

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Table with 2 columns: Rate type and Amount. Includes 'Paid strictly in advance $1.00', 'Paid before expiration of year 1.50', and 'Paid after expiration of year 2.00'.

No Compromise Obtainable.

The annual meeting of the Democratic State committee was held in Harrisburg on Wednesday last. Every county in the State was represented.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

—If at any time the Street committee of borough council gets out of something to look after they ought to go up to east Lamb street and take a glance at the horrible condition of that thoroughfare.

—After conducting his shoe shining parlor and cigar store, next the Gazette office, just two weeks Herbie Auman sold out last Friday to Eddie Thompson, who has transferred his headquarters there from the room in the rear of Nighthart's barber shop in the Crider building.

—The Bellefonte Lodge of Moose had a reception at their home on Spring street, Tuesday evening, and an open air concert by the new City band.

—The railroad shophmen of Tyrone will picnic at Hecla park tomorrow (Saturday) and it is estimated that upwards of a thousand people will come down on the special train which will convey the picnickers to the park.

—Last Friday Searle Moerschbacher was fishing in Spring creek, opposite Beezer's garage, and pulled out a ten inch trout. As he did so a stranger who was standing by confiscated the fish and showed papers identifying him as a fish warden.

—F. E. Snyder, who lives a mile this side of Vail, in Bald Eagle valley, was seriously injured in the neighborhood of Dix station early Sunday morning.

HOWE.—John B. Howe, a native of Centre county, died at his home at Windber on July 13th, as the result of a cancerous affection from which he suffered for some months.

Deceased is survived by his widow, whose maiden name was Alice Francis Keller, and these children: Virginia, Zella, Parmelia, Clarissa, Harry J. and Harvey E., at home; Edward M., married and living in Windber, and Mrs. John L. Baker, of Latrobe. Two brothers—E. C. Howe, of Phillipsburg and George B. Howe, of Rossiter—and one sister, Mrs. W. C. Lingle, of Phillipsburg, also survive.

SUNDAY.—The death of Mrs. Harry Sunday, at her home near Pine Grove Mills, Sunday night, cast a shadow of gloom over that community.

On June 30th, 1908, she was united in marriage to Harry Sunday who survives with two sons, one a baby less than two weeks old.

BECK.—After years of suffering with cancer Mrs. M. L. Beck died at her home in Howard last Thursday morning.

McFEATERS.—Ralph Cameron McFeaters, son of Mahlon V. and Mrs. Nellie J. McFeaters, died at their home in Johnstown on Friday, July 14th, after being sick since April as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

MUSSER.—On Thursday of last week Mrs. Elizabeth Musser, wife of Emanuel M. Musser, of Aaronsburg, died of paralysis aged 69 years, 1 month and 12 days.

GLENN.—A two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn, of Altoona, died on Wednesday of last week and on Friday the remains were taken to Centre Hall for burial.

SCHAD.—Julia Frederica, the three weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schad, died at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday morning. The remains were buried in the Union cemetery Wednesday morning.

—Miss Mildred Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ogden, formerly of this place but now of Clintondale, won the gold medal for the best essay at the Mansfield Normal school commencement, from which institution she graduated in June.

—The borough council has now secured a dumping ground for all kinds of refuse out on the farm of Jerry Lutz, the only conditions being that bottles, old cans and such like be dumped into the deep holes and that paper be dumped into a hole and burned immediately.

—Frank E. Naginey's furniture store on Allegheny street looks like another place since he has changed the front by putting the door at one side and throwing the rest of the space into one big show window.

—The water in Spring creek is quite low and now would be a good time to clean out the logs and other unsightly refuse from the falls down to the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania bridge.

—On Monday evening mail carrier Edward Woods tramped on a rusty nail at his home on Thomas street and as a consequence was on duty only part of the time on Tuesday, the balance of the day being spent in doctoring the wound.

—Summer will soon be over and the theatrical season here, but in the meantime Bellefonters and strangers visiting in the town can be delightfully entertained every evening by attending the Scenic.

—Rev. E. C. Houck, a former pastor of the Milesburg Lutheran church, will preach in the Presbyterian church at Milesburg Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

—A clogged sewer pipe at the Hastings residence on north Allegheny street is causing considerable trouble and inconvenience.

—William Miller, who resides on a farm about a mile east of Julian, is having more than his share of hard luck.

—One of the latest purchasers of an automobile in Bellefonte is Mr. Claude Cook, who last week bought a Hupmobile runabout for his daughter Grace.

—On Sunday evening, May 7th, Dominico Giangioppi, an Italian, was instantly killed by Carman Ventro, a fellow countryman, by having his throat cut with a razor.

—The borough council has now secured a dumping ground for all kinds of refuse out on the farm of Jerry Lutz, the only conditions being that bottles, old cans and such like be dumped into the deep holes and that paper be dumped into a hole and burned immediately.

—The annual meeting of the Nittany Country club was held at the club house at Hecla last Saturday evening.

BUTCHER SWINDLES FARMERS.—A number of farmers in College and Ferguson townships would like to know the whereabouts of Lawrence Ganengi, until recently a butcher at Ganister, Blair county.

—About July 1st, as was his custom, he visited Centre county, purchasing a number of cattle in the vicinity of State College.

—It was on July 4th that Ganengi's place of business was closed and he and his family vanished. No trace of them has since been seen and the only possible clue was in a letter received by fellow countrymen at Ganister.

—Joseph Donora, of Clover Creek, a creditor to the amount of $1,200, placed his claim for collection and a sheriff's execution was issued.

—Last Thursday Judge Orr, of the United States Circuit court, appointed C. R. Fluke, of Williamsburg, receiver with orders to close up the business.

TROUT SEASON ALMOST OVER.—There are just eight more days of the trout fishing season and the man who wants another mess of the speckled beauties will have to hustle to get them.

Fishing creek, which in past years was the Mecca for fishermen from all over the central part of the State, was a disappointment to all anglers this year.

OFF FOR CAMP.—Company L, Bellefonte's contingent of the National Guard soldiers, will leave Bellefonte this morning on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad for Sunbury where the train for the Twelfth regiment will be made up.

ZIEGLER FAMILY REUNION.—The Zieglers of Centre and Clinton counties held their annual reunion at Hecla park on Monday, with a large attendance.

REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS AT FISH HATCHERY.—The high water of two months ago, which flooded and washed out the Bellefonte fish hatchery, did over two thousand dollars damage to that plant.

WHAT IS THE REASON?—Through the efforts of the Lock Haven board of trade that town has secured the plant of the American Hoist and Manufacturing company, which will be moved there from Hamburg just as soon as the building for its occupancy can be erected.

ARRESTED FOR UNPAID TAXES.—On Saturday of last week H. S. Riddle, of Howard, was arrested on the charge of unpaid taxes and brought to Bellefonte by constable LeRoy Leathers.

COL. REYNOLDS WILL HAVE SHORT PEACH CROP.—Stories have come from Delaware and other peach growing States about the shortness in the peach crop this year and lovers of this luscious fruit will regret to learn that the same condition prevails in Centre county.

FOR A BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.—A meeting of the executive committee of the Business Men's Picnic association of Centre and Clinton counties will be held at the Commercial hotel, Lock Haven, on Tuesday afternoon and evening of next week, July 25th, for the purpose of deciding on the question of a picnic this year.

THIEVES UP BALD EAGLE.—On Tuesday night of last week thieves broke into the store of A. W. Reese, at Port Matilda, and carried away merchandise to the amount of about ten dollars.

PENNSYLVANIA MATCH COMPANY REORGANIZED.—The Pennsylvania Match company of this place recently received a new charter and was reorganized under the old name.

—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Minnie Cherry, to Joseph Lyon Nichols, of Girard, Pa., who is now visiting in Bellefonte.

—Chickens thieves are violating their nefarious profession in various parts of Pennsylvania and the farmers are keeping an eye open for the vandals.

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS' AND BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION OF PHILIPSBURG are now negotiating for the location there of a cut glass factory which will employ from fifty to sixty men and boys and an enameled brick plant.

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS' AND BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION OF PHILIPSBURG are now negotiating for the location there of a cut glass factory which will employ from fifty to sixty men and boys and an enameled brick plant.

WORK STARTED ON Y. M. C. A. SWIMMING POOL.—Lewis Wallace, who secured the contract for the swimming pool Mrs. William P. Wilson is building for the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., began work on the excavation for the pool on Tuesday morning.

A SUGGESTION FOR A BIG FOUNTAIN.—Several days ago in conversation with a friend Gen. Beaver stated that the people of Bellefonte ought to start a fund for the erection of a suitable fountain in the Diamond.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.

OF COURSE TO HAVE A FOUNTAIN OF SUCH magnitude would cost considerable money and that is the reason why Gen. Beaver suggested that a fund ought to be started now, to be added to from time to time and the same profitably invested so that the accruing income would help in swelling the fund.