John Gates Left Second Will. The late John W. Gates left a second will, it was learned in New York city, setting a side in effect the great ten-year trust he had created by the will drawn in 1910 for the joint benefit of his wife and son, Charles G. Gates, embracing practically all of the $40,-000,000 in securities that he is said to have owned. The purpose of his former will, as announced by Judge Henry A. Gildersleeve on the day of the funeral, was to protect friends who had gone into, his various enterprises with him from embarrassment by the possible casting on the market at his death of his holdings No such effort to prevent this is made in the second will, as only $2,-000,000 is placed in trust. This trust is for the sole benefit of Charles G. Gates, the son, and is to continue during his lifetime. In addition to this, according to the will made public Saturday, a bequest of $1,000,000 is left outright to him.

The widow is named in this later instrument as the residuary legatee after the provisions for the son and 3 number of smaller special bequests have been carried out, making her probable share, it is said, something over $30,000,000. # A Checking Account

In every community there are many persons who know nothing of the safety and convenience of a checking account. The do not appreciate the fact that being a regular bank depositor entitles them to many privileges and conveniences in business which they could not enjoy otherwise. They have not found out that by being albank patron a man puts himself in position to ask and receive wise counsel in business and financial matters from men more experienced than himself, and, moreover, the bank depositor is in the way of getting much more substantial aid from the banker than mere advice.
