Jealous Man

Murders Five.

When Wife Refused to Return Italian Killed Her, His Two Children, Two

Relatives and Himself.

Six lives were sacrificed at Lodi, near Hackensack, N. J., because of cia, including his own, and all because his home.

He called at the home of Sebastian Pecorino, on Union street, Lodi, where his wife and two children were staying with relatives, and killed all he found in the house.

The dead are: Mrs. Antonio Pecorino, aged seventy-eight years, the grandmother of Mrs. Plescia, shot through the heart; Mrs. Anna Focarino, aged sixty-five years, mother-inlaw of Sebastian Pecorino, shot in the head; Mrs. Concettino Plescia, aged twenty-seven years, wife of the murderer, shot in the breast and through the heart; Fedelo, seven years old, the daughter of Plescia, shot twice in the head; Ignazo Plescia, thirty years old, shot in the head a suicide.

Mrs. Plescia's husband had abused his pretty young wife ever since their marriage in New York city eight years ago. Two days ago she had him arrested for beating her. Following his arrest, Mrs. Plescia left his home on Garibaldi avenue, Lodi, and went to live with the Pecorino family, where her aged grandmother lived.

Joseph and Sebastian Pecorino conduct a barber shop and candy store in the same building in which they live. Mrs. Plescia obtained work in the Alexander dye works and was happy with her two children.

Monday Plescia met his wife and asked her to return to him, and she emphatically refused to do so. She was just about to return to work on Tuesday afternoon when Plescia entered the Pecorino house. He carried bananas, which he told a local storekeeper were for his children. No one knows what argument followed after he reached the living rooms back of the barber department, for all who were there were killed.

Sebastian Pecorino was in the cellar chopping wood when Plescia entered on his murderous visit. He said:

"I knew what was happening the minute I heard the shots, and, being unarmed. I hurried from the cellar and ran down the street crying the alarm. I went to Recorder Kerr's office and said my people were being It is capped with a climax of forty murdered. When I came back to the house everybody was dead."

Election Board Guilty.

Edward D. Egan, James Wright and Thomas Loney, members of the election board of the Sixth district of forth in toto the accumulation of more Larksville borough, were convicted in or less music administered in small court in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., of com- doses during the previous sixty min mitting fraud at the recent election. utes.

The Process of Stitching the Hairs Into the Skin. At a certain factory a number of young women were working at small tables, each table covered with little instruments and odd things which only those who knew the business could possibly understand. At one the insane jealousy of Ignazo Ples- table two girls were threading needles with fine silky hairs and sewing them his pretty wife refused to return to in little squares on a thin transparent gauze.

FALSE EYEBROWS.

"Those girls" said the overseer, "are making some of those beautiful arched eyebrows you may sometimes see on the stage. They are frequently worn by both actors and actresses. These sewed on the net are the less expensive kind and are only used on special occasions. The real brow is very expensive and can only be made by a person of great skill.

"The patient sits here in his chair, which very much resembles a dentist's operating throne. In this cushion to my left are stuck a score or so of those needles you saw being threaded. Each stitch leaving only two strands of hair, to facilitate the operation a number of needles must be at hand. As each thread of hair is drawn through the skin over the eye it is cut, so that when the first stage of the operation is over it leaves the hairs bristling out an inch or so, presenting a ragged, porcupine appear. ance. Now comes the artistic work. The brow must be arched and cut down with the utmost delicacy, and a number of hours is required to do it.

very important in the makeup of the face. You have no idea how odd one looks when utterly denuded of hair over the eyes. The process I have de scribed is painful. but it makes good eyebrows and adds 100 per cent to the looks of the person who was without them. It is, too, much better than the blackening and cosmetics so many people use, especially people who have mere pretense of brows, comprising only a few hairs."-London Tit-Bits.

HOLLAND'S "LONG JOHN."

A Church Tower Capped With a Climax of Forty-one Bells.

The 280 foot tower of the Nieue Kerk in Middleburg. "Long John," or "Lang Jan" if the sobriquet be translated into Dutch, is practically the Washington monument of Walcheren. one bells that chime a quaint frag ment of some familiar popular melody every seven and one-half minutes. On the hour "Long John" literally vibrafes from foundation to weather vane in a frenzied endeavor to pour The specific charges against the From "Long John" one can see plain defendants were that they failed to ly the towns on the north and west return affidavits of non-registered vot- coasts of Walcheren, and often even ers and improper care of the ballot the spires of Antwerp are visible. box. The condition of the contents of while directly below a mass of red the box when brought into court were roofs, punctured here and there with patches of trees, stretches Middleburg To the left is the market place, bounded on the north by the handsome town hall, begun in the sixteenth century. the embellishment of whose facade by twenty-five ancient statues of the counts and countesses of Holland. helps it to hold its place as one of the finest and most interesting late Gothic edifices in the Netherlands. The tower of the town hall has a chime, too, and each time after "Long John" so insistently proclaims the hour of the day or night-for "Long John" takes the credit of giving standard time to Middleburg-it must get a time and had been confined to his bed. bit on his nerves to have "Foolish

Simple But Impressive Ceremony Marks the Assent of Sacred College to Nominations-Pope Delivers an Allocution.

New Cardinals

The secret consistory creating nineteen new cardinals, three Americans among them, was held by Pope Pius X. in Rome. The ceremonial was exceedingly impressive. The grand public consistory will be held on Thursday.

new cardinals receiving the red hat the pope created one, whom he reserved "in pectore" (kept secret).

This departure from the known program gave rise to all sorts of rumors, including one that Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, would receive a red hat. Official denial of this purpose or that any other American prelate in addition to those proclaimed would be elevated, was authorized at the Vatican. It is supposed that the unnamed cardinal is Monsignor Filippo Giustini, secretary of the Congregation of Sacraments. The name, however, will not be revealed until a later consistory, at the option of the pope, and it is possible that this may not be until after the death of the reigning pontiff.

The Pope Looked Careworn. Of those thus honored three are citizens of the United States: Monsignor John M. Farley, archbishop of New York: Monsignor William O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, and Mon-"Small as the eyebrows are, they are signor Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States. Thus, with Cardinal Gibbons, America will have now for the first time a representation of four in the cardinalate which, probably much as now constituted. will elect a successor to the reigning pontiff.

> As he entered the hall of the conplace, the pope's step was less sure, and the careworn face of his holiness bore signs of his recent illness that had come to stay. Nevertheless he withstood the fatigue of the long and trying ordeal bravely, with a smile for each and a word for several in the long procession that passed before the papal throne.

The ceremony, though comparatively simple, was carried out with a stately dignity and form that has characterized the institution from the earliest days. Save for those participating it might have been a scene from the thirteenth or fourteenth century. In olden times the Sacred College met in secret consistory, and there discussed and finally decided upon the Pope's nominations. Frequently objections were raised to candidates and their names were never proclaimed. Hence the privacy of the meeting.

In the hall of the consistory those whom duty or privilege brought there chatted for a few moments, noting sadly the passing of several who had been present on the last similar occasion.

Presently the door at the rear of His outlay for the free smokes he hall was opened and the Noble amounted to over $25, but it paid in Guards appeared, making way for the returns a thousand per cent. Practiwhite-clad figure of his holiness. Fcically every smoker in the building is lowed by Swiss Guards and his suite. now a firm patron of his stand, not the pontiff paused for a moment at merely because of the free gift, but bethe threshold while those present bent cause as business men they recognized the knee. With a smile he greeted a smart piece of enterprise .-- Business. them and then walked to the throne. The procession before the throne Located His Home. followed immediately. Each dignitary, "When the late Amos Cummings was according to precedence, approached doing newspaper work in New York," in turn, and, kneeling, kissed the papal ring. It was a long and tedious said a representative from that city. "he owned a home in a row of buildceremony, which Pius X. bore with ings painted white. On more than one great patience. occasion Cummings made a mistake Unwritten Law Fails to Save Him. and got in the wrong house, his mind Standing in the prisoner's dock in being occupied with news of the day the court of quarter sessions in Philaand wondering if any of the opposidelphia, Frank McMahon, who on May tion papers would get in a 'scoop' on 4 last shot and killed George Leary him. He grew tired of getting in the for betraying bis wighter, heard the wrong pew and determined that he jury declare him to be guilty of volunwould end it. One morning there was tary manslaughter. an advertisement in his paper for The commonwealth had demanded a twelve painters, and the following day they went to work on Cummings house and it was painted the most flaming red that eyes ever beheld. Some of the neighbors and property owners protested, but there was no law to prevent a house owner from painting it just as his fancy dictated. "After this the wornout newspaper man never had any trouble in making Should this verdict stand McMahon a proper landing when he left his of fice in the 'wee small hours.' "--Washington Star.

the murder, because of the difficulty a single man would have in so killing Are Confirmed. the victim, in forcing his body into the cask and in taking it to the place where it was found. Agents of an Italian secret society are thought to have killed the man in an Italian labor camp and then hauled him to the Old Hook road, between Norwood and Sharon Hill, in a wagon. Antonio Rori identified the body as that of his cousin, Guireppi Zeni, who disappeared from Sa. e. Pa., about six months ago.

THE DUTCH MILKMAID.

It was announced that besides the Her Picturesque Costume and Her Robust Style of Beauty.

Of all Zeeland the particular costume of that province can be observed to the best advantage on the island of Walcheren.

A milkmaid of Middelburg, for example, is a joy to look upon. Her spotless white cap bristles at the temples with kurgenkrullen like the antennae of a prehistoric beetle. Her skirts are ankle high and padded generously at the hips. If she be naturally round and the skirts need no padding circumstantial evidence of the fact is sufficient to stamp her the belle of the community.

short and very tight, pinching the arms above the elbows so that they might be mistaken for a pair of aggravated cases of infiammatory rheumatism. Of course the sun in all its glory strikes the backs of these arms, for she always walks with them akimbo, the better to balance the pails which dangle one from each end of a wooden voke enameled a vivid robin's egg blue. But the redder the arms from the rays of the sun and the tighter the pinch of the sleeves, the flatter the chest and the broader the hips, the sooner will she cease to be a mere milkmaid through the medium of a sistory where the ceremony took simple marriage ceremony in the village kerk .- Travel Magazine.

BRAINS IN BUSINESS.

The Way a Cigar Dealer Won a Big Office Building's Trade. With the opening of a new business block in one of the largest cities in the middle west also came the inevitable cigar stand inside the building. Trade. however, came very slowly the first few weeks. In the rush of moving the business men gave very little attention to the new cigar stand.

of the stand began to feel uneasy and set about devising some scheme for stimulating trade. One morning about four weeks after the building had been open every man in the building received a visit from the cigar stand proprietor, who carried around with him several boxes of cigars and a grip full of cigarettes. Every smoker was made a present of his favorite smoke. With his entrance into an office the enterprising dealer introduced himself, asked each man to have a smoke and glad to cater to him in future.

A Generous Empress. It is said that one morning at break fast a general related to the emperor the misfortunes of a brother officer. who, "because he had not 15,000 france must be dishonored." While the emperor questioned further particulars Eugenie flew to her room and, eturn ing with a package of banknotes, said. 'Take them, general, and never tell me his name." And his name the generous empress never knew.

> Thirteen at Dinner. Thirteen at dinner is an old Norse myth. It was deemed unlucky because Loki, god of malice, once intruded. making thirteen guests. and Baldur, the brilliant god, was slain at the instigation of Loki. who prevailed upon Hodur, a strong but blind god, to throw Mistel, the mistletoe, at Baldur. perforating the latter and letting out his divine soul.

New Advertisement».

DUBLIC SALE. OF BROWN SWISS CATTLE.

6 HEAD OF HORSES TWO LARGE FARMS

TWO LARGE FARMS. 66 head of Full Blood Brown Swiss cows, heif-ers and bulls, will be sold to the highest bidder by the undersigned at Huntingdon Furnace, Hun-tingdon County, Pa., 4 miles from Warrior's Mark on the Tyrone & Lewisburg R, R, and 4 miles from Spruce Creek on the Main Line of P. R. R., and 8 miles from Tyrone. Sale commences at 10 o'clock a. m. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1911.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1911

The cattle consist of 22 cows in milking, ages 3 to 9 years, most of them with calf. 4 cows dry, will be fresh about day of sale. 11 heifers coming 2 years old, some bred. 12 heifers coming 1 year old. 13 bulls coming 1 year old. 1 bull coming 7 years old.

years old. I bull coming 7 years old. HORSES.—Pair Gray Mares 13 to 14 years old, one with foal. Pair Bay Driving Mares coming 4 and 5 years old, full sisters, well bred and broken single and double, fearless of steam or automobiles. One Bay Gelding coming 3 years old well bred and a fine individual, will make a fine roadster. One Brown Gelding, coming 2 years old, well bred and a fine individual. EADMC = No. 1. Known one the CANOE years old, well bred and a fine individual. FARMS,-No. 1. Known as the CANOE FARM, contains 316 acres more or less, 191 acres under cultivation and 125 acres young timber about 30 years old, finest in the State, good bank barn, frame house and out buildings, well water at house and pond water for stock, good orchard. This farm is located one mile from Eyer station on Tyrone & Lewisburg R. R., 2 miles from Warrior's Mark, and 5 miles from Tyrone; school house,/á mile from buildings. The iron ore right included and goes with the farm. No. 2. Known as the DRY HOLLOW FARM included and goes with the farm. No. 2. Known as the DRY HOLLOW FARM, contains 230 acres more or less, 210 acres under cultivation, 20 acres timber, good bank barn and frame house, young orchard in bearing, two good wells. The iron ore right included and goes with the farm. The farm is located one mile from Dungarvin station on Tyrone & Lewisburg R. R., 3 miles from Warrior's Mark. School house about % mile from buildings. Winter grain on both of these farms reserved, and possession given April 1, 1912. Will show any prospective buyer of farms over these properties any time prior to day of sale. Cattle can be seen any time at Huntingdon Fur-nace, also the horse stock. TERMS.—For horses and cattle, 5 per cent, off nace, also the norse stock. TERMS.—For horses and cattle, 5 per cent. off for cash, or one year's time with good and ap-proved security. For farms, 16 per cent. of purchase price, when knocked down; 15 per cent. on delivery of deed, and the balance (75 per cent.) in three equal an-nual payments with interest at 6 per cent, and se-cured by bond and mortgage.

C GRAZIER

P. O. Address-Warrior's Mark, Pa. GEO. C. WAITE, Auctioneer.

-Folks will begin now to set their mil in the kitchen pantry. It is a poor plac at best, and to get good cream you must keep every single thing away from the milk that has any smell about it.

New Advertisements.

F<sup>OR</sup> SALE.-1 two and half story brick veneer-house of six rooms with stable and other out buildings, water in house, situated in the town of Snow Shoe, also a splendid well of water in the yard, will sell on reasonable terms, immire of owner.

MRS. ANNIE E. STONEROD Snow Shoe, Centre Co., Pa 56-47-tf

LITTLE PIGS.-For sale seven (7) thoro-bred Chester white and Berkshire pigs, six weeks old. Apply at this office.

LOST.-A bunch of keys lost somewhere on the streets of Bellefonte during the week of Nov. 6th. Finder will kindly return same to this office. 56.45 L

PHYSICIAN'S CHAIR.-A good leather up-holstered physician's and surgeon's ex-amining chair for sale cheap. Modern and in good condition. Apply to JOHN M. SHUGERT. 56-45

fonte, Pa.

L EGAL NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that the following Account will be presented to the Court for confirmation on Wednes-day Dec. 6th, 1911, And unless exceptions be filed thereto, on or before the 2nd day of the Term, the same will be confirmed.

Oct. 29th 1911. 56-43-5t

56-44-3t

A. B. KIMPORT

CHARTER NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania on December 6, 1911, by John P. Kelley, Thomas F. Kelley and Logan M. Kelley under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations." approved April 29, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called "Bon Ton Supply Company," the character and object of which is the establishing and conduct-ing a general store and mercantile business, to object of which is the establishing and conduct-ing a general store and mercantile business, to wit: The purchase and sale of merchandise for personal, household or other use and ornament, and generally such articles of merchandise as are ordinarily dealt in by department stores at wholesale or retail, or both, and for these pur-poses to have and possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of the said Act of Assembly and its supplements. 56-44-3t

HARRY KELLER

WANTED

Produce.

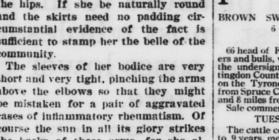

Chickens, Eggs, Ducks, Geese, Turkeys, Pigeons, Apples and Potatoes. Chestnuts, Shellbarks and Walnuts. Highest market prices paid. We accept small or car lots. Address

P. K. KISECKER, 344 N. Water St., PHILADELPHIA, Pa, 56-43-4t.

The Centre County Banking Company.

It was not long before the proprietor politely intimated that he would be very filthy

When the defendants were arraigned Judge Garman scored them severely and said crooked elections were in the same class as murder. The judge's charge undoubtedly did much to convict the three election officers. Other election officers are awaiting trial on similar charges.

Sick Man Burned to Death.

David G. Buck, seventy-two years old, was found burned to death at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith, on West Basin street, Norristown, Pa.

The aged man had been ill for some While the daughter went shopping Betsy" ("Gekke Betje"), up in the the house was left in charge of a five-year-old son of Mrs. Smith.

The police say that the boy set fire in some manner to the bed clothing. He then crawled out of a window and was found on the front porch by the fremen. The body of Buck was found on the floor of the bedroom.

Morse Removed to Army Hospital. Charles W. Morse, the New York banker, exchanged his bare cell at the federal prison in Atlanta, Ga., for a more commodious ward in the army hospital at Fort McPherson.

The change was ordered by Attorney General Wickersham, who recently made a special visit to Atlanta | tails in large quantities by beating it to investigate the condition of Mr Morse.

He made the trip in safety and appeared enthusiastic over his first glimpse of the outside world in two years.

Kindergarten Work Denied 4,000,000. The contrast between gifts of $53,-000,000 to the cause of higher educa- do best?" tion in this country this year and the fact that there are 4,000,000 children practice on your signature I'll sign in the country without the privileges of kindergarten training, was brought Tit-Bits. out in the report of Miss Bessie Locke, corresponding secretary of the National Kindergarten association at its annual meeting in New York.

Prison Term For Cummins.

William J. Cummins, the Nashville banker and the head of the suspended Carnegie Trust company of New York, convicted of the theft of $140,000 from a trust fund held by the Carnegie company, was sentenced to an indeterminable term in the state prison of four years and eight months to eight years and eight months.

John F. Dryden Dies.

Former United States Senator John F. Dryden died in Newark, N. J. He was operated on a week ago for gallsiones, and his condition has been sericus since. Thursday he developed pneumonia, and his condition rapidly became worse until the end came.

town hall tower, rattle off her cacophonous contradiction a minute or two earlier or later, as the case may be. Travel Magazine.

Queer Bread.

Along the Columbia river bread is made from a kind of moss that grows on a species of fir trees. After being dried it is sprinkled with water, allowed to ferment, rolled into balls as big as a man's head and baked in pits. with the help of hot stones. Travelers who have tasted it say that it is by no means unpalatable. The Californian Indians collect the pollen of catoff the plants and catching it on blankets. They make bread of it. But as a delicacy they prefer bread of grasshopper flour.

Ready For Work.

"Now." said the warden to the forger who had just arrived at the prison. "we'll set you to work. What can you

"Well, if you'll give me a week's your official papers for you."-London

Merely Suspected.

The Stranger-Is there a good criminal lawyer in your town? The Native -Waal, everybody thinks we've got one, but they ain't been able to prove it on him.--Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sympathetic.

Sufferer (to dentist's servant)-Not is | tried to open it. The chance blow from today? Dear, dear, I wanted to cone a hatchet by a man hunting firewood sult him badly. Servant-Well, let's hope you'll still have toothache tomorrow.-Fliegende Blatter.

Woman's Way.

She-Time will heal the wound I've made in your heart. He-Yes; lent you'll he mad at me if it does. -Ex change

Melancholy is the pleasure of being sad.-Hugo verdict of murder in the first degree, but the mildest verdict possible under the verdict, outside of actual acquittal, was given instead, and for this reason, and in view of the evidence, it was regarded by lawyers as really a victory for the defense. His defense was based mainly on the "unwritten law faces the punishment of a fine not exceeding $1000 or imprisonment not exceeding twelve years. C. Stuart Patterson, Jr., for the defense, moved for a new trial on the announcement of the verdict and will argue on the appeal in a few days.

Judge Bregy's charge was generally regarded as unfavorable to the prisoner, for he warned the jury against permitting their sympathies to sway duty to render a verdict in accordance with the law and the evidence, however painful that duty might be.

Find Man's Body In Wine Cask. The body of an unidentified Italian, who had been strangled, mutilated, then jammed into an old wine cask hardly big enough to hold him, was found alongside the Old Hook road, in Norwood, near Philadelphia.

For three days children had played with the cask, rolled it about and had Sheridan was at Brighton one sum revealed the body and opened up a mer when Fox, the manager of the murder mystery of the most baffling theater, took him all over the building kind.

Whether the man is the victim of and explained its beauties. "There, the vengeance of an Italian secret so- Mr. Sheridan," said Fox. who comciety or had been killed in a private bined twenty occupations without befend, detectives are uncertain. He ing clever in one, "I built and painted had been garroted by a loop of rope all these boxes, and I painted all these peing thrown around his neck and scenes." "Did you?" said Sheridan. then tightly twisted until breathing surveying them rapidly. "Well, I was stopped. Detectives think that should not, I am sure, have known you more than one man is implicated in were a Fox by your brush!"

Eccentric England. There are one or two place names in England which for eccentricity it would be hard to beat, even in Canada. Cornwall boasts of a village called Drunkards All and of a tithing called London Apprentice. The name of anthem, and told them that it was their other Cornish village - Grumbiasounds worse when spoken than it looks in print. The same may be said of the neighboring village of St. Eval, which is always pronounced "Sandeval." Bishop Philpotts asked a candidate for ordination where he came from. "St. Eval," was the reply. "Dear me," remarked the bishop; "I know that Cornishmen venerate St. Tudy, St. Cuby, St. Uny and other saints unknown to the calendar, but 1 was not aware they had canonized him!"-London Chronicle.

Sheridan's Setort.

Strength and Conservatism

are the banking qualities demanded by careful depositors. With forty years of banking experience we invite you to become a depositor, assuring you of every courtesy and attention.

We pay 3 per cent interest on savings and cheerfully give you any information at our command concerning investments you may desire to make.

The Centre County Banking Co. Bellefonte, Pa. 56-6

The First National Bank.

We want to remind you that a bank is a simple, plain necessity to every business man. Very early he sees how convenient it is to be able to pay his bills by check instead of by cash, and to borrow money when his business demands it. No other friend is as valuable a help to him in good or bad weather.

The First National Bank, Bellefonte, Penna. 56-46-1y