The Retort Genial.

A southern woman who is now past her prime, but whose ready wit still makes her a welcome guest wherever she goes, tells the following story about an encounter with what she terms a "northern iceberg."

The Vegetarian Oyster.

Oysters are most exemplary in the matter of diet. The oyster is well nigh a vegetarian, living almost exclusively on seaweed, including the minute pine pollen of the water.

In Mourning For Tigers.

The Mosca-Arol, otherwise known as Darrang as Ragh-larol, the tiger folk, a subtribe or sept of the Bara race, still regard it as the correct thing to go into mourning for twenty-four hours or so whenever a tiger dies near their village.

Big Hearted Goldsmith.

Mills, a fellow collegian of Goldsmith's, called one morning to offer Oliver a breakfast, when he was adjured in answer to his knock and in a smothered voice to force open the door and enter.

A Surprise For Swagger.

"Yes," said Swagger, "this is a turkeze ring." "Excuse me," said Bangs; "the correct pronunciation of that word is 'turkwoise.'"

Douglas Jerrold in School.

Douglas Jerrold wrote "Black Eyed Susan" when he was twenty-one and contributed to Punch the immensely popular "Gaudle Lectures" not long afterward.

Self Deception.

Learned is self deception. The dullest mind can grasp it. The wisest have even enjoyed it. We all find solace in its blandishments.

The Limit.

Eaton-Gilmore is so egotistical that he is jealous of his wife. Nettie-Jealous of his wife? Eaton—Yes, jealous because she has such a passion for a husband.—Puck.

He who is firm and resolute in will subdues the world to himself.—Goethe.

Half a hundred vexing ailments can be traced to constipation.

Headache, vertigo, salowness, nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, mental depression, and cold hands and feet are only some of the symptoms of constipation.
