By His Own Confession.

When Joseph F. Johnson arrived in Washington as a member of the United States senate from the glorious and gallant State of Alabama, says The Popular Magazine, Senator Burrows, of Michigan, took a great fancy to him. One day in the cloak-room Burrows turned to another senator and said:

"DuPont, stand up. I want you to meet Johnston, of Alabama."

The man from Delaware rose to his leet.

"DuPont," said Johnston, taking the proffered hand, "I believe you're the infernai Vankee who shot me at Cedar Creek.'

"Well, well!" commented the Delaware senator, somewhat puzzled. "What makes you think so?"

"I see by the two pages of your biography in the Congressional Directory," explained Johnston. "that you commanded practically every regiment in the Union Army during the Civil war. Some infernal Yankee shot me, and I think it was you."
