LEMONT.

There were ninety tickets sold here Sunday to Gettysburg. The fore part of the week was hot and dry but Tuesday brought a fine rain. Mr. and Mrs. Cox, of Altoona, are stopping a few days at the home of Jacob Ray. Charles W. Whitehill and wife have gone to Ohio for a vacation of a few weeks, among friends. G. R. Roan and Sara Williams, are visiting among friends in Altoona, and will be away for a few days. George Houser and wife came in from the west last week and will circulate among friends for a few weeks before returning home. Clarence Houtz is busy building an addition to his house at present, and Samuel Weaver is having a new porch built around his house. Mrs. John Mitchell came home from Saratoga Springs one day last week and it is hoped that her health has improved by the stay at the springs. This town has awakened from the stupor that it has been in for many years, and a number are busy putting down artesian wells and concrete walks on some parts of the main street, while re port has it that the town intends lighting the streets. That is the way to boom the old town, boys.

RUNVILLE RIPPLINGS

The funeral of Mrs. James Kunes was largely attended. Minnie Walker departed Monday evening for a two weeks stay in Bellefonte. Benner Walker and wife, of Centre Hall, Sundayed at the Dave Walker home. Miss Maude Walker, brother Lloyd and Newton Lauck were the guests of Mr. Lauck's parents at Mill Hill. Among the visitors here this week are: Misses Bertha Hancock and Ida Robinson, of Philipsburg; Miss Edna Rodgers, of Osceola Mills, and Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Valley View. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koch and little folks spent Saturday camping with Homer and Michael Musser, who have their tents pitched on the banks of the "Blue" Juniata.

Prof. Irvin Zeigler, who spent the early part of his life in Centre county, but whose home is now in Funkstown, Pa., is visiting during his summer vacation with friends about State College.

Our townsman, J. A. Decker, for the third time has been granted the privilege of conducting the boarding house at Grange park during the encampment week. Mr. Decker and his good wife have been commended upon taking good care of the hungry while on the grounds.

The picnic and festival at Pine Hall last Saturday was a success. It was on the plan of the old-time Sunday school celebration. The Penn Hall Sunday school was joined by the Grace church Sunday school of State College. Rev. Mr. Sauer, man of State College, made the address, which was timely and well received. During the afternoon several games of ball were played. The festival in the evening netted $100.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. Ruhl has sold the Spring Mills hotel property to Moses Stover, of Farmers Mills.

Our farmers have about finished housing their oats. The crop in this neighborhood is a fair one.

Quite a number of our folks left on Sunday morning last, on the excursion train for Gettysburg.

H. I. Brian & Co. are putting down a railroad track along their sheds, to make it convenient for unloading coal.

We will soon have the creek road through town lighted up with a boulevard and street lamp. That's just exactly what we need.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Philadelphia, are here visiting relatives and friends in the valley, guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Lieb.

On Tuesday evening of last week, quite a large dancing party was held at the Penn cave hotel, which proved a very enjoyable occasion.

J. H. Kishel who has been quite ill for several weeks and was rapidly recovering, unfortunately had a relapse on Saturday evening last, and his present condition is rather serious.

Rev. Dr. Robb, of Pittsburg, delivered a very able Harvest home sermon in the Reformed church to a large congregation on Sunday morning last. The reverend gentleman is well known here as Professor Robb, having been principal of our school for two summers, and quite a popular teacher.

Will Fire 21 Guns if Boy is Born.

Pantelis L. Cafouros, a Greek, appeared before the board of safety in Indianapolis and asked permission to fire twenty-one guns when an expected male heir should arrive. Cafouros said he would not fire the salute if his heir was a girl. Permission was granted.

Killed by Bee Sting.

The sting of a bee proved fatal to George F. Putney, of Unity, N. H., who was stung while gathering blueberries. He died before he could get home.

Beattie Indicted as Wife Murderer.

A true bill charging murder in the first degree was returned by the grand jury of the Chesterfield circuit court at Chesterfield Courthouse, Va., against Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., of Richmond.

He will be tried for his life on Aug. 21 as the alleged murderer of his young wife, the victim of the Midlothian turnpike tragedy on July 18 last. An indictment charging murder in the first degree was in the hands of the clerk when the grand jurors arrived. Only five witnesses were on hand to be heard. Beattie was kept in jail at Richmond.

Four of the witnesses were Thomas E. Owen, uncle of Mrs. Beattie, to whose home Beattie took the body with his tale of a mysterious man firing into his automobile from the roadway; E. P. Pettigrew, called to testify as to the finding of the shotgun with which the crime was committed; Dr. Wilbur Mercer, who was at Owen's when Beattie drove up with the body, and Paul Beattie, a cousin of the defendant.

Paul Beattie swore before the coroner that he bought the gun at the prisoner's instance.

Beulah Binford, the girl for love of whom the prosecution will charge that Beattie killed his wife, was brought from the jail in Richmond to testify.

Meat Prices to Go Up.

Prices of beef are to be raised and New York retail dealers say the advance makes the cost of meat pass the high water mark of last fall.

Prices have been steadily advancing for two weeks, and the wholesalers say another advance is to come. The wholesale price of hindquarters of beef has jumped from 11 to 14 cents, while pork loins have gone up from 10 to 15 cents.

Wholesalers say the cause of the present advance is the scarcity of good cattle in the west and southwest.

Jersey Central Raises Firemen's Pay.

Several hundred firemen on the New Jersey Central were surprised to find posted at the various round houses notices of an advance in wages. The firemen are divided into three classes. Class 1 will now get $3.25 a day; class 2, $2.80, and class 3, $2.65. Ten hours will constitute a day's work.
