

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

SAGER—JURY.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jury, on east High street, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening when their daughter, Miss Mary Jury, became the bride of William J. Sager.

ALLPORT-BETCHELMANN.—Robeson Allport, a son of Mrs. Edith Allport, of Phillipsburg, was married at San Antonio, Texas, last Saturday, to Miss Dorothy Bethelmann, a charming and attractive young Mexican lady.

DOUTY-BREON.—A quiet wedding occurred at eleven o'clock p. m., November 18th, when Miss Salina Douty became the bride of Miles Breon.

GRAMLEY-WOLF.—The marriage of Clark M. Gramley, of Rebersburg, and Miss Rosa Wolf, of Madisonburg, took place on Sunday evening, November 19th, in the Lutheran church at Rebersburg.

AUMAN-BOWER.—Harry G. Auman and Miss Maude E. Bower, both of Spring Mills, were married at the U. B. parsonage in this place at 10:30 o'clock on Tuesday by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey.

CONFER-MARTIN.—Before the altar of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Altoona, last Saturday evening, the pastor united in marriage Josiah Clark Confer, of Snow Shoe, and Miss Malvena Martin, of Moshannon.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY AT STATE COLLEGE.—A large crowd of visitors from Bellefonte and all over the State were at State College last Friday for the Pennsylvania Day exercises.

DETRICK.—Last Saturday Lewis C. Detrick and his son Leslie were engaged in raising potatoes at their home near Hubersburg.

DECEASED.—A son of John H. and Sarah Ann Detrick and was born in Walker township, at his death being about sixty-three years old.

BOWES.—Mrs. Amelia Bowes, widow of Levi Bowes, died at her home in Snow Shoe Friday morning, November 10th, after a brief illness.

—For high class Job Work come to the WATCHMAN Office.

CURTIN.—It was with sincere regret that the news was received in this place last Friday of the death at six o'clock that morning of Col. Austin Curtin, at the home of his wife's parents in Vicksburg, Miss.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Curtin and was born at the Forge near Curtin on March 19th, 1835, hence was 76 years, 7 months and 30 days old.

When the Civil war broke out he was a member of the old Bellefonte Fencibles and he enlisted with that organization for the three months service.

Col. Curtin also took an active interest in the National Guard after its organization, and on December 31st, 1881, he was appointed commissary of subsistence, with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

When he was in the west in June, 1858, he was united in marriage at Polo, Ill., to Miss "Rachel" C. Frazier, of New York.

The remains were shipped from Vicksburg on Friday evening and should have arrived in Bellefonte Sunday evening but they were delayed one day by a wreck south of Washington and did not reach Bellefonte until the 4:44 train Monday evening, when they were taken to the home of his brother James, on Allegheny street, from where the funeral was held at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

DETRICK.—Last Saturday Lewis C. Detrick and his son Leslie were engaged in raising potatoes at their home near Hubersburg.

DECEASED.—A son of John H. and Sarah Ann Detrick and was born in Walker township, at his death being about sixty-three years old.

BOWES.—Mrs. Amelia Bowes, widow of Levi Bowes, died at her home in Snow Shoe Friday morning, November 10th, after a brief illness.

BOOB.—Mrs. Eliza Jane Boob, wife of James Boob, of Tyrone, died in the Hahnemann hospital, Philadelphia, at ten o'clock on Sunday evening, after undergoing a second operation for cancer.

Deceased was a daughter of the late H. Lemuel and Harriet Scruders, and was born at Baileyville, this county, January 9th 1865, hence was 46 years, 10 months and 10 days old.

SWABB.—Mrs. James Swabb died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee, wife of sheriff-elect A. B. Lee, at Tusseyville, on Wednesday morning, following a brief illness.

GATES.—Mrs. Mary M. Gates died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Laura Pifer, in Lock Haven, at one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, after only a few days' illness with pneumonia.

ICE.—Henry C. Rice, who since last April had made his home with the family of J. C. Nason, at Julian, died on Monday afternoon, aged seventy-eight years.

RYAN.—John W. Ryan, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sylvus, who live on the Thompson farm at Stormstown, died very suddenly on the evening of November 11th.

CRISSMAN.—Adaline, the eighteen months old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crissman, died at their home in Renovo, last Thursday, after three days illness with pneumonia.

—A one inch pipe from the tank on the windmill to the house and another to the barn with 50 feet of garden hose attached to each is a great deal cheaper than a fire.

—Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

OPERA HOUSE, NEWS.—"Peck's Bad Boy" has always been a strong magnet to attract the juvenile class to its matinees; and no doubt this reputation will be fully sustained at Garman's this (Friday) evening, November 24th, when this famous comedy will be seen.

"The Wolf" by Eugene Walter, author of "Paid in Full," comes to Garman's Friday, December 1st. The new play is a melodrama of the Canadian Hudson Bay country in three acts.

The greatest improvement in years to the opera house is the new steam main, being run direct from Allegheny street. It will be a guarantee in the future for an excellent warm house the coldest night.

Last Saturday evening I. J. Dreese and a young man by the name of Getz left Bellefonte about ten o'clock to drive to their homes at Lemont. The horse they were driving was blind of one eye and the night being dark the animal got to the side of the road out near Nittany furnace with the result that the buggy was ditched and upset.

CENTRE COUNTY WELL REPRESENTED.—The West Chester State Normal school has always been popular as an educational institution with residents of Centre county and this year seven young ladies from the county are enrolled on its list of students.

SPRING MILLS.—School was resumed here on Monday last, much to the regret of the little folks.

We have been having Greenland weather of it. It really looks as if we are to have a long, cold and dreary winter.

People are beginning to wonder what has become of the condensation plant, after so much talk that all the necessary arrangements had been made, and operations for its erection would begin at once.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. C. A. Krape was entertaining her sister, Mrs. Meyers, of Centre Hall, she was summoned to the door and admitted two or three lady friends, supposing they had just called for a short visit.

MISS FLORENCE LUCAS is spending some time at Williamsport.

Those on the sick list are Mrs. Matilda Resides and Mr. C. B. Friel.

—There is far too little mulching done. Small fruits, trees and garden crops are given a most favorable opportunity for attaining the highest perfection and development when their roots are covered with a thick mat of leaves, hay or other suitable material.

Those who attended the institute at Bellefonte last week were Mrs. Clara Poorman and son Ralph, Miss Edith Poorman and Lena Bortoff.

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in All Parts of the County.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH, SNOW SHOE.—A turkey supper will be served on Thanksgiving day for the benefit of the above church. The hour is from 4:30 until all are served.

The hall where the suppers will be served has been fitted up during the summer, making it quite attractive and comfortable. The electric light has been placed in all the buildings connected with the church.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF ST. ANDREW'S MISSION.—The ladies of the Guild connected with St. Andrew's Mission, at State College, will hold a sale November 28th.

Mr. Curtis Neidigh, of Columbus, Ohio, is visiting the home of his youth at White Hall.

PINE GROVE MENTION.—Last Friday Ray Williams moved to the J. B. Arches place at Graysville.

Mr. Curtis Neidigh, of Columbus, Ohio, is visiting the home of his youth at White Hall.

Our new school board will consist of Hon. J. W. Kepler, Ira Harster, David Miller, J. W. Peters and W. K. Cort.

Clarence Lemon came over from Connelville for his share of the big game, with headquarters at "Squire J. H. Millers."

Mr. and Mrs. James Lytle and Mrs. George Glenn spent Monday at the county capital, sizing up the autumn fashions.

Tuesday Wade Herman fitted to the Geo. Mitchell farm, near Lemont. Boyd Williams will take charge of his mother's farm.

John H. Weiland is quitting farming and will retire to Boalsburg next spring. J. C. Rosman will till the broad and fertile acres next season.

The venerable Adam Felty, who has been spending the summer at Altand, is visiting friends down Pennsylvania, before going to Harrisburg to spend the winter with his daughter.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve supper in the I. O. O. F. hall on Thanksgiving evening. Oysters, ice cream and cake will be served. The public is cordially invited and assured of a royal good time.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. C. A. Krape was entertaining her sister, Mrs. Meyers, of Centre Hall, she was summoned to the door and admitted two or three lady friends, supposing they had just called for a short visit.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. C. A. Krape was entertaining her sister, Mrs. Meyers, of Centre Hall, she was summoned to the door and admitted two or three lady friends, supposing they had just called for a short visit.

Butchering is on now and we will soon hear of the big hogs.

Last week was quite cold and stormy and this week has been rough thus far.

Ruth Cronmiller is quite ill at her home at present and it is hoped that she will soon recover.

Hunters are still taking turkeys from Nittany mountain for M. A. Williams shot a fifteen pound one last week and Geo. Kerstetter shot a large one on Tuesday.

Last Saturday night Henry Shuey had an old hog and some small ones turned out in a strip of woods near his home, and during the night some kind of wild animal killed the large hog and ate part of her body.

On Wednesday while Clayton Struble was driving home from town his horse frightened and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing him violently to the ground. He was badly cut and bruised but had no bones broken. The buggy, however was a wreck.

—There is far too little mulching done. Small fruits, trees and garden crops are given a most favorable opportunity for attaining the highest perfection and development when their roots are covered with a thick mat of leaves, hay or other suitable material.

REBERSBURG.—Butchering is the order of the day just now, and many a fine porker is falling under the unerring knife of some bloody butcher to be made into good things to eat for one long winter's provisions.

We have not learned that any one of our sturdy nimrods has violated the law by shooting more than one deer this season.

Last Friday afternoon while our fellow townsman, Thos. Walker, was on his way to Coburn in company with Chas. Beery Sr., he had a stroke of apoplexy.

Dr. Walter Wyman, surgeon general of the United States public health and marine hospital service, died at the Providence hospital in Washington after an illness of several months.

The direct cause of Dr. Wyman's death was a carbuncle which developed four weeks ago. He was taken to the hospital, and for a while appeared to improve rapidly.

Nelson Hoff, aged eight years, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoff, residing near Pattenburg, N. J., was shot and instantly killed by his sister, Edna Hoff, aged about eleven years.

During the absence of their parents the children began amusing themselves by playing "shooting chickens" in their home with their father's shotgun.

James Deodoto, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., took a short nap and dreamed that some one came to his room and took his trousers from the bed post.

Robert Loveland, six years old, was killed instantly and his brother, Godfrey, aged four years, probably fatally injured in the first coasting accident of the season in Scranton, Pa.

They were coasting on Pine street and as the sled approached the foot of the hill a loaded stone wagon drove across the street, the casters crashing into the hind wheel.

Robert was killed outright. The driver of the team surrendered him self and was released on his own recognizance.

Robert Loveland, six years old, was killed instantly and his brother, Godfrey, aged four years, probably fatally injured in the first coasting accident of the season in Scranton, Pa.

They were coasting on Pine street and as the sled approached the foot of the hill a loaded stone wagon drove across the street, the casters crashing into the hind wheel.

It was announced that at a special meeting of the trustees of the Davis and Elkins college in Elkins, W. Va., a gift of $100,000 was made by ex-Senator Henry G. Davis.

Vacancies in the board of trustees were filled by the election of ex-Senator Davis Elkins to succeed his father, the late Stephen B. Elkins; Dr. H. L. McClelland, of Clarksburg, and R. Chaffey Elkins.

George C. Bayless, president, and Frederick J. Hamlin, superintendent of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company, whose dam at Austin, Pa., burst on Sept. 30, bringing death and destruction, were found guilty of gross negligence by the coroner's jury.

T. C. Hatton, the engineer in charge of the construction of the dam, was the chief witness.

A. M. Mackey, a nephew of Mrs. Fred Dent Grant and of Mrs. Patter Palmer, of Chicago, was stabbed to death by John J. Jones, a striking shopman, at Sedalla, Mo. Mackey owned a taxicab and carriage company. Jones stabbed Mackey while the latter was trying to stop a pair of horses from running away.

With a loaded shotgun in his hands and uttering threats to kill the whole family, Frank Young, fifty years old, was shot down and instantly killed by his daughter, Mrs. Marion Mills, at the latter's home, near Pitt, Mich. Mrs. Mills says she shot to save the life of her husband, with whom her father had grappled.

Patrick Collins, a convict in the Eddyville, Ky., penitentiary, who would have completed his term of imprisonment in eight months, is now in solitary confinement, charged with the murder of James Jones, a fellow prisoner. Collins stabbed Jones with a harness knife, angered by a retort Jones made.

Kaid Bolton, a former English army officer, studying aviation at the Pullman field in Chicago, fell 400 feet in an aeroplane. He suffered injuries which physicians say may be fatal.