

BROWN.—Quite a number of Centre countians will learn with regret of the death on Sunday night of Albert M. Brown, formerly of Pennsylvania Furnace but the past few years a resident of Nealmont, near Tyrone. In July, 1910, he was the victim of an automobile accident in Altoona in which he suffered the loss of one eye several fractured ribs and other serious injuries. He was confined to the Altoona hospital a month or longer and after he was able to return home consulted some of the best specialists in the country but the shock to his system was so great that his once strong constitution was completely wrecked, and his death was the result.

Deceased was a son of William and Rebecca Von Brown and was born at Lakemont, near Altoona, September 20th, 1854. When a young man he engaged in the lumbering business with his father, operating in Blair, Mifflin and Centre counties and after the death of his father he conducted the business alone. For a number of years he lived at Pennsylvania Furnace where, in addition to lumbering he farmed and dealt in fancy stock. When the Farmers and Merchants bank of Tyrone was organized a few years ago Mr. Brown was one of its leading promoters and was elected president, a position he held until his death. His business interests there naturally demanded his daily attention and he moved from Pennsylvania Furnace to Nealmont. He was a member of the Milroy lodge No. 294, Free and Accepted Masons, the Harrisburg Consistory and the Jaffa Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Altoona.

In 1884 he was united in marriage to Miss Dora Mitchell, of Mifflin county, who survives with the following children: William H., of Neelytown; S. Blaine and Benjamin Harrison, of Tyrone; and Rebecca at home. One brother, Samuel, of Milroy, and two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Reifsnnyder, of Altoona, and Mrs. Anna Rodgers, of Lewistown, also survive. Funeral services were held at his late home at Nealmont on Tuesday morning by Rev. W. H. Fahs, assisted by Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Selingsgrove. The same afternoon the remains were taken to Milroy for interment.

WHITE.—Mrs. Mary Beaver White, relict of Rev. J. W. White, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian church at Milroy, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Reed Thompson, in that place, at an early hour last Thursday morning. Some time last August she was compelled to undergo quite a serious operation but she had recovered therefrom and was in comparative good health for a woman of her age up until last Thursday when she contracted a cold which rapidly developed into pneumonia, causing her death.

Deceased was a daughter of Jacob and Ann Eliza Adams Beaver and was born at Millerstown, Perry county, about eighty-two years ago. She grew to womanhood in the home of her birth and received her education in the public schools of that day. Many years of her married life was spent in Milroy, where she was a great help to her husband in his ministerial labors. Well educated, a great reader and a woman of great refinement of character she was dearly beloved by all who knew her. She was of an exceptionally charitable disposition and was always prompt and kind in her ministrations to those in need. For a number of years past she has spent her winters in apartments in New York and her summers at Milroy.

She is survived by six children, namely: J. Gilbert White and William F. White, of New York city; John Beaver White, of London; Harry White, in the west; Mrs. Reed Thompson, of Milroy, and Miss Mary White, who was her mother's devoted attendant. She was the last surviving full sister of Gen. James A. Beaver, of this place. The funeral was held at Milroy at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the cemetery adjoining the church of which her husband was pastor for so many years.

BURNS.—Mrs. Laura Catharine Burns' wife of Thomas Burns, died on Saturday evening at her home in Philipsburg, after an illness of some months with Bright's disease, though her condition had been serious for only about three weeks.

Deceased was a daughter of Charles and Sarah Murray and was born at Julian, this county, on April 11th, 1866, making her age 45 years, 6 months and 24 days. She was married to Thomas Burns in August, 1896, and since then has resided in Philipsburg. Surviving her are her husband and five young children. She also leaves her aged parents, now living in Tyrone and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. John McCarron and Mrs. John Beezer, of Tyrone; John, of Clearfield; Misses Emma and Ella and James at home. The remains were taken to Tyrone on Monday morning and Tuesday morning they were buried in St. Matthew's Catholic church cemetery.

RITTENHOUSE.—Mrs. Roy Rittenhouse died at her home in Pittsburg last Friday after having undergone an operation in one of the hospitals of that city. She had been ill only a few days and her death was a sad blow to her many friends. Deceased's maiden name was Miss Jennie Ellenberger and she was born at Marengo, this county, twenty-seven years ago. In addition to her husband she is survived by one little daughter and a number of brothers and sisters. The remains were taken to Marengo where burial was made in the Ross church cemetery on Monday morning.

CURRY.—Mr. John Curry, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Bellefonte, died in the Bellefonte hospital Sunday night. Two months or more ago he had a bad fall, fracturing his hip. The injury confined him to the house ever since and was doubtless a cause that led to his death, which was the direct result of an attack of pneumonia, with which he suffered about a week or ten days.

Deceased was born in County Claire, Ireland, eighty-seven years ago. He came to this country when a youth and when but twenty years old located in Bellefonte. He helped to build the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe railroad and was track foreman on the same for twenty-five years. Later he farmed for a year or two in Boggs township then returned to Bellefonte and engaged in the contracting business, which he followed until ten years or so ago when he retired. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church and an estimable citizen in every way.

His wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Bridget Daley, died twelve years ago, but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. Henry Redding, of Reynoldsville; Mrs. Jacob H. Gross, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Joseph H. Lose, of Philadelphia; John V., of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. James D. Monihan, of Cleveland, Ohio; Anne, Susan and Christina, at home. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Daniel, of Australia; Anthony and Susan, of Ireland, and James, of Henry, Ill.

The funeral was held from St. John's Catholic church at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning. High mass was conducted by the deceased's pastor, Rev. Father McArdle, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery. The out of town friends who were present at the funeral, in addition to members of the family, were Mrs. Mary Daugherty and Miss Anna Daugherty, of Newberry; Miss Ella V. Neylon, Renovo; Lawrence Redding, Snow Shoe; Mrs. James Redding and Miss Jean Smith, Clearfield; Mrs. Cyrus Schell and Miss Anna Farrell, Tyrone.

YOUNG.—Just at the noon hour last Thursday David Henry Young died at his home at Marklesburg after only a few days' illness as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was born on the farm in Ferguson township now occupied by Hon. J. Will Kepler, on January 9th, 1836, thus being well into seventy-six years of age. He was a son of Henry and Catharine Young, who were among the first settlers in the Glades, and is the last of his father's family to pass away. He was educated in the public schools and at the age of seventeen began teaching, a vocation he followed in the winter time until the breaking out of the Civil war when he enlisted as a private in Company D, 148th regiment, commanded by Col. James A. Beaver. He served through the war to the battle of the Wilderness when he was severely wounded in the hip. He narrowly escaped being burned to death in the fire which raged over the battlefield after the struggle ended.

At the close of the war he married Miss Catharine Carper and engaged in farming in Ferguson township where he lived until twenty-five years ago when he moved to Huntingdon county as tenant on the McFarlane farm. Twelve years ago he bought a farm near Marklesburg where he lived until five years ago when he retired. He was a charter member of the Washington Grange of Pine Hall, a member of the Lutheran church and Sunday school and an upright, honest citizen. He is survived by five children, namely: Mary, Catharine, William, Charles and Elmer. The funeral was held at ten o'clock on Sunday morning, burial being made in the Marklesburg cemetery.

EMEL.—On Tuesday of this week Mrs. Jane Elizabeth Emel, widow of the late Philip Emel, died at her home at Pleasant View, aged 64 years, 3 months and 24 days. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. George Keller and Mrs. Charles Mulberger, of Pleasant View; Mrs. Calvin Lambert, John and Harry, of Bellefonte. One brother, Essington K. Meiss, of Pleasant View, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Kline, also survive. Rev. C. W. Winey will conduct the funeral services which will be held at ten o'clock this morning, after which burial will be made in the Advent cemetery.

RANDOLPH.—Mrs. Catharine Randolph, relict of the late William Randolph, passed away at 11:30 o'clock last Thursday night, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs, at Enosville, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She was a daughter of the late James Alexander, one of the early settlers of the east end of Stonevalley, where she was born almost ninety years ago. She was a frequent visitor at Pine Grove Mills where her son, Reed Randolph, keeps the St. Elmo hotel. She is survived by two daughters and two sons. Burial was made at Enosville on Monday morning.

HAINES.—At eight o'clock last Saturday evening James P. Haines died at his home in Howard township, of general debility, aged 82 years, 6 months and 10 days. He was born in Howard township and lived there his entire life. He was an old soldier, having served three years in the Civil war. He was the father of seven children, three of whom survive. The funeral was held on Monday, burial being made at Romola, in Curtin township.

VALENTINE.—Evan Miles Valentine died at his home in Germantown on Saturday, November 4th, after a lingering illness. He was buried on Tuesday in Toy Hill cemetery alongside the remains of his wife, Mary Taylor Valentine, who preceded him to the grave sixteen years ago.

Deceased was born at the Forge house, near Bellefonte, on September 29th, 1839, and was the son of Abram Phelps Valentine, one of the original brothers who came to Bellefonte from Chester county in 1815 and bought the old Dunlop furnace. He received his education in the public schools of that day and also the Bellefonte Academy and started out in life as a civil engineer. He assisted in the surveys of the Lewisburg, Centre, and Spruce Creek railroad and the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe railroad.

During the Civil war he enlisted in Company F, 23rd regiment and served as a sergeant under Capt. H. N. McAllister. In 1875 he with his brothers, Abram and Harry, built and operated a rolling mill in Bellefonte under the firm name of the Bellefonte Iron Co., which was removed later to Williamsport and with increased capital and enlarged capacity operated as the Valentine Iron Co. In later years he removed with his family to Philadelphia and engaged in the brokerage business, handling among other products much of the iron produced by the charcoal furnaces of Centre county. He was a man of strict integrity, courteous and genial in his manner and his death will be regretted by many in Bellefonte to whom he was closely related.

He is survived by his two sons, Harry S. and Abram S. Valentine, both of Philadelphia; and his three sisters, Mrs. Rebecca V. Pugh, Misses Clara and Mary B. Valentine; and one brother, Harry C., all of Bellefonte.

WIAN.—John M. Wian, a native of Centre county, was asphyxiated in his room at Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week. He was unmarried and occupied a room in a boarding house which he heated with a small gas stove. Occupants of the house smelled gas and upon investigation found Mr. Wian in his room dead, and the gas jets on the stove wide open. It is the general opinion that the jets were turned on accidentally.

Deceased was born at Pleasant Gap forty-seven years ago, being a son of Peter and Elizabeth Wian. He is survived by his aged mother and the following brothers and sisters: L. H. and James, of Bellefonte; George, of South Bethlehem; Mrs. Kate Brunner, Mrs. Harry Gardner and Emma, of Altoona; Mrs. Anna Derr, of Philipsburg; Lawrence, of Atlantic City; Mrs. William Gehret and Mrs. Joseph McCulley, of Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Thursday evening and the funeral held on Friday morning, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

GUSS.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Guss, widow of the late Dr. Isaac Guss, of Philipsburg, died very suddenly on Monday afternoon. She left the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward G. Jones, to make a call on the Misses Switzer and had just reached the home of her niece, Mrs. H. D. Rumberger, when she had an attack of heart failure and fell over on the porch, dying before she was discovered.

Deceased was almost seventy years of age and was a native of Clearfield county, though most of her life was spent in Philipsburg. She is survived by one son and three daughters, as well as one brother and three sisters. Burial was made in Philipsburg yesterday afternoon.

HOLTER.—Following a long illness Charles E. Holter died at his home at Howard on Wednesday morning. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Holter and was born in Howard township thirty-four years ago. He is survived by his father and the following brothers and sisters: James, of Blanchard; Samuel and Minnie, at home, and Mrs. Chauncey Fletcher, of Howard. The funeral will be held this morning at ten o'clock, burial to be made in Schenck's cemetery.

CHERRY.—Robert Cherry, the young son of John and Mrs. Rena Cherry, died at his home at Montgomery, near Williamsport, on Thursday of last week, aged two years. The remains were brought to Bellefonte and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry, on Thomas street, from where the funeral was held at 10:30 o'clock on Saturday morning, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

BILGER.—ARMBRUSTER.—Wednesday evening, November 1st, at the Reformed parsonage, Mr. James Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Grace Armbruster, of Spring Mills, were joined in holy wedlock by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. Ralph Shook has been quite ill for the last week or ten days.

Miss Anna M. Cummings left on Monday last for a week's visit at State College.

Mrs. W. T. Stealy, of Sunbury, was here last week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. C. Cummings.

Irvy Bartzges, of Akron, Ohio, formerly of this place, is here visiting relatives and friends, a guest of his brother, C. C. Bartzges. Holloween was celebrated here about as usual—a little more than usual. Throwing corn at the windows and doors by the girls, while the boys played the fool by tearing up several board walks. An effort should be made to discover who the boys were and then compel them to repair the damage. A sound thrashing should also be added.

An English Author Wrote:

"No shade, no shine, no fruit, no flowers, no leaves.—November!" Many Americans would add no freedom from catarrh, which is so aggravated during this month that it becomes constantly troublesome. There is abundant proof that catarrh is a constitutional disease. It is related to scrofula and consumption, being one of the wasting diseases. Hood's Sarsaparilla has shown that what is capable of eradicating scrofula, completely cures catarrh, and taken in time prevents consumption. We cannot see how any sufferer can put off taking this medicine, in view of the widely published record of its radical and permanent cures. It is undoubtedly America's Greatest Medicine for America's Greatest Disease—Catarrh.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, ETC.

THE WATCHMAN is in receipt of a copy of "Forty Thousand Miles Around the World," a personal narrative by Mr. George T. Bush, of this place, of his trip around the world in the spring of 1910. It is an octavo volume of almost two hundred pages, with twenty-five full page illustrations taken on the trip, and is well bound in cloth with gold lettering. Mr. Bush is a close observer wherever he goes and his story of his trip is plainly told and quite interesting. His description of the places he visited and things he saw are so plain and life-like as to be easily understood and appreciated even by the most casual reader. There is also a certain vein of wit running through the book which gives it a vim not found in the ordinary book of travel. As an instance: In relating incidents of their visit to Tokio, Japan, he spoke of being shown around the city by one of the naive guides, who had his patience sorely tried by one of the ladies in the party asking innumerable and oftentimes foolish questions. Finally they came to a Japanese Pagoda and at the gate entrance to the grounds there were two posts surmounted by dragon heads. The guide explained that one was a male head and the other a female and at once the inquisitive lady asked how they told them apart, when the quick-witted guide replied: "The female always has its mouth open, lady." It is needless to say she asked no more questions that trip. It is such flashes of wit throughout the book that make it interesting.
