daughters, Mrs. John Bohn and Mrs. Orin Houtz.

Rev. J. McK. Reilly officiated at the funeral which was held on Friday morning, burial being made at Shiloh.

HASTINGS.—Enoch Hastings, one of the best known residents of Bald Eagle valley, died at his home at Beech Creek last Thursday.

Deceased was a son of Daniel and Mary Gray Hastings and was born at Boalsburg, this county, on February 26th, 1847, hence was sixty-four years old.

GRIMES.—George Grimes, a former well-known colored resident of Bellefonte, died in the Lock Haven hospital on Monday morning of heart failure.

ROGERS.—James F. Rogers, of New York city, died Thursday, April 6th, of pneumonia being ill only a week.

McCoy.—Mrs. Jennie Eliza McCoy, widow of the late William T. McCoy, died at the home of her son in Altoona on Wednesday, following an illness of ten days with pneumonia.

BITNER.—Word was received on Monday by relatives in this county of the death of J. Irvin Bitner, at his home in Hagersstown, Md., though no particulars were given.

HAYES.—Alfred Hayes, father of Mrs. H. M. Hiller, of Chester, died at his home in Khoka, Wis., on Monday, aged 87 years.

NOAH.—Noah Weaver was arrested on Wednesday on the charge of furnishing liquor to a man of known intemperate habits.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FOR STATE COLLEGE.—State College is to have a new Presbyterian church if the plans now being shaped up by the Presbyterian Board of Education go through.

These eager, vital natures must be won for Christ. Each one is to become a battery of energy either for good or evil.

State College is the name of the town as well as of the institution. The inhabitants number fifteen hundred and the student body doubles the population.

The Synod of Pennsylvania in 1907 recommended, as the result of an overture presented by the Huntingdon Presbytery, that permanent plans for a work among Presbyterian students at State College be undertaken.

The Board of Education proposes to take charge of the raising of a fund of $55,000, $25,000 of which shall be held in trust by the board for endowment purposes.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.—George W. Hall, of Julian, and Martha Bloom, of Philipsburg.

George W. Hall, of Julian, and Martha Bloom, of Philipsburg.

Chas. F. Carter and Tannie E. Arney, both of Spring Mills.

—Sunday will be Easter and the end of the Lenten season. It will be celebrated with special services and music in all the Bellefonte churches.

—The Philadelphia Record cartoonist evidently drew on his imagination at considerable length when he sketched the cartoon on the opening of the trout fishing season.

State College Items.—Howard A. Moore, of Howard, was a State business visitor this week.

—The Beaver club received a 15 to 0 defeat from the Academy team on Saturday at Bellefonte. The Academy has a fine team and is playing good ball.

—The brilliancy of the management of the affairs of this borough is exemplified in the manner in which its streets are cared for.

—Some of the very latest song hits of the season have been secured and will be interpolated in the performance of the Bellefonte Academy minstrels.

—The weather man behaved badly on Saturday evening and night. Sunday morning mother earth was covered with four inches of snow.

—The summer term of school in the Academy opened on Monday with eighteen scholars on the roll.

—There are quite a number of cases of scarlet fever over at McAlevy's Fort, and one death has occurred.

—Charles and Mary Smith, of Erftown, are mourning the death of their son Perry, aged five years.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.—George W. Hall, of Julian, and Martha Bloom, of Philipsburg.

William Herman and Daby Johnson, both of Tyrone.

Chas. F. Carter and Tannie E. Arney, both of Spring Mills.

—Sunday will be Easter and the end of the Lenten season. It will be celebrated with special services and music in all the Bellefonte churches.

State College Items.—Howard A. Moore, of Howard, was a State business visitor this week.

—The Beaver club received a 15 to 0 defeat from the Academy team on Saturday at Bellefonte. The Academy has a fine team and is playing good ball.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Blanche and Emma Rowe are both sick with the grip.

—The weather man behaved badly on Saturday evening and night. Sunday morning mother earth was covered with four inches of snow.

—The summer term of school in the Academy opened on Monday with eighteen scholars on the roll.

—There are quite a number of cases of scarlet fever over at McAlevy's Fort, and one death has occurred.

—Charles and Mary Smith, of Erftown, are mourning the death of their son Perry, aged five years.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.—George W. Hall, of Julian, and Martha Bloom, of Philipsburg.

William Herman and Daby Johnson, both of Tyrone.

Chas. F. Carter and Tannie E. Arney, both of Spring Mills.

—Sunday will be Easter and the end of the Lenten season. It will be celebrated with special services and music in all the Bellefonte churches.

State College Items.—Howard A. Moore, of Howard, was a State business visitor this week.

—The Beaver club received a 15 to 0 defeat from the Academy team on Saturday at Bellefonte. The Academy has a fine team and is playing good ball.

—The weather man behaved badly on Saturday evening and night. Sunday morning mother earth was covered with four inches of snow.