Democratic State Convention to Meet May 7th in Harrisburg.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met in Harrisburg yesterday, Thursday, and after a full and free interchange of opinion, fixed Tuesday, May 7th as the date, and Harrisburg as the place for the meeting of the next Democratic State Convention.

The WATCHMAN hopes that this action of the Committee will prove highly acceptable to all Democrats and that the convention it provides for may prove one of the largest, most thoroughly united and harmonious bodies of representative men that has ever met to consider the party's welfare or express the party's beliefs.

CLARENCE DARROW, the criminal lawyer who conducted the defense in the McNAMARA affair, attained a high altitude in public opinion for courage and ability. But unless he can clear himself of the charge of jury fixing, for which he is now under indictment, his fall will be the harder because the distance from top to bottom is so great.

Really it looks as if Colonel HARVEY, the accomplished editor of Harper's Weekly, enjoys nothing so much as a punch on the jaw. He appears to be delighted, moreover, with the form of Governor WILSON's punch.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

CAMPBELL.—George Boston Campbell, one of the leading and best known farmers of west Ferguson township, died at his home near Fairbrook on Sunday morning after only a few days illness with pneumonia.

In April, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Maria Potter, of Linden Hall, who died in November, 1910. Three children survive, namely: Isaac, Bertha and Agnes. He also leaves one brother, G. W. Campbell, of Harper Co., Kan., and two sisters, Mrs. Joshua Williams of Tyrone; and Mrs. Mollie Prophet, of Altoona. The funeral was held from his late home yesterday morning.

COLYER.—Following an illness of two weeks as the result of a stroke of apoplexy Mrs. Fannie Colyer died at the home of her daughter in Centre Hall, on Tuesday afternoon. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Luse and was born in Lebanon county, at her death being 78 years, 2 months and 17 days old.

YINGLING.—Levi Yingling, who for fifty years was a resident of Philipsburg, died on Wednesday of last week in Clearfield of diseases incident to his advanced age. He was born at Royersford, Blair county, and was 83 years, 1 month and 16 days old.

DIXON.—Mrs. Mary Dixon, widow of John Dixon, died at her home at Mines, Blair county, last Friday night, of general debility. Her maiden name was Mary Detwiler and she was 76 years, 11 months and five days old.

GLENN.—Mrs. Elizabeth Meek Glenn, widow of the late Ephriam Glenn, died at her home in State College on Monday, January 29th, after an illness of six weeks following a stroke of paralysis, during which time she was a constant though patient sufferer.

She was a daughter of Reuben H. Meek and Mary Ann Gray Meek and was born on the Meek homestead in Patton township in 1836, being the eldest of a family of six, four of whom survive as follows: Theresa Z., on the old homestead; P. Gray Meek, of Belleville; L. Olin, of Philadelphia, and Sara A., on the old homestead; Demster L. Meek, a brother, died less than a year ago.

Having been a daughter of parents whose lives breathed the perfume of christianity in everything they said and did her little girlhood found her at work in the vineyard of the Master. The conversion of childhood led to one of the saintliest lives we have ever known.

With the exception of a short residence at Howard she lived in Buffalo Run valley until shortly after the death of her husband when the farm home at Briary was broken up and she moved to State College to spend her declining years.

Yeager.—Mrs. Henry Yeager died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Harper, at Curtin, on Monday morning following a ten days illness with pneumonia. She had not been in good health for a year or more and when she was stricken with pneumonia she was not in a condition to withstand the ravages of the disease.

Deceased's maiden name was Miss Emma Sourbeck, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sourbeck, and she was born at Lewistown in 1844, hence was almost sixty-eight years of age. When she was but nine years old her parents moved to Belleville and the balance of her life was spent in this place until the Harpers moved to Curtin since which time she had made her home there.

MUSSEY.—Emanuel Mussey, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Aaronsburg, died early on Sunday morning of general debility, aged seventy-one years.

PEIGHTAL.—Mrs. Millard Peightal died quite suddenly at her home in Philipsburg, last Thursday afternoon, after only one week's illness with pleurisy. Her maiden name was Miss Nancy Howder and she was born at Jacksonville, this county, April 8th, 1849, making her age 62 years, 9 months and 17 days.

NORRIS.—Robert H. Norris, father of George Norris, of Belleville, died at his home at Shade Gap, Blair county, last Friday morning, aged almost four-score years. He was born at Williamsburg and all his life was spent in the county of his birth with the exception of the two years and six months spent with the Union army during the Civil war.

HARRIS.—Following a week's illness with pneumonia Miss Elizabeth Petrikin Harris, the oldest native and continuous resident of Belleville, died at the home of her brother, Mr. John P. Harris, on Linn street, at four o'clock last Saturday morning.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harris and was born in the stone house on south Spring street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown in 1823, hence at her death was past eighty-eight years of age. Her entire life was spent in Belleville and she therefore lived to see the town grow from a small village into what it is now.

From early girlhood she was a member of the Presbyterian church, in fact for some years past had been the oldest member of the Belleville church. Meek spirited and a consistent worshipper of the Word of God her goodness reflected upon all with whom she came in contact and her greatest happiness was in trying to help others to do right.

HALL.—Mrs. Elizabeth L. Hall, wife of David Hall, died at her home on upper Dix Run, in Union township, on Saturday last week. She had been ill with dropsy since last October.

STIVER.—John P. Stiver, one of the oldest and best known residents of Huston township, died at his home near Martha last Friday, of general debility, aged 86 years, 2 months and 15 days. He was one of the pioneer farmers of Bald Eagle valley, an occupation he followed all his life.

WEIR.—Richard C. Weir died at his home in Tyrone last Friday afternoon of general debility. He was born in Crawford county in January, 1827, hence was a few days over eighty-five years of age. When a young man he came to Centre county and located at Centre Hall.

ECKLEY.—Mrs. John R. Eckley died at ten o'clock last Saturday morning at her home on the Spicher farm near Earlstown, of pneumonia and dropsy, after an illness of some weeks. She was born in Bald Eagle valley on March 2nd, 1827, hence was almost forty years old.

TOOT.—Thomas Toot, an old soldier and for a number of years a resident of Belleville, died in Philadelphia on Sunday. He is survived by two sons, John and Peter, of Lock Haven, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Burns, of Red Bank. Burial was made in Philadelphia on Tuesday.

VAN TRIES.—Mrs. Ada Mary VanTries, wife of William N. VanTries, of Union Furnace, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ella W. Reamy, in Tyrone, last Thursday night.

Deceased was a daughter of Samuel and Nancy Musser and was born at Marengo, this county, January 4th, 1863, hence was 49 years and 21 days old. On December 3rd, 1891, she was united in marriage at Fairbrook to William N. VanTries.

BARRETT.—An unusually sad death on Tuesday morning was that of Mrs. Mary Blanche Barrett, the young wife of James Barrett, which occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson, on Logan street.
