-Miss Cain, a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Eberts, is seriously ill at her home in Pittsburg.

-Rev. Joseph Novak, who was recently ordained by Rt. Rev. E. A. Garvey, of Altoona, Pa., took charge of St. Michael's church, Clarence, on Sunday, July 2nd. St. Michael's church has been attended for the past year by Rev. Joseph H. Farran, pastor of St. Mary's church. The new pastor of St. Michael's is an American born Slav. He recently completed his theological studies at St. Bonaventure's Seminary and comes into his new field of labor with a zeal for the betterment of the members of St. Michael's congregation.

-Mrs. Hugh North Crider gave a one o'clock luncheon last Saturday afternoon at which eighteen guests were present from Bellefonte and Tyrone. The affair was in honor of Miss Eleanor Franciscus, and it was made the occasion of the announcement of her engagement to James Berkstresser, of Pittsburg. The announcement was made in a very pretty and clever way. At the close of the luncheon the maid brought in a silver platter on which were a miniature bridal couple in full wedding costume, which she gave to the hostess. Mrs. Crider at once presented the same to Miss Franciscus with her congratulations and best wishes. The wedding will take place on Thursday, October 19th.

---On Tuesday, Dave Chambers came to Bellefonte with a nicely wrapped brown paper package, and going to Sim Baum's clothing store gave it to Sim and of fish.
