

Speaks Out Like a Man.

No Grouch About Mr. Schofield and No Aid to Republicans from Him.

Editor Democratic Watchman.

I beg the liberty of a small space in your paper to contradict a rumor to the effect that I am an independent candidate for County Treasurer. I can't imagine anything that would be more absurd on my part. I was defeated at the primaries, and if my friends will remember when I announced myself as a candidate for the office, I agreed to abide by the action of my party at the polls, on September 30th. I was defeated by a gentleman whom I can support most heartily. If you remember, three years ago Mr. Miller was defeated for the office of Treasurer. He never complained. He took his defeat like a gentleman. No man in Centre county can point their finger to a spot on his private or public life. I have known Mr. Miller for a great many years and have had a good deal of business with him. I have always found him to be a man of honor. No one need have the least thought of not being treated with courtesy in his office when he is elected Treasurer. I also wish to state that I have had personal and other letters requesting me to come out as an independent candidate. To all of my friends who supported me with such loyalty, I thank you all most heartily. I have only one request to make of all. Go to the election and vote the straight Democratic ticket. All the candidates upon it I know personally. You will make no mistake in casting your votes for every one of them.

Very truly yours,
JAMES SCHOFIELD.

Candidate's Expense Accounts.

Practically all of the men who were candidates for office on the Democratic and Republican tickets have filed their primary expense accounts in the office of the Prothonotary, and the total amount of money expended accounted for is $3,780.31. Of this amount the Democratic candidates spent $1,714.55 and the Republican candidates $2,115.76. Quite a number of the candidates, including County Commissioners John L. Dunlap and Jacob Woodring, filed affidavits that their expenses were below fifty dollars, and those are not counted in the above. The candidate who spent the greatest amount was R. T. Conley, for Treasurer on the Republican ticket. He spent $508, $225 of which was for railroad fare and other traveling expenses and $100 for legal advice. D. J. Gingery, candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket spent $300, but failed to itemize his account. Joseph L. Montgomery, treasurer of the Republican county committee, filed an affidavit that the committee's expenses were less than fifty dollars. The complete list of those who filed accounts is as follows:

JODON—RIDER.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rider, on Willowbank street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock when their daughter, Miss Katurah Rider, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Van Jodon. Fifty guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. E. H. Yocum, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride was attended by Miss Grace Blackford as bridesmaid, while Andrew Jodon acted as best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and later the newly-wedded couple were driven to Milesburg where they took the train for a wedding trip to Buffalo and Toronto, Canada. The bride is one of Bellefonte's popular young women. For some time past she has been assistant cashier in Joseph Bros. store and was most efficient in that capacity. The bridegroom holds a responsible position in the offices of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company, and both have hosts of friends who wish them all kinds of good luck on their journey through life.

GROVE—SHOPE.—A happy little wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Reynolds Shope, on Thomas street, on Saturday evening, when their daughter, Miss Nettie E. Shope, was united in marriage to Roy H. Grove. The ceremony took place at seven o'clock and was performed by Rev. C. W. Winey, of the United Brethren church. In addition to the bride's family there were present the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Shultz, of Curtin. Following the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served to all present.

GARDNER—MILLER.—David Gardner, a well known young man of Blanchard, and Miss Alice M. Miller, of Beech Creek, were married at the parsonage of the Church of Christ in Lock Haven, on Wednesday of last week, by the pastor, Rev. D. Moss. The young couple will go to housekeeping at Blanchard.

BURKEY—ASKEY.—The wedding of Webster Burkey, of Conemaugh, and Miss Iva M. Askey, of Pine Glenn, took place at two o'clock last Thursday afternoon and was witnessed by a large number of guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Cook Jr. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony the newly-wedded couple were given a reception and wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Askey, and later left on an extended honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Johnstown.

BITNER—FULTZ.—Quite a big society event for Mill Hill was the wedding there on Thursday evening of last week of Miss Violet Beatrice Fultz, of Flemington, and Clair H. Bitner, of Pittsboro. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Fultz, and was performed by Rev. William E. Harr, of the Lock Haven Reformed church. Miss Ethel McGregor, of Flemington, was bridesmaid, and M. Lloyd Bitner best man. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bitner, of Pittsboro, but formerly of Jacksonsville, this county, where he was born and lived until a few years ago.

State College Items.

Deemer Pierce is the obliging clerk at the Hurwitz clothing store. The Y. M. C. A. course tickets are on sale this week at $1.50 for the full course. A number of new walks are being laid this week by the different concrete gangs. The brick layers are now at work on Fred Robinson's new building on Allen street. Corn is a good crop and some has been brought to town. The price paid is 60 cents per bushel. It is reported that the cider scrap between the Sophomores and Freshmen will come off Saturday. Butchering time will soon be here and a large number of big porkers are to be killed in this place. Potatoes are retailing at $1.00 per bushel delivered in the bin. Several car loads have already been unloaded here. The Reformed congregation held a chicken and waffle supper this week at the home of Miss Virgie Kaup, on Foster avenue. The Republicans held a mass meeting on Tuesday night. They are trying to organize with the hope of strengthening their ticket. The Calthumpians should get their instruments ready, as another wedding will take place in the near future on West College avenue. The Lock Haven High school football team was here and played our High school team on the old Beaver field, the score being 34 to 0 in favor of State College High school. Our town was full of life on Saturday night over the victory of the Cornell game. Fences, walks, outbuildings and everything movable were captured for the big bon-fire. John D. Miller, the Democrat candidate for Treasurer, was in today looking up his friends. John is a well qualified man for the job and should have the full support of the people. William Thompson has purchased another big car and has been kept pretty busy transporting people to Lemont. The transportation company also purchased two five passenger cars and are also busy. James C. Rice, who fell and received some painful injuries a few weeks ago, is not improving as rapidly as was expected. He is a pretty old man and undoubtedly will be confined to his house the greater part of the winter. Tomorrow (Saturday) State will play the Villa Nova foot ball team on Beaver field. Last year neither team was able to score but Villa Nova will find out something different this year as State's team has not been scored upon this season.

SPRING MILLS.

About every third family is making apple butter. Our farmers are busy husking corn. The crop in this neighborhood is a fair one. The grange hall is about ready for the carpenters to commence the interior work. John Hoffman, of Sunbury, was here on a visit last week, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cummings. What has become of the arc street lamp so much talked about? Could not the agent make his point? The nominees of the untrified are very satisfactory to the "unwashed" in this Gibraltar of Democracy. After a vacation of two weeks J. C. Lee, our popular agent at the railroad station, resumed his duties on Monday last. Wm. Ruhl has bills posted announcing the sale of his livery stock. Mr. Ruhl says that autos have displaced the de-use with the livery business. S. L. Condo has erected on the "hill" quite an imposing building for the display and sale of vehicles, harness, etc. Mr. Condo is an extensive dealer in these lines. W. O. Granley, proprietor of the Westland dairy, while in New York State, purchased twenty head of very superior cows. They reached here on Tuesday of last week in good condition. Quite a number of our farmers in raising their potato stock, discovered them to be about the size of a plum and few in a hill. Some remarked that if they had supposed such would be the result, instead of buying Paris green they would have left the potato bugs eat them up stalks and all. It was a little singular about the potatoes, in a field above or below a failure of this kind, the potatoes were all right. Now what was the cause? —If you want high class job work come to the WATCHMAN office.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. Laura Bricker was a Tyrone visitor over the Sabbath. J. M. Watt, of Tyrone, was greeting old chums in the Glades last week. Some of our farmers are done husking corn, and it is but a fair crop. Miss Milo Campbell visited the Burket home at Stormstown Wednesday. Hon. J. T. McCormick and wife spent last week with their son at Scranton. On account of the prolonged wet weather there is still some seeding to do. Mr. Lester Goheen attended the Sunday school convention at New Castle last week. Frank Rhodenizer, of Stone Valley, came over Tuesday to go to school this winter. George Bradford, the popular driver of Centre Hill, was here Tuesday buying cows. Darius Waite, the popular implement dealer, was doing business here on Monday. Will Mothersbaugh is shy a horse that was found dead in the stall Monday morning. Mrs. Mary Wright closed her home on Water street and is staying among friends in the country. John F. Kimpfort was in Saubsburg Saturday and brought back a bunch of fat cattle for the block. Wm. Muser, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday at State College with his aged mother who is quite feeble. Miss Lizzie McCracken was an Indiana visitor last week, at the home of her uncle, Rev. J. A. Adair. Miss Anna Dale and mother closed their home to spend some time at their farm home on the Branch. Grandmother Margaret Martz is nursing a broken arm, sustained in a fall in the yard last Friday. Mrs. Sadie Heberling and daughter Estella are spending this week among their friends at State College. Miss Lizzie Hilliard, who has been ill with spinal trouble the past month, is on a fair way to recovery. Mrs. Alice Shultz and two boys came over from Philipsburg to spend a week at the home of her father, George Hall. Mrs. Emma Hess, of Bellefonte, is spending a week among friends on the Branch where she spent her younger days. Milliken McWilliams, a former mail clerk on the Pennsy., resigned his position to embark in the bakery business at Tyrone. Rev. S. J. Pittinger, pastor of the M. E. church, is holding a protracted meeting at Franklinville in which there is much interest manifested. Dogs recently raided Jacob Harpster's flock of sheep, killing four, and now he is keeping one eye on his shot gun and the other on a lookout for the dogs. T. C. Cronover came over from Saubsburg to look after his architectural interest on the Branch and complete his elegant new barn before the snow flakes fly. The venerable Capt. J. A. Hunter, of Stormstown, is somewhat indisposed and is confined to the house. Inasmuch as he is past ninety-one years of age his friends feel somewhat concerned about him. Last Saturday evening the newly elected officers of Pennsylvania Lodge, No. 276, I. O. O. F., were duly installed by district deputy grand master R. M. Krebs. Following the installation services the members treated themselves to fine banquet and smoker. Miss Nellie Campbell, a former Pine Grove girl who has been a teacher over in the Philippines several years and traveled extensively over Europe, spending some time in Rome, is now visiting friends here and at State College before leaving for her father's home in Kansas.

Miss Lillian Dale is at the C. M. Dale home on the Branch looking after the culinary department during the absence of Mrs. Dale, who is at the bedside of her daughter Rosella, who recently underwent a serious operation in the Bellefonte hospital. The young lady is getting along as well as can be expected. Mr. and Mrs. John Keed, of Rock Springs, entertained a house party over the eighth instant in honor of their son Robert. On Sunday evening the party drove to Pine Grove Mills to hear Rev. Pittinger's sermon to the Odd Fellows. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Crust, of Philipsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Everhart and daughter, Miss Lou, of Altoona; C. E. Brown, Albert Matten, Robert Wilson, Eugene Irvin, Edward Woomer and Linn Ewerhart. HUBLERSBURG NOTES. The farmers are busy husking corn. Martha Carner and family visited at Clintondale last Saturday. John McEwen made a business trip to Williamsport last Saturday. Miss Pauline Taylor, of Salona, was the guest of Mrs. Paul Carner last week. Mrs. D. A. Deitrick went to visit her aunt, Mrs. Jacob Dunkle, who is sick at present. James H. Carner, who has been housed up all summer with rheumatism is not improving. A. H. Spayd has been working on his farm in Pennsylvania the last two weeks, assisting his farmer. G. F. Hoy, the merchant and shipper, has been shipping a large quantity of apples from here and other points in the county. Miss Weaver, of Aaronsburg, is visiting her friend, Miss Regina Hubler. She takes light and sunshine wherever she goes. Boyd Heckman is busily engaged setting up his saw mill on the tract of land he recently purchased from Miss Mittie Vonada. The schools of the township are progressing very nicely thus far. The High school under the leadership of Prof. C. L. Gleesner, is doing good work. The teachers training class which has been organized during the summer held its second ex. amination last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Carner. There will be preaching services in the Reformed church Sunday evening, October 22nd, at 7.30 o'clock, by Rev. Faust, of Howard. Rev. Faust comes highly recommended as a very able and eloquent speaker. It is hoped that all will come out and give him an appreciative audience. Robert Cole, the architect, and Harry Badger the plumber, of Bellefonte, were in town one day last week to look after the heating plant of our new High school building, which has not been giving the best of satisfaction. After a close examination they found that the fault lay not in the plant, but in the janitor, who did not have things properly adjusted. Lolita Armour to Dance. Lolita Armour, who is fourteen years old, is taking dancing lessons in Chicago. It is almost six years since Dr. Lorenz, of Vienna, succeeded in healing little Miss Armour of an affliction of the hips. The surgeon made two trips to this country in 1903 and 1904, and J. Ogden Armour took his daughter to Vienna later.

Searching for Mad Murderer

Supposed Maniac Suspected of Killing 14

On the theory, supported by strong circumstantial evidence, that a roving maniac is responsible for the murders of fourteen persons in three widely separated cities within the last month, appeals have been made by the authorities of these cities to the Chicago police to assist in the capture of the murderer. The mysterious trail of death began in Colorado Springs, Sept. 17. From there it led to Monmouth, Ill., on Oct. 1, and last Sunday it reached the town of Ellsworth, Kan.

The murders were all committed on Sunday nights and each two weeks apart. Oct. 29, if the schedule is maintained, will be marked by a repetition of the crime. Police in central and western cities have been notified to keep a strict watch for the criminal. The murders ascribed to the maniac are: Colorado Springs, Sept. 17, Mrs. A. J. Burnham and two children and J. C. Wayne, his wife and child. Families murdered in their homes, their skulls crushed by a blunt instrument. Monmouth, Ill., Oct. 1, W. E. Dawson, wife and thirteen-year-old daughter, Clara. The Dawsons were murdered in the house as they slept. Their skulls were crushed, as if an axe or lead pipe had been the instrument of death.

Ellsworth, Kan., Oct. 15. William Showman, wife and three children, Lester, aged seven; Fern, aged four; and Penton, aged two. They were all murdered in bed, and, as in the previous murders, their skulls had been crushed by a blunt weapon. Not a clue has been obtained by the police of any of the three cities. The similarity of the crimes, the fact that they occurred Sunday night, and the two weeks intervening between each murderous visit, alone give the authorities a tangible working basis for the clearing of the mysteries.

A gas pipe and a small flashlight were found near the scene of the Dawson murder in Monmouth. An inscription on the flashlight read: "Colorado Springs, Sept. 4." This date may mark the time of still another crime, as it is two weeks prior to the first murder now charged against the maniac in Colorado Springs on Sept. 17.

It is believed the murderer is insane and probably recently escaped from an asylum. It is thought that the peculiar method of killing his victims and the choice of Sunday and the hour of midnight as the time may reflect back upon the original cause of the man's incarceration in an asylum. Asylums for the insane in the central and western parts of the country have been notified and descriptions of all escaped persons are to be requested and sent to the police of all cities, towns and villages.

Sunday night, Oct. 29, especially, will be watch night, as the regular chain of the maniac's murderous events would lead him, if the theory is correct, to commit on that night another of her crimes. Woman's Relatives May Help. Charles Marzyek, a former convict, of Ellsworth, Kan., who is wanted in connection with the murder of the Showman family, was convicted of forgery in Colorado Springs, where the six members of the Wayne and Burnham families were murdered, and was acquitted in Monmouth, Ill., where three persons were slain, according to a statement made by Mrs. Minnie Vopart, Marzyek's divorced wife.

Aged Farmer is Killed by Vicious Animal. Moses Hershberger, a farmer, of Marion township, near Stoubsburg, Pa., seventy-three years of age, was killed by a vicious bull. He was entering the farmyard when the bull charged for him. In trying to get over a fence the bull broke down the barrier and gored him, causing internal injuries that proved fatal five hours later. Half a dozen men came to his assistance with long poles and pitchforks, and they had a battle of ten minutes before the bull could be gotten away from the farmer.

Woman Hangs Herself. Becoming melancholy after an illness lasting several years, Miss Nellie Kiefer, aged forty years, committed suicide by hanging herself in the barn on the farm of her father, at Nazareth, Pa. The body was found by the woman's father, who, with a party of neighbors, had been searching for her. Jersey Flowers Bloom. Over on the mainland the warm sea breezes have brought out a second crop of spring flowers. Lilacs are in full bloom in many parts of Pleasantville, five miles from Atlantic City, N. J., something that has never happened before in October.

Bandits Hold Mine Owner. Pedro Aguilera, a mining engineer, mine owner and a member of the Spanish-American Iron company, according to a report received in Santiago, Cuba, was seized by bandits and held for a ransom of $20,000. The kidnapping is said to have taken place on the company's property at El Cuero mines. Badly Burned by "Voodoo" Cure. A "voodoo" cure for rheumatism exploded in the home in Wilmington, Del., of Mrs. Mary Wynn, fifty-one years old, and enveloped her in a mass of flames. She was badly burned and may not recover. T. E. O. was placed in a pan on the top of the stove to be heated prior to its application.

Justice Harlan is Dead.

"Goodby; I am sorry I kept you all waiting so long."

With these words Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan, of the supreme court of the United States, often acclaimed the greatest constitutional authority of the day, once a conspicuous figure in national and Kentucky Republican politics and long a leader in Presbyterian councils, passed away in Washington, aged seventy-eight years. He had been ill less than a week with acute bronchitis. With Justice Harlan's death has fallen to President Taft the opportunity to select during his single term in office a majority of the members of the supreme court, including the chief justice, a duty that has devolved upon no other president since Washington formed the court in 1790.

Notes For Women in California. Overcoming an adverse majority of 16,000 in San Francisco and Oakland, the voters of the country districts of California have given a victory to the cause of woman suffrage by a margin of something more than 3000. With returns missing from 400 precincts, the suffrage has a majority of about 1500, which is growing steadily as the figures come in.

The result came as a big surprise, as early returns indicated that suffrage was beaten and the majority was placed at 5000. Then came the returns from the country. Nearly every agricultural county was carried by the women, and although the majorities were not large they rolled up a total vote that wiped out the anti-suffrage majority.

Family of Five Murdered. William Showman and his wife and three children were murdered while they slept at Ellsworth, Kan. The murderer used an axe and crushed the head of each. The bodies were found by Mrs. O. W. Snook, a neighbor. There is no clue to the murderer. The Showmans were persons in moderate circumstances, and it is believed the motive could not have been robbery. It is not known that the man or his wife had any enemies. The bodies of the five victims were found in one room. All were in bed.

Lynchers Sent to Prison For Life. Four men, accused of the lynching of Charles P. Seilers on June 18 on a ranch near Valentine, Neb., have been sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Westover. Eunice Murphy, a girl accused as an accessory before the fact, was released.

Laughter Caused Death. Literally splitting his sides with laughter while witnessing a comedy in a Boston theater, Thomas M. Ryan ruptured a blood vessel near his heart and died shortly afterwards.

In the array of hat shapes the poke effect stands out prominently among the small models. The high, slender crowns also attract, and the tall, pine-tree feather.
