Bellefonte, Pa., November 17, 1911.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Today is Pénnsylvania Day at State College.

--- County Commissioner H. E. Zimmerman has been elected mercantile appraiser for the ensuing year.

--- The first real snow of the season snows for the coming winter.

-The Ben Greet players will be an attraction at the opera house next Wednesday evening. Nov. 22nd, when they will play "The Merchant of Venice".

-On pages three and seven of today's paper will be found the full election returns for the borough and township tickets voted at the recent election.

--- The ladies of the United Brethren church will hold an oyster supper in the room between the church and parsonage on Thursday, November 23rd, to which the public in general is cordially invited.

-Jeremiah Zettle, of Spring Mills, site.

pastor, Rev. R. S. Ovler. The church has the one selected. been closed two weeks on account of scarlet fever in Milesburg.

ed. There are no new applicants.

ed pastor of the Homestead church at the now until a new one can be secured. recent conference.

-The ladies of the Lutheran church or fair is a better name for it, in Coxey's noon, November 18th. It is unnecessary to add that the public is earnestly invited and that all will be made welcome.

seventy lay delegates.

----Harry Lauder, the renowned Scotch | could be obtained. singer, will be in Altoona on Monday, November 27th, for an afternoon matinee and evening performance. Mr. Lauder. by the way, was a coal miner when he was a young man and worked in the mines in Clearfield county. As a singer of Scottish songs he has no equal.

-A report is abroad over the county Grove is very ill at his home near Lemont, but such is not the case. Mr. Grove is troubled with rheumatism caused by his tireiess canvass during the campaign but aside from that is in good health and has been around this week as usual.

should have had. It will undoubtedly be warmer and more comfortable for the next week

Houser's birthday and that evening quite tax for occupying the streets and alleys of the town and everybody who comes to a number of her friends and neighbors of Bellefonte. The increase in rates to go Bellefonte. gathered at her home on Pine street to assist her in properly celebrating the anniversary. A big supper was one of the chief features of the occasion. The evening was passed very pleasantly and the event will be a happy remembrance to Mrs. Houser for weeks to come.

several hundred residents of State College day night. Beginning at noon on Sun- lected a spot where turkeys had been are planning to accompany the State day it rained until late in the afternoon feeding and fixed himself comfortably football team to Pittsburg for the Thanks- when it suddenly blew up cold and to wait until they came. During the first giving day game with the University of snowed, though not enough to amount to hour or two he was there several pheas-Pittsburg. It is estimated that it will anything here. The cold increased dur- ants and a number of squirrels happened require a special train of two sections to ing Sunday night and by Monday morn- along within close range but the doctor carry the crowd. The State College ing the thermometer was down to within didn't shoot for fear of frightening any Freshmen will play their Thanksgiving ten degrees of zero. Though it has been turkeys that might be in that vicinity. school.

---- A deputy sheriff, deputy recorder, deputy register, deputy prothonotary, at least one commissioner's clerk, a commissioner's attorney and two janitors are the appointive plums to be shaken from the Democratic plum tree by reason of Naturally there are a good many candidates for the above places, but they must all bear in mind that they cannot all be PENITENTIARY SITE STILL UNSETTLED. the Brockerhoff house and Col. Reynolds man for sixteen cents a pound. and others appeared before them and gave them all the information and data possible.

On Friday they drove over to Boalsfell on the fourteenth, and in accordance burg where they and Dr. Sparks, of State with the old saw, that means fourteen College, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Boal at luncheon. They left Bellefonte for Pittsburgh Friday evening without having announced their decision. In fact Mr. Francies stated that it might be some time yet before they would be in a position to make public their choice of sites. That because of the magnitude of the proposition every phase of the selection of a site and its

the veteran hunter, trapper and dealer The commission was in session in copal church held a fair in the Parish Pittsburgh, whose death was noted in the last week. the Misses Bessie and Margaret in hides and furs, has decided to move to Pittsburg on Tuesday from nine until house from which they realized about WATCHMAN about two months ago. The Bloom, of State College, spent much of their time Stony Ford, Orange county, N. Y., and five o'clock but no conclusion was reach- three hundred dollars. From this it can latter was at one time a resident of with the dentist and shopping in anticipation of will leave for that place in the near fu- ed. J. Linn Harris was with them part be seen that Bellefonte is liberal in Bellefonte and was converted while work--There will be preaching services in information desired. While he was given the Methodist church at Milesburg next no definite assurance, he still believes Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock, by the that the McBride gap site will finally be

BREAKDOWN AT GATESBURG MINES .-Last Friday evening about an hour be--Last Saturday was the last day for fore quitting time the lower valve in the filing applications for license to sell liquor artesian well at the Gatesburg ore mines in Centre county and the list numbers collapsed. As this is the only source of the just thirty-four and includes only those company's water supply the mines had hotels in the county that are now licens to be closed down until repairs are made. The well in question is 370 feet deep and -Bellefonte merchants all went bid- the casing is eight inches in diameter. ding for the patronage of the school To repair the same is no small job as the teachers this week, but just why furni- pump had to be taken out, all the old ture dealer F. E. Naginey should fill his casing will have to be removed before show window with baby cribs is a quest the valve can be repaired. It was nestion that puzzled many of the teachers. essary to send to Pittsburg to get a --- The family of Rev. P. E. Paul rope long enough and strong enough to packed and shipped their household goods lift the casing, and on Tuesday when the to Homestead this week, where they have first attempt was made to pull it out a gone to make their home for the ensuing powerful crab-jack broke as if it had year; the Rev. Paul having been appoint- been a toy. The work is at a stand-still

Although not generally known this well is one of the most remarkable in Centre county, and it is the bewill have a bread, cake and pie festival, lief that it is nothing more or less than an artificial opening into a large understore, on Bishop street, on Saturday afterit is claimed that a person standing at the mouth of the well can hear the rush solicitors are now engaged in Bellefonte be leniently dealt with. and Centre county going the rounds of ----Work on tearing down the old the company's patrons and securing their High street bridge for the erection of a names to a new contract. That is, all new structure is progressing steadily but that County Commissioner-elect D. A. those who will sign up and agree to keep slowly. The question that is agitating the phone at the increased rate.

crease in rates. They do claim, how- the new one is built? This was the origattending a public sale on Wednesday. able that the improvement ought to be take two months to do the job. Surely -Owing to an unfortunate oversight made first. In speaking of the increase the borough authorities will not allow on Monday night, when the Vogel min- one of the solicitors remarked the other High street, the greatest avenue of travstrels were here, the line which furnish- day that "it was a small matter and only el in the town, to be closed to traffic for ed steam for the opera house was only a question of the people getting used to that length of time. There evidently is half turned on, leaving the stage and the it. That it was just as easy to pay two some way by which one-half of the old house with only a fraction of the heat it dollars a month as one, when you know bridge can be torn down and a new part you have to do it." This is the same company that refused down the other half and complete the Ben Greet players when they appear here to give the Bellefonte hospital free tele- structure. It may mean a little more phone service; and also the same com- work on the part of the buiders, but it -Last Friday was Mrs. Amanda pany that has never paid a cent of pole will be a great convenience to the people into effect on January first canno be explained on the basis of increased operating expenses, as it oughtn't to cost any more Kilpatrick and Chas M. Scott returned now than it did a year ago. The increase is probably being made so as to increase the dividends of the stockholders.

-Over half the student body and first real breath of winter came on Sun-termined to get a wild turkey. He seday game with the Johnstown High quite cold most of the time since it is The weather was quite warm and finally and cold was a wave that swept over the into a sound sleep and while stalking tic coast. On Sunday and Sunday night gobbler came strutting along and almost enough snow fell on the Allegheny moun- walked over the doctor. George Miller, the hunters already in camp no doubt bird after it had gotten quite a distance ing season.

-Turkeys are fairly plentiful in Cen- RECEPTION TO GRAND PRELATE HEW--A dozen times a day the writer is ask- tre county this year, and are now being rrr.-At the Masonic Temple on Alleed as to what is new on the penitentiary bought for fifteen and sixteen cents a gheny street, last Friday evening, Rev. site, and it can be accurately stated that pound. Some farmers are asking twenty John Hewitt was given a big reception

-On account of the Pennsylvania Day exercises at State College today (Friday) the Bellefonte Central Railroad company will run a special train from Bellefonte to the College, leaving here at 9.35 a. m., after the arrival of the morning trains. Returning the train will leave the College in time to reach Bellefonte for connection with the 4.44 p. m. train A large number of the school teachers will go to the College for today's exercises and it is possible a special train will be run for their accommodation.

advantages would have to be figured out the proceeds realized at the fair held Charles Williams, a very warm and highthe entire commission were very favora- very successful progressive euchre and with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

-Father O'Hanlon, who has been in Bellefonte the past two years or longer as assistant to Father McArdle, this a frequent visitor in Bellefonte.

-A number of Bellefonte people will be interested in the announcement of the wedding of Richard Kauffman, the well known baseball player, and Miss Helen M. Horton, formerly of Reedsville but now of Eureka, Cal. "Dick," as he was known when he played on the Bellefonte team two years ago, is a native of Milton. During the past summer he played on the York Tri-State team and at the close of the season went to California to play on the Eureka team. His bride with her parents had gone to California some weeks previous. Whether they will remain in the west or return east is not vet known.

of the water almost four hundred feet covered in the stock sheds at the fair ple of those countries in many ways not Academy, and were guests at the G. R. Spigel-The Central Pennsylvania confer- under ground. A number of years ago grounds and before the flames were overence of the United Evangelical church an attempt was made to sound the depth come a number of them were burned. will be held in Lock Haven the week be of water in the well by tying a piece of The loss, however, is small. How the low price asked, namely, $1.60, sent postginning March 12th, 1912. Bishop W. iron on a heavy cord and lowering it in- fire started is a mystery that is puzzling paid to any part of the United States. As friends in Lewistown, Harrisburg and Johnstown. H. Foulke, of Naperville, Ill., will preside. to the well. But the attempt was futile the members of the fair association. The conference will be made up of about for when the iron struck the water it There was no fire within communicating mainly in response to repeated requests one hundred and fifty ministers and was swished to one side with sufficient distance, and it is not believed possible force to break the cord, and no sounding that they were set on fire by a spark from a passing locomotive, so that the fire To Increase Telephone Rates.—The was probably maliciously started by for sale at his store for $1.50. Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania some one for the purpose of destroying will increase their rates to subscribers on the property. If such is the case, and and after the first of January, 1912, and the guilty party is found out, he will not > the minds of most of the people of Belle-So far as the writer knows no reason- fonte at present is will the whole bridge able excuse has been given for the in- be torn down and traffic blocked until ever, that they expect to improve the inal plan and according to the assertion service, but it would seem only reason- of one of the workmen on the job, it will erected to keep the street open, then tear

--- Charles M. McCurdy, Dr. J. J. last Saturday from a week's hunt for small game at the foot of the Allegheny mountains, being successful in bagging a number of pheasants and a few squirrels. WINTER WEATHER THIS WEEK .- The One day during the hunt the doctor de hardly likely it will continue. The storm the Temple Court dentist dropped off country from the northwest to the Atlan- through the land of Nod a big wild turkey tains to make tracking game easy and who was there for a day's hunt, saw the the party's victory at the recent election. longed for the opening of the deer hunt- away and shot at it, but failed to hit it. His shot awakened the doctor, who to the mountains the beginning of the -A 38-40 Winchester Rifle with com- was considerably chagrined when told of

there is nothing definite known. On cents, but they are keeping their turkeys, and banquet by Constans Commandery Thursday of last week the commission Up in Altoona the birds are selling at No. 33, Knights Templar, in honor of his visited the Benner township site, went twenty cents a pound dressed, the cheap- appointment by Grand Commander Herover most of the ground, inspected the est they have been in a number of years. man Junker, of Pittsburgh, as Grand condition of all the farm buildings and As evidence of how plentiful turkeys are Prelate of the Grand Commandery of made a thorough examination of every- in Centre county is the fact that last Pennsylvania. The occasion was made thing connected therewith. That after- week one hotel keeper in Bellefonte quite a social event, and the members noon and evening they were in session at bought one hundred turkeys from one were there with their wives and ladies, friends, about seventy-five being present. In the receiving line were Eminent Commander J. Will Conley and Mrs. Conley. Rev. and Mrs. John Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Munson. Smith's orchestra furnished the music for the reception and also for Bellefonte on Saturday on their way for a Sunday the banquet which followed. At the latter Mr. Fleming was chosen toastmaster and many of those present made brief speeches, every one of whom congratulated Rev. Hewitt on his appointment.

As a wind-up to the evening's meeting Col Hugh S Taylor, in a neat and anpropriate speech, presented Rev. Hewitt -Over five hundred dollars were with a new regalia, the gift of Mr. very carefully so that there would be no by the Knights of Columbus in their ly esteemed fraternal friend of Columbus, possibility of mistake, and this takes hall in the Reynolds block last week. On Ohio. Rev. Hewitt responded in an imtime. He admitted, however, that he and Tuesday night of this week they had a pressive speech and the reception closed of Walker township, was in town on Wednesday bly impressed with the Benner township dance. Just a week previous to the Rev. Hewitt was appointed Grand Prelabove fair the members of St. John's Epis- ate to succeed Rev. Thomas Boyle, of of the time and gave them any additional contributing to the cause of the churches ing in a Bellefonte printing office. He later became quite a noted Methodist preacher.

AN INTERESTING BOOK .- "Forty Thousfuture will devote practically all of his just published by our young townsman time to looking after the welfare of the on his travels around the world, isan ex-Catholic church in that place. During ceedingly interesting and instructive book his residence in Bellefonte Father O'Han- of travel, doing full justice to his well lon has made many friends, all of whom known powers of observation. His deregret the fact that he has found it nec- scription of the places visited, the habits essary to take up his abode elsewhere, and customs of the countries and the but fortunately his location is near many humorous, pathetic, and other inenough that he can and doubtless will be cidents met with, are related in a personal conversational style that holds your interest to the end. The book is very comprehensive, and is beautifully bound and filled with very the illness of his brother John, whose condition good half tone illustrations, and contains about one hundred and fifty thousand words, a very large task of itself to write. He has already disposed of a good many to tourists who were on the trip with him, many of whom have written to him thanking him for writing such an interesting story.

One traveling man who purchased the book stated that he sat up until three o'clock in the morning to finish reading it, it was so interesting. The parts treating on India and Japan are particularly -On Monday afternoon fire was dis- with the customs and habits of the peo- High school in their game with the Bellefonte generally revealed. We would advise any of our readers that it is well worth the the edition is a small one, published for Mr. Bush to tell the story of the trip; we would advise a quick request for any who wish to get this valuable book. It is

> OPERA HOUSE NEWS .- Frank McEntee and Millicent Evison, who headed the west Ben Greet players on their appearance at State College last season, are out this Monday, to attend the American Union of year with their own company of players from the Ben Greet school. They will be at State College on Wednesday of next week and manager Garman has succeed- of her stay. ed in making arrangements with them for one performance in the opera house day to attend a banquet at the Hotel Manhattan, here, which will be on Wednesday evening. The play will probably be "The Merchant of Venice." The price of ad-and these banquets are held as occasions to Red Wheat White Wh mission will be from 25 cents to $1.00 renew the same. for the best seats.

ING.—The annual meeting of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company was held at Orviston last Friday and was largely at- she lives in Kansas City, will join her here in sevtended. Judge Ellis L. Orvis, president eral weeks, for a short visit and to be with her of the company, presided, and a very satisfactory report of the business of the company during the past year was submitted by the general manager, C. W. Centre Furnace, where they will visit for ten Keller. The plant has been running con- days with Mrs. Woodcock's parents, Mr. and stantly during the year and now employs one hundred and seventy-five people. All the old members of the board of direc- A. Martin, of State College. tors and other officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

MILLHEIM STORE BURGALIZED .- On Friday night of last week robbers broke into the department store of A. Kessler at Millheim, and carted away goods to the value of two hundred and fifty dollars. Entrance to the store was gained through a rear door, the lock having been sawed out. On Saturday two members of the state constabulary located in Snow Shoe went over to Millheim to attempt to trace the robbers but so far have failed to do so.

---On Monday and Tuesday all the trains passing through Bellefonte carried scores of hunters, some of whom got off here and made their way to the mountains, while others continued to various stations in the Bald Eagle valley where they landed and started for the hunt. There was a general exodus of hunters week and it wont be many days until plete set loadening tools. Good as new. Price $12.50. Russel Mallory, Bellefonte, Pa. the fine shot he had missed by falling deer stories will be floating through the asleep.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Kathryn Harris, of Lock Haven, pending the week with her many friends in -Fred Sourbeck, of Latrobe, is visiting his College today parental home in this place, the first time in many weeks.

-Mrs. Julia Shuey and her sister, Mrs. Sarah ham, of Lewistown. Etters, of Lemont, spent several days of last week in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heverley and their son Elmer, of Duncansville, spent Sunday with friends in this place. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy Sr., of Phila lelphia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallory, in this place. -Mrs. Catherine McKinney, of Howard, was an over Sunday guest of Miss Mary Cunningham. -Mr. and Mrs, Earl Gates. of Altoona, were in visit with friends in Lock Haven. -Hugh N. Crider was over at Curwensville in the early part of the week attending a meeting of the stockholders of the new Bickford Fire Brick

-Miss Annie Schenck, of Boalsburg, is spend ing her weeks vacation with her grandmother. Mrs. W. A. White, at the McClain home on north -Miss Sadie Caldwell has returned to Bellefonte after visiting for a month with Mr. and Mrs. Phil well is a sister of Mrs. McGinley. -Mr. Ira C. Ohl, one of the well-to do farmers attending the meeting of the School Director's association, and was a pleasant caller at thi -While in Bellefonte Friday and Saturday o

Christmas

-Miss Margaret McFarlane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kyle McFarlane, formerly of this place but now of Lock Haven, has gone to Erie where she has entered the Harnot hospital school

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmour went to Mil- Mr. and Mrs. Reamer who have for some tim week moved to State College and in the and Miles Around the World," the book ton Saturday of last week, to attend the funeral of Mr. Gilmour's aunt. Miss Margaret Dugal, who died at her home in Milton Tuesday, November 7th.

-Mrs. Hewitt, who after spending the greate part of the summer in Central Pennsylvania, and who while in Bellefonte has been the guest of Miss McCalmont, will leave for her home on the Pacific coast this week.

-Miss Zoe Meek, who has been attending in stitute this week, will go to her home at Clarence today, to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Meek, before returning to her work at Philipsburg.

-Walter Rankin, of Harrisburg, has been in Bellefonte during the past week, on account of has become so serious that much alarm is felt by the family concerning his recovery. -Singleton Bell Esq., of Clearfield, and Samuel

H. Wigton, of Philipsburg, were in town on Tuesday on legal business. Sam is some Republican politician on the other side of the mountain but he didn't have any new dope on how it happened -Once a teacher, now a director and we fear an old bachelor forever Charley Moore, of Boals. burg, was in town attending the directors meetings on Wednesday and Thursday. Like all result of the election in the county. -Mrs. John Huffman and daughter Leonore and Miss Dorothy Rentz, of Williamsport. came home in New York. myer home until Sunday evening.

-Mrs. Richard Gunsallus with her son Harry and two little grand-daughters, Mildred and Inasmuch as her visits out of town are rather infrequent she anticipates having a very pleasant

-Mrs. John W. Stuart, of State College, spent a part of Thursday in Bellefonte shopping, in anticipation of a visit to Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mrs. Stuart will leave Centre county within a few weeks to visit for an indefinite time, with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. 'A. Stuart, in the

-Miss Anna Valentine went to Philadelphia Ornithologists in session at the Academy of Natural Science and will remain in the city for several weeks, expecting to be joined by her sis-

-Geo. T. Bush went to New York last Thurs-Cleveland tourists around the world. Many good and lasting friendships were made on that trip

-Mrs. L. W. Miller, of Kansas City, Kansas, is in Centre county for a visit of six weeks. having BRICK COMPANY HOLDS ANNUAL MEET- lived in Pleasant Gap until going west thirty-five years ago, the greater part of the time will be ment with her three sisters, who are residents of that place. Mrs. Miller's son John. with whom for the trip west.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Woodcock,of Birmingham with their two children and a maid were in Bellefonte for a short time Thursday on their way to Mrs. William Thompson. While absent from his church at Birmingham next Sunday, Rev. J. . Woodcock will exchange pulpits with Rev. S.

-Catharine Allison, Catharine Love, Mary Warfield, Helen Chambers, Martha Shoemaker Ruth Gamble and Frank Allison, of Spring Mills compose a house party Mrs. J. F. Alexander is entertaining at her home in Centre Hall. The nembers of the party from Bellefonte, who left here Wednesday, anticipated a very gay time, as elaborate arrangements had been made for their entertainment during their stay in Centre Hall. entertainment during their stay in Centre Hall. Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, assisted Mrs. Alexander in chaperoning the party.

-After ten days visiting with friends here Mr. Wednesday. Thence they will go to Cincinnat and on to Rosiclaire, Ill., where a com new house is to be "warmed" before Mr. Moore will be able to settle down to the routine of watch. ing that big fluor spar operation develop. His connection with Rogers-Brown & Co., some time ago necessitated his location in a desolate section uthern Illinois where a mining venture that had worried along for over half a century was either to be abandoned or proven worth while. He has been there a little less than a year and has already had the satisfaction of seeing the modern equipment he has installed bring the production up to the point where the mine has taken rank as the largest single fluor spar operation in the country. Mr. Moore has lost none of his love for Bellefonte and clings to the hope that some day he will come back here to live. And what a happy day that will be for the friends here who enjoy so much the genial character once the head

-Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock are entertaining Mrs. Bullock's cousin, Miss Mary Woods, of Pine Grove Mills

-Governor and Mrs. John K. Tener will be nong the Pennsylvania Day guests at State

-Miss Helen Harper was the week-end gues of her aunts, the Misses Mary and Sallie Gra-

-William A. Lyon, the butcher, made a business trip to Lewisburg on Tuesday afternoon. returning Wednesday evening

-Mrs. Henry Robb returned to Bellefonte Satrday, after being for a week the guest of he two sons, Louis and Alfred, in Altoona

-Mrs. George Brandon, of Scranton, who has been the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Frank E. Naginey, at her home on High street, left Belle fonte on Tuesday.

-Miss Emma Montgomery spent a part of last week with the family of her uncle, W. C. Lingle at Philipsburg, before they leave to join Mr Lingle in West Virginia

-Mrs. W. C. Cassidy left, Thursday noon, for Pittsburgh, expecting to go later to Canton, Ohio, where she will be while visiting there, the guest of Mr. Cassidy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A Cassidy.

-Mrs. Abner Alexander and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, of Centre Hall, were in Bellefonte on a hopping expedition yesterday. Next week Mr. and Mrs. Bradford will leave for a ten days trip through West Virginia and Kentucky

-Mrs. Harry Pearce who has been with her husband, at Empire, in the canal Zone since her marriage in February, will come to Bellefonte early in December, to spend a part of the six and aunt, Mrs. Edward Cook and Miss Snyder.

-Mrs. J. W. Scott returned to Bellefonte last former home in Gettysburg. Mrs. Scott went to Gettysburg with the Bellefonte representative to attend the annual State conference of the D. A. R sea, N. J., on Monday, where they will spend two months in a bungalo belonging to H. W. Kapp, a brother of Mrs. Reamer. This time spent at the Shore it is hoped will benefit both been in ill health.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Calaway went to Lock Haven Tuesday to attend Mrs. Ross Barrows tea Tuesday afternoon, from four until six o'clock, going on to Jersey Shore Wednesday, she was a guest at the variety shows given by Mrs. Samuel Humes for Mrs. Jennie Brown, whose wedding will take

-Mrs. Howard Gearhart came from her home n Newark, N. J., a week ago, to be for the remainder of the month with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox. Mrs. Gearhart will be in Bellefonte until Mr. Gearhart's location with the Adams Express company is positively decided upon, he having resigned his position with the Carnegi Steel Co. to return to the Adams people

BOGLE-MELTZER.-At 4.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon J. Norris Bogle, of Bellefonte, and Miss Margo Meltzer, of New York, were quietly married in All Soul's church of that city by the pastor. They were attended by Lowrie Montgomery, of New York, and Miss Sarah Bogle, of Pittsburgh, while the guests were confined to the immediate members good Democrats he seemed very happy over the of the two families, Mrs. Bogle having accompanied her son to that city on Mon-

> RESIDES-HOOVER .- On Wednesday of last week Joseph Resides and Miss Cora Hoover, both of Unionville, came to Bellefonte and, securing a marriage license went to Milesburg where they were united in marriage by Rev. R. S. Oyler. They went home on the evening train and were given a wedding dinner and reception at the home of the bride's parents.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.
Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
Potatoes per bushel, new	882111111111111111111111111111111111111
Bellefonte Grain Markets.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clo	c

Rye, per bushel.... Corn, shelled, per bu Corn, ears, per bush Oats, old and new, p Barley, per bushel.... The following are the closing prices of the

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county uness paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be iscontinued until all arrearages are settled, exept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: ed amount of advertising space will be e following rates:

All legal and transient advertising our weeks or less. First insertion, per line..... Each additional insertion, per line... Local Notices, per line.... Business Notices, per line.... ISINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS

Per inch, each insertion.... The following discounts will be allowed on ad