

DEVOR-CAMPBELL.—A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Meek, 312 west College avenue, State College, on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Esther Nora Campbell, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Campbell, was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. H. C. Campbell, of Philadelphia, Pa., to Mr. Donald Smith Devor, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Devor, of Chambersburg, Pa.

The interior of the house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, ivy vine and chrysanthemums. Preceding the wedding Miss Charlotte Tyson sang "Oh Promise Me," and promptly at one o'clock the bridal party entered the parlors to the beautiful strains of Tannhauser rendered by Miss Laura Gregory. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. McK. Reiley, of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church. The young couple were attended by Miss Daise Keichline, of Bellefonte, and Miss Georgia McMurry, of Clearfield, as bridesmaids, while Mr. Jenner H. Devor, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's gown was of pearl satin over white messaline. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms that her mother wore over forty-five years ago and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were gowned in blue crepe de chine over blue satin and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony and congratulations a delicious wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple were driven to Bellefonte in an automobile, accompanied by Mr. Elton L. Towle and bride of a week, at whose wedding in Portland, Maine, Mr. Devor acted as best man, where they arrived in time to catch the 4:44 train for Tyrone. After an extended trip in the East and South they will make their home in Milwaukee, Wis., where Mr. Devor holds a very important position with the Allis-Chalmers Co., of that place.

The bride is a handsome and talented young lady, a graduate of Dickinson Seminary and very capable of making an ideal wife. She has made her home with her sister, Mrs. H. D. Meek, since the death of her mother, which occurred four years ago, her father having died three years previous.

The bridegroom graduated from Penn State with honors in the class of '09, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi. Both Mr. and Mrs. Devor are accomplished musicians and have a host of friends who join in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy life.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Devor, Chambersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Elton L. Towle, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Gearhart, Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Steele, Cambridge, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser, Miss Rose Williams, all of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thirty-five guests witnessed the ceremony which took place at the home of the bride's mother at 11:30 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Gabriel Schulman officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rosalie Grauer, as bridesmaid, while I. Silverman acted as best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Norman A. Grauer, of Bellefonte. They will be at home to their friends in Altoona, after January 15th.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grauer and daughter, of Bellefonte.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Armstrong, of the Methodist church of Coalport. The bride is a graduate of the Indiana State Normal school and for a number of years has been a successful school teacher in Warriorsmark valley. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. The bridegroom is a clerk in the railroad station at Bellefonte and it is there the young couple will make their future home.

KEEFER-BLACKFORD.—"Blessed is the bride the sun shines on," is an old marriage superstition that has a good share of belief in every girl's heart, and if it is even in a measure correct fortune will smile on Sidney A. Keefer and Miss Grace May Blackford, as the sun shone brilliantly at eleven o'clock yesterday morning as the ceremony was performed which made them man and wife.

About two hundred guests were present in the Methodist church to witness the happy nuptials. The interior of the edifice was elaborately decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. The bride, who was given away in marriage by her brother, J. Linn Blackford, was gowned in a cream white messaline with bands of white silk, hand embroidered, and balls of Irish crochet. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Her only bridesmaid, Miss Daise Louise Keichline, wore a gown of blue crepe, ornamented with lace she brought from Egypt; a picture hat of blue satin and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The best man was Edward Riley, of Altoona, a nephew of the bridegroom. The ushers were Wilbur Burkholder, Van Jodon, Alfred Klepper and Harry Williams. Dr. Ezra H. Yocum, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held and a wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Blackford, on Bishop street, at which fifty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Keefer departed on the noon train for a wedding trip to eastern cities and upon their return will be at Mrs. Tanners until spring.

The bride is the daughter of the late George and Mrs. Blackford and is very popular among the younger set of Bellefonte. For some time past she was one of the cashiers in Joseph Bros. store, in which capacity she proved most efficient. Her wedding presents formed a formidable array of valuable gifts in silver, cut glass, china, linen, furniture, rugs, pictures, bric-a-brac, etc. The bridegroom is one of the most popular young men of Bellefonte. He is superintendent for the American Lime and Stone company in this place and a man of exemplary character. May they enjoy many years of happiness together is the hope of all their friends.

WRIGHT-SHULL.—On Wednesday evening of last week Norman R. Wright, of Bellwood, and Miss Carrie Leanne Shull, daughter of Judge James W. Shull, of the Perry-Juniata county judicial district, were united in marriage at the Shull home in Newport. Mr. Wright, who is originally from Newport, graduated at State College as a civil engineer in the class of 1908, and now holds a good position with the Pennsylvania railroad company at Bellwood. During his course in college he belonged to the glee club and quartette, having a remarkable bass voice, and was one of the most popular students at State. His bride is a graduate of the Lock Haven Normal school and the Philadelphia conservatory of music.

VANGORTER-KREBS.—A pretty wedding took place in the Lutheran church at State College, at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, when Harry Vangorter, of Toronto, Canada, was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Krebs, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. He was here about ten days and was recuperating splendidly when his brother's store in Trappe, in which he also had an interest, was destroyed by fire and he and his little family returned home. A few days later he had a relapse and from that time he gradually grew worse until death relieved his sufferings on Monday. His wife and one son, William Armstrong Kirby Jr., survive.

REV. HAWES OFFICIALLY INSTALLED.—Considering the inclemency of the weather a good sized congregation was present in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening to witness the official installation of Rev. George Hawes as pastor of the church. The session was presided over by Rev. A. R. Day, of Alexandria, as moderator. Rev. William S. Miller, of Hollidaysburg, delivered the charge to the pastor and Rev. J. C. Day, of Tyrone, delivered the charge to the congregation. The latter was very pointed in his remarks, telling the congregation that they had no right to call a pastor from another church that wanted and needed him, then after they had him find fault and criticize him. That they were to stand by him loyally and give him all the support possible, both materially and spiritually. He congratulated the congregation upon having called such an able pastor as Rev. Hawes, and predicted a wave of religious prosperity in the church, if the congregation are faithful in their duty to the pastor.

During the short time Rev. Hawes has been in Bellefonte he has created a very favorable impression, not only among his congregation but all who have had the pleasure of meeting him. He is an able theologian and a forceful pulpit orator and the congregation ought to be well satisfied with their choice of pastor.

SPECIAL SESSION OF COURT.—Judge Harry Alvan Hall, of Ridgway, presided over the special session of court held this week, but was not at all overworked.
