Democratic Watchman.
Bellefonte,		a to de compos Serve de

P. GRAY MEEK. EDITOR

Independent:

board of ed

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .- Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates : Paid strictly in advance . . $1.00

Paid before expiration of year . 1.50 Paid after expiration of year 2.00

That Watterson Dinner.

Let us hope that the agitation of the WATTERSON-HARVEY episode will not lead to forgetfulness of the dinner which living at a distance, one of those trips the esteemed New York World owes to being to Honesdale. For three months Mr. WATTERSON. What happened to she was confined to her room and much Colonel HARVEY on the occasion of of the time to her bed. Toward the last his conference with Colonel WATTERSON she was an intense sufferer, septic poisoning having attacked one of her arms. She at the Manhattan club, New York, may knew on Sunday that the end was apbe of considerable importance to those proaching and alone with her life comdoughty warriors, but it is of little consepanion very calmly talked of all arrangequence to the general public. Col. HAR- ments she desired to have made and also VEY is new in Democratic harness and expressed great hopefulness of the future, way be disposed to friskiness. But saying that it had been a cherished part the elder Fishburn died the subject of old. During the few years of his resi-of her faith that she would meet and this notice succeeded him on the farm dence in Bellefonte he made many warm whether he settles down to work or kicks know the loved ones in the great and over the traces will not make a great mysterious beyond. deal of difference in the final analysis of the election returns. But the WATTER-Elizabeth Reese. On November 4th, 1869, son dinner is different.

Two years ago Col. WATTERSON bet the editor of the New York World that withherself engaged at teaching school. in a period not yet expired THEODORE ROOSEVELT would not be in sympathy her mother, who was a real Daughter of with President TAFT's ambition to be re- the American Revolution, departed a year elected President. The editor of the ago last October, aged 97 World, who imagines that he knows something of the political goose bone, acknowledges that he has lost the bet and is willing to pay the forfeit. What will be said and done on that festive occasion may be of the highest public value and the greatest political significance. For fought in Washington's army. that reason no trifling affair should be Mrs. Twitmyer, who became a mem. ber of the Methodist Episcopal church Harrisburg; G. K., of Amboy, Ill.; W. N. ard and Miss Eleanor, both at home. permitted to intervene to prevent or and adhered implicitly to its doctrines greatly postpone the event. The conditions are that Col. WATTER. | ture, possessing far more than the average SON shall select the guests, arrange the menu and name the time and place for the feast, while our New York contemporary shall pay the bills. We don't expect an invitation and have neither the time nor the digestion for such a spread. Central Normal school, Rebersburg, and Therefore our interest in the matter is for a number of years was a successful entirely unselfish and absolutely altruistteacher. She is survived, besides her ic. But we feel that under the mellowing influences of such a dinner as Col. department in the University of Pennsyl-WATTERSON would be likely to order vania; George E., who is at the head of ponderous thoughts would be developed the publicity department of the Peerless and important ideas expressed. These should not be too long delayed and we have that Cal Warman and and we hope that Col. WATTERSON'S seclusion in Leather Co. Three sisters and three the Everglades will not be unduly probrothers also survive. longed.

Hitchcock's False Claim.

wealth of floral tributes from loving The information comes from Washington that the surplus of receipts over ex-casket, many from school children and

TWITMYER .- The following particulars, FISHBURN .- It was quite a shock to the WESTON .- It was with sincere regret With the Churches of the additional to those given in the issue of people of this community when they re- that the people of Bellefonte heard of the WATCHMAN of Jan. 26th, relative to ceived the news on Sunday of the death the death of Theodore Weston, son of the death of Mrs. Geo. W. Twitmyer, so of J. H. Fishburn, at the home of his Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lynn Weston, well and favorably known throughout daughter, Mrs. R. G. Tate, in Indiana, which occurred at the Rhoads home on this county, we get from the Honesdale Pa. He left Bellefonte on January 8th in west Linn street last Friday night. He cation of Delaware and superintendent of the city schools of Wilmington, passed peacefully away at her ne in that city Tuesday, January 23rd. 1912, the result of a complication of maladies, including Bright's disease, all of which followed an attack of typhoid fever four years ago. Up to three months prior to the time of her death, though not at all well, she had been able to be about Sunday morning. her duties and occasionally visit friends years.

hence at his death he was 87 years and condition, however, did not become seriof age his parents moved to Centre matism developed and that hastened his neighborhood. county and settled on the farm two miles death.

Deceased was born at Filmore, Centre she was united in marriage at Lock Haven to the husband left to mourn his irreparable loss, at the time having been Deceased's father died 26 years ago and place. Since early manhood he has been the Y. M. C. A. Twitmyer's maternal grandfather, Eleazer

Evans, fought under Washington during stinted in his support the Revolution; her mother, Elizabeth Reese, at the time of her death was one of the five surviving daughters of Revolutionary war soldiers in Pennsylvania: her paternal grandfather, Christian Reese, was also a soldier of the Revolution and on the old homestead in Benner townand faith, was a woman of liberal culship; Mrs. R. G. Tate, of Indiana; Charles BARTLEY .- Following three weeks ill- great salvation everlasting. H. of Sharon, Ill.: John F., of Conneaut- ness with paralysis of the throat and acquirements, sound judgment, practical understanding and a capacity to see and take things in their right light. No hus- Indiana, and Paul, of Wilkinsburg. He a well known resident of Bellefonte, died band ever had a more devoted wife, nor sons a more affectionate and loving William, in Nebraska, and Mrs. H. K. o'clock on Sunday morning. Mrs. Twitmyer was educated at the Hoy, of near Bellefonte.

husband, by three sons, Dr. Edwin B. be held from the Reformed church at with his family to Centre county and en-Twitmyer, professor in the psychological 9:30 o'clock this (Friday) morning. Dr. gaged in farming near Zion, an occupa-eight day campaign, which sums up the

As a mark of respect, all of the city -Mrs. Laverna Myrtle Eckenroth, nee teers. He was a member of the Methoschools were closed during the holding of Hile, a highly esteemed and respected resident of Pleasant Gap, died after a who mourn his death. the planet of the and the planet of the pl the funeral services which were very largely attended. There was also a great brief illness on Thursday, February 1st. Fifty-five years ago he was united in Deceased was born January 30th, 1876, marriage to Miss Elizabeth Bingaman, of good health for a visit with his daughter came to Bellefonte with his parents a Joanna Curtin Reese, wife of George and family. He had never been sick a few years ago, when Mr. Weston became Twitmyer, president of the State day in all his life and the rigorous winter general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and weather did not deter him from making after completing his course of study at the visit. Shortly after his arrival in the Bellefonte Academy entered State Indiana, however, he caught a cold, asthma College in September, 1909. He attendand bronchitis developed and with a com- ed that institution until May, 1911, when and bronchitis developed and with a com-plication of heart trouble his condition he was compelled to quit on account of never man spake," I penned this writing became serious last week with the result ill health, believed to have been brought that his death occurred at 8:30 o'clock on on by over study. Since that time he had been under the care of the best physouth of Bellefonte which has been in Theodore Hall Weston was born in St. Centre Lodge, No. 153, I. O. O. F., of this leading spirits among the young men of people and that of the little children.

ville; Fred R., of Swissvale; Oscar, of other complications William R. Bartley,

He was a son of Henry and Elizabeth penditures in the Postoffice Department is purely fictitious. In other words it is board, the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. Grace Auxiliary and the faculty and the faculty of Mrs Elizabeth Hile who is control for the faculty of Mrs Elizab hence was aged 36 years and one day at hence was aged 36 years and one day at the time of her damise. She was the heiden as follower Howard of Belle. In February meeting on Monday, Feb-the follower her damise of the her damise charged that the Postmaster General has of the Wilmington high school daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Hile who is fonte; Irvin, of Chicago; James, Charles, Elmer, Mrs. Alice Thompson and Frank on methods of pastoral evangelism, was 1. O. O. F. hall last Saturday evening. Eckenroth was a consistent member of o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. Rev. W. H. Patterson. the Methodist Episcopal church of Pleas- S. H. Engler, of Pleasant Gap, and Rev. ant Gap for a number of years and was C. W. Winey, of Bellefonte, after which the remains were taken to Zion for interment in the cemetery at that place.

County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

FOREIGN MISSIONS AT OUR DOORS. Jesus answered and said unto them, the second ommandment is like unto the first, namely, his: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." "There is none other commandment greater than these." Mark 12: 31.

In an early morning meditation on these for the seriously thoughtful consideration of Christ's preachers of His Gospel, and that also of the professing followers in the membership of His church. In the John Henry Fishburn was born in sicians in Bellefonte and consulted special- holy office to which preachers are call-Dauphin county on January 19th, 1825, ists in other cities but without avail. His ed, it appears to me most unmistakably plain that our obligations, proclaiming the gospel "glad tidings" for the saving of 15 days old. When he was but eight years ous until last week when muscular rheu- the perishing, lie first of all, in the near the suburbs of our town. In these suburban villages there are not less than possession of the family ever since and Paul, Minn., on September 28th, 1890, one hundred and forty-five (145) families, the elder Fishburn died the subject of old. During the few years of his resi. are in attendance on the Lord's day at any of our city churches. In the nearest and all his life was spent in tilling the friends among both old and young, be- (17) Free Methodist families, and not one soil. As a farmer he was uniformly suc- cause of his upright, manly ways and his of them is ever seen present at church in county, being a daughter of Christian and cessful and as a citizen he was progres- everyday christian life. At college he the city, rendering it seemingly necessary sive and always willing to do his part for took an active interest in the various denomination. Is it saying too much that the success and upbuilding of the com- athletic sports and was on the staff of city churches are responsible and, in a munity in which he lived. He was the the college paper. He was a member of large measure, accountable for the christ oldest both in age and membership of the Presbyterian church and one of the tianization of their near neighborhoods, especially for the saving of the young

In accord with the Holy Scriptures, it a member of the Reformed church and Funeral services were held at the goes without saying that our church proa member of the Reformed church and Puneral services were need at the visions should be such that these poor families of hard-working men and women afternoon by Rev. George E. Hawes, as- living at our doors should be made to On May 5th, 1864, he was united in sisted by Dr. Schmidt and Revs. Yocum feel more than warmly welcome in the marriage to Miss Esther M. Klapp, of and Winey. The same evening the fam- church homes the city so fully provides. Mt. Holly Springs, who died on January ily took the remains to Lockport, N. Y., Accepting as I do the infamilie direc-tions given by inspiration of God in the 28th, 1910. Surviving him, however, are where interment was made on Monday Bible, I do with no misgiving, believe it the following children: Jacob P., of morning. In addition to his parents he to be possible so to provide for and so to Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Minnie Martin is survived by a brother and sister, Rich. conduct the services and worship of God in our churches that most of these nonattending families can be reached and retained to receive and forever enjoy the

MISSIONER

H. J. Schmidt, executive secretary for the committee of 100, in charge of the also leaves one brother and one sister, at his home on east Bishop street at 11:30 Men and Religion Forward Movement in Williamsport, has sent out 1,700 personal letters to superintendents and pastors in The remains were brought to Belle-fonte on Tuesday and taken to his late being 77 years, 11 months and 29 days ter, Tioga, Centre, Northumberland, well. home near Bellefonte. The funeral will old at death. Forty years ago he moved Bradford, and Lycoming counties, urging them to attend the sessions of the days Ambrose M. Schmidt will have charge of tion he followed until about twelve years several months of work of the general Ambrose M. Schmidt will have charge of the services and burial will be made in ago when he sold out and moved to Belle-forte to spend his declining years in re-Sunday, February 11th, and lasts until Kyle fonte to spend his declining years in re-tirement. During the Civil war he served The days for which these letters are sent MRS. LAVERNA MYRTLE ECKENROTH. two years as a member of Company F, out are Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb-Forty-ninth regiment Pennsylvania voluntirely for northern Central Pennsylvania

The Senior class of the High school realized

Elliott, a member of the Pennsylvania State Forestry Reservation commission, will deliver an illustrated lecture to the children of the public schools, in the High school building on Friday afternoon, February 16th, at three o'clock, and in the evening at 7.30 o'clock he will talk to the adults on the same subject. Mr. Elliott is a speaker of international reputation on this line of work, and he has studied the forestry conditions, not only in all parts of the United States, but in foreign countries as well, notably those in Germany, where nearly two hundred years ago the German people found themselves confronted by the same conditions in relation to their forests and their preservation as now so seriously menaces our own country, and who today have the most perfect system of practical forestry of any country in the world. To There are four union bible schools in any one interested in this great and important subject a rare treat is in store for them in being granted the opportuniknown as the Fishburn homestead. When hence was 21 years, 4 months and 5 days and not more than twenty-five of these ty of listening to Mr. Elliott. The lecture is absolutely free, and is given for the sole purpose of education along the lines of forestry and to arouse the public mind to the seriousness of the situation that confronts us, not only as a State, but as a nation, in the total destruction of our iorests and forest trees.

LECTURE ON FORESTRY .- Hon. S. B.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

The ground-hog is on his job.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn spent Saturday at State

College E. C. Musser is building a straw shed 40x46 feet to his barn. Miss Clair Borset spent Saturday with Mrs. Maude Fry. .

Claude Witmer was a grip victim last week. but is better now.

Rev. S. J. Pittinger is conducting a protracted meeting in the M. E. church.

Mrs. J. H. Williams was under the doctors care last week with bronchial trouble. Clayton Krebs was housed up with tonsilitis ast week but is on the mend now. Alvin Corl visited friends in Altoona over Sunday and was delighted with his trip. Mrs. Edward Sellers, who has been very sick the past month, is somewhat improved. The flurries Saturday night and Sunday pushed up the sleighing and piled the drifts fence high. George Mothersbaugh reports another boy, No.

G. Woods Miller loaded several car loads of 95 cent wheat at Fairbrook in the early part of the week.

Howard Wright, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with his mother here. She has been ill with heart

Kyle Osman is singing lullaby to a new baby this zero weather. Its a big boy and arrived on Sunday.

C. M. McCormick sleighed to Baileyville Monday and spent the day with his bosom friend.

mosts of a lot of poultry.

Cummings, the veteran drover of McAlevy's Fort, was here last week and made a lot of pur-been juggling figures on one hand and 1 holding up bills on the other for the pur-ARMSTRONG. - Mrs. Carrie D. Arm-pose of making an apparent surplus while strong, widow of the late Abram L. as a matter of fact the deficit is very Armstrong, died at the Bellefonte hosnearly equal to the average of recent pital at 4:30 o'clock last Thursday afteryears. This is a grave accusation but noon of spinal meningitis. She had not Postmaster General HITCHCOCK is capable been in good health for some time and of such things. He is essentially a gallery became seriously ill about ten days prior statesman, coveting applause under all to her death. Her condition becoming circumstances.

critical she was taken to the hospital on It is true that savings have been ef- Sunday, January 28th, and everything fected in some features of the service. possible was done but her death resulted For example the railway mail service men at the time above named.

mother.

have been compelled to work much harder Deceased was born at Pleasant Gap on during the last year than previously and June 21st. 1868, hence at her death was the result is a gain to the government at 43 years, 7 months and 10 days old. the expense of the hardest worked em- Practically her entire life was spent at ployees in the public service. But there Pleasant Gap and in Bellefonte with the day at 9:30 a. m., Rev. Engler, of the Lock Haven, on Saturday evening, after the railroads and other mail carrying when Mr. Armstrong had charge of the in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant corporations. They have been allowed hotel there. She was a member of the Gap. to continue their extortionate charges by Methodist church and a pious, christian fraudulent weights and every other conwoman. Her marriage to Abram L. ceivable device. Mr. HITCHCOCK has not Armstrong occurred at Centre Hall on thought it worth while to cut in that di-April 11th, 1886, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. E. Fischer. Mr. Arm-

Moreover the Postmaster General has taken care to neglect the only real source of saving to the government in the addren, namely: Curtin C., Mary H. and ministration of the Postoffice Depart-Irene M., all at home. ment. That is to say he has failed to Funeral services were held at her late urge the adoption of the parcels posts though he must know that such a policy Sunday afternoon by Rev. E. H. Yocum, would vastly increase the revenues of the of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. department without adding to the cost of the service perceptibly. But the adoption church. The remains were taken to of that policy would interfere with the Pleasant Gap for burial in the cemetery revenues of the express companies and at that place. HITCHCOCK is more concerned in conserving their interests than he is in saving money to the people of the country.

S. D.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

rection.

CENTRE COUNTY MINISTERIAL UNION-At a meeting of the Centre County Ministerium Union, held in Bellefonte January 29th, the officers of the Union were re-elected. The presiding officer stated the purpose of the meeting, and after a very general discussion the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolutions to be presented to the chairmen of the various political organizations of the county: We most earnestly and courteously request that you will use your influence in securing as the nominee of your party, for the Pennsylvania State Legislature, a man who will pledge himself favorable to or willing to vote for the Local Option bill that will be presented to the Pennsylvania Legislature by the Anti-Saloon League; and who will be opposed to all bills that may be introduced now lingering at the point of death in also a member of the church choir.

She leaves to survive her her husband Lloyd Eckenroth, and an infant daughter; her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hile, Mrs. Sade Hile, of Bellefonte; Lawrence A., of Nigh Bank and Otis and Harry, of Pleas-Nigh Bank and Otis and Harry, of Pleasant Gap. Funeral services were held at

HANNA .- Mrs. Margaret Rebecca Han- she lived until Tuesday of next week she na, relict of the late James Hanna, died would have been eighty-one years of age. at her home at Spring Mills on Monday Funeral services were held at the Stevenstrong died on September 7th, 1910, but of last week, after a lingering illness son home in Lock Haven at 10.30 o'clock surviving the deceased are three chil- with a complication of diseases, aged 77 on Tuesday morning after which the reyears, 4 months and 1 day. Deceased mains were conveyed to Aaronsburg for was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip burial in the Reformed church cemetery. Leitzel and her entire life was spent in home on Water street at one o'clock on Gregg township. She was twice married. BROWN .-- Elizabeth Brown, wife of

Her first husband was Samuel Harshbar- Henry Brown, died at her home in Millger and of this union three children sur- heim January 31st, of blood poisoning, at C. W. Winey, of the United Brethren uive, namely: Percival, of near Altoona; the age of 64 years, 6 months and 27 Mrs. C. E. Royer and Mrs. Meade Schlei- days. She was affiliated with the United fer, of Spring Mills. She had no chil- Evangelical church and a member of the

FOLEY .- Mrs. Maria Foley, widow of Mrs. William Pealer, of Spring Mills; services. Mrs. Brown was a woman havthe late Martin Foley, died in the hospital for the insane at Warren on Monday. She had been an inmate there a of Millheim. Rev. Fred W. Barry officiatnumber of years and her death was the result of a general breakdown. Her Friday morning, burial being made in of Snow Shoe, died at the Lock Haven maiden name was Maria Hayes and she the Georges valley cemetery. is survived by one daughter. Mrs. Anna Rider, of Coleville. When a resident of this section she was a member of St. MILLER .- Mrs. Sarah Margaret Miller, John's Catholic church and a woman of wife of William H. Miller, died very sudmany estimable qualities. The remains denly at her home one mile north of Tipwere brought to Bellefonte and the fun- ton shortly after six o'clock on Monday to the Senate the name of Harry C. Val- Fred, of Milesburg, and two sisters, Miss eral held from the Catholic church at ten morning, after an illness of some weeks entine to be postmaster of Bellefonte, as May, of Tyrone, and Annie, at home. He o'clock on Wednesday morning, burial with a complication of diseases. She successor to the late Samuel H. Wil- also leaves the following step-brothers being made in the Catholic cemetery.

home near Feidler on February 3rd at the age of 76 years, 2 months and 8 days. iam Miller who survives with the following brothers'and sisters: Mrs. Amanda Giles, will be in a few days. ington, D. C.; Mrs. William Bathurst, Bellefonte; Mrs. William Hockenberry, will be opposed to all bills that may be introduced in the Pennsylvania State Legislature in the form of anti-temperance legislation. The executive committee was instruct-ed to present these resolutions to the several county chairmen and also to in-terrogate each individual candidate for the State Legislature before the primary elections are held. Ridge cemetery, Altoona.

1

SHOEMAKER. - Mrs. Elizabeth Baer a prominent Reformed minister who died suffering for weeks with an incurable disease. Surviving her are three children revival season at Hunter's Run and two sisters, one of the latter being Mrs. Emma Hess, of Aaronsburg. Had ices at Blanchard at present.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD. - Jacob Shultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shultz, of Milesburg, was instantly killed company in Tyrone on Monday evening. Shultz went to Tyrone last November and dren to her second husband but leaves Woman's Missionary society. She was cut in two. The accident happened short-Sarah Geiss, Mrs. Mary M. Long and gelical church, Rev. Dice conducting the > hospital at noon Monday, after suffering for weeks with a complication of diseases. The remains were shipped to his late home in Snow Shoe from where the funeral was held on Wednesday.

-Last Saturday the President sent

Marriage Licenses. Charles Clarence Rhoads and Erma V

Brown, of Bellefonte. William M. Houtz, Harrisburg, and Edna C. Stephens, State College. C. Thomas Marcin, Williamsport, Emma M. Haskins, Philipsburg, er a Round Table conference. $60 by servi the same house where the daughter de-parted this life. It is claimed by those who are in a position to talk intelligently who are in a position to talk intelligently two sisters, Mrs. Catharine Flory, of Pine of Col. John A. Woodward, the ministers that there never existed a mother and Grove Mills, and Mrs. Mary Albright, of were delightfully entertained at dinner daughter who were more devoted to each other than the two in question. Mrs-Eckenroth was a consistent member of > Monday, February 12th, is Lincoln's birthday. The service on Sunday night, February 11th, in the Presbyterian church, will be in keeping with that occasion. The to every citizen.

AT BLANCHARD. Rev. M. J. Snyder is about to close an teresting series of services at Howard. evening when a jolly set of the youngsters w Rev. R. S. Taylor is entering upon a of Altoona, was guest of honor. Rev. W. H. Patterson is holding serv-coasting his shins at the stove the train left him for a twelve mile hike across the country, through the deep snow, and no dinner held in the town hall Friday evening, February in the yards of the Pennsylvania railroad 16th. A splendid program has been mapped out-The entertainment will be followed with a hanquet.

> ing to Ohio where he will visit his daughter and other relatives before the busy season of Spring comes on.

Walker home on the Branch was all aglow when friends and neighbors gathered to greet the happy young couple.

E. C. Musser spent Sunday with his son Paul and wife, at the Lock Haven hospital, where the latter was taken for a surgical operation. After to Tyrone last November. In addition to a careful examination it was decided to postpone his parents he is survived by one brother. the operation for the present, so the young lady will be brought home shortly to take medical treatment.

> The district teachers institute was held in the town hall last Saturday and was well attended. Practical instructors talked along the line of teaching, among them being Prof. M. I. Mairs, ouse and Prof. Heberling, all of Prof. Batto State College. The teachers who gave recitations were Misses Florence Kepler, Nannie Heberling, Margaret Goheen and Viola Burwell,

The quiet village of Stormstown came near having a repetition of fifty years ago. last Friday, when the M. E. parsonage was on fire. The oil stove in an upper room went wrong. Mrs Strain, smelling smoke, hurried to the room to find it all ablaze and her baby boy in the room. She succeeded in getting the child to safe quarters then smothered the flames with blankets and

Mrs. Frank Fishburn visited friends in and out of town last week, as they are going to farming in the spring when visiting will be something of the past.

The venerable Thomas Kustaborder, the oldest The pastor has chosen for his topic, man at State College, has been seriously ill the "Why We Love Lincoln." He will not past week with an attack of vertigo, but is now man at State College, has been seriously ill the John E. Reed is the proud owner of a Jersey cow that gave birth to twin calves last week Both sukey and calves are doing well and he offers them for sale.

Mrs. Harry Walker gave a social last Tuesday resent and had a good time. Mrs. Zelda Rupley,

Last Tuesday morning while Harry Ebbs was

The High school graduation exercises will be secured a position as brakeman with the Sunday visitors at the Mary Homan home, and company, and in the three months in were stormstaid until Monday afternoon, when which he had been employed there had the travel through fields let them safe home been regarded as unusually careful. Monday night he was riding a box car and in John F. Kimport has launched out as a tun fieldged lumberman. John Gingerich is the sawyer John F. Kimport has launched out as a full passing through the Tyrone yards he and expects to cut and market over 100,000 feet of missed his footing in some way and fell lumber and several hundred cords of extract wood

Andy Curtin Bowersox, of Miffinburg, visited ly after ten o'clock and was witnessed by his brother Franklin here last week, before go-

A reception was given Kaipit tranch with and sent them to his parents home in bride upon their return from their wed-ding trip, last Wednesday evening. The A. S-several other railroaders. The remains James N. Leitzel, of Derr; Mrs. Susan Fishburn, of McGrand, and D. B. Leitzel, of Millheim Ray Fred W Revealed to the state of the stat

Jacob Shultz was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes Shultz and was born at Milesburg on April 4th, 1893, hence was 18 years, 10 months and 1 day old. All his life was spent in Milesburg until going was born at Huntingdon Furnace and was liams. The recommendation meets with and sisters: Harry Fike and John Shultz, forty-seven years of age. Eleven years universal approval. Up until yesterday of Milesburg; Mrs. Henry Casper, Belle-WETZEL -Harriet Wetzel died at her ago she was united in marriage to Will- the appointment had not been confirmed fonte; Mrs. Blanche Henderson, Wash-Bellefonte; Mrs. William Hockenberry, Tyrone; Mrs. Harry Brant and Mrs. Samuel Steer, of Patton. The funeral was held from his parents home in Milesburg on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Milesburg cemetery.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.