Miss Lizzie Weaver returned to her home at her friend, Mrs. D. F. Poorman.

Merrill Poorman entertained twenty-one of his ing at his home in this place. The crowd was chaperoned by Edna McCulley and Rebecca Haupt and a pleasant evening was spent. A few friends from here were also present. After spending the evening in social games and music, lunch was served and all returned home wishing for many more such evenings.

Submarine Lost With Entire Crew. The British submarine "A 3" sank after a collision with the British torpedo gunboat Hazard, off the eastern end of the Isle of Wight. The submarine's crew of fourteen, ten sailors and four officers, perished. Besides the regular crew of ten men and a lieutenant who were on board the "A 3," three other lieutenants were on the vessel going through a course of instruction.

Torpedo practice had been in progress for some time and the submarine "A 3" was partially submerged when she came into collision with the Hazard. The gunboat was steaming at a fairly high rate of speed, and when she struck the submarine her bows cut a big rent in the little vessel's side. As the "A-3" settled down, which she did in a few moments, and then disappeared, air and gas bubbles appearing of the last named company, now the Hazard that she was filling with water, and that the fate of the four officers and ten men of her crew was sealed. of the men should succeed in escaping, but none came to the surface.

Uncover Crusaders' Church. The London, Eng., Pall Mall, says that excavations at Nazareth, in Palestine, have revealed the eleventh cen tury crusaders' church, with wonderful mosaics, stone doors, utensils, exquisite ornaments.

Another important discovery is said to be the site of the carpenter shop of Joseph, the father of Jesus.

The church being uncovered was built by the first crusaders, according to learned researches, and the Fran ciscan order now intends to erect a temple there.
