

P. GRAY MEEK. · · · TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice his paper will be furnished to subscribers at the llowing rates: Paid strictly in advance Paid before expiration of year . Paid after expiration of year . 2.00

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gehret, on east Bishop street, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Florence M. Gehret, was united in marriage to Arthur J. Casperson, of Titusville. A houseful of friends were present to witness the ceremony which took place at six o'clock and attended by Miss Mary Wian, as bridesmaid while Joseph L. Gehret acted as best man. The flower girls were Dorothy and Elizabeth Gehret.

Following the ceremony and shower of congratulations a wedding dinner was served and later the bride and groom were given a jolly ride through the town on their way to the depot to take the train for a brief honeymoon trip before settling down at Titusville where Mr. Casperson holds a good position as a machinist.

POWNELL-HALL-Elmer Pownell, a fireman on the P. and E. railroad, and stationed at Renovo, and Miss Bess Hall, of Milesburg, were married at the home of the bride's brother, Roy Hall, of Logan avenue, Tyrone, on Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, by the Rev. Harteman, of the Tyrone Methodist church. Bruce Robb and Malcolm Hall officiated as best men: Miss Almeda Pownell, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Nellie M. Hall, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaids while Miss Mary and Thelma Hall were the flower girls. The bride is a very pleasant and charming young lady and has a host of friends who wish her a happy voyage through life. Mr. and Mrs. Pownell left the same evening for a trip to Williams port, Sodas Point, N. Y. and Watkins Glen, after which they will settle down in their own furnished home in Renovo.

GRAUER-HIRSH-The wedding on Tuesday of Norman C. Grauer, of Bellwood, and Miss Hannah Hirsh, of Altoona, was quite a brilliant affair. The ceremony, which took place at 11.30 operation revealed a bad cancerous o'clock in the morning at the home of the growth in the side and her death was the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob result of the shock of the operation. Hirsh, was performed by Rev. Gabriel Schulman, of the Hebrew Reformed was twenty years old. She was a memchurch. Miss Rosie Grauer, a sister of ber of the Episcopal church and a girl the bridegroom, was maid of honor and who had many friends who join with her Edward E. Engle best man. The bride family in mourning her untimely death. and was born and spent his boyhood days Mrs. Zeigler, wife of Dr. Zeigler, of Al- S. A. Snyder. couple will make their home after their Mr. Lewis Grauer, of Bellefonte.

SAXE-HARPER.-About fifteen persons witnessed the marriage last Saturday morning of Archibald Saxe, of Scranton, and Miss Jennie Harper, of this place, which took place in the Reformed church at eleven o'clock. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt performed the ceremony and the young couple were attended by the bride's brother and sister, Jerome and Miss Louise Harper. Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple Chicago and upon their return will go to housekeeping in Scranton.

ding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, in State College, on burial was made in the Disciple cemetery. who are unacquainted with the little lady and election without endorsing any party. Wednesday of last week, when their daughter, Miss Hattie Smith, was united in marriage to Frank E. Leonard, of New countian, died at his home at Patton on Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cunningham, formering. Kingstown, Cumberland county. The Monday. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. ly of this place, who have been comfortceremony was performed at noon by Rev. Abram Martz and was born at Shingle- ably ensconced on a farm over there for are manifestly powerful. As "the pen is I. S. Sassaman, of the Lutheran church. town sixty years ago. He moved to Pat-Carlisle, best man. Mr. Leonard is a him are his wife and three children. He foundryman, and a fine one at that, but well-written, spicy, campaign articles, in FINK-OSMER.-Last Saturday evening Thursday. Tel ford N. Fink, son of county treasurer and Mrs. George G. Fink, of Martha, and Miss Jean Osmer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osmer, of this place, went were quietly marned by kev. John Hew. itt. They managed to keep the affair a tution on Wednesday and underwent an baugh is a young man deeply consecrated The primaries will be held on September 1. to the Episcopal parsonage where they secret and on Sunday morning went up to the home of the bridegroom's parents where they have been spending the week-Mr. Fink is employed by the Potter---Hoy Hardware company.

YARNELL-Meiss.-A quiet wedding was performed at the Reformed parsonage the WATCHMAN joins with their many ers and sisters. Burial was made on remembered by many people in that val- as they were not "vote getters." If we William Curry, farmer... friends in extending felicitations.

stricken until the end came. hearts of the most courageous, for he was vain. The muscles of the a powerful fellow, fearless and ready to swiftly wasted away and for fight at the drop of the hat. He was easi- had been totally helpless. ly the "best man" in Bellefonte in the He was born at Reedsville and was CASPERSON—GEHRET. — The home of days when fighting was regarded as al. over forty years of age. He grew Pennsylvania differs from many States most as much of a pastime as tennis is to manhood here and was well known by especially the western States, in which today, and the triumph that he cherished everybody before the family moved to most was the happy day when he licked Lewistown sixteen or more years ago. He In California one remarkable woman is what are the patent features in the inaug-"French Ike" Miller's bear.

blance of his former self he was a famil- Anna, at home, and Harrison Mann, also iar figure on our streets, and, occasion- living in Lewistown. The funeral was following report as the result of its railroad building, and storing up flood ally, when "spruced up" he would cock held on Monday afternoon, burial being deliberations. It first wishes to announce was performed by Rev. E. H. Yocum, of that hat of his on the side of his head made at Lewistown. the Methodist church. The bride was and step up High street with his air of forty years ago, when no man ventured a home incomparable and incomprehen-

> Deceased was probably seventy or more years old. He is survived by his widow and a step daughter, Mrs. William Summers, of Snow Shoe Intersection. Funeral hart, of State College, died in the Belleservices were held yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the Union tion was being performed for the remov-

Wolf.-Miss Ida Wolf, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf, of this place, died in the Shadyside hospital, Pittsburg, at 12.30 o'clock Monday morning, as the result of an operation. About a year ago she underwent an operation for a growth in her side and was able to be around so that her complete recovery was looked for. She made her home with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Zeigler, in Altoona, and about a month ago she was again taken seriously ill. The only hope was an operation and she was taken to the Shadyside hospital, Pittsburg. The home. The remains were brought to Bellefonte day afternoon, burial being made in the Union[cemetery.

Deceased was born in Bellefonte and noom is a son of Mrs. William Grauer Surviving her are her parents, one sister,

widow of the late John Bechdel, died at entertainment in the auditorium. her home near Blanchard on Tuesday of Thursday-Addresses by Hon. W. T. work that counts. The town must be last week, aged 60 years, 11 months and Creasy, master of the State Grange; Hon. thoroughly canvassed; every house visit-13 days. She had been an invalid for N. B. Critchfield, Secretary of Agriculed; every man urged to give his vote to years with chronic Bright's disease and ture; Hon. James Foust, Dairy and Food the women candidates. This method and guests, niteen in number, were driven to the Bush house where a wedding ship on a farm adjacent to Blanchard, 7:30 p. m., grand display of moving pictures the foreigners these visits are of great and she was a good woman in every tures, all new, change of program every value. room, which had been beautifully decorated in pink. They left Belle fonte on the and two sons, namely: Mrs. Joseph Mc-1.07 p. m. train for a wedding trip to Closkey, of Jersey Shore; Miss Edith, Curtis and Harris at home. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. W. H. Patterson, of the LEONARD-SMITH.-A pretty home wed- Disciple church, of which she was a member, had charge of the services and Miss Minerva Smith, a sister of the bride, ton when that town was first laid out Ed's even thinking he could become a board urges you to keep our object bewas bridesmaid and Raymond Dumm, of and had lived there ever since. Surviving farmer because he had been raised a fore the people through well-defined, graduate of The Pennsylvania State Col- also leaves the following brothers and he has made good and, above all, made circular letters and inserted in all of the lege in the agricultural course and is now sisters: Isaac, of McAlevy's Fort; Will-himself a happy home. No small part is town newspapers. The chairman of this a successful horticulturist in Cumberland liam, Samuel, Miss Nancy and Mis. E. S. contributed to the latter by the dear little committee is Mrs. Elmer E. Davis. The county where the young couple will make Moore, of Pine Grove Mills; George, of their home after a short wedding trip. Lemont, and John, of Centre Hall. The remains were buried in Philipsburg on of Mrs. Frank Boal, died in the Bellefonte on furlough, will speak in the Bellefonte secured for each designated party and afternoon. She was brought to the insti- and experiences in China. Rev. Sham- with the candidate's petitions. operation for appendicitis. Complications to his work and makes good and lasting tember 30th, from 2 o'clock p. m., to 8 set in and her death followed. She was impressions wherever he speaks. The o'clock p. m. If our candidates receive twenty years of age and in addition to pastor, Rev. J. F. Hower, extends a cordial the nomination, then it behooves every her mother is survived by a young broth- invitation to members and friends of all woman to work faithfully for their elecer, Earle. The funeral was held on Moadenominations to attend this service. day afternoon, burial being made in the ___Miss Anna Mabel Heckman, on election day, November 7th, 1911. Houserville cemetery.

Yarnell, of Linden Hall, and Miss Marian Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Brandon, of near lege, was married on Wednesday of last We will meet with opposition, of course, M. Meiss, of Tusseyville, were united in Nittany furnace, died on Friday of last week to John W. Hinebauch, of Sunbury. but be prepared to fight it and begin that marriage by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. week after months of illness with tubercu-Both the bride and bridegroom are well losis. He was aged eighteen years and is was pastor of the Pennsvalley charge of that while men believed the women made known young people of Pennsvalley and survived by his parents and several broth- the M. E. church and she is pleasantly good directors, they weakened the ticket

POOR OLD JIM IS GONE.—Another of the MANN.—Ralph Mann, son of the late town's characters dropped out on Wed- J. Fearon Mann, of Lewistown, but for nesday evening when James Murray suc- many years residents of Bellefonte, died cumed to a stroke of paralysis which he at the home of his mother last Thursday suffered on Monday afternoon. He was afternoon. He was taken sick on the first not conscious at all from the time he was day of September, 1909, and at first it was thought he had an attack of inflammatory "Jim," as most people knew him, was a rheumatism, but the disease later develremnant of the old and rougher days in oped into a hardening of the muscles and Bellefonte. In the seventies the mere although the virtues of many institutions mention of his name struck terror to the and sanitoriums were tried it was all in body is survived by his mother, two sisters and Tall, angular, grizzled and only a sem- one brother, namely: Misses Hattie and BROOKS.-James R. Brooks, a well to ask him where he was going or why. known resident of Pleasant Gap, died at Under the rough exterior was latent the home of his son in Harris township the sterling qualities of a good man had on Wednesday of last week, after a brief he ever have had the opportunities to de- illness with a complication of diseases. velop them. Straight and loyal to his He was born in Spring township and was friends as he was fair to his enemies he 68 years, 9 months and 3 days old. He lived his life according to the light he was in active service for three years durlead. He knew there was a Master, for ing the Civil war and was a member of he read His book probably more than the G. A. R., a laborer by occupation he many of us and who can say that the was a hard working, industrious man and crude prayers he sent up from that hum- was highly respected by all who knew ble little home may not have been freight. him. Rev. J. Max Lantz, of Spring Mills, the same time that they give attention to him little down the same time that the same time that they give attention to him little down the same time that the same t ed with a sincerity that has won for him officiated at the funeral which was held last Friday afternoon, burial being made in the cemetery at Zion.

> GEARHART.-Hilda, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gearfonte hospital last Thursday. An operaal of advoids and her tonsils and she failed to recover from the effects of the ether. Burial was made at Pine Hall Sunday afternoon.

KLING.-Lewis Raymond Kling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kling, died at the home of his parents in Hublersburg on Tuesday, aged 7 years, 2 months and 11 days. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. The remains were buried in the Mt. Bethel church cemetery yesterday.

GRANGE PICNIC PROGRAM.—Everything is in readiness for the big picnic and ex- pointed chairmen and deputies for the hibition at Crange Park, Centre Hall, next three wards of the town, giving power to week. The gathering will be opened unofficially tomorrow and will continue un- committee if they deem it necessary. The til Friday of next week. The full program for the week is as follows:

Saturday-Opening of camp for reception of tenters and business men. At 7:30 and in that way enlist the interest of many p. m., opening entertainment in the audi- influential people. The deputies are ex-torium. auditorium. Anniversary sermon by Rev. board through the president.

picture entertainment.

Dorsett, lecturer of the State Grange with the campaign, neither need there be BECHDEL.-Mrs. Elizabeth Bechdel, and others. 7:30 p. m., moving picture offers to exchange votes. Mass meetings the exhibition in the evening.

Thursday evening the expressman deliv- Gilmour is a whole Republican; but as MARTZ.—Jacob Martz, a former Centre ciated her gift. She is the daughter of Democrats and Republicans in good standdaughter Mamie.

Monday evening, September 11th, Rev W. I. Shambaugh, a missionary in the BOAL.—Miss May Boal, only daughter United Evangelical church, who is home United Evangelical church on his work forwarded to the county commissioners youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Urge the voters to look for the names of Heckman and a sister of Rev. Edgar the women candidates on the ballot and BRANDON.— Herbert Brandon, son of Heckman, a former pastor at State Col. to vote for them.

Our Correspondent's Opinions.

This column is at the service of those of our peopulous desire to express their views on any subject of general or local interest. The "Watchman" use in no way be responsible for their ideas or statements. The real name of the author must accopany all communications, but will be within from publication when the request is made.

Women on the School Board.

To the Editor Democratic Watchman.

While it is true that by the Constitution of Pennsylvania women are eligible, as they ought to be, for any position in the management of the public schools, we do not find them selected in any great numbers in the State. In this respect women fill many important school offices.

fare of the family, State and town.

who will not drift into political control, vocacy of National and State economics who have leisure to visit the schools; who that would reduce farm labor, drudgery will attend to the ventilation; who will of bucket water-hauling brigade and see that the janitor does his work thor- waste labor in long, tedious haul of coal ment of the children.

knowledge of the school system.

consideration we apply them to two women whom we believe will not fail to make good if elected to the public school board of Bellefonte. We, therefore, present to the Woman's Club the names of Mrs-Roger S. Brouse, of the West ward, and Mrs. Charles Gilmour, of the North ward, as the two candidates for the important other. Both should be elected. The nominations of the committee do no debar other names. If the ladies of the Club desire to nominate other women it is your privilege to do so.

The campaign committee is the execu- of glasses. tive board of the Woman's club. It apthe chairmen to increase the size of the executive board suggests that the ladies who are not club members be asked to lend a helping hand on these committees pected to report results to their chairman Sunday-Harvest Home services in the who in turn will report to the executive mined to win. Wednesday-Addresses by Hon. E. B. There need be no expense connected are not advisable, since it is individual her death was not unexpected. Almost Commissioner; Hon. Robert Conklin, For- emphasizes to the voters their responsiher entire life was spent in Liberty town- estry Commissioner and possibly others. bility to the board of education. Among

To do eff

> Since the election is borough, and not Friday-Grand sales day and closing of ward, our prospects appear to be somewhat brighter. Mrs. Brouse is a Demo-A PRESENT WORTH RECEIVING.-Last crat with a Republican husband; Mrs. ered to the writer a box of fruit bearing merit and ability are included in our platthis card "Present by Mamie Cunning- form, we call attention to the fact that it ham, Linden Hall, Pa." Those of you is possible to work for their nomination can't understand how much we appre- Their petitions were each signed by both campaign chairmen are North ward, Mrs. CHINA MISSIONARY TO BE HERE.—Next John S. Walker; West ward, Miss Mary Gray Meek, and South ward, Miss Emma Jane Aiken.

Fifteen names of qualified voters were tion, and never cease until the polls close ed that will bring a harvest later.

There is no more important work than boards, and we must impress upon voters the urgent need for women school directors. The best interests of our schools and our school children need women on the school board. Special emphasis must further chance.

HELEN E. OVERTON.

Soliloquy on Labor Day Celebration

To the Editor Democratic Watchman: There are no propositions to "go it alone" talk or meditations relative to alone talk or meditations relative to ard when the hour will be given to a conference on the subject "The Ministers in serving upon the State Board of Educa- uration of this National holiday. The martial array of labor organizations are The nominating committee presents the not in touch with unionist co-operative waters in mountain basins for use of the the "School Board Platform." Women on next generation, or the capturing of the school boards to secure the best wel- American markets for the inhabitants thereof and currency bills redeemable in The present day demands members coin, silver and gold. Such equitable adoughly from basement to top floor; who and supplies between consumer and prowill control the correct number of pupils ducer and his plea for honest commercial in a class room; who will see that right count on cost of imported labor packages, light falls upon the desks; who will be whereby the people would have a part in the sympathetic friend of the teacher at knowing what they are doing by patronizthe same time that they give attention to ing foreign trade. He is turned down Members of a school board should have papers, and labor organizations don't intelligence, tact, common sense and a want to know realities to obtain more capital to employ labor or to secure Taking all of these requirements into greater choice of honorable trader. No sible to these people. flag hoisted. The trade outlook is dismay. JAMES WOLFENDEN.

Lamar, Pa.

-While going through the cellar on his way to the stairs, at his home on east Logan street Wednesday evening, the burg; $258.

Logan street Wednesday evening, the burg; $258.

James B. Wagner et ux to E. Clayoffice of school director, each to serve two a broken hip. Inasmuch as he is past years. They are not to run against each eighty-one years of age the injury is quite a serious one. Mr. Curry is a remarkable example of longevity. Apparently hale and hearty he is in acute possession of all his faculties and reads the WATCHMAN regularly without the aid > Judged from the contents of the box the Cunningham farm must grow most every kind of plum and pear known for Aug. 23, 1911, tract of land in Worth it contained the most luscious Damsens, Twp.; $96.85. green gauges, apricot and peach plums Roland Shank et ux to Paul Rogers, Aug. 5, 1911, tract of land in Snow together with several varieties of fine Shoe Twp.; $100. pears. Altogether it was a present anyone one would have enjoyed and especially one who knows what a dear child cially one who knows what a dear child, the donor is.

HOSPITAL NOTES.—Operations at the Bellefonte hospital the past week were much. Toner A. Hugg, of Milesburg; Miss The corn is about ripe enough to cut and by all in Bellefonte. He is now proprietor of a toona, and three brothers: Charles, of Monday-Opening of exhibition and do her duty. We cannot vote, but we are Lillian Smith and Mrs. Theresa Davis, of appearances the crop will be from fair to good. drug store at Bellwood where the young Wallaceton; Joseph and William, at placing of exhibits. 7:30 p. m., moving influential and can poll a large number Bellefonte. Mrs. Mary Thomas, of Wilof votes if we follow the best methods liamsport, was admitted for treatment but the weather has been much warmer since. Tuesday—Soldiers' reunion. Addresses used by our men voters and candidates. and Miss Minnie Cole, of Bellefonte; Miss Mrs. D. L. Hite and her grand-daughter, Mary Among the guests at the wedding was on Monday evening and taken to the by Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, president of State Be familiar with the points favoring our Lulu Zerby, of Tusseyville, and Miss home of her parents from where the College, Dr. T. C. Van Tries and others. cause; have confidence in your arguments Bessie Shirk, of Runville, discharged. E. C. Ross and men are busy putting down funeral was held at two o'clock Wednes- 7:39 p. m., entertainment in the auditor- and results; be convincing and deter-

> -State Senator McNichol, of Philadelphia may be living in a glass house, as found no good flow of water. the gentlemen of the Vare faction intimate, but if he succeeds in getting hand- from Saratoga Springs, and it is hoped that her cuffs on every fellow who would be inclined to throw stones, his glass castle will not only be safe but comfortable.

> --- The Bailey blacksmith shop at State College has changed hands and J. D. Hubler is now the proprietor. Scott Bailey had William Coble from the rooms over the Mitchell been in business there for thirty or more years but ill health has forced his retirement from active business.

--- Mrs. Wells L. Daggett will give an informal luncheon today, in honor of Mrs. C. C. Garbrick, of Valley View, is the Mrs. Mainard Murch Jr., of Cleveland, and Miss Jackson, of Waverly.

Jury List for Special Court.

The jury list for the special week of poned until next Saturday, September 9th. court, which will begin on Monday, October 30th, was drawn the past week and is as follows:

TRAVERSE JURORS, FIFTH MONDAY OF OCTOBER.

Charles whitenin, larmer
W. K. Osman, paperhanger	State Colleg
Daniel Burd, farmer	Haine
Paul Gearhart, carpenter	Philipsbur
W H Huntsinger, laborer	Belleion
Homer M Walker, farmer	Ferguso
D I Welsh blacksmith	Howai
C. N. Meyer, lumberman	Per
I. T. Potter, gentleman	Centre Ha
John C. Frank, farmer	Ru
T D Dunnar agent	Liber
John Todd, operator	Pampsou
Have Schoock justice of peac	eHowa
J. C. Snyder, laborer	State Colle
T.L. III Dannas farmer	nenn n
W. T. Bair, editor	Philipsbu
George Tibbens, farmer	Spri
E. J. Brown, laborer	Bellefor
I M Hainle electrician	Bellefor
Thomas Griffith, teamster	Philipsou
Miles Hoover, laborer	Ru
Charles Raker, farmer	Cur
Perry Krise, farmer	Pot
J. W. Barnhart, laborer	Bellefor
C. D. Casebeer, jeweler	Bellefor
C. O. Whippo, blacksmith	Halfmo
A ME Machin teacher	Han
Clarence Rogers, laborer	South Philipsot
Solomon Bartlet, laborer	Spr
I I H Williams, farmer	Fergu
Ellis G. Way, farmer	Un
mus Diante manufacturer	Boi
O Tibbone bile foreman	Cui
I D Cates laborer	South Philipso
A Williams carpenter	Cu
T + Wantattar farmer	Spr
P H Meyer, music teacher	Centre I
John Poseman, laborer	Centre I small number of votes, but be seeds plant- With the Churches of the County.

the placing of women on the school Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

HOWARD CHURCH MATTERS.

The Ministerium of Howard, met in be placed on the work for the primaries, for if a candidate fails there, she has no further chance.

regular monthly session Monday afternoon at the home of Rev. W. H. Patterson.

> In a reso tion the attention of the chief burgess was called to the Sunday selling by certain merchants with the re-quest that he use his office to investigate and prevent such violation of the Sunday

Friday evening Sept. 1, Rev. Faust gave-"Echoes of the International C. E. con-vention" recently held in Atlantic City, in the Evangelical church at Fairview.

The Citizens Entertainment association, of Howard, is now completing arrangements for the course of entertainments to be given in town this season. They have contracted with the Redpath-Brockway bureau for a course of four numbers. The following dates are fixed: Oct. 12, The Musical Favorites. Nov. 30, John Ratto, Impersonator. Jan. 15, Dr. J. Everett Cathell, Lecturer. March 22, Tabor Lecturer. han, Lecturer.

The association consists of twent prominent citizens, who have combined to assure the financial success of the undertaking. They have secured the best possible talent and such as has never been before a Howard audience. The object is to bring to the citizens of Howard and by Metropolitan and Republican news- vicinity at a very reasonable cost that which will be interesting, instructive and edifying, helping toward broader educa-tion and broader vision, for this same opportunity would otherwise be inacces

Real Estate Transfers.

Edward H. Frank to James E Breon, July 31, 1911, tract of land in Aaronsburg; $60. Geo. W. Fink et ux to Hiram Moore Aug. 19, 1911, tract of land in Philips-ton Wagner, March 3, 1911, tract of land in Potter Twp.; $1311.35. William H. Long to Sarah Bohn, April 1, 1911, tract of land in Penn wp.; $900. David S. Long et ux to Aden A Garrett, Aug. 26, 1911, tract of land in Marion Twp.; $20. Irvin Neff et al to Emma White, July 2, 1908, tract of land in Walker Twp.: $1.

Emma White et bar to Albina Peters, Aug. 12, 1911, tract of land in Walker Twp.; $1560. W. E. Hurley sheriff to Ella L. Price, LEMONT.

We have hed lots of rain to date but not too

They have put the artesian well down sixty feet on the Roan property and thus far have Mrs. John Mitchell returned home, Saturday, health has improved. Henry F. Evey went to Watsontown, Wednesday of last week, to get his goods ready to ship to Lemont, where he intends making his future

James Longwell moved from the Mrs. Osmar house to the house vacated by Paul A. Noll, and hardware to the house vacated by Longwell.

PHNVILLE RIPPLINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gross, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at Ellen Friels

guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Witherite. Mrs. Catherine Gross and little grand-daughter Catherine, of Bellefonte, are visiting friends and relatives at this place. On account of the wet weather last week the U. B. Sunday school picnic at Runville was post-Edward Hancock and son and Mrs. Sallie Friel and two sons, Samuel and Edward, of Philipsburg, are the guests of Mr. E. Hancock and Frank Shope, Dale Musser and Edith Walker, of Snow Shoe; Minnie Witherite, of Chestnut Grove; Edith Poorman, of Runville, and Stella Walker, of Gum Stump, Sundayed at the home of Harry Bottorff.

Sees No Handwriting, Etc.

From the Detroit Free Press. Premier Laurier announces that he will retire from politics if he is defeated in the present election, but he's not look-ing around for a job just yet.

Commissioner.

To the Democratic Voters of Centre County.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the primaries September 30, 1911. Howard township has not had a county official for thirty-five years and as a life long Democrat, I ask kindly support in securing representation on the Democratic ticket for this end of the county. If elected I will do the best I can for every tax-payer in the BURDINE BUTLER.

Grangers at Centre Hall.

For the patrons of Husbandry Exhibition at Centre Hall, Pa., September 9 to 15, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell special excursion tickets to Centre Hall from stations in Pennsylvania, and from Baltimore and Elmira at reduced fares (minimum fare 50 cents.) Tickets will be sold September 8 to 15; good to return to Patton reach original starting point not later than Sep-